Deanhead Reservoir.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for making and maintaining a reservoir or reservoirs, and an embankment or embankments, across the stream or fall of water, called the Blackbourne, at Deanhead, in the township of Scammonden and parish of Huddersfield, in the west riding of the county of York; which said stream or dyke flows or falls into the river Calder, at or near Brow Bridge, in the township of Elland-cum Greetland, and parish of Halifax, in the said west riding of the county of York, for the purpose of affording a more regular and better supply of water to the mills, factories, and other premises situate below the site or sites of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs; and which said mills, factories, and other premises are situate in the township of Scammonden, in the parish of Huddersfield, and in the several townships of Barkisland, Stainland, and Elland-cum Greetland, in the parish of Halifax, together with all such cuts, aqueducts, feeders, dams, sluices, and other works, in the said township of Scammonden, and in the several townships of Slaithwaite and Marsden, and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, and in the township of Rishworth and parish of Halifax aforesaid, as shall be requisite or convenient for conducting and conveying into the said reservoir or reservoirs, and for collecting, impounding, and penning up the waters of the said stream, and all flood and other waters usually arising or flowing near to the site or sites of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, or which may be diverted into the same, for regulating the flowing of such waters out of such reservoir or reservoirs for the purposes aforesaid; and it is also intended to apply for powers in such Bill and Act, to take or use lands, tenements, and hereditaments in the township of Scammonden and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, for making such reservoir or reservoirs, aqueducts, cuts, and works aforesaid, and for the purpose of raising money for paying the interest of any moneys to be advanced for making such reservoir or reservoirs and works aforesaid; and for maintaining and supporting the same, and all the costs, charges, and expences in anywise arising therefrom, or incidental thereto, and finally paying off all moneys advanced or borrowed for the purposes aforesaid, it is intended to obtain powers by such Bill and Act, for rating and assessing all mills, factories, premises, and works, or the respective owners thereof, receiving any benefit or advantage from the making and maintaining of such reservoir or reservoirs and works aforesaid, according and in proportion to the benefit and advantage so received by them respectively; such mills, factories, and premises and works so to be rated and assessed, being situate in the said township of Scaunonden and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, and in the several townships of Barkisland, Stainland, and Elland cum-Greetland, and parish of Halifax aforesaid, and over or near the line of the stream or dyke aforesaid, below the said reservoir or reservoirs, to Brow Bridge, in the said township of Elland-cum-Greetland, and parish of Halifax aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November, in this present year, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the west riding of the county of York, in Wakefield, in the said county; and also, on or before the 31st of December, in this present year, in the Private Bill-office, of the House of Commons, and so much of such plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each of the said parishes of Huddersfield and Halifax, will be deposited, on or before the said 31st day of December, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively. Dated this 4th day of November 1837.

Stead and Dyson, Solicitors for the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing, widening, improving, and maintaining in repair the turnpike roads from Leeds to Halifax, and the several branches and roads therein mentioned, in the west riding of the county of York," so far as relates to the Kirkstall, Ilkley, and Shipley district of roads, in the said Act mentioned; and which district of roads passes from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Leeds, Headingley cum Burley, Guisely, Horsforth, Rawdon, Yeadon, Otley, Menston, Burley, Ilkley, Baildon, Hawksworth cum Esholt, Bradford and Shipley, in the said west riding of the county of York; and that it is also intended to obtain power to make the diversion or branch of road hereinafter described, that is to say, to commence from and out of the Otley branch of road, in the said Act mentioned, at or near to a certain close of land, called New Close, the property of the Reverend Lamplugh Hird, and in the occupation of William Metcalfe, near to a place, called Hell Hole Gill, in the township of Menston, in the parish of Otley, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Otley, Menston, and Burley aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction or communication with the present Otley and Skipton turnpike road, at or near to a certain close, called the Hall Croft, the property of — Maude, Esq. and in the occupation of William Smithson, or at the north end of a lane, called Menston-lane, both situate at the east end of the village of Burley, in the parish of Otley aforesaid, all in the said west riding of the county of York; and that it is intended to obtain power to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of all horses, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along the said new diversion or branch of road; and also to increase or alter the tolls, rates, or duties payable under the authority of the said recited Act in respect of the said Kirkstall, Ilkley, and Shipley district of roads; and that it is also intended to abandon the line of such part of the said Kirkstall, Ilkley, and Shipley district of roads, comprised in the said Act, as is situate between the said place called Hell Hole Gill, and communicating, or which was intended to communicate, with the turnpike road leading from Otley to Skipton, at or near to the town of Ilkley, in the said west riding; and also to abandon the line of that part of the said Kirkstall, Ilkley, and Shipley district of roads, comprised in the said Act, as is described therein as a branch from and out of a certain branch or road from Hell Hole Gill to the west end of the town of Otley, to communicate with the town of Otley, near the church there, at or near to a certain bridle road leading from West Shiven.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the proposed diversion or branch of road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office, in Wakefield, in the said riding, and with the clerk of the peace for the liberty of Cawood Wistow and Otley, at his office, in Otley, in the said riding, on or before the 30th day of November now instant; and that a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Otley, on or before the 31st day of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference, will also be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated this 2d day of November 1837.

Sam. Hailstone, Solicitor to the Trustees of the said District of Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and amend the powers and provisions of two Acts, one passed in the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rebuilding, or for improving, regulating, and maintaining, the Town Quay of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, and the landing place belonging thereto." And the other passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for rebuilding, or for improving, regulating, and maintaining, the Town Quay of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, and the landing place belonging thereto, and for building a pier or jetty adjoining thereto;' and to repeal such of the provisions of the said first recited Act, as authorize and relate to the levying and collecting the sum of one penny from every passenger who shall land from, or embark in, any vessel employed in carrying passengers for hire, from London to Gravesend, or from Gravesend to London, at any place within the villages and parishes of Gravesend and Milton, or either of them.—Dated this 7th day of November 1837.

John Matthews, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, repeal, and render more effectual, some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Grand Junction Railway; and also to make and maintain a railway or railways (with proper works and conveniences connected therewith), commencing by a junction with the Grand Junction Railway, in the parish of Runcorn, in the county of Chester, and terminating by a junction with the Liverpool and Manchester railway, in the parish of Huyton, in the county of Lancaster, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapeltries, townships, hamlets, and places of Runcorn, Aston, Daresbury, Kekewick, Moore, Norton, Acton Grange, Higher Walton, Lower Walton, Fidler's Ferry, Marshgate, Warford, Stockham, Astmore, and Great Budworth, or some of them, all in the county of Chester; West Bank, Cuerdley, Widnes, Upton within Widnes, Upton, Widnes within Appleton, Appleton, Speke, Childwall, Penketh, Great Sankey, Farnworth, Farnworth within Widnes, Ditton, Little Tarbock, Tarbock, Hale, Halewood, Little Woolton, Much Woolton, Garston, Allerton, Walton-on-the-Hill, Halsnead, Cronton, Rainhill, Bold, Whiston, Huyton, Roby, Prescot, Warrington, and Winwick, or some of them, all in the county of Lancaster.

And further notice is hereby given, that power will be applied for in the said intended Act or Acts, to deviate (to the extent of one hundred yards on each side) from the line or lines of the said intended railways respectively, as defined upon the plans thereof, which have been, and will be, deposited as hereinafter-mentioned. And it is also intended to obtain power to levy rates, tolls, or duties for, or in respect of, all persons, goods, articles, matters or things, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along, or using, the said intended railway or railways, or any of the works connected therewith.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said intended railway or railways, together with a book of reference thereto, prepared in conformity with the standing orders of Parliament then in force, were deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Chester, at his office in Chester; and with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, on or before the 1st day of March last; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference, as relates to each of the several parishes of Runcorn, Prescot, and Huyton, were deposited with the parish clerks of each such parish, within one calendar month from the day of such deposit, with the said clerks of the peace; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference, was also deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, within one calendar month from the day of such deposit, with the said clerks of the peace; and that fresh plans, sections, and books of reference, prepared in conformity with the standing orders of the House of Commons, now in force, will be deposited with the said clerk of the peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester; and with the said clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston aforesaid, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of such last-mentioned plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes last enumerated, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the 31st day of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plans, sections, and books of reference, will also be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated the 1st day of November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture of assignment, bearing date this 30th day of October 1837, Hannah Maria Moore, of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, Iron Founder, hath conveyed and assured all and singular her stock in trade, household goods, furniture, debts and effects, and the money to arise from the sale of her real estate, unto Thomas Pybus, of Maidstone aforesaid, Timber Merchant, and Thomas Tassell, of the same place, Builder, in trust, for the benefit of such of the creditors of the said Hannah Maria Moore, as should execute the said deed previous to the distribution of a final dividend; and which deed was duly executed by the said Hannah Maria Moore, Thomas Pybus, and Thomas Tassell, on the said 30th day of October 1837, in the presence of, and attested by, John Case, of Maidstone aforesaid, Solicitor. All persons standing indebted to the said Hannah Maria Moore, are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Thomas Pybus and Thomas Tassell, or to the said John Case, and the creditors of the said Hannah Maria Moore, are requested to send in the particulars of their demands without delay.

TO CREDITORS.

TAKE notice, that by indenture, bearing date the 7th day of September now last past, and made between Louis Woodward, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Straw Hat and Bonnet Dealer, of the first part; Benjamin Bolton, of Luton, in the county of Bedford, Straw Hat Merchant, and Samuel Takush, of Newgate street, London, Furrier, of the second part; and the several other persons whose names are thereunto subscribed, and seals affixed, being creditors of the said Louis Woodward, of the third part; the said Louis Woodward did assign all his stock in trade, debts, and effects, unto the said Benjamin Bolton and Samuel Takush, in trust, for themselves and such of his creditors as should execute the same within two calendar months from the date thereof; and the said assignment was executed by the said Louis Woodward, in the presence of Thomas Simcox, Solicitor, Birmingham; and by Benjamin Bolton, in the presence of Frederick Chase, of Luton aforesaid, Solicitor. And further take notice, that the said deed of assignment now lies at the office of the said Frederick Chase, ready for execution; and that all persons having claims against the estate of the said Louis Woodward, will be excluded from the benefit of such assignment, unless the same receive their execution within twenty-one days from the date of this notice; and all persons owing debts to the estate, are forthwith required to pay the same to the said Frederick Chase. Dated the 1st day of November 1837.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued, and now in prosecution, against Abraham Henry Chambers the elder, and Abraham Henry Chambers the younger, late of New Bond-street, and of South Molton-street, in the county of Middlesex, Bankers, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, on Thursday the 30th day of November instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees entering into an agreement with certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, being the representatives of a certain other person, deceased, to be likewise then named, who was the Solicitor and Attorney of the said bankrupts, or one of them, for the purpose of enabling the said assignees to compromise and discharge a certain claim made by such representatives of a lien for, or in respect of, certain costs at law and in equity, and otherwise incurred by their said testator, as Solicitor and Attorney of the said bankrupts, or one of them, and alleged to be remaining due and payable to him at the time of his decease, upon certain deeds and papers in their custody, possession, or power, as such representatives as aforesaid, relating to certain estates and properties of the said bankrupts, or one of them, which are particularly situate in the counties of Middlesex, Hertfordshire, Buckinghamshire, and elsewhere, in Great Britain, or in which the said bankrupts, or one of them, have or hath a beneficial available interest; and to authorise and empower the said assignees to inquire into the validity of any such claim, and, on satisfying themselves thereof, to pay and satisfy the same, or otherwise to consent to, and enable the said assignees, by all legal ways and means, to obtain possession of all such deeds and papers as the said representatives may have in their possession, custody, or power, for the purpose of evidencing the title of the said bankrupts, or one of them, and of the said assignees, to such last-mentioned estates and property, and of proceeding to the sale and disposal thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration any dispute between them and the said representatives, in relation to the said claim of the said representatives, for costs as aforesaid, or their right in respect thereof, to a lien on the deeds and papers, or any of them relating to the title of the said bankrupts, and the said assignees, or any or either of them, in or to any of such properties; and, if need be, to consent to and authorise and empower the said assignees, should they be so advised, to commence and prosecute a suit in equity against the said representatives, and also against all such other person and persons as shall be deemed requisite parties to any such suit, for the purpose of enabling the said assignees to compel a taxation of the bills of costs in respect of which such lien is claimed; and to enforce, on payment of, or otherwise satisfying any such lien of the said representatives as aforesaid, the delivery over of the said several title deeds and papers of, and relating to, the said several estates and properties, to the said assignees, or to whom they may appoint to receive the same; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed, and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 6th day of November 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by BENJAMIN WALLIS and ROBERT WABLIS, of Blackwall, in the county of Middlesex, Ship Builders and Co-partners (trading under the firm of Benjamin Wallis and Co.), that they are in insolvent circumstances, and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Sarah Stuart, of Pall-mall, in the county of Middlesex, Milliner, and she being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender herself to John Herman Merivale, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 14th day of November instant, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, and on the 19th day of December next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of her estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish her examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of her certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of her effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. G. Green, 18, Aldermanbury, Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed; and give notice to Mr. Burt, Solicitor, 10, Lancaster-place, Strand.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of John Trant, formerly of Cirencester, Gloucestershire, Saddler and Harness-Maker, then of No. 21, Whimpole, then of No. 62,
