NOTICE TO MARINERS.
INNISHOWEN LIGHT-HOUSES.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, August 24, 1837.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that two light-houses have been built on Donagree

Point, from which lights will be exhibited on the evening of the 1st of December 1837, and which will thenceforth be lighted from sun-set to sun-rise.

Specification given of the Position and Appearance of the Towers, by Mr. Halpin, Inspector of the Light-houses of Ireland.

The two light-house towers, erected on the northern side of the entrance to Lough Foyle, bear from each other east and west, distant 400 feet—kept in line they lead clear of the Tuns Bank.

The lights will be fixed bright lights, open seaward, from N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. to W. by S.

The eastern tower, in lat. $55^{\circ} 13' 46''$ N. and long. $6^{\circ} 56'$ W. bears by compass (var. $28^{\circ} 20'$ W.) from Bengore Head, E. by S. distant 27 sea miles; from North Buoy of Tuns Bank, E. S. E. distant $\frac{1}{4}$ sea mile; from south west end of Tuns Bank, S. W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 2 sea miles; from Tower on Magilligan Point, S. W. by W. distant $2\frac{1}{4}$ sea miles; from north point of McKenny's Bank, W. S. W. distant $2\frac{1}{2}$ sea miles.

The towers are circular, coloured white; the lanterns elevated 73 feet over mean level of the sea, and, in clear weather, may be seen at the distance of 13 miles.

By order,

H. Vereker, Secretary.

PORT OF LIVERPOOL.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Dock-Office, Liverpool, October 5, 1837.

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks and Harbour do hereby give notice, that, for the better guidance of the mariner into and out of this port, the following alterations will be made in the Formby, Leasowe, and Bidston Lights, and exhibited on and after the evening of Saturday the 11th of November next.

Formby Light.—This light will be distinguished as a fixed red light; and, in order to give a clearer berth to the north western and south eastern elbows of the banks of the New Channel, which have changed their positions, it is necessary, when inward bound from the westward, to take the bar of that channel with the Red Shore Light, open a sail's breadth to the southward of the Formby Floating Light, and, after crossing the bar, which the soundings will show, open them as much to the northward, and thus nearing the Floating Light, instead of taking up and preserving those lights in one.

This alteration in the character of the Formby Shore Light will also afford a distinction for identifying it when approaching from the northward.

Leasowe Light.—This light will be so masked as to give a defined light in the Rock Channel, within certain limits, and will suddenly disappear, bearing S. W. to vessels inward bound, when off West Wharf Buoy, R. 3, red, and suddenly appear, when outward bound.

Bidston Light.—This light will also be masked, so as to give a defined light in the Rock Channel, within certain limits, and to vessels inward bound will suddenly disappear on the bearing off S. S. W. when abreast of East Wharf Buoy, R. 4, red, and suddenly appear when outward bound.

These lines of masking and unmasking intersect that spot in the Crosby Channel, where the course alters, so that, in running up from the Formby Floating Light, the mariner must haul up from S. S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. to S. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., on losing Bidston and Leasowe Lights, and, on running down, keep away from N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to N. N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., on their opening out.

All bearings by compass.

By order of the Committee,

John Denham, Capt. R. N. Marine Surveyor.

WILLIAM SENIOR'S AFFAIRS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Senior, of Leeds, in the county of York, Leather-Cutter and Dealer in Grindery, did by an indenture, bearing date the 23d day of September 1837, convey and assure all his stock in trade, personal estate and effects whatsoever unto Samuel Weston, Currier, Joseph Mellanby, Currier, and William Fieldhouse, Ironmonger, all of Leeds aforesaid, for the benefit of the creditors of the said William Senior; and that the said indenture was executed by the said William Senior, Samuel Weston, Joseph Mellanby, and William Fieldhouse, on the day on which the same bears date; and that the whole of such executions, respectively, were made in the presence of, and attested by, William Middleton, of Leeds aforesaid, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby given, that the said indenture now lies at the office of the said William Middleton, for the signatures of the creditors of the said William Senior, and such of them as shall neglect to execute the same, before the 1st day of December next, will be excluded from all benefit arising therefrom.

THIS is to give notice, that by certain indentures of lease, release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 27th and 28th days of September 1837, Martin Marshall, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Cut-Nail-Manufacturer, hath conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever to Samuel Peace, of Sheffield aforesaid, File-Manufacturer, George Wolstenholme, of Sheffield aforesaid, Merchant and Manufacturer, and John Smith, of Sheffield aforesaid, Accountant, as trustees, upon trust, for the benefit of the creditors of him the said Martin Marshall; and that the said indentures were respectively duly executed by the said Martin Marshall on the 29th day of September 1837, and the execution thereof by him was witnessed by James Wilson, of Sheffield aforesaid, Solicitor, and Hugh Hardy the younger, of the same place, his Clerk, and the same deeds were also respectively duly executed by the said Samuel Peace, George Wolstenholme, and John Smith, the said trustees, on the 2d day of October 1837, and witnessed by the said James Wilson and Joseph Ellis, of Sheffield aforesaid, his Clerk.

LEASEHOLD PROPERTY.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the assignees of Joseph Garner, a bankrupt, by Thomas Rogers, at the house of Mrs. Bull, White Hart Inn, Digbeth, Birmingham, on Tuesday the 24th day of October 1837, at five o'clock in the afternoon, under such conditions as will be then produced;

All that newly erected messuage or dwelling-house, with the offices, garden, and other appurtenances thereto belonging, and the piece of ground forming the site thereof, situate and being in the hamlet of Bordesley, in the parish of Aston, and county of Warwick, being the second of the eleven houses, called Greenway-terrace, as leading from Birmingham to Coventry, and the site thereof and ground thereto belonging, with the use of the carriage-drive, and all other the premises thereto belonging, now in the occupation of Mr. Joseph Bull.

The above premises are demised for a term (of which nearly eighty seven years are unexpired), at the yearly rent of £5 12s. 10d, and is a delightful residence in the immediate neighbourhood of numerous villas, recently erected, with frontage to the Birmingham and Coventry turnpike-road, and all the advantages of carriage conveyances.

To view the premises apply to Mr. Bull, the tenant; and for further particulars to Mr. William Chapman, Accountant, Moor-street, Birmingham; to the Auctioneer, or Mr. William Wilnot, Solicitor, both of Coventry.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Neville, of East Bergholt, in the county of Suffolk, Blacksmith, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 11th day of November next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Messrs. Philbrick and Savile, Solicitors, Head-street, Colchester, in the county of Essex, to receive an offer of composition, to be then made by the said George Neville or his friends.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Radenhurst, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Innkeeper, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 6th day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Nelson Hotel, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration all matters in difference between the said assignees and a person, to be named at the said meeting, relative to certain joint purchases made by the said bankrupt and such person, prior to the said bankruptcy; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Richard Inman, of Saint James's-street, in Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Grocer, Provision Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Town-hall, in Brightelmston aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees putting up for sale, by public auction, in lots, under the direction of Abraham Johnson Lampell, one of the assignees of the said bankrupt, the entirety of certain freehold and leasehold property (the particulars whereof will be specified at the said meeting) in which the bankrupt and Thomas Atkins Inman, one of the assignees of the said bankrupt, were, at the time of the bankruptcy, interested, in equal moieties, as tenants in common, or only the bankrupt's moiety thereof, as the Honourable the Judges of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy may think proper to order and direct; also to assent to or dissent from the said Thomas Atkins Inman being at liberty, at such sale, to bid for and become the purchaser of all or any part of the said property, or of the said bankrupt's moiety thereof, whichever may be put up for sale, at the highest bidding, subject to a reserved bidding, to be fixed on each lot, by or under the direction of the said Abraham Johnson Lamprell; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert M'Laren, of Fontenoy-street, in Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Rectifier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 8th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. William Stockley, Solicitor, in Drury-lane, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from a proposal which has been made to the said assignees by Mr. Bald, the late partner of the bankrupt, to adjust and compromise a certain claim which has been made by the said Mr. Bald on part of the bankrupt's estate, the particulars of which will be specified at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees entering into any arbitration or reference with respect to such claim, or any claim to be made by any other person or persons whomsoever relative to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with Mr. Samuel Barker, or any other debtors of the bankrupt's estate, and to their allowing time for payment, as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the bankrupt's estate, or to release or abandon such parts of the said bankrupt's estate as are subject to any mortgage or charge, on such terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Scott, of Constantine, in the county of Cornwall, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 7th day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, at Pearce's Hotel, Penzance, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots, parcels, ways, and manner, and upon such terms and conditions, as he shall think best, the freehold and leasehold estates, and parts and shares of freehold and leasehold estates, in or to which the said bankrupt, or any person or persons in trust for him at the time he became bankrupt, had any estate, right, title, or interest, either in possession or reversion, or otherwise howsoever, and for selling, surrendering, or otherwise disposing of a policy of assurance effected in the year 1804, with the Equitable Life Assurance Company, London, upon the life of the said Charles Scott, with the accumulations thereon, subject to certain liens and equities upon or affecting the said policy, and in particular to an annuity to the wife of the said bankrupt to which she is entitled, under the settlement made upon her marriage with him, to commence from the decease of the said bankrupt, in the event of her surviving him, and to be thenceforth payable to her during her natural life, and for which the said policy now stands as a security with the surviving trustee of the same settlement, and joining any mortgagee or mortgagees, trustee or trustees, in the sale of the said estates, and parts or shares of estates, and the sale, surrender, or other disposition of the said policy of assurance, subject as aforesaid; and to authorise and empower the said assignee to put a reserved bidding on all or any part of the said estates, and policy, if he shall think fit; and generally to authorise the said assignee to compound with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and to refer any dispute or difference whatsoever touching such estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto, to arbitration, in such manner as he shall deem advisable; and to commence and prosecute, revive, continue, or defend any action at law, or suit in equity, or other proceedings, and to adopt such means for the recovery and protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and to take such measures in the management and final adjustment of the affairs of the said bankrupt, as to the said assignee, in his discretion, shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from confirming the acts, receipts, and payments of the said assignee under the said commission; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 16th day of October 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by WILLIAM ALLEN, of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, Innkeeper, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Francis Giles, of Fort-street, Spital-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Silk-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 28th day of October instant, at half past ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, and on the 28th day of November next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.
