your Majesty's Government will ever be in accordnnce with the spirit of the age, and the intellectual necessities of the times.

We rejoice in, and humbly thank your Majesty for, the noble and endearing sentiments expressed in your Majesty's first address to your Privy Council: "that it will be your unceasing study to maintain the Reformed Religion as by law established, and to secure, at the same time, to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty."

We, your Majesty's faithful subjects, have the strongest attachment for the British Constitution, and are fully sensible that it is calculated to promote the best interests of all classes of your Majesty's subjects; and we cherish the earnest hope, that it will be your Majesty's care and study, under the protecting hand of Divine Providence, to uphold, support, and maintain the same; and should any part of it, through lapse of time, become defective, or require modification, we have the greatest confidence that your Majesty will (to use the language of a late eminent statesman) " repair it where decayed; amend it where defective, prop it where it needs support, so as to adapt it to the purposes of the times in which we live," as our ancestors have done from time to time; that we may thus transmit it to posterity, not only unimpaired, but amended and improved.

That your Majestv's reign may be of long duration, that it may be signalized by its patriotic spirit, pacific principles, and beneficial reforms, is the devont wish, and fervent aspiration, of your Majesty's affectionate, dutiful, and loyal subjects, the Inhabitant Householders of the town and parish of Woalwich.

In hehalf of the Inhabitant Householders of Woolwich, in vestry assembled,

Wm. Greenlaw, Rector, and Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Marquess Camden.]

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, t'e Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, embrace the opportunity afforded us, by a general visitation of the diocese, of offering to your Majesty our respectful condolences on the death of our late revered and lamented Sovereign, and our dutiful congratulations on your Majesty's succession to the Crown of this United Kingdom.

We are sensible that a weight of cares and responsibility, formidable even to advanced years and long experience, has been laid upon your Majesty, almost in the first moment when you could exercise your Royal functions in your own person : but we humbly trust that that Almighty Being by whom Kings reign, and who has called you in early life to the Throne of your Ancestors, will support and strengthen you under this burden, and render the faithful discharge o. your public duties a source of peace and satisfaction to your Royal mind.

When your Majesty and your illustrious Mother visited, a few years since, this part of the Principality of Wales, we had the happiness of witnessing the dawn of those talents and virtues which are destined, we confidently persuade ourselves, to be the ornament and stability of the times on which God's providence has cast us. Your Majesty's and your Royal Parent's kindness and condescension to those who approached you, and your munificent contributions to all purposes of public and private charity during your residence among us, will never be effaced from our memories.

That your Majesty may tread in the steps of your illustrious predecessors of the House of Hanover, and of those Protestant Queens whose names shed a ray of lustre over the pages of our national history : that you may, through God's blessing and grace, be the faithful guardian of our laws and institutions, and the nursing Mother of our reformed and Apostolical Church; and that after you have long reigned happily for yourself, and wiselv and gloriously for your country, you may, in God's good time, exchange an earthly for a Heavenly crown, will be the constant and fervent prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects. C. Bangor.

[Transmitted by John Hughes, Esq.]

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Liberty of Havering-atte-Bower, in the County of Essex, publicly assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, residing in this ancient liberty, humbly request leave to present to your Majesty our congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We hail with joy the Accession of a Princess graced with so many virtues and endowments, and so pre-eminently qualified to uphold the dignity and honour of the Crown, and to promote the welfare, happiness, and freedom of the people; and we feel deeply impressed with the gracious declaration of your Majesty, "that the happiness of the people, and the security of their civil and religious rights, will be the unceasing object of your Majesty's care."

Encouraged by a declaration so patriotic, we humbly pray your Majesty will be graciously pleased to improve the Charter of this Liberty, granted and amended, from time to time, by your Majesty's Royal Predecessors.

May the Almighty ruler of rulers bless your Majesty; may your reign, so auspiciously begun, be long and prosperous; may every happiness attend your Majesty in your domestic and public life.

May your Majesty have wise and honest Counsellors; and may future historians point to the reign of your Majesty as one of the brightest periods in the annals of this great and free country.

Signed, at the request and in the name of the Magistrates. Clergy, and Inhabitants of the liberty of Havering-atte-Bower, assembled at a meeting convened by the High Steivard, at the Town Hall, on Saturday the 7th of October 1837. Thomas Mashiter, H.S.

[Transmitted by Thomas Mashiter, Esq.]