NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, commons, commonable lands, and waste grounds, in the parish of Swavesey, in the county of Cambridge.—

Randall and Son.

Cambridge, October 14th, 1837.

Southampton Royal Pier.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, and enlarge the power and provisions of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for erecting and maintaining a pier and other works for the more conveniently landing and embarking passengers in the port of Southampton," and for authorizing the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act, to borrow money for the repairs of the said pier and works.—Dated this 27th day of September 1837.

By order of the Commissioners,

Tho. Ridding, Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to inclose, divide, and allot several pastures, called respectively, Kearton Pasture, Low Row Pasture, Little Rowleth or Lodge Green Pasture, Gunnerside Pasture, and Ivelett Pasture, the Moor or Common, called Reeth Low Moor, the pasture and common, called Stonesdale; also to inclose and divide, or otherwise to regulate the stinting, depasturing, or enjoyment of the wastes and commons called Reeth High Moor, Mellbecks Common, Ravenseat Moor, Satron Moor, and Crackpot Moor, some or all of them; and all other the moors, commons, and wastes of and within the manors of Healaugh Old Land, and Healaugh New Land, in the parish of Grinton, in the north riding of the county of York.—Dated this 3d of October 1837.
Ottiwell Tomlin, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for constructing and maintaining a bridge over the river Wye, at or near a certain place called Boughrood Ferry, in the parish of Llyswen, in the county of Brecon, to the opposite shore, in the parish of Boughrood, in the county of Radnor, together with all necessary or convenient works, roads, avenues, and approaches thereto, situate in the said several parishes of Llyswen, in the county of Brecon, and Boughrood, in the county of Radnor; duplicate plans and sections whereof, together with a book of reference, will be respectively deposited for public inspection, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Brecon situate at Brecon, and at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Radnor, situate at Presteigne, on or before the 30th day of November next; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the said parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the 31st day of December next; and a copy of which plans, sections, and books of reference will also be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill, to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect of the said bridge, roads, avenues, and approaches.—Dated this 16th day of October 1837.

Jones, Powell, and Ives, Solicitors, Brecon.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for inclosing, dividing, and allotting the commons, commonable lands, common fields, meadows, pastures, and waste lands, within the parish of Quedgley, in the county of Gloucester; and it is further intended to take power, by the said Act, to exonerate from tythes the said lands and grounds. Dated October 26, 1837.

Thomas Bailey, Solicitor, Gloucester.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing all the open and common lands and fields, and commonable lands and waste grounds in the parishes of Manewden and Stanstead Mountfitchet, in the county of Essex; and that such Act shall contain all necessary powers for enabling the Commissioners, therein to be named, to raise, by rates on the respective proprietors of the said lands and grounds, or by such other means as shall be deemed expedient, sufficient moneys to defray the expences of such application and intended inclosure.—Dated this 24th day of October 1837.

Western and Son, 7, Great James-street, Bedford-row.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act for erecting and making a Pier for the landing and embarking of passengers and goods, and for making all necessary embankments in the River Thames, and on the sides thereof, for the construction of the said pier, in the parish of Woolwich, in the county of Kent, and otherwise improving the town of Woolwich; and it is intended that the said
