(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, October 10, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Salop, beg leave, respectfully to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these realms, and to assure your Majesty of our sincere and devoted attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

Convinced as we are that the just rights and security of the Crown, as well as the liberties and happiness of the people, depend entirely, under Divine Providence, on the due maintenance of our excellent Constitution in Church and State, we have felt highly gratified to find these sentiments in concurrence with your Majesty's first public expressions of opinion; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty may be blessed with a long and prosperous reign, to reap the fruits of such patriotic declaration, to reflect, by your princely virtues, increased lustre on the Diadem of your Royal Predecessors, and to secure, by the wisdom of your counsels, the continued happiness and lasting prosperity of a free, united, and mighty empire.

Thos. Heny. Hope, Sheriff of Shropshire,
At the request and on behalf of the Inhabitants of the county of Salop, assembled at a meeting duly convened and held the 22d day of September 1837.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of your ancient City of Rochester, in Council assembled, humbly offer to your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence on the heavy affliction sustained by your Majesty, in common with the whole nation, by the decease of our late honoured and lamented Sovereign; we, at the same time, humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Desirous at all times to testify our loyalty to our Sovereign, and our veneration for the established Constitution of this country in Church and State, we feel ourselves to be now peculiarly called upon to avow our attachment to those principles which hitherto have maintained our national glory, and which cannot be subverted without the greatest danger to those Institutions, and that order of things which form that glory, and have gained for this country the envy and admiration of the civilized world.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty's reign may, and the subject of our unshaken confidence that it will, be marked by an uniform and fostering protection of our Institutions, ecclesiastical and civil, against the restless attacks of innovators, who would seek not merely the removal of those defects which the lapse of time and changes in the social body create in all human institutions, but the removal of
