(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, November 3, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Community, and Citizens of Londonderry, in Common Council assembled, humbly ask permission to lay before your Majesty, our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious event of your Majesty's Ascending the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

The sixth in descent of an illustrious race of Monarchs, who were called to the Government of this mighty empire to be the guardians of our glorious constitution, we feel already confident, from your Majesty's own gracious assurance, that, under your Royal countenance and protection, the reformed religion, in defence of which our forefathers maintained an arduous and successful struggle, will be preserved inviolate; and all classes of your Majesty's subjects secured in the enjoyment of the blessings of civil and religious liberty.

And we humbly trust, and fervently pray, that in the devoted attachment and willing obedience of all your Majesty's subjects, and which, on behalf of this ancient and loyal city, we most heartily tender, your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, happy in making your exalted station the means of advancing the honour and glory of Almighty God, and the welfare and happiness of the British empire and all its inhabitants.

In testimony whereof we have caused the seal of said city to be hereunto affixed, this 2d day of September 1837.

Thomas P. Kennedy, Mayor of Londonderry.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitant Householdors of the town and parish of Woolwich, in the county of Kent, in Vestry assembled, approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of fidelity and attachment.

The demise of His late Majesty, your Royal Uncle, excited in our minds, in common with our fellow subjects throughout this great empire, sentiments of the deepest regret. But that regret is softened by the reflection, that, during his short and glorious reign, His Majesty's energies were directed to, and exerted for, the welfare and happiness of his subjects, especially by placing their liberties on a firmer and more permanent basis, which has endeared his memory in the affectionate recollections of a grateful people.

Under ordinary circumstances, the loss of a Monarch thus beloved might have been thought irreparable; but your happy Accession, most gracious Sovereign, to the Throne of your Forefathers, dissipates our fears, as we feel confident that, under the blessing of Divine Providence, on the fostering care and wise instructions of your illustrious Mother, your Majesty's Royal mind has been so enlightened and matured, as to afford the surest pledge that your Majesty's Government will ever be in accordance with the spirit of the age, and the intellectual necessities of the times.

We rejoice in, and humbly thank your Majesty for, the noble and endearing sentiments expressed in your Majesty's first address to your Privy Council: "that it will be your unceasing study to maintain the Reformed Religion as by law established, and to secure, at the same time, to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty."

We, your Majesty's faithful subjects, have the strongest attachment for the British Constitution, and are fully sensible that it is calculated to promote the best interests of all classes of your Majesty's subjects; and we cherish the earnest hope, that it will be your Majesty's care and study, under the protecting hand of Divine Providence, to uphold, support, and maintain the same; and should any part of it, through lapse of time, become defective, or require modification, we have the greatest confidence that your Majesty will (to use the language of a late eminent statesman) "repair it where decayed; amend it where defective, prop it where it needs support, so as to adapt it to the purposes of the times in which we live," as our ancestors have done from time to time; that we may thus transmit it to posterity, not only unimpaired, but amended and improved.

That your Majesty's reign may be of long duration, that it may be signalized by its patriotic spirit, pacific principles, and beneficial reforms, is the devout wish, and fervent aspiration, of your Majesty's affectionate, dutiful, and loyal subjects, the Inhabitant Householders of the town and parish of Woolwich.

In behalf of the Inhabitant Householders of Woolwich, in vestry assembled, Wm. Greenlaw, Rector, and Chairman.

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, embrace the opportunity afforded us, by a general visitation of the diocese, of offering to your Majesty our respectful condolences on the death of our late revered and lamented Sovereign, and our dutiful congratulations on your Majesty's succession to the Crown of this United Kingdom.

We are sensible that a weight of cares and responsibility, formidable even to advanced years and long experience, has been laid upon your Majesty, almost in the first moment when you could exercise your Royal functions in your own person: but we humbly trust that that Almighty Being by whom Kings reign, and who has called you in early life to the Throne of your Ancestors, will support and strengthen you under this burden, and render the faithful discharge of your public duties a source of peace and satisfaction to your Royal mind.

When your Majesty and your illustrious Mother visited, a few years since, this part of the Principality of Wales, we had the happiness of witnessing the dawn of those talents and virtues which are destined, we confidently persuade ourselves, to be the ornament and stability of the times on which God's providence has cast us. Your Majesty's and your Royal Parent's kindness and condescension to those who approached you, and your munificent contributions to all purposes of public and private charity during your residence among us, will never be effaced from our memories.

That your Majesty may tread in the steps of your illustrious predecessors of the House of Hanover, and of those Protestant Queens whose names shed a ray of lustre over the pages of our national history: that you may, through God's blessing and grace, be the faithful guardian of our laws and institutions, and the nursing Mother of our reformed and Apostolical Church; and that after you have long reigned happily for yourself, and wisely and gloriously for your country, you may, in God's good time, exchange an earthly for a Heavenly crown, will be the constant and fervent prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects.

C. Bangor.

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Liberty of Havering-atte-Bower, in the County of Essex, publicly assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, residing in this ancient liberty, humbly request leave to present to your Majesty our congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We hail with joy the Accession of a Princess graced with so many virtues and endowments, and so pre-eminently qualified to uphold the dignity and honour of the Crown, and to promote the welfare, happiness, and freedom of the people; and we feel deeply impressed with the gracious declaration of your Majesty, "that the happiness of the people, and the security of their civil and religious rights, will be the unceasing object of your Majesty's care."

Encouraged by a declaration so patriotic, we humbly pray your Majesty will be graciously pleased to improve the Charter of this Liberty, granted and amended, from time to time, by your Majesty's Royal Predecessors.

May the Almighty ruler of rulers bless your Majesty; may your reign, so auspiciously begun, be long and prosperous; may every happiness attend your Majesty in your domestic and public life.

May your Majesty have wise and honest Counsellors; and may future historians point to the reign of your Majesty as one of the brightest periods in the annals of this great and free country.

Signed, at the request and in the name of the Magistrates, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the liberty of Havering-atte-Bower, assembled at a meeting convened by the High Steward, at the Town Hall, on Saturday the 7th of October 1837. Thomas Mashiter, H. S.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Synod of Aberdeen.

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, desire, on this the first occasion of our assembling together since your Accession to the Throne of your Fathers, respectfully to approach your Royal Person, to lay at the foot of the Throne the expressions of our warm attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Participating, as we did, in that unaffected sorrow which came on the people of these lands, by the demise of our late beloved Monarch, King William, we yet hail it as a signal proof of the continued favour of Almighty God, that in His providence He has called to fill the Throne the descendant of a race of Monarchs, under whose beneficent and enlightened sway Great Britain and Ireland have risen to a glorious pre-eminence among the nations of the world. In your Majesty's early and gracious declaration, of your unalterable resolution to maintain the Church of Scotland, as by law established, in all her rights and privileges, we gratefully recognise the earnest of that firm attachment to the Protestant faith, by which the Sovereigns of the illustrious House of Brunswick have been uniformly distinguished, and through which we humbly, but firmly, believe a blessing from the King of Kings has rested on their government.

As office-bearers of the Church of Scotland, we shall earnestly seek to advance the interests of pure and undefiled religion; that your Majesty's Throne may be upheld in righteousness, and we shall hold it our happiness and duty to foster, in the hearts of our people, attachment to our mixed form of Monarchical government, by King, Lords, and Commons, under which a greater share of individual and national prosperity and liberty has been enjoyed by all ranks, than was ever vouchsafed to any other kingdom.

And our prayers, honoured Sovereign, shall ascend before the Throne of Grace, day by day, continually, that the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may enrich you with a wise and understanding heart; that He may, by His Holy Spirit, grant you the rich consolations of those who are His honoured ministers for good, and that after a long, a glorious, and happy reign on earth, He may adorn you with an imperishable, and unfading Crown, in His everlasting kingdom.

Signed, in name, presence, and by appointment of the Synod of Aberdeen, at Aberdeen, this 11th day of October 1837, by James Bryce, Moderator.

Spalding, 21st October 1837.

Church Commissioners' Office,
October 23, 1837.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a district to St. Thomas's Chapel, in the hamlet of Brentwood, in the parish of South Weald, in the county of Essex, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-palace, the 21st day of August 1837, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel; but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that, when the last census was taken, the parish of South Weald, in the county of Essex, and diocese of London, contained a population of 2,825 persons; that besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 50 persons, there is one chapel, in the said parish, called St. Thomas's Chapel, situate in the hamlet of Brentwood, which affords accommodation to 82 persons, including 372 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to Her Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called Saint Thomas's Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that, such district should be named the Chapelry of Brentwood, and should consist of that portion of the parish of South Weald comprised within the ancient limits of the hamlet of Brentwood, as the same is more particularly delineated in the map annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured yellow:

That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fee legally and customarily demandable for each marriage, the fee of one shilling for each churching, and the fee of two shillings and sixpence for the burial of each paritioner, and five shillings for the burial of each non-parishioner, in the said chapel, or the yard thereof, should be received by, and belong to, the Minister of the said chapel; and that the excess of all fees and gratuities received on account of such offices, respectively, exceeding the amount above stated, and also all fees paid on account of any vault, tombstone, cenotaph, tablet, or memorial hatchment to be erected in the said chapel or chapel yard, or for opening any vault, or adding any inscription, shall be divided between the Minister of the said chapel and the Vicar of the said parish, in the following proportions, that is to say: three-fifths thereof to the Minister of the said chapel, and two-fifths to the Vicar of the said parish:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that Her Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Her royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to Her Majesty should seem meet:

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
