NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for making and maintaining a reservoir or reservoirs, and an embankment or embankments, across the stream or fall of water, called the Blackbourne, at Deanhead, in the township of Scammonden and parish of Huddersfield, in the west riding of the county of York; which said stream or dyke flows or falls into the river Calder, at or near Brow Bridge, in the township of Elland-cum-Greeland, and parish of Halifax, in the said west riding of the county of York, for the purpose of affording a more regular and better supply of water to the mills, factories, and other premises situate below the site or sites of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs; and which said mills, factories, and other premises are situate in the township of Scammonden, in the parish of Huddersfield, and in the several townships of Barkisland, Stainland, and Elland-cum-Greeland, in the parish of Halifax, together with all such cuts, aqueducts, feeders, dams, sluices, and other works, in the said township of Scammonden, and in the several townships of Slaithwaite and Marsden, and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, and in the township of Rishworth and parish of Halifax aforesaid, as shall be requisite or convenient for conducting and conveying into the said reservoir or reservoirs, and for collecting, impounding, and penning up the waters of the said stream, and all flood and other waters usually arising or flowing near to the site or sites of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, or which may be diverted into the same, for regulating the flowing of such waters out of such reservoir or reservoirs for the purposes aforesaid; and it is also intended to apply for powers in such Bill and Act, to take or use lands, tenements, and hereditaments in the township of Scammonden and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, for making such reservoir or reservoirs, aqueducts, cuts, and works aforesaid, and for the purpose of raising money for paying the interest of any moneys to be advanced for making such reservoir or reservoirs and works aforesaid; and for maintaining and supporting the same, and all the costs, charges, and expences in anywise arising therefrom, or incidental thereto, and finally paying off all moneys advanced or borrowed for the purposes aforesaid, it is intended to obtain powers by such Bill and Act, for rating and assessing all mills, factories, premises, and works, or the respective owners thereof, receiving any benefit or advantage from the making and maintaining of such reservoir or reservoirs and works aforesaid, according and in proportion to the benefit and advantage so received by them respectively; such mills, factories, and premises and works so to be rated and assessed, being situate in the said township of Scammonden and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, and in the several townships of Barkisland, Stainland, and Elland-cum-Greetland, and parish of Halifax aforesaid, and over or near the line of the stream or dyke aforesaid, below the said reservoir or reservoirs, to Brow Bridge, in the said township of Elland-cum-Greetland, and parish of Halifax aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November, in this present year, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the west riding of the county of York, in Wakefield, in the said county; and also, on or before the 31st of December, in this present year, in the Private Bill-office, of the House of Commons, and so much of such plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each of the said parishes of Huddersfield and Halifax, will be deposited, on or before the said 31st day of December, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively. Dated this 4th day of November 1837.

Stead and Dyson, Solicitors for the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing, widening, improving, and maintaining in repair the turnpike roads from Leeds to Halifax, and the several branches and roads therein mentioned, in the west riding of the county of York," so far as relates to the Kirkstall, Ikley, and Shipley district of roads, in the said Act mentioned; and which district of roads passes from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Leeds, Headingley cum Burley, Gnisely, Horsforth, Rawdon, Yeadon, Otley, Menston, Burley, Ikley, Baildon, Hawksworth cum Esholt, Bradford and Shipley, in the said west riding of the county of York; and that it is also intended to obtain power to make the diversion or branch of road hereinafter described, that is to say, to commence from and out of the Otley branch of road, in the said Act mentioned, at or near to a certain close of land, called New Close, the property of the Reverend Lamplugh Hird, and in the occupation of William Metcalfe, near to a place, called Hell Hole Gill, in the township of Menston, in the parish of Otley, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Otley, Menston, and Burley aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction or communication with the present Otley and Skipton turnpike road, at or near to a certain close, called the Hall Croft, the property of ——— Maude, Esq. and in the occupation of William Smithson, or at the north end of a lane, called Menston-lane, both situate at the east end of the village of Burley, in the parish of Otley aforesaid, all in the said west riding of the county of York; and that it is intended to obtain power to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of all horses, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along the said new diversion or branch of road; and also to increase or alter the tolls, rates, or duties payable under the authority of the said recited Act in respect of the said Kirkstall, Ikley, and Shipley district of roads; and that it is also intended to abandon the line of such part of the said Kirkstall, Ikley, and Shipley district of roads, comprised in the said Act, as is situate between the said place called Hell Hole Gill, and communicating, or which was intended to communicate, with the turnpike road leading from Otley to Skipton, at or near to the town of Ikley, in the said west-riding; and also to abandon the line of that part of the said Kirkstall, Ikley, and Shipley district of roads, comprised in the said Act, as is described therein as a branch from and out of a certain branch or road from Hell Hole Gill to the west end of the town of Otley, to communicate with the town of Otley, near the church there, at or near to a certain bridle road leading from West Shiven.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the proposed diversion or branch of road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office, in Wakefield, in the said riding, and with the clerk of the peace for the liberty of Cawood Wistow and Otley, at his office, in Otley, in the said riding, on or before the 30th day of November now instant; and that a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Otley, on or before the 31st day of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference, will also be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated this 2d day of November 1837.

Sam. Hailstone, Solicitor to the Trustees of the said District of Roads.

King George the Second, intituled "An Act for repairing, widening, and rendering safe and commodious, several roads leading from the town of Southmolton, in the county of Devon;" and also of three several Acts, respectively passed in the nineteenth, forty-second, and fifty-fourth years of the reign of King George the Third, whereby the terms and powers of the said first mentioned Act were further continued and enlarged; or for repealing the said Acts, and granting further and other powers in lieu thereof; which several roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes and townships of Southmolton, George Nympton, Mariansleigh, Romansleigh, Meshaw, East Worlington, King's Nympton, Chulmleigh, Chawleigh, Bishop's Nympton, Rose Aish, otherwise Rose Ash, Knowstone, Creacombe, Rackenford, Philleigh, otherwise Filleigh, Swinbridge and Chittlehampton, in the county of Devon; and also for making and maintaining several new lines, branches, or deviations of road (that is to say), one of such roads to commence at or near Cross Lane End, in the town of Southmolton, and to terminate at or near the Stag's Head, in the parish of Southmolton, and there to meet and unite with the present Southmolton turnpike road, leading to the town of Barnstaple; and also a diversion from the same turnpike road, to commence at or near the Blacksmith's shop, near the Church, in the parish of Filleigh, and to terminate at or near the Southmolton turnpike gate, called the Tower Gate, in the parish of Swinbridge, and there to meet and unite with the said Southmolton turnpike road, leading to the town of Barnstaple; another of such roads to diverge out of the present turnpike road, leading from Southmolton to Crediton, at or near Great Helegate, in the said parish of Southmolton, and to rejoin the same turnpike road at or near Alswear, in the parish of Mariansleigh; another of such roads to diverge from the said turnpike road, leading from Southmolton to Crediton, at or near the fourth mile post, in the parish of Romansleigh, and to terminate at or near the village of Witheridge; another of such roads to commence in or near the said village of Witheridge, and to terminate at or near Noman's Land, in the parish of Witheridge; another of such roads to commence at or near the said village of Witheridge, and to terminate at a place called Long Barn, in the parishes of Crediton and Sandford, or one of them; another of such roads to diverge from the last-mentioned road at or near a place called Mooracre, and to terminate in the village of Sandford; another line of road to commence at the termination of the said road at Long Barn, and to terminate at or near the east town of Crediton; another new line of road from Southmolton to Chulmleigh, to diverge from the present turnpike road leading from Southmolton to Crediton, at or near Tidlake, in the parish of Mariansleigh, and to meet and unite with the present Southmolton turnpike road leading from Southmolton to Chulmleigh, at or near the seventh mile post in the same turnpike road; another new line of road to commence at or near the southern end of the town of Southmolton, and to join the Barnstaple turnpike road leading from Barnstaple to Exeter, at or near Newnham Bridge, in the parishes of Chulmleigh and Burrington, or one of them; another new road or diversion to commence at or near Coldman's Corner, in the town of Southmolton, and to terminate at or near Cake Down Lane, in the parish of Bishop's Nympton, and for building, repairing, and maintaining a new bridge across the river Mole; another new road to commence at or near the Market Place, or Broad Pavement, in the town of Southmolton, and to pass through the Star Inn, and the valley on the south of the town of Southmolton, and to enter the present turnpike road leading from Southmolton to Tiverton, at or near Mole Bridge, in the parishes of Southmolton and Bishop's Nympton, or one of them, passing over Mole Bridge, and for taking down, and rebuilding, or widening, and repairing the same bridge, and for widening and repairing the present turnpike road so far as Ham Lane, in the parish of Bishop's Nympton; another diversion, or new line of road, to diverge from the said road leading from Southmolton to Tiverton, at or near the first mile post on Gerton Hill, and to rejoin the same road at or near the bottom of Silcombe Hill; another new line of road to commence at or near the three mile post in the present Southmolton turnpike road leading from the town of Southmolton to Torrington, in the parish of Chittlehampton, and to terminate at or near the east end of Bideford Bridge, in the town of Bideford, and for building, repairing, and maintaining a bridge across the River Tawe, on the same new line of road; and also another line or diversion from the last-mentioned line of road, to diverge therefrom at or near a farm or place called Salterns, in the parish of Bideford, and to terminate also at or near the said east end of Bideford Bridge; and also for the taking down, rebuilding, widening, repairing, and maintaining all or any of the bridges at present, or hereafter to be, erected, on the present and intended Southmolton turnpike roads; and also for discontinuing, as turnpike roads, certain parts of the present roads, comprised in the before-mentioned Acts, leading from, through, or into the several parishes of Southmolton, George Nympton, Mariansleigh, Romansleigh, Meshaw, East Worlington, King's Nympton, Chulmleigh, Chawleigh, Bishop's Nympton, Rose Aish, otherwise Rose Ash, Knowstone, Creacombe, Rackenford, Philleigh, otherwise Filleigh, Swinbridge, and Chittlehampton, or some or one of them, in the said county of Devon. All which said new lines, branches, or diversions of road pass, or are intended to pass, from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of Southmolton, George Nympton, Mariansleigh, Romansleigh, Meshaw, East Worlington, West Worlington, King's Nympton, Warkleigh, Satterleigh, Chulmleigh, Burrington, Chawleigh, Bishop's Nympton, Rost Aish, otherwise Rose Ash, Knowstone, Creacombe, Rackenford, Philleigh, otherwise Filleigh, Swinbridge, Landkey, Chittlehampton, Bishop's Tawton, Tawstock, Atherington, Yarncombe, Alverdiscott, Newton, Tracey, Fremington, Horwood, East Leigh, West Leigh, Bideford, Lapford, Witheridge, Thebridge, Washford Pyne, Puddington, Woolfardisworthy, Kennerley, Poughill, Stockley English, Cheriton Fitzpain, Upton Hellions, Sandford, and Crediton, or some or one or more of them, in the county of Devon.

And by which said Bill, it is intended to increase, diminish, or alter the existing tolls authorised by the aforesaid four several Acts to be collected within the limits of the Southmolton turnpike trust, and to levy tolls upon, or in respect of, the several new lines, branches, or deviations of road so proposed to be made as aforesaid; duplicate plans and sections of which several new lines, branches, and deviations of road, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Devon, at the Castle of Exeter, in the said county, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and, on or before the 31st day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans as relates to each of the several parishes hereinbefore-mentioned, in or through which any parts of the said roads are intended to be made, varied, extended, or enlarged, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish; and, on or before the said 31st day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.—Dated this 2d day of November 1837.

John Gilbert Pearse, Clerk to the Trustees of the Southmolton Turnpike.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to enlarge the term and powers of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a turnpike road, from the south end of Angel-lane, in Brampton Bierley, to a certain public highway, in Mexbrough; and also from Clegg's Cottage, in Rawmarsh, to the north end of Kilnurst Bridge, and from the south end of the said bridge to the west end of the village of Hooton Roberts, in the west riding of the county of York;" which said roads lie in or pass through the several townships of Brampton Bierlow, Swinton, Rawmarsh, and Hooton Roberts, and parishes of Wath-upon-Dearne, Rawmarsh, and Hooton Roberts, all in the said west riding of the county of York; and it is also intended to apply for powers to increase, alter, or vary the tolls authorized to be taken by the said Act.

Wm. Newman, Clerk to the Trustees of the said road.

Barnsley, November 6, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two Acts, one passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Croydon, to join the London and Greenwich railway, near London; and the other passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the London and Croydon Railway Company to provide a station, and other works, in the parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey; and to amend the Act relating to the said railway;" and to extend the periods granted by the said Acts for the purchase of lands, and completion of the works; and which said railway and station, are situate in, and pass from, into, or through the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places of Croydon, Beddington, Streatham, Battersea, Lambeth, Camberwell, Deptford, Rotherhithe, and Saint Olave, or some of them, in the said county of Surrey; Beckenham, Sydenham, Lewisham, and Deptford, or some of them, in the county of Kent.

And it is intended to apply for power to purchase additional property, in the said parish of Saint Olave; plans, sections, and books of reference whereof will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November instant, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Surrey, at Lambeth, with the parish clerk of Saint Olave, and in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.—Dated this 1st day of November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for power to make and maintain a cemetery, to be called the "Necropolis," on that portion of the Southampton property, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, known by the name of the Haverstock Hill Estate, bounded on the north by land now or lately belonging to Mrs. Ponsonby, on the south by the proposed new road leading from the Hampstead-road to Kentish-town, on the east by the lands of Richard Morgan, and on the west by land now or lately belonging to Mrs. Ponsonby, and also by land belonging to William Morgan, containing 66 acres, or thereabouts.

Richardson and Tulbot, Solicitors, 47, Bedford-row.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving and keeping in repair certain roads in the counties of Flint and Chester, and for better maintaining the ferry over the river Dee, called the Lower King's Ferry, in the said county of Flint," so far as such Act relates to the roads therein mentioned; and which roads respectively pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Flint, Leadbrook Major, Leadbrook Minor, Kelsterton, Golftyn, Wepre, Shotton, Aston, Ewloe Town, Bistree, Argoed, Ewloe Wood, Soughton, Northop, and Llwynegrin, all in the said county of Flint; and Shotwick, Woodbank, Shotwick Park, and Great Saughall, in the county of Chester; and also Sealand, in the said county of Flint; and that it is also intended to obtain power to make the new line or branch of road hereinafter described, that is to say, to commence from and out of the present turnpike road leading from the King's Ferry aforesaid, to Woodbank, at or near the end of the embankment of the River Dee Company, and near the boundary between the said Company's marsh land there, and the ancient lands in the township of Great Saughall, in the parish of Shotwick, in the said county of Chester, and thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of Shotwick, Burton, Neston, Eastham, Great Saughall, Rough Shotwick, or Woodbank, Shotwick, Puddington, Ledsham, Little Sutton, Childer Thornton, and Eastham, and to terminate in the present turnpike road leading from Chester to Liverpool, at or near the Hooton turnpike gate, on the said last mentioned road, in the township of Eastham, all in the said county of Chester, and that it is intended to obtain power to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of all horses, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along the said new line or branch of road, and also to increase or alter the tolls, rates, or duties payable upon the said roads, comprized in the said recited Act; and that it is also intended to stop up or to abandon and discontinue, as turnpike road, such part of the road comprized in the said recited Act as lies between the boundary of the said marsh and ancient lands aforesaid, or near thereto, and the termination of it adjoining the turnpike road leading from Chester to Parkgate.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the proposed new line or branch of road, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Chester, at his office, in the city of Chester, on or before the 30th of November instant; and that a copy of, or so much of the said plan and section and book of reference as relates to, each of the several parishes following, that is to say, Shotwick, Burton, Neston, and Eastham, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of such parishes respectively, on or before the 31st of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference will also be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st of December next.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act, for inclosing lands within the townships or divisions of Helsington, Strickland Roger, and Whinfell, in the parish of Kirkby in Kendal, in the county of Westmorland, and also for draining and improving certain lands, in the said township of Helsington, and in the townships of Underbarrow and Bradleyfield and Levens, in the parishes of Kirkby in Kendal and Heversham, in the same county; with powers for raising the expences attending the inclosure, division, and allotment of the lands within the said townships or divisions of Helsington, Strickland Roger, and Whinfell, and the obtaining and executing such intended Act, so far as the same shall apply to the said inclosure, division, and allotment, by sale of part of such lands, or by rates or assessments on the persons and parties to whom any allotment of such lands shall be made; and for raising the expences of making the intended works of drainage, and the costs of obtaining and executing such intended Act, so far as the same shall apply to the draining and improving of the said lands, and also the expences of maintaining such works in repair, by rates or assessments on the several persons and parties whose lands will be drained or benefited by the making and maintaining of such works of drainage in the said several townships of Underbarrow and Bradleyfield, Helsington, and Levens.

Oakham Turnpike Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to repeal two Acts of Parliament, one of the said Acts, passed in the 35th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing, altering, and improving the road leading from the Great North Road, in the town of Stamford, and county of Lincoln, through the town of Oakham to the Great North Road aforesaid, at or near a house called the Cross Guns, in the parish of Greetham and county of Rutland;" and the other of the said Acts, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending an Act of His present Majesty for repairing the road from Stamford, in the county of Lincoln, through Oakham to the Great North Road, in the parish of Greetham, in the county of Rutland;" in which Act, provision is intended to be made for the increase and alteration of the tolls, rates, and duties now payable on the said road, and for including within the provisions of the said Act, an additional piece of road, being a public highway already made, extending from the four cross road, in the village of Empingham, in the county of Rutland, five chains, or thereabouts, over and beyond a certain bridge at the east end of the same village, being the length of half a mile, or thereabouts, and for erecting a toll gate upon the said last mentioned piece of road; and also for including within the provisions of the said Act, a certain other additional piece of road, being a public highway already made, diverging towards the south, east from the present line of road, at the four cross roads, in the parish of Greetham aforesaid, and extending from the said four cross road to the Great North Road aforesaid, at the south east corner of a certain close, in the said parish of Greetham, called the Church Close, in the occupation of Matthew Laxton, being the distance of one mile, or thereabouts, and for erecting a toll gate upon the said last mentioned piece of road, and for excluding from the provisions of the said intended Act, so much of the said road as passes through the town of Oakham, that is to say, extending from the south end of a certain yard adjoining and belonging to a messuage or tenement in the occupation of Robert Hawley, to a certain other messuage or tenement called the Old House, in the occupation of Thomas Cook; which said turnpike road, intended to be repaired and amended as aforesaid, passes through the several parishes of All Saints, Stamford, in the county of Lincoln, and Tinwell, Empingham, Whitwell, Exton, Hambleton, Eggleton, Oakham, Burley, Cottesmore, and Greetham, all in the county of Rutland.

And further notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans of so much of the aforesaid road, through the said town of Oakham, hereinbefore described and proposed to be excluded from the said intended Act, and also of the two pieces of road, being public highways, hereinbefore respectively described and proposed to be included in the provisions of the said intended Act, together with books of reference, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county of Rutland, situate in the said town of Oakham, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and a copy of which plan and book of reference will be deposited with the clerks of the said several parishes of Oakham, Empingham, and Greetham, on or before the 31st day of December next; and a copy of which plan and book of reference will also be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated this 6th day of November 1837.

By order,

Wm. Ades, Clerk to the Trustees of the said road.

Fishguard Harbour.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and amend an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for improving the harbour and port of Fishguard, otherwise Abergwain, in the county of Pembroke;" and by which Bill it is intended to repeal so much of the said Act as authorises the Company thereby incorporated to levy and collect tolls or duties on ships or vessels passing or repassing up or down Saint George's Channel, between Strumble Head, on the Welch Coast, and the port of Wexford, on the Irish Coast.—Dated this 7th day of November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions in an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing and maintaining the road from Quebec, in the parish of Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York, to Homefield-lane-end, in the same parish, with a bridge or bridges on the line of such road, and for making and maintaining certain branch roads to communicate therewith," so far as relates to "the Leeds and Homefield-lane-end district of road;" and which district of road passes through and over the townships of Leeds and Wortley, in the parish of Leeds, in the said west riding of the county of York; and it is also intended to apply for powers to continue, for a further term, the collection and taking of the foot tolls granted by the said Act, for a limited term, from persons passing over the bridge across the River Aire, part of the said district of road; and to alter and increase the existing tolls on the said district of road.—Dated this 8th day of November 1837.

By order,

Upton's and Clapham, Solicitors, Leeds.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions in an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing and maintaining the road from Quebec, in the parish of Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York, to Homefield-lane-end, in the same parish, with a bridge or bridges on the line of such road, and for making and maintaining certain branch roads to communicate therewith," so far as relates to "the Wortley, Arnley, and Bramley district of road;" and which district of road passes through and over the townships of Wortley, Arnley, and Bramley, in the parish of Leeds, in the said west riding of the county of York; and also for making and maintaining a branch or continuation of the line of the said district of road from its commencement at or near the bridge over the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, in the township of Wortley aforesaid, and to pass through and over the townships of Wortley, Holbeck, and Leeds, in the parish of Leeds aforesaid, to and to communicate with a street or lane, called Water-lane, in the said township of Holbeck and parish of Leeds aforesaid; and also to make and maintain a certain other branch or road from and out of the said district of road, commencing on the north side of a certain field, called Lower Rails Field, in the township of Bramley, and parish of Leeds aforesaid, belonging to, and in the occupation of, James Walker, and to pass into and through the said township of Bramley, to or near to a certain inn, called the Victoria Inn, in the occupation of William Thackrah, in the said last mentioned township and parish, and to take tolls on such new branches of road; and it is also intended to increase or alter the existing tolls payable by virtue of the said Act, on the said district of road.

And notice is also hereby given, that duplicate plans of the said new branches of road, with sections and books of reference to such plans, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the said west riding, at Wakefield, and also at the office of the clerk of the peace for the borough of Leeds aforesaid, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and also that, on or before the 31st day of December next, a copy of the said plans, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Leeds, for the inspection of all persons concerned; and also that, on or before the said 31st day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the Honourable the House of Commons.—Dated this 8th day of November 1837.

By order,

Randall and Son.

Cambridge, 10th November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill, for establishing a cemetery, in the parish of Woolwich, in the county of Kent.—Dated this 10th day of November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, or tramroad or tramroads, with proper warehouses, wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, bridges, works, and other conveniences adjoining thereto or connected therewith, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, properly constructed and adapted for the conveyance of persons, horses, cattle, coals, goods, wares, and merchandise, commencing at the termination, or intended termination, of the railway from the town and county of Newcastle upon-Tyne to North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, in a certain close or field in the occupation of Anthony Hedley and James Sproat, situate in the township of Chirton, in the parish of Tynemouth, in the said county of Northumberland, and immediately adjoining certain buildings situate in Little Bedford-street, in the township of Tynemouth, in the said parish of Tynemouth, and extending to, or passing through or into, the township of Tynemouth aforesaid, in the said parish of Tynemouth and county of Northumberland, and terminating at or near to the west end of a certain haven, called Prior's Haven, in the township and parish of Tynemouth aforesaid.

In which said Act provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway or railways, or tramroad or tramroads, and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs, or landing-places, works, and other conveniences; and also to obtain power to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act.

All which powers are intended to be carried into effect by a Company already incorporated by an Act of Parliament, called "The Newcastle-upon-Tyne and North Shields Railway Company;" and the money raised by the creation of new shares in the said Company, or by some other mode to be authorised and provided for in and by such intended Act.

A duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference therefo, were deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland on or before the first day of March last past; and, on or before the first day of April last past, a like duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, were deposited with the Parish Clerk of the parish of Tynemouth, in the said county of Northumberland; in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and plans and sections of the line of such railway, and books of reference thereto, will again be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and with the Parish Clerk of the parish of Tynemouth; in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

Power will also be obtained to deviate from the line of the said railway to the extent of ten yards on either side of the said railway, or to such other extent as Parliament shall allow.—Dated this 14th day of October 1837.

*Carr, Jobling, and Fox, and Jno. and Jno.
T. B. Tinley, Solicitors to the Company.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, the one passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Cowley-hill Colliery, in the parish of Prescott, to Runcorn-gap, in the same parish (with several branches therefrom), all in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for constructing a wet dock at the termination of the said railway, at Runcorn-gap aforesaid;" and the other passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enlarge and amend the powers and provisions of an Act relating to the Saint Helen's and Runcorn-gap, Railway Company;" and that it is intended to obtain power by the said Act, to extend for a distance not exceeding one mile, a certain branch of the said railway, called the "Ashton's-green Branch," such extension to commence at the present terminus of the said Ashton's-green branch, in the township of Parr, in the parish of Prescott aforesaid, thence to pass in a north-eastwardly direction from, in, through, or into the said township of Parr and parish of Prescott, and to terminate in, at, or near to a certain field or vacant piece of land, in the said township of Parr and parish of Prescott, now or late belonging to the representatives of the late Mr. Thomas Speakman, and in the occupation of Mr. Peter Bretherton; and it is also intended to obtain power by such Act to deviate in the construction of the said extended railway from the line thereof as laid out, or intended to be laid out, on the plans of the said extended railway, which have been or will be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line; and it is also intended to obtain power by the said Act, to levy rates, tolls, or duties for or in respect of all persons, goods, articles, matters, or things, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along, or using the said extended railway; and it is also intended to obtain power by the said Act, to reduce the inclination of a certain plane upon the said railway, in the township of Widnes, in the said parish of Prescott, for a distance not exceeding one mile, to commence at that part of the said railway, in Widnes aforesaid, which passes over a field called the Great Hey, purchased from John Bradshaw, and to terminate at or near to a footpath in the township of Bold, in the parish of Prescott, being about one hundred and seventy yards from the boundary of the two townships of Widnes and Bold; but it is not intended to make any lateral deviation from the line of the said railway, nor will power to take any lands for the purpose of reducing such inclined plane, be sought by the said Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said extended railway, and of the said inclined plane, together with books of reference thereto, have been or will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, on or before the 30th day of November next; with the parish clerk of the parish of Prescott, on or before the 31st day of December next; and in the Private bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December; and it is also intended to obtain power by the said Act, to raise a further sum of money for the purpose of carrying the same and the said recited Acts into execution.—Dated the 21st day of October 1837.

John Whitley, Clerk to the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to enable the London and Croydon Railway Company, or a company to be incorporated by the Bill, to make and maintain a new line of railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the London and Croydon Railway, in the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, passing from thence, from, through, or into the several parishes or townships, and extra parochial or other places of Croydon, Waddon otherwise Waddon Court, Beddington, Wallington, Carshalton, Sutton, Cheam, North Cheam, West Cheam, East Cheam, Cuddington, Chessington otherwise Chessington, Ewell, and Epsom, all in the said county of Surrey, and terminating in the said parish of Epsom; and in which Bill power will be applied for to deviate from the line of the said new line of railway, as laid down on the plans hereinafter mentioned, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on each side thereof.

And further notice is hereby given, that plans, sections, and books of reference of the line of the said railway, were deposited at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Surrey, at Lambeth, on or before the 1st day of March last; and in the Private Bill-office, at the House of Commons, on or before the 1st day of April last past; and a copy of so much of the same plans, sections, and books of reference, as relate to the several parishes of Croydon, Beddington, Wallington, Carshalton, Sutton, Cheam, Cuddington, Ewell, and Epsom aforesaid, were deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the said 1st day of April; and further, that it is intended to apply for power to levy tolls, rates, or duties for the use of the said railway.

And further notice is hereby given, that, in such Bill or Bills, it is intended to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two several Acts, one passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Croydon to join the London and Greenwich Railway, near London;" and the other passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the London and Croydon Railway Company to provide a station and other works in the parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and to amend the Act relating to the said railway;" and which said London and Croydon Railway, and station by the said recited Acts authorised to be made, will be situate in or pass through the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial or other places of Croydon, Beddington, Streatham, Battersea, Lambeth, Camberwell, Deptford, Rotherhithe, and Saint Olave, or some of them, in the said county of Surrey; Beckenham, Sydenham, Lewisham, and Deptford, or some of them, in the county of Kent.—Dated this 1st day of October 1837.

Elland and Saddleworth Turnpike-road and Branch.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for enlarging the term and altering, amending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually making, amending, and improving the road from Buck Stones to Barkisland School, at the highway leading from Ripponden to Stainlan", and for making and maintaining an extension of the said road to join the Halifax and Huddersfield turnpike road, at the south end of Elland Bridge, and a branch therefrom, all in the west riding of the county of York; and which said road from Buck Stones to Elland Bridge aforesaid, lies in, and passes through, the township, hamlets, districts or places of Marsden in Huddersfield, Scammonden, Deanhead, Barkisland and Elland cum Greetland, in the several parishes of Huddersfield and Halifax, all in the said west riding of the county of York; and which said branch road lies in, and passes through, the said townships, hamlets districts, or places of Elland cum Greetland and Barkisland, in the parish of Halifax aforesaid. And it is also intended to apply for powers for taking toll on the part of the said road, lying between Brow Bridge, Beck, and the south end of Elland Bridge, and for maintaining the same as turnpike road. And also to obtain an increase or alteration of the tolls, authorized by the said Act to be taken on the other parts of the said road, and on the said branch.—Dated the 26th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

By order,

William Stephenson, Clerk to the Trustees of the said Road and Branch.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for extending the term, and altering and enlarging the powers, of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the road leading from Ualeworthy, in the parish of Davidstow, in the county of Cornwall, to the east end of Wadebridge, and from the west end of Wadebridge, into and through the borough of Mitchell, in the said county," or for repealing the said Act, and granting further and other powers in lieu thereof; in which Bill, powers will be contained for making a diversion, or new line of road, between Wadebridge and Camelford, commencing from or near the village of Highway, and terminating at or near to a certain place called Pope's Cottage. Also to make a new line of road, branching out of the said last mentioned road, at or near to Trehannick Bridge, to join the present turnpike road from Wadebridge to Camelford, at or near to a certain place called Knight's Mill Bridge. And for making turnpike, and placing under the care and management of the trustees to be thereby appointed, a piece of road or highway, about one mile in length, commencing at or near the one mile stone from the town of St. Columb Major, and leading from thence over the new bridge to the said town, together with a piece of highway diverging from the said road, at or near the new bridge aforesaid, to the distance of 150 yards or thereabouts, into a lane called Truman's Lane. Also for making turnpike, and placing under the like care and management, a common highway, or public carriage-road, about 200 yards in length, leading out of the present turnpike-road, near the St. Columb old bridge, and running by the side of the St. Columb river, into the road thirdly hereinbefore described, at or near the St. Columb new bridge; and for altering, widening, and diverting the turnpike-road leading from Wadebridge to Camelford, and for that purpose to purchase certain gardens, pig's-houses, courtlage, and carpenter's shop adjoining the said road, in the occupation of Humphry Bate, Henry Mutton, Joanna Rundle, Richard Hawkey, and John Hockin, situate at the village of Helstone, in the parish of Lanteglos, by Camelford; and for abandoning such parts of the present turnpike-road as may be rendered useless or unnecessary, by the making of such diversions, alteration, or new lines of road, and making the said highways turnpike; also for making an extension of the present turnpike-road, from the toll-house at the Saint Columb Old Bridge aforesaid, to the extent of 150 yards, or thereabouts, into a lane called Tolskiddy Lane. Which diversions, alterations, or new lines of road, highways, and extension, are intended to be made, and to pass from, in, through, or into the parishes and townships of Lanteglos by Camelford, Michaelstove, St. Tudy, St. Teath, St. Kew, and Saint Columb Major, or some of them, all in the county of Cornwall; duplicate plans and sections of which said diversions, alterations, or new lines of road, and extension, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November next, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office at St. Austell, in the said county; and, on or before the 31st day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans as relates to each of the said parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish; and, on or before the 31st day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill, to levy tolls upon, or in respect of the proposed diversions, alterations, and new lines of road, and other roads or highways proposed to be included in the said Bill, and to increase, diminish, or alter the existing tolls collected under the authority of the said Act.—Dated this 25th day of October 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, or amend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better paving, cleansing, repairing, lighting, and watching the highways, streets, and lanes of and in the vill of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and for removing and preventing annoyances therein, and for erecting a market house, and holding a public market in the said vill"; and also of another Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His said Majesty, to enlarge the powers of the said first mentioned Act, and to grant other powers and provisions in lieu thereof, for the better paving, cleansing, lighting, repairing, watching, widening, and improving the several streets, lanes, or highways, public passages and places, and private carriage ways and footways, in the parish of Ramsgate, in the said county of Kent; and it is intended to take powers by the said Bill to take down the present Town Hall, in Ramsgate aforesaid, and to erect and build a new Town Hall in lieu thereof, in the same or in a more convenient situation, in the said parish, with all suitable and convenient offices thereto; and also to pull down the market places erected and maintained under the provisions of the said Acts, and to erect new market houses in lieu thereof, in the same or in a more convenient situation, in the said parish, together with all proper and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches thereto; and it is intended by the said Bill to levy new tolls, rates, duties, and assessments, and to increase or vary the existing tolls, rates, duties, and assessments authorized by the said Acts to be raised, laid, and collected.—Dated this 30th day of October 1837.

Martin L. Daniel, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rebuilding the pier of Margate, in the isle of Thanet, in the county of Kent, for ascertaining, establishing, and recovering certain duties in lieu of the ancient and customary droits for the support and maintenance of the said pier, for widening, paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, lanes, highways, and public passages in the town of Margate, and parish of Saint John the Baptist, in the said isle of Thanet; for settling the rates of porters, chairmen, carters, and carmen within the said town, and for preventing encroachments, nuisances, and annoyances therein;" and also of an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 27th year of the reign of His present Majesty, for rebuilding the pier of Margate, in the isle of Thanet, in the county of Kent, and for other purposes mentioned in the said Act;" and of another Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual two Acts for the maintenance and support of the pier and harbour, and paving and lighting the town of Margate, in the county of Kent;" and of another Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for separating the management of the harbour of Margate, in the county of Kent, from the paving and lighting of the town of Margate, and for vesting the future management of the said harbour in a Joint Stock Company of Proprietors;" and of another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually paving, lighting, watching, and improving the town of Margate, in the county of Kent;" and of another Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts relative to the paving, lighting, watching, and improving the town of Margate, in the parish of Saint John the Baptist, in the county of Kent; for erecting certain defences against the sea for the protection of the said town, and for making further improvements in and about the said town and parish;" and of another Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for separating the management of the harbour of Margate, in the county of Kent, from the paving and lighting of the town of Margate, and for vesting the future management of the said harbour in a Joint Stock Company of Proprietors." By which Bill it is proposed to separate the town of Margate from the other part of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, so far as regards the repairs and maintenance of the highways and unpaved streets within the said town, and to exempt the town of Margate from the provisions of the general highway Acts; and to charge the repairs and maintenance of the highways and unpaved streets within the town upon the Commissioners to be appointed to carry such proposed Bill into execution; and also to establish an efficient police within the said town. And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to increase and alter the existing rates authorized by the said Act of the 53d of George 3d, to be raised, levied, and collected.—Dated the 20th day of October 1837.

Jas. Edwd. Wright, Margate, Solicitor for the Bill.

Maiden Newton Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the terms and to alter and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, turning, altering, and keeping in repair the roads from Whistle Bridge, in the parish of Barwick, in the county of Somerset, to the turnpike road, in the parish of Charminster, in the county of Dorset, and from the Cross, in the town of Maiden Newton, to a stream of water in the parish of South Perrott, in the county of Dorset, and from a place, called Furze Moor Gate, in the parish of Broadwinson, to Lenham's Water, in the parish of Beaminster, and from Bugler's Corner, in the town of Beaminster, to the Dorsetshire Inn, in the parish of Woolcoombe, and from Up Sydling Ewe Leaze to the town of Cern Abbas, and from the town of Frampton to join the Western Turnpike road near Steepleton, in the said county of Dorset;" and of another Act, passed in the thirty eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and alter the powers, of an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing the roads from Whistle Bridge, in the parish of Barwick, in the county of Somerset, to the turnpike road, in the parish of Charminster, in the county of Dorset, from the Cross, in the town of Maiden Newton, to a stream of water in the parish of South Perrott, in the county of Dorset, from Furze Moor Gate, in the parish of Broadwinson, to Lenham's Water, in the parish of Beaminster, from Bugler's Corner, in the town of Beaminster, to the Dorsetshire Inn, in the parish of Woolcoombe, and from the town of Frampton to the Western Turnpike road near Steepleton, in the said county of Dorset;" and of another Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue the term and enlarge the powers of two Acts, passed in the eighteenth and thirty-eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, for repairing several roads leading from the town of Maiden Newton, in the county of Dorset, and other roads communicating therewith, in the counties of Somerset and Dorset," or to repeal the said Acts, and to obtain further and other provisions in lieu thereof; by which Bill it is intended to increase or alter the tolls authorised by the said last mentioned Act to be taken on the roads therein mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take power by the said Bill to make a certain deviation from the present line or course of the said roads, and to take tolls thereon or in respect thereof; such deviation to commence at or near the entrance to the village of Charminster, and to rejoin the present turnpike road at or near Broken Cross, and to be made from, in, through, or into the parish, township, or place of Charminster, in the county of Dorset, and to abandon such parts of the present turnpike road as may be rendered useless or unnecessary by reason of such deviation; and that plans and sections of such proposed deviation, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, at Sherborne, with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Dorset, on or before the 30th day of November next; and a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December next; and another copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Charminster, on or before the said 31st day of December next, for the inspection of all persons concerned.—Dated this 30th day of October 1837.

Joseph Crew Jennings, Solicitor for the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for making and maintaining a turnpike road to commence from the Great Western Road leading from London to Hounslow, at or near its junction with Gunnersbury-lane, in the parishes of Chiswick and Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, to pass from thence on the north of the said Great Western Road, and of the town of Brentford, and to terminate in the said Great Western Road, nearly opposite its junction with the Isleworth road, in the parish of Isleworth, in the said county of Middlesex; which said intended new road will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of Chiswick, Ealing, New Brentford, and Isleworth, all in the said county of Middlesex.

Duplicate plans and sections whereof, together with a book of reference thereto, will, on or before the 30th day of November next, be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Middlesex, at his office, at Clerkenwell, in the said county; and also a copy of so much of the said plan and section as relates to each of the before-named parishes, will be deposited with the clerk of each such parish, on or before the 31st day of December next; and a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference will also be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December.

And it is intended by the said Act to take power to levy tolls upon, or in respect of, the said road.—Dated this 20th day of October 1837.

By order of the Commissioners of the Metropolis Turnpike Roads North of the Thames.

Lyon, Barnes, and Ellis, Spring Gardens.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for An Act for the erecting and maintaining of one or more Chapel or Chapels, with a Cemetery or Cemeteries thereto annexed, in that part of the parish of Beding, otherwise Seale, in the county of Sussex, called Lower Beding; and for declaring the same a separate district, or chapelry, for ecclesiastical purposes. And in which Act powers will be contained for raising money for the purposes aforesaid, by the letting or sale of pews and vaults, and by the levying of rates in the said district or chapelry, and by such other ways and means as may be thought expedient: And also for the creation of a rent charge or rent charges, in lieu of the tithes of the said district; and for providing glebe to be attached to the said chapelry, and for endowing the said chapelry therewith, and with the said rent charge or rent charges accordingly; and for other purposes.

1st November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act for enlarging the term, and altering and amending the powers, of three several Acts of Parliament, one passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" another passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" another passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" and for increasing or altering the present tolls taken upon the said road; and it is also intended to apply for power, on borrowing any further sum or sums of money, to give a priority and preference to the person or persons advancing the same, to the mortgage debts owing to the Most Noble his Grace the Duke of Grafton, the late Right Honourable George Earl of Pomfret, the late Right Honourable Earl Spencer, William Grant, Esq. Edward Bouverie, Esq. Humbo Rigby, Esq. for the parish of Blisworth, the late William Harris, Esq. the late Reverend Francis Montgomery, Clerk, and the late Reverend John Thomas Flesher, Clerk; which said road lies in or passes through the several parishes and places of Towcester, Easton Neston with Hulcott, Tiffield, Blisworth, Milton otherwise Middleton Malsor, Wootton, and Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton.

Notice is hereby given, that the next Quarterly Meeting of the Trustees of the turnpike road leading from Towcester to Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton, will be held at the Duke of Grafton's Arms, in Blisworth, on Monday the 27th day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, when a draft copy of the new Bill, for a renewal of the Act of Parliament for the said road, will be laid before the Meeting; and at which Meeting the mortgagees, or their respective representatives or agents, are requested to attend, to receive an explanation from the Trustees for wishing to have inserted a clause in the said Bill, giving a priority and preference to any person or persons advancing any sum or sums of money on security of the intended tolls under the General Turnpike Act, and the proposed new Act, to and over the securities now charged thereupon; and to consent or not consent to such clause being inserted in the said Bill.

By order of the Trustees,

Thos. Howes, Clerk.

Northampton, 11th October 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for establishing a water works company, to be called "The Bury Water Works Company," for the purpose of supplying as well the Inhabitants of the Town of Bury, as also those of the several townships of Walmersley cum Shuttleworth, Bury and Elton, and the several hamlets therein, all in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, and for that purpose to obtain a sufficient supply of water, as well from divers springs and sources, as from a brook or stream, called Shuttleworth Brook, in the hamlet of Shuttleworth, in the said township of Walmersley cum Shuttleworth, in the parish of Bury aforesaid; and also for storing such water in reservoirs, and conveying such water by soughs, drains and pipes, or other means, into and through the said several town of Bury townships and hamlets, in the parish aforesaid, in a line to commence at or near the said brook, called Shuttleworth Brook, in the said hamlet of Shuttleworth, and to terminate in the said township of Elton, and also for erecting, placing, making, extending and completing all necessary reservoirs or aqueducts, and laying down mains, pipes, shafts, drains, sluices, channels, and other necessary works, all within the town of Bury, and the several townships, hamlets, and parish aforesaid; and that it is intended to obtain powers, by the said Act to authorize the said Company to take and purchase lands and to erect and construct steam and other engines, for raising water, and for other purposes to complete the several works necessary for and connected with or relating to the above undertaking; and notice is hereby also given, that the plan and section, shewing the nature and extent of the intended works, together with the requisite book of reference, will be deposited at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, in Preston, in the said county, on or before the 30th day of November now next ensuing; and that duplicate plans and sections, together with the requisite book of reference, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the said office of the clerk of the peace for the said county of Lancaster, in Preston, aforesaid, on or before the 30th day of November now next ensuing; and a copy of which plans and sections, together with the requisite book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Bury, in the said county of Lancaster, on or before the 31st day of December now next ensuing; and a copy of such plans and sections, and books of reference will be also deposited in the Private Bills

Parkes and Preston, Solicitors to the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for altering, extending, enlarging, and amending the powers, authorities, regulations, and provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for lighting with gas the town of Oldham, and the neighbourhood thereof, within the parish of Prestwich cum Oldham, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for better supplying the inhabitants of the said town and neighbourhood with water;" or for repealing the powers, provisions, and restrictions, in the said Act contained, or some of them, and of obtaining other powers and provisions in lieu thereof. And it is also intended to apply for a renewal, and the continuation for a further term, of certain of the powers, granted by the said Act to the company thereby established, which are now expired, for taking land and hereditaments, for making the reservoir called or designated on the map or plan referred to by the said Act the Lower Reservoir, in the township of Oldham, and parish of Prestwich cum Oldham aforesaid, and the township, of Quick, in the parish of Saddleworth, in the west riding of the county of York; and it is also intended to apply for powers to enlarge the said reservoir, called or designated the Lower Reservoir, in the same townships and parishes; and it is also intended to apply for further powers to make and lay aqueducts and pipes and other works in the borough of Oldham (consisting of the several townships of Oldham, Royton, Chadderton, and Crompton, in the parish of Prestwich cum Oldham aforesaid), and in the township of Failsworth, in the parish of Manchester, and in the village of Lees, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, all in the said county palatine of Lancaster, from the said reservoirs to various parts of the said borough, and the said township of Failsworth, and village of Lees aforesaid, for conveying water therefrom for better supplying with water the inhabitants of the said town and borough, and of the said township of Failsworth, and village of Lees aforesaid; and it is also intended to enlarge the powers of the said Act, and to extend the same so as to enable the said company to hold and purchase lands in the townships of Royton, Chadderton, and Crompton, in the said borough of Oldham, and in the said township of Failsworth, in the parish of Manchester, and to erect gas works and lay gas pipes in all the aforesaid several townships, and also in the said village of Lees, and to supply the inhabitants thereof with gas; and also for lighting with gas the streets, roads, and public passages and places, within all, or any part of all, and every or any of the said several townships of Oldham, Royton, Chadderton, Crompton, and Failsworth, and the village of Lees aforesaid; and also to increase and alter the several tolls, rates, and rents, by the said Act granted and authorised to be taken; and also to enable the said company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said intended works, either by additional subscriptions and contributions amongst themselves, or by mortgages on the works, or in such other manner as may be deemed expedient; and further it is intended by the said Bill and Act to divert and turn the waters, streams, and brooks, called Leeming Brook, Count-hill Brook, Roebuckloe Brook, Strines Brook, Top of Meadows Brook, and Lower Brook, which flow into and form the head of the stream of the river Medlock, in and near Strines Dale, in the several townships of Oldham and Quick aforesaid, into the said intended reservoirs and works, and to obtain a better supply of water for the use of the inhabitants of the said borough of Oldham, the said township of Failsworth, and the village of Lees aforesaid, by repealing or altering certain restraints or provisions in the said Act, relating to the taking of water from the said brooks or streams flowing into and forming the head of the said river Medlock, the waters of which said river Medlock supply the canals or navigation of the company of proprietors of the canal navigation from Manchester to or near Ashton-under-Lyne and Oldham, and called the Manchester and Ashton-under-Lyne and Oldham Canal, and which said waters also run into and supply the canals of the devisees in trust of the late most noble Francis Duke of Bridgewater, situate in the several counties palatine of Lancaster and Chester, and which are commonly called or known by the name of the Duke's Canal or Navigation, and which waters also supply the reservoirs and aqueducts of the company of proprietors of Manchester and Salford Water-works, situate at Beswick, within the township or extra parochial place of Beswick, in the hundred of Salford, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, and called the Manchester and Salford Water-works Company's Reservoirs at Beswick, and which said waters of the said river Medlock also supply the several mills, manufactories, and other works, situate and standing upon and near the banks of the said river Medlock, and which said mills, manufactories, and works, are situate in the townships of Quick, Oldham, and Failsworth aforesaid, the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, and the several townships of Droylsden, Newton, Bradford, Manchester, Ardwick, Chorlton-Row, otherwise called Chorlton upon Medlock, and Hulme, all in the parish of Manchester aforesaid, and the township or extra parochial place of Beswick aforesaid; and it is further proposed that the said intended Act shall contain all such other powers, authorities, and provisions, as shall or may be expedient or advisable for accomplishing the several objects and works, authorised or intended so to be by the said Act, the several objects and works herein before-mentioned, and such others as have relation thereto, or are in anywise connected therewith; and which said several works are intended to be made, varied, extended, or enlarged, in, through, or into, the several townships of Oldham, Royton, Chadderton, and Crompton, in the parish of Prestwich cum Oldham, the township of Failsworth, in the parish of Manchester, and the village of Lees, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, all in the said county palatine of Lancaster, and the township of Quick, in the parish of Saddleworth, in the west riding of the county of York.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans of the said intended new works, with sections and books of reference to such plans, will be deposited for public inspection at Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster, in the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county palatine of Lancaster, and also at Wakefield, in the office of the clerk of the peace for the west riding of the county of York, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and also that a copy of such plan, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of Oldham, with the parish clerk of Prestwich cum Oldham, with the parish clerk of Manchester, and with the parish clerk of Ashton-under-Lyne, all in the said county palatine of Lancaster, and with the parish clerk of Saddleworth, in the west riding of the county of York, respectively, or a copy of so much of such plan, sections, and book of reference, with each such parish clerk as relates to the said several parishes respectively, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, for the inspection of all persons concerned; and also that on or before the said thirty-first day of December next a copy of the said plan, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.—Dated the 9th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

for the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for enlarging the term, and amending and varying the powers and provisions, of an Act, passed in the ninth year of reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing and improving the road from Wakefield to Halifax, with certain branches therefrom, all in the west riding of the county of York," and the line of which said roads lies in, or passes through, the several townships, hamlets, or places of Wakefield, Thornes, Alverthorpe, with Thornes, Gawthorpe, Ossett, Soothill, Nether Soothill, Dewsbury, Batley, Staincliffe, Heckmondwike, Liversedge, Hightown, Little Town, Cleckheaton, Scholes, Hartshead-with-Clifton, Lightcliffe, Hipperholme-with-Brighouse, Southowram, and Northowram, or some of them, in the several parishes of Wakefield, Dewsbury, Batley, Birstall, and Halifax, in the west riding of the county of York. And that it is intended, by such Bill and Act, to take power to vary, alter, and divert the said roads, and to make the diversion or branch road, hereinafter next mentioned, that is to say, a diversion or branch road commencing from, and leading out of, the said road from Wakefield to Halifax, in the said Act mentioned, in or at a certain close of land, the property of Frauces Mary Richardson Currier, gentlewoman, and in the occupation of Samuel Hodgson, situate upon Hartshead Moor, and in the township or hamlet of Cleckheaton, and parish of Birstall aforesaid, being the second close from the south-east end of a lane or road leading out of the said Wakefield and Halifax road, to or towards the village of Scholes, called Scholes-lane; and which said branch road is intended to pass thence from, in, through, or into the several townships hamlets or places of Cleckheaton, Clifton, otherwise Hartshead with Clifton, Scholes and Wike, and the several parishes of Birstall and Dewsbury aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction or communication with the present turnpike road leading from Huddersfield to Bradford, in or at a close of land in the township of Wike, and parish of Birstall aforesaid, called Stubbing, the property of Major Dawson, Esquire, and in the occupation of Jonas Collins, near the place or point where the said Huddersfield and Bradford road crosses the Leeds and Whitehall turnpike road. And that it is intended to obtain power by such Bill and Act, to levy tolls, rates, or duties, for or in respect of all horses, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along the said new diversion or branch road. And that it is also intended to repeal or discontinue some of the powers, restraints, and provisions of the said Act of the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, relating to the making and maintaining of the roads therein mentioned, and the taking of toll thereon; that is to say, it is intended to discharge the trustees for executing such intended Act, from all liability to make or maintain certain of the diversions and branch roads by the said recited Act authorised or intended to be made and maintained; that is to say, the diversion commencing, or intended to commence, at or near the Toll Bar, on the said Wakefield and Halifax Road, called the Mill's Bridge Bar, and rejoining, or intended to rejoin, the same road at Mill's Bridge, and being situate wholly in, or passing through, the township of Liversedge aforesaid, in the parish of Birstall aforesaid; And also the diversion commencing, or intended to commence, near the end of the said lane, leading from the said Wakefield and Halifax road, to the hamlet or village of Scholes, and rejoining, or intended to rejoin, the same road at or near Bailiff Bridge, and being situate in or passing through the townships or hamlets of Cleckheaton, Scholes, and Hartshead with Clifton aforesaid, in the parishes of Birstall and Dewsbury aforesaid: And also the diversion commencing, or intended to commence, in Maulroyd lane, in the said Wakefield and Halifax road, and rejoining, or intended to rejoin, the same road near to Chapel Fold lane; and which diversion the Trustees had, by virtue of the powers of the Acts of Parliament recited in the Act hereinbefore recited, ordered, and directed to be made, and which had been staked out in pursuance of such order; and so much of the branch road commencing, or intended to commence, at or near a certain place in the said Wakefield and Halifax road, called Mytholm, and terminating, or intended to terminate, at or near a messuage or place, called Upper Brier, where it would join a certain other turnpike road, called the Godley Lane Head Turnpike Road, as is not already formed and made, such branch road being situate in, or intended to pass through, the townships of Hipperholme with Brighouse and Northowram aforesaid, in the parish of Halifax aforesaid; and also the branch road commencing, or intended to commence, at or near a certain messuage or place, called the Bird-cage, and extending to, and communicating with, the present highway from Halifax to Southowram, at or near a place called Southowram Bank Top; and which last mentioned branch road would be situate in, or pass through, the townships of Northowram and Southowram aforesaid, in the parish of Halifax aforesaid. And it is also intended to continue and to increase or alter the tolls now authorised to be taken by the hereinbefore recited Act, and to obtain powers to collect the same, respectively, on all parts of the present turnpike roads. And it is also intended to take power, by the said intended Bill and Act, for the trustees acting in the execution of an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a new road from Leeds to Whitehall, near Halifax, and several branch roads therefrom, all in the west riding of the county of York," to alter, vary, and remove, or reduce the tolls by the said last mentioned Act authorised to be collected, and for such purposes to amend the said last mentioned Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed diversion or branch road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield, in the said riding, on or before the 30th day of November now instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference as relates to the parish of Birstall, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Birstall; and a copy of so much of the same plan, section, and book of reference as relates to the parish of Dewsbury, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Dewsbury, both on or before the 31st day of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference will also be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated this 6th day of November 1837.

Mythe and Mythe Hook, in the borough of Tewkesbury, in the said county of Gloucester; Chaceley, Bushley, Ripple, Queenhill, Holdfast, Upton upon Severn, Earl's Croome, Hanley, otherwise Hanley Castle, Severn Stoke, Great Malvern, Madresfield, Clevelode, Povick, Kempsey, Saint Peter the Great, Saint John in Bedwardine, Hallow, Claines, Grimley, Ombersley, Holt, Shrawley, Astley, Hartlebury, Areley Kings, Lower Mitton, and the Foreign of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester; Saint Alban, Saint Andrew, All Saints, and Saint Clement, in the city and borough of Worcester; and Saint Peter the Great, Saint Michael in Bedwardine, the College Precincts, Saint John in Bedwardine, Saint Clement and Claines, in the borough of Worcester. And it is also intended to include in the said Bill, powers for purchasing lands, and for making cuts or canals, locks, weirs, dams, sluices, bridges and approaches thereto, drains, culverts, piers, docks, wharfs, quays, landing places, embankments, towing paths, and other works for the purposes aforesaid, or in relation thereto, from, in, through or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets or places hereinbefore mentioned, or some of them, and particularly for building a new bridge across the river Severn, in the parish of Upton-upon-Severn aforesaid, near the site of the present bridge there, and for making roads, avenues, and approaches thereto, or for altering, repairing, or reconstructing the said present bridge, and altering and diverting the turnpike road leading to the same as may be deemed most advantageous, or as occasion may require. And also for diverting so much and such parts of the said river, within the said parishes, townships, hamlets, or places, of Ripple, Upton-upon-Severn, Saint John in Bedwardine, Saint Peter the Great, Grimley, Claines, Ombersley, Holt, Astley, and Hartlebury, in the county of Worcester aforesaid, and Saint John in Bedwardine, and Saint Peter the Great, in the borough of Worcester aforesaid, as by reason of any lateral cuts, locks, weirs, or other works, shall be necessary for carrying into effect the proposed improvements. And also for making a navigable cut, or canal, from and out of the said river Severn, into the Gloucester and Berkeley canal, such navigable cut or canal to commence in a certain piece of land, belonging to, and in the occupation of Samuel Baker, esquire, situate on the south-east side of the eastern branch of the said river, and to terminate by a junction with the said Gloucester and Berkeley canal, at the distance of 90 yards or thereabouts southward of the bridge, over the said canal, leading towards the Spa, which said navigable cut or canal, is intended to be made in Lanthony, otherwise South Hamlet aforesaid. And notice is also hereby given, that power will be contained in the said Bill to divert into the said last mentioned cut or canal, a part of the water from the said Gloucester and Berkeley canal, and (derivatively) from the Stroudwater or Frome river, the Stroudwater canal, the Cambridge Arm, and the stream entering the said Gloucester and Berkeley canal, at or near Hardwick, in the said county of Gloucester. And it is intended to take powers in the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, and dues upon all barges, boats, vessels, and craft; goods, wares, and merchandizes, navigating, or carried upon the said river, cuts, or canals, so far as the said improvements shall extend. And notice is hereby also given, that powers will be contained in the said Bill to amend, alter, or repeal all and every, or such and so many of the clauses and powers contained in the several Acts of Parliament hereinafter enumerated, or any, or either of them as may be necessary to effectuate the improvements and works, or for any of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned; that is to say, an Act passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of King Henry the Seventh, being an Act for free passage upon the river Severn.

An Act passed in the twenty-third year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled "An Act for the exaction of tolls by the Severn side."

An Act passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and keeping in repair a road or passage for horses on the bank of the river Severn, between Bewdley bridge and a place called the Meadow wharf at Coalbrook Dale, for hauling and drawing vessels along the said river, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

An Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rendering more effectual the said last mentioned Act."

An Act passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending and making the horse towing-path, or road, on the banks of the river Severn, from Bewdley bridge, in the county of Worcester, to the deep water at Diglis, below the city of Worcester."

An Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and keeping in repair a road or passage for horses on the banks of the river Severn, between a certain place at Coalbrook Dale, to and above the Welsh bridge, in the town of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, for hauling and drawing vessels along the said river."

An Act passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending the horse towing-path on the banks of the river Severn, from Worcester bridge, to a certain place below the city of Gloucester, called the Lower Parting, situate at the corner of Portham Mead, in the county of Gloucester."

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the said intended improvements, and the cuts and works connected herewith, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November instant, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office at Gloucester; and with the clerk of the peace for the county of Worcester, at his office at Worcester; and with the clerk of the peace for the city of Gloucester, at his office in the said city; and with the clerk of the peace for the city of Worcester, at his office in the said city; and also with the town clerk of the borough of Tewkesbury, at his office within the said borough; and a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited on or before the 31st day of December next, in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the said parishes, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the said 31st day of December next, with the parish clerks of each of the said parishes respectively. —Dated the 8th day of November, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for continuing the term, and for enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and amending the roads from Lutterworth Hand, on the Watling-street road, through Churchover, Brownsover, Newbold-upon-Avon, Rugby, and Bilton, in the county of Warwick, to the turnpike road between Dunchurch and Hillmorton, in the said county," or for repealing the said Act, and granting further and more extensive powers in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that provision is intended to be made in the said Bill for placing under the care and management of the Trustees, to be thereby appointed, a certain piece of turnpike road, lying between the Dun Cow, in Dunchurch, and the Rugby turnpike road, leading from or near a public house, known by the sign of the Cock, in the parish of Bilton, in the said county of Warwick, through the town of Rugby, to the Gibbet or Lutterworth Hand, on the Watling-street road, which piece of road contains in length about three-quarters of a mile, and is situate in the several parishes of Dunchurch and Bilton aforesaid: And for repealing so much of an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Dunchurch to Hillmorton, in the county of Warwick, and from thence to Saint James's End, in the parish of Duston, in the county of Northampton," as relates to, or in any way concerns, the said last-mentioned piece of road, or for amending the said Act, with reference to the said piece of road, in such manner as Parliament may think proper: And in the said Bill an increase and alteration of the existing tolls, authorised to be taken on the said first-mentioned road, is intended to be proposed. By order of the Trustees,

Rugby, 4th November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for continuing the term and for enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and amending the roads from Lutterworth Hand, on the Watling-street Road, through Churchover, Brownsover, Newbold upon Avon, Rugby, and Bilton, in the county of Warwick, to the turnpike road between Dunchurch and Hillmorton, in the said county;" or for repealing the said Act, and granting further and more extensive powers in lieu thereof; And notice is hereby also given, that provision is intended to be made in the said Bill, for restraining the trustees acting in execution of an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Dunchurch to Hillmorton, in the county of Warwick, and from thence to Saint James's End, in the parish of Duston, in the county of Northampton," from erecting any gate or taking any toll on a certain piece of road lying between the Dun Cow, in Dunchurch, and the Rugby turnpike road, leading from or near a public house, known by the sign of the Cock, in the parish of Bilton, in the said county of Warwick, through the town of Rugby, to the Gibbet or Lutterworth Hand, on the Walling-street Road, which piece of road contains in length about three quarters of a mile, and is situate in the several parishes of Dunchurch and Bilton aforesaid, or for repealing or altering so much of the said last mentioned Act as relates to, or in anywise concerns, such piece of road. And in the said Bill, an increase and alteration of the existing tolls authorised to be taken on the said first mentioned road, is intended to be proposed.

By order of the Trustees,

Rugby, 4th Nov. 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended, in the ensuing session of Parliament, to apply for leave to bring in a Bill for erecting and maintaining a bridge over the River Tweed, from a certain place in the township of Norham, in the parish of Norham, in the county of Durham, to a certain place in the parish of Ladykirk, in the county of Berwick, with roads of communication leading to and from the said bridge, which bridge and roads of communication are intended to be situated in the said township of Norham, in the said parish of Norham, in the county of Durham, and in the said parish of Ladykirk, in the county of Berwick, respectively; and that in such Bill it is intended to take powers to shut up all fords and ferries in, through, or over the River Tweed, which are or may be situated between Coldstream Bridge and the Union Chain Bridge; which fords and ferries are situated in the several townships of Cornhill and Tilmouth, in the parish or parochial chapelry of Cornhill, the several townships of Twisel, Norham, Norham-Mains, Horncliffe, and Lonend, in the said parish of Norham, all in the said county of Durham, and in the several parishes of Coldstream, Ladykirk, and Hutton, in the said county of Berwick; and notice is also given, that it is intended by the said Bill, to take powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties, on or for the use of the said bridge and roads of communication; and it is intended that maps or plans, and sections describing the line and levels of the said bridge and roads of communication, and the lands to be taken or used for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners; lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands to be taken or used for the purposes of the said bridge and roads of communication, shall be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November 1837, in the office of the clerk of the peace of the said county of Durham, and in the office of the principal Sheriff-clerk of the county of Berwick, at Dunse; and it is also intended to deposit duplicates of the said maps or plans, sections, and books of reference, in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December, in the said year 1837; and it is also intended to deposit with the parish clerk of the said parish of Norham, and with the school-master of the said parish of Ladykirk, at their respective residences, on or before the said 31st day of December 1837, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish into or through which the said bridge and roads of communication are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto.—Dated this 3d day of November 1837.

W. and E. Willoby, Berwick upon Tweed.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, the one passed in the fifth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for establishing a floating bridge over the River Itchen, from or near a place called Cross House, within the liberties of the town of Southampton, to the opposite shore, in the county of Southampton, with proper approaches thereto, and for making roads to communicate therewith;" and the other passed in the fifth and sixth years of the same reign, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for establishing a floating bridge over the River Itchen, near the town of Southampton, with proper approaches thereto, and making roads to communicate therewith;" and notice is hereby also given, that by such Bill and Act, it is intended to take powers to borrow a larger sum of money on the credit of the several tolls, rates, or duties by the said first mentioned Act granted, than the Company of Proprietors of the Itchen Bridge and Roads are by the said Acts enabled to borrow, or to increase the capital of the said company by a new subscription; or an issue of new shares in the said undertaking, or to raise money by either or both of such means, and to make provision for giving a priority or preference to the new subscribers over the original subscribers to the undertaking; and also to repeal, alter, and vary some of the provisions of the said Acts, and to establish new regulations respecting the collection of the tolls, and the stations, toll-houses, or places for collecting the same, and for the better carrying the purposes of the said Acts into execution; and also to establish new regulations as to the weight, width of wheels, and dimensions of waggons, carts, and other carriages passing over the said bridge or roads, or either of them, and chargeable with tolls, and so far to increase or alter the existing tolls; and which said bridge and roads lie in, or pass from, through, or into the parish of Saint Mary, within the liberties of the town and county of the town of Southampton, and the several parishes of Saint Mary-extra-Hound, and Bursledon, in the county of Southampton, some or one of them.

Southampton, November 10, 1837.

Portsmouth Commercial Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, erecting, constructing, and maintaining a dock or docks, wharf or wharfs, quay or quays, for receiving, loading, and unloading colliers, ships, lighters, barges, steam and other vessels, together with proper basins, jetties, piers, bridges, culverts, locks, sluices, drains, cuts, channels, feeders, landing places, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, approaches, roads, avenues, warehouses, and other works, erections, and conveniences, connected therewith or adjoining thereto, extending from a certain wharf or quay, usually known by the name of Lindegren's wharf, along the south-western shore of a certain part of the harbour of Portsmouth, commonly called or known by the name of the Camber, to the bridge on the north side of the Point Gates, commonly called or known by the name of Point Bridge, and also extending on the eastern shore of the said part of the harbour of Portsmouth, called the Camber, from the said bridge called Point Bridge, to the building used as a hospital, adjoining a certain bastion, called the Camber Bastion, and also extending from the said Camber Bastion, to the slipway or landing-place adjoining the town quay, all being, or reputed to be, within the parish of Portsmouth, in the borough of Portsmouth, and in the county of Southampton, with powers to deepen the channel leading from the harbour of Portsmouth, into that part of the said harbour so called the Camber, and also to deepen the said Camber, and also to erect, set up, build, and maintain, gates, with a swivel bridge over the same, extending from the quay or wharf intended to be erected and made between the said Camber Bastion and the said slipway or landing place, adjoining the town quay, across the said camber, to the opposite or western side thereof.

Duplicate plans and sections whereof, together with books of reference, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county, situate at Winchester, in the said county of Southampton; and also with the clerk of the peace for the borough of Portsmouth, situate in High-street, in the town of Portsmouth, in the borough of Portsmouth aforesaid, on or before the 13th day of November instant: and a copy of which said plans, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Portsmouth, on or before the 31st day of December next; and a copy of which plans, sections, and books of reference, will also be deposited at the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next. And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to enable the company proposed to be formed by the said Bill, to levy tolls, rates, and duties.—Dated this 4th day of November 1837.

James Hoskins, Solicitor, Grand Parade, Portsmouth.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending the Road from Dudley-hill, through Beckwithshaw to Killinghall, and from Beckwithshaw to the south west corner of Harrogate Inclosures; and for making and maintaining a branch therefrom to Bradford, all in the west riding of the county of York;" and which roads respectively pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Bradford, Bowling, Calverley, Tyersal, Eccleshill, Guiseley, Rawden, Yeadon, Carlton, Otley, Brai-

hope, Poal, Leathley, Stainburn, Kirkby, otherwise Kirkby-Overblow, Pannal, Knaresborough, Bilton with Harrogate, Ripley, and Killinghall, in the west riding of the county of York;" and that it is also intended to obtain powers to make the branch, or diversion of road hereinafter described, that is to say, to commence from or near to a certain turnpike gate upon the said road, called Leathley Bar, in the township of Leathley, in the parish of Leathley, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Leathley, Castley, Newby, Huby, Weeton, Harewood, Rigton, Kirkby-Overblow, Pannal, Scriven, otherwise, Scriven cum Tentergate, Bilton with Harrogate, and Knaresborough, and to terminate at or near to the cross roads near the Brunswick Hotel, at Harrogate aforesaid, all in the said west riding. And it is also intended to obtain powers to make the new line, or branch of road, hereinafter described, from, and out of the said intended diversion, that is to say, to commence at or near a certain place called Nab Hill, in the township of Rigton, in the parish of Kirkby-Overblow, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Rigton and Kirkby-Overblow, and to terminate at a certain point about two hundred and sixty yards north-east of Buttersyke Bar, where the highway from Burnt-bridge and Pannal enters the Leeds and Harrogate turnpike road, all in the said west riding of the county of York; and that it is intended to obtain power to levy tolls, rates, or duties for, or in respect of all horses, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon, or along the said branch, or diversion of road, and new line or branch of road respectively; and also to increase or alter the tolls, rates, or duties payable under the authority of the said recited Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the proposed diversion, and new line or branches of road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said west riding of the county of York, in Wakefield, in the said riding, on or before the 30th day of November now instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference, as relates to each of the several parishes following, that is to say, Leathley, Pannal, Kirkby-Overblow, Harewood, and Knaresborough, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of such parishes respectively, on or before the 31st day of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference will also be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated this 8th day of November 1837.

of the said Road.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for enlarging the term, and amending and varying the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a new road from Salterhebble, in the parish of Halifax, to the Huddersfield and New Hey turnpike road, in the parish of Huddersfield, and several branches therefrom, in the west riding of the county of York, with certain bridges on the line of the said road and branches; and the line of which said roads lies in, or passes through, the parishes of Halifax and Huddersfield, and the townships or places of Southowram, Skircoat, Elland, otherwise Elland cum Greeland, Stainland, Longwood, Scammonden, and Deanhead, or some of them, in the west riding of the county of York; and it is also intended, by the said intended Bill and Act, to take power to vary, alter, and divert the said roads, and to put under the care of the Trustees for executing such intended Act, and to make turnpike, and to improve a certain highway commencing from the present turnpike road at Sowood-green, in the said township of Stainland, and parish of Halifax, and passing through part of the same township and parish, and part of the township or place of Longwood, and parish of Huddersfield aforesaid, and terminating in the said Huddersfield and New Hey turnpike road, at or near to the toll-house across the same road, in the occupation of Eli Gledhill, and in the said township or place of Longwood, and parish of Huddersfield, and to take tolls thereon; and it is also intended to repeal, or discontinue, some of the powers, restraints, and provisions of the said Act of the fifth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, relating to the making and maintaining of such roads, and the taking of toll thereon, that is to say, it is intended to discharge the Trustees for executing such intended Act from all liability to make or maintain so much of the line of road, by the said Act authorised to be made and maintained, as extends from Sowood-green aforesaid, in and through the said township of Stainland, and the said townships or places of Longwood, Scammonden, and Deanhead, or any of them, and the said parish of Huddersfield, to the said Huddersfield and New Hey turnpike road, at or near the Royal George Inn, in the said parish of Huddersfield; and also from all liability to make or maintain the road, or branch, by the said Act authorised or intended to be made and maintained, from Bankhouse, in the said parish of Halifax, and township of Skircoat, through part of the same parish and township, to Salterhebble Hill Top, in the same parish and township; and also from all liability to make or maintain so much of the line of road comprised in the said Act, as extends from, or from near to, Salterhebble Bridge, to or near to Salterhebble Locks, being in length about four hundred yards, all in the said township of Southowram, and parish of Halifax; and it is also intended to continue and increase, alter and vary, the tolls now authorised to be taken by the said Act, and to obtain power to collect the same respectively on all other parts of the present turnpike roads.—Dated this 6th day of November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session of Parliament, for an Act to make a branch railway, from the Midland Counties Railway, commencing in the parish of Barrow-upon-Soar, in the county of Leicester, by a junction with the said

Midland Counties Railway, in or near a certain field of which Mr. Thomas Bradshaw is the owner, or reputed owner and occupier, and numbered 7 on the plan of the said Midland Counties Railway, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Leicester, and terminating in or near the village of Mountsorrel, at a bridge across the Leicester navigation, in the public road leading from Mountsorrel to Sileby, together with wharfs and other works and conveniences connected with the said branch railway, which is intended to pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, or places of Barrow-upon-Soar, Mountsorrel, north end, and Mountsorrel, south end, all in the said county of Leicester, or some or one of them; of which intended application notices were given in the months of February and March, in the present year, and a plan and section, together with a book of reference thereto, were, before the 1st day of March last, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Leicester, and, within one calendar month afterwards, copies thereof were deposited with the parish clerk of each of the said parishes, townships, or places, and in the office of the clerk of the Parliaments as directed by the standing orders then in force.

And further notice is hereby given, that a plan and section of the said intended branch railway, describing the line thereof, and the lands in or through which the same is proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Leicester, at Leicester, and also with the parish clerks of each of the said parishes, townships, or places, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the Honourable the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December next; and power is intended to be applied for, in the said intended Act, to levy tolls, rates, or duties for all articles, matters, and things to be carried or conveyed upon or along the said branch railway, or any part thereof.—Dated the 8th day of November 1837. By order of,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, or Bills, for enclosing certain meadow ground, called the East Croft, in the parish of St. Mary, in the town and county of the town of Nottingham, and so much of certain other meadow ground, called the West Croft, in the parish and town and county aforesaid, as lies between the Nottingham canal and the stream called the Tinker's Leen, and so much, in addition, of the meadow ground on the south side of, and adjoining to, the said Tinker's Leen, between the northernmost arch of the seven arch bridge, on the turnpike road there, called the Flood road, and the south end of the meadow foot bridge, lying next west of the same, as will form into a straight line, the south boundary of that part of the land so intended to be enclosed, and which additional land is also situate in the parish and town and county aforesaid, and will contain one acre more or less. And, for the purpose of improving the same several meadow grounds; and the approaches therefrom to the said town, provision is intended to be made, in the said Bill or Bills, to form and carry a canal from a point of the present Nottingham canal, east of Carrington street, in the said parish of St. Mary, under the said Flood road, to a point in the said Nottingham canal, north of the same seven arch bridge, within the same parish; and also to make a deviation in the said Nottingham canal, commencing on the east side of the canal bridge, at the south end of Bridge-street, in the said parish of St. Mary, and terminating at the Chain Pool, in the same parish; and also to make basins communicating with the said Nottingham canal, within the land now intended to be enclosed; also to build a bridge over the said Nottingham canal and the Haling path in a direct line towards Carrington-street, and to form a street from the said bridge to Canal-street, and further to make one or more other bridge or bridges from the said West Croft, over the said Nottingham canal and Haling path to the northern bank of the said canal, and to form a street or streets from such last mentioned bridge or bridges to Canal-street aforesaid, and Leen side, or one or both of them, and further to make one or more bridge or bridges within the said Flood road, for the purpose of affording water communication between the said East Croft and West Croft, so intended to be enclosed; and also one or more bridge or bridges from the east side of the said Flood road across the said Nottingham canal and the Haling path, to and from the said East Croft, which said intended canal deviation bridge or bridges, and street or streets, will all be situate in the said parish of Saint Mary, in the said town and county of the town of Nottingham; and in which Bill or Bills provision is also intended to be made, to authorise water to be taken, for the use of the said canal deviation and basins, from the said Nottingham canal.

And further notice is hereby given, that plans, sections, and books of reference of the aforesaid works, proposed for the improvement of the said meadow grounds, will be deposited at the office of the clerk of the peace for the town and county of the town of Nottingham, at Nottingham, on or before the 30th day of November instant, and with the parish clerk of Saint Mary, and in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December next.—Dated the 9th day of November 1837.

H. Enfield, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled "An Act for making and maintaining a Reservoir upon Bradshaw Brook, in the townships of Turton and Entwisle, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster, for providing a more regular supply of water in Bradshaw Brook aforesaid, and in certain rivers connected therewith; and to alter and increase the rates authorised to be made and levied by the said Act, also to enable the Commissioners of the said reservoir to enter into any contract and agreement with the Company of Proprietors of the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation and Railway, or with any body corporate, person or persons, for a supply of water from the said reservoir, by way of purchase and sale, or otherwise, to and for the use of the said Canal Navigation, or to and for the use of any body corporate, person or persons, or for the sale and transfer of all the right, title, and interest of the said Commissioners in, and to the said reservoir, and the works connected therewith, to the said Company of Proprietors, or to any body corporate, person or persons, but without prejudice to the rights of the owners and occupiers of falls now supplied from the said reservoir; also to enable the said Commissioners to make and maintain an enlargement of the said reservoir, in the said townships of Turton and Entwisle, and of the banks, dams, overflows, and other works thereof; and also to make and maintain a feeder, cut, or channel, commencing at a brook hereinafter mentioned, called Wayho Brook, at or near to a place called Coal Pit Eyes, in the township of Entwisle, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, and passing in and through the said township of Entwisle, and ending at the said reservoir, in the said township of Entwisle, together with such catchwaters, weirs, byewashes, roads, drains, and other works as may be proper and convenient for collecting and conducting into the said reservoir, the surplus waters of a brook called Wayho Brook, in the said townships of Turton and Entwisle, and in the township of Edgeworth, in the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, and of the tributary streams and rivulets of Wayho Brook aforesaid, in the said townships of Turton, Entwisle, and Edgeworth; also to enable the said Commissioners to make and maintain a tunnel, cut, conduit, and channel from the said reservoir in Entwisle aforesaid, towards and to Wayho Brook aforesaid, in the said townships of Entwisle and Edgeworth; and to convey and deliver water thereby for the use of any body corporate, person or persons; also to enable the said Commissioners to make and maintain a feeder, cut, conduit, or channel, commencing at Bradshaw Brook aforesaid, at or near to a place called Rufus's Farm, in the township of Tonge, with Haugh, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, and passing in, into, and through the said township of Tonge with Haugh, and the townships of Brightmet and Darcy Lever, both in the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, and ending at or near to the said Canal Navigation, at or near to Dam side Aqueduct, in the said township of Darcy Lever, together with such weirs, aqueducts, tunnels, pipes, gauges, byewashes, cloughs, dams, roads, and other works as may be proper and convenient for effecting and regulating the flowing of the said water out of the said reservoir and works, and into and for the use of the said Canal Navigation, and for the use of any body corporate, person or persons as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that the plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said feeders, channels, tunnels, and other works, together with books of reference, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November in this present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston; and, on or before the 31st day of December next, in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, and with the parish clerk of Bolton-le-Moors aforesaid.—Dated at Bolton this 4th day of November 1837.

James K. Watkins, Law Clerk to the said Commissioners.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for establishing and constituting a Local Court, in the parish of Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, for the recovery of small debts, not exceeding ten pounds, in the several parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone, Saint Pancras, and Saint Mary Paddington, in the said county of Middlesex, or some or one of them, and for obtaining all such powers and provisions to be inserted in such Bill, as shall be necessary or convenient, for establishing and maintaining such court, and as are usually inserted in Acts of Parliament, for establishing Local Courts for the recovery of small debts.

Notice is also hereby given, that application is likewise intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, to enable the Vestrymen of the said parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, to levy a sufficient and equitable rate towards defraying the expense of keeping in repair the Macadamized roadway of Oxford-street, and also to render the three parishes on the line of the south side of Oxford-street (viz. Saint George, Hanover-square, Saint James, Westminster, and Saint Anne, Soho) liable to a fair contribution towards the expense of repairing the said Macadamized roadway of Oxford-street.—Dated this 11th day of November 1837.

James Hugo Greenwell, Vestry Clerk.

Court House, St. Mary-le-bone.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act, for building and constructing a Pier, or Jetty, on the south side of the River Thames, in the parish of Woolwich, in the county of Kent (on and from a part of the bank or shore of the said river, situate between a certain lane and landing-place, called Globe-lane, and the eastern end of Her Majesty's Dock Yard, at Woolwich aforesaid), for the embarking and disembarking of passengers, cattle, and carriages, and also goods, wares, and merchandize, and for making proper and sufficient regulations for the maintenance and support; and also for the good government and regulation of the said pier or jetty, and for making suitable and necessary approaches thereto, from the High-street of the said parish of Woolwich; and that it is also intended to obtain powers by the said Bill, to take and purchase all the messuages or tenements, lands and hereditaments, situate and being between Globe-lane aforesaid, and Her Majesty's Dock Yard and the High-street of Woolwich aforesaid, and the River Thames, or such and so many of them as may be necessary for the making the said approaches; and that it is also intended to obtain powers by the said Act, to levy tolls, rates, and duties, on all passengers, cattle, carriages, goods, wares, and merchandize embarking and disembarking, or landing at the said pier or jetty; and it is further proposed to obtain such additional powers as may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes aforesaid.

James Colquhoun, Solicitor, Parson's Hill, Woolwich.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for incorporating certain persons, now engaged in supplying with gas the town or parish of Leamington Priors, in the county of Warwick, and other persons, into a company, for the purpose of better lighting with gas, the streets, lanes, ways, and other public passages and places, and houses, buildings, and other premises, in the parishes of Leamington Priors, Milverton, Whitnash, Lillington, and Radford-Seméle, all in the said county of Warwick.

Patterson and Hanbury, Solicitors.

Leamington Priors, November 10, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act for paving or flagging, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, and improving, the town of Leamington Priors, in the county of Warwick." And it is also intended to increase or alter the existing rates granted by the said Act; and which town comprises the whole of the parish of Leamington Priors, in the said county. And also to obtain powers for enabling the commissioners, for executing such Act, to borrow further sums of money, on the credit of the rates granted by the said recited Act, or to be granted by the said intended Act, for further improving the said town.

W. F. Patterson, Clerk to the Commissioners.

Leamington Priors, November 10, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act for making and maintaining a dock, for suitable piers, walls, locks, gates, bridges, arches, landing places, avenues, approaches, wharfs, depots, warehouses, buildings, staiths, reservoirs, and other works and conveniences, at and near to Jarrow Slake, upon or within the river Tyne and the lands adjoining the same, situate within the parishes of Jarrow and Monkwearmouth, in the county of Durham; and Saint Nicholas in the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or some or one of them, and within the several townships, hamlets, or places, of South Shields, Westoe, Jarrow, and Fulwell, all in the said county of Durham, or some or one of them; and for deepening and improving the channel of the river Tyne; at or near to the proposed entrance to the said dock, and for incorporating a company for the purposes aforesaid; and it is intended by the said Act to take powers for purchasing lands, buildings, and other hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid; and also powers for diverting the course of a stream or rivulet called Boldon Burn, otherwise the river Don, and other streams, brooks, and rivulets, on the line or site of, and near to, the said dock and other works; and also powers to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by the creation of shares, or by some other mode to be authorised and provided for in and by such intended Act; and in the said Act provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls, dues, and duties for the use of the said dock, depots, warehouses, buildings, and premises.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said dock and other works, describing the line or situation thereof, and the lands in or upon which the same shall be made, together with books and reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers, of such lands, respectively, will be deposited at the offices of the several clerks of the peace for the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and the county of Durham, on Thursday, the 30th day of November instant; and with the several parish clerks of the said parishes of Jarrow, Monkwearmouth, and Saint Nicholas, at their respective residences; and in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on Saturday the 30th day of December next.—Dated this 5th day of November 1837.

West Durham Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for an Act for incorporating certain persons for the purpose of making and maintaining a railway or railways, tramroad or tramroads, bridge or bridges, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, for the passing of carriages, waggons, and locomotive engines; which said railway or railways, tramroad or tramroads, will commence in a certain field belonging to Colonel Spearman, marked, No. 1 on the plan, situate in the township of Crook and Billey-row, in the parish of Brancepeth, in the county of Durham and extend to, pass over to, or into the several townships, hamlets or places of Crook and Billey row, Helmington row, Willington Byers Green, Old Park, and Whitworth and into the parishes of Brancepeth, Saint Andrew Auckland and Whitworth, all in the county of Durham, or some or one of them, and terminating at, and entering into, and communicating with, the Byers green branch of the Clarence railway, in or near to a certain field belonging to William Russell, Esq., marked No. 34 on the plan, in the township of Byers green, in the said parish of Saint Andrew Auckland, in the said county of Durham. In which said Act provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls, rates, and duties for passing along the said railway or railways, or tram-road or tramroads, bridge or bridges, and for the use of the works and other conveniences connected therewith. And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with the books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners lessees or occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November, in this present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Durham, at his office in the city of Durham, and also, on or before the 31st day of December next, in the private Bill office of the House of Commons, and in the office of the clerks of the Parliaments; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the said parishes of Brancepeth, Saint Andrew Auckland and Whitworth, will also be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the said 30th day of November, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated this 7th day of November 1837.

Harzey and Wood, 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, Solicitors for the Bill.

Buckland Inclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, common meadows, common pastures, and other commonable and waste lands and grounds within the manor and parish of Buckland, in the county of Bucks; and for raising money for carrying the purposes of the said Bill into execution, either by levying rates upon the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed or by such other means as shall be specified in the said Bill. Dated this 8th day of November 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for establishing and maintaining a Cemetery for the interment of the dead in the parish of Minster, in the Isle of Thanet, in the county of Kent; and it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill, to fix a rate, or sum of money, to be paid for each interment within the said cemetery. Dated the 14th day of November 1837.

Waugh and Fisher, No. 5, Great James-street, Bedford-row, and H. Wightwick, Ramsgate, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and amend the powers and provisions of two Acts, one passed in the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rebuilding, or for improving, regulating, and maintaining, the Town Quay of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, and the landing place belonging thereto." And the other passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for rebuilding, or for improving, regulating, and maintaining, the Town Quay of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, and the landing place belonging thereto, and for building a pier or jetty adjoining thereto,' and to repeal such of the provisions of the said first recited Act, as authorize and relate to the levying and collecting the sum of one penny from every passenger who shall land from, or embark in, any vessel employed in carrying passengers for hire, from London to Gravesend, or from Gravesend to London, at any place within the villages and parishes of Gravesend and Milton, or either of them.—Dated this 7th day of November 1837.

John Matthews, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, repeal, and render more effectual, some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Grand Junction Railway; and also to make and maintain a railway or railways (with proper works and conveniences connected therewith), commencing by a junction with the Grand Junction Railway, in the parish of Runcorn, in the county of Chester, and terminating by a junction with the Liverpool and Manchester railway, in the parish of Huyton, in the county of Lancaster, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, hamlets, and places of Runcorn, Aston, Daresbury, Kekewick, Moore, Norton, Acton Grange, Higher Walton, Lower Walton, Fidler's Ferry, Marshgate, Wainford, Stockham, Astmore, and Great Budworth, or some of them; all in the county of Chester; West Bank, Cuerdley, Widnes, Upton within Widnes, Upton, Widnes within Appleton, Appleton, Speke, Childwall, Penketh, Great Sankey, Farnworth, Farnworth within Widnes, Ditton, Little Tarbock, Tarbock, Hale, Halewood, Little Woolton, Much Woolton, Garston, Allerton, Walton-on-the-Hill, Halshead, Cronton, Rainhill, Bold, Whiston, Huyton, Roby, Prescott, Warrington, and Winwick, or some of them, all in the county of Lancaster.

And further notice is hereby given, that power will be applied for in the said intended Act or Acts, to deviate (to the extent of one hundred yards on each side) from the line or lines of the said intended railways respectively, as defined upon the plans thereof, which have been, and will be, deposited as hereinafter mentioned. And it is also intended to obtain power to levy rates, tolls, or duties for, or in respect of, all persons, goods, articles, matters or things, cattle, animals, and carriages passing upon or along, or using, the said intended railway or railways, or any of the works connected therewith.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said intended railway or railways, together with a book of reference thereto, prepared in conformity with the standing orders of Parliament then in force, were deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Chester, at his office in Chester; and with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, on or before the 1st day of March last; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference, as relates to each of the several parishes of Runcorn, Prescott, and Huyton, were deposited with the parish clerks of each such parish, within one calendar month from the day of such deposit, with the said clerks of the peace; and that a copy of the whole of such plan, section, and book of reference, was also deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, within one calendar month from the day of such deposit, with the said clerks of the peace; and that fresh plans, sections, and books of reference, prepared in conformity with the standing orders of the House of Commons, now in force, will be deposited with the said clerk of the peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester; and with the said clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston aforesaid, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of such last-mentioned plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes last enumerated, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the 31st day of December next; and that a copy of the whole of such plans, sections, and books of reference, will also be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said 31st day of December next.—Dated the 1st day of November 1837.

CITATORY EDICT.

WHEREAS Johanne Elizabeth Antoinette Bamberger, Spinster, died in this town, on the 5th of December 1836, and the brothers, sisters, and children of brothers and sisters, of the same, having applied for and proved themselves lawfully entitled to the inheritance, without, however, being able to prove that a brother of the deceased, Mr. George Augustus William Bamberger, who died on the 10th of April 1828, at Wyberton, Lincolnshire, in England, has left no legitimate issue; and whereas by the here existing laws such legitimate issue would have an undoubted right to a stipulated share of the inheritance, the undersigned Town-court do hereby call all children, grand-children, and great grand-children, if any there be, of the, at Wyberton, deceased Mr. Bamberger, to appear, either personally or by sufficiently authorised attorney, in the Town-court, on the 23d day of January 1838, being Tuesday after the third Sunday after Epiphany, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to prove, as requisite, their consanguinity to the beforenamed deceased spinster, and to await further resolution; with warning, that those who do not appear will be declared deprived of all and every right and claim on the above denoted inheritance, and of the benefit of restitution; and that the decree of preclusion, to be made for the purpose, will be published on the 23d day of February 1838.

This bidding and citation is herewith published for the observance of all and every one, and particularly for those whom the inheritance of the said deceased J. E. A. Bamberger, spinster, may concern.

Altenburg, in the duchy of Saxony, the 9th of September 1837.

Ducal Saxon Town-court.

THOMAS FRANCE, Solicitor to the said Trustees.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Capes, at the Albion Hotel, in Manchester, on Thursday the 30th day of November 1837, at six o'clock in the evening, pursuant to an order of the Commissioners under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Litchford Flitcroft, of Manchester; in the county of Lancaster, Publican; Dealer and Chapman, before Thomas Woodcock Winstanley, Esq. one of the said Commissioners, and subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

All the share, estate, and interest of the said Litchford Flitcroft of and in the real and personal estate of his father, Seth Flitcroft, late of Manchester aforesaid, Publican, deceased; and also a policy of assurance for £600, for the term of ten years from the 16th of September 1835, on the life of the said Litchford Flitcroft, now of the age of thirty-one years or thereabouts, effected in the office of the Manchester Fire and Life Assurance Company.

The above named Seth Flitcroft left at his death eight children, amongst whom, on the attainment of the youngest of them, for the time being, to the age of twenty-one years, his real and personal estate is directed by his will to be equally divided, after being converted into money as therein mentioned, and the rents and produce thereof in the mean time (subject to the maintenance and education of his family as in the said will also named, to the repairs and insurance of his real property, and to an annuity of five shillings per week, determinable during such time as certain part of the said testator's property should be unlet, to Mrs. Hannah Wilkinson during her life, or such time as she should remain unmarried) are to accumulate, and form part of the fund for distribution; if any of the said children die before his or her share shall become payable, and without leaving issue who shall then be living, the share, as well original as accruing of him or her so dying, is to be divided equally amongst the survivors of the said children. The children now under age are in their twentieth, nineteenth, seventeenth, and sixteenth years, or thereabouts; and the said Hannah Wilkinson is in her fifty-first year, or thereabouts.

The real estate of the said Seth Flitcroft consists of that substantially built and good accustomed public-house, known by the name or sign of the Farm-yard Tavern, situate in Bradford-road, in Manchester aforesaid, with the excellent brewhouse, stable, and out-buildings thereto belonging, and twenty cottages adjoining or near to the said tavern; the rents of the property amount to £280, or thereabouts, after deducting the chief rent payable in respect of the same.

The trustees under the said will have a claim upon the estate of the said Litchford Flitcroft, for the sum of £655, and upwards, secured by a mortgage of the before mentioned share and policy, the produce of which claim will be subject to the aforesaid trusts.

Further particulars may be had on application to Mr. Henry Gury, Police-street, Manchester, the Solicitor to the Mortgagees; or to Messrs. Hadfield and Grave, Solicitors, Fountain-street, Manchester, Solicitors of the Assignees.

Desirable Freehold Property in Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester.
