FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of November 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of

"Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the west riding of the county of York, at the adjourned Midsummer general quarter sessions, assembled at Wakefield, on Friday the fifteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the said west riding is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Rotherham, Hebden-bridge, Holmforth, and Otley may be polling places for the said west riding :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Rotherham, Hebden-bridge, Holmforth, and Otley shall be polling places for the said west riding; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west riding into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of November 1837:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Salop, assembled in general quarter sessions, at the town of Shrewsbury, in the said county, the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the southern division of the county of Salop is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the market towns of Shiffnall and Clun may be additional polling places for the said southern division of the county of Salop:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of

His said late Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the market towns of Shiffnall and Clun shall be polling places for the said southern division of the county of Salop; and further, that the justices of the peace of the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, November 1, 1837.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas-Duppa Duppa (heretofore Thomas-Duppa Lloyd), of Cheney Longville, in the parish of Wistanstow, in the county of Salop, Gent. eldest son of Thomas Lloyd, of Grove, in the said parish of Wistanstow, by Elizabeth his wife, who was the sister of Thomas Duppa, of Cheney Longville aforesaid, Esq. deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume, take, and continue to use the surname of Duppa only, instead of that of Lloyd, and also bear and use the arms of Duppa, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of his said late maternal uncle, Thomas Duppa, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Dean Forest Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term, and to alter and enlarge the powers, of an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing several roads in and through His Majesty's Forest of Dean, and the waste lands thereto belonging, in the county of Gloucester, and in the parishes of Newland, Awre, and Lydney, in the said county, and for making and maintaining several new roads in and adjoining the said Forest." And of another Act, passed in the first and second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to continue and amend an Act, for more effectually repairing several roads in and through His Majesty's Forest of Dean, in the county Gloucester; and to convert certain highways in the parishes of Staunton and Newland, in the said county, into turnpike roads;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to obtain further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof; by which Bill it is intended to increase, diminish, or alter, the tolls authorised by the said Acts to be taken on the roads therein-mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take powers by the said Bill, to make a certain new line of road from a place called Longstone, in the parish of Staunton, through such parish, the parish of Newland, Her Majesty's Forest of Dean, and the parish of Abinghall, to a place called the Barton Hill Turn, in the said parish of Abinghall, and there to communicate with the turnpike-road leading from the town of Mitcheldean, in the county of Gloucester, to the city of Gloucester; a certain new line of road from a place called Nailbridge, in the said Forest, through the same, and the parish of Ruardean, to, or near to, a place called Bishop's Wood, in the same parish, a certain new line of road from, and out of the present turnpike road at or near Parkend, through the said Forest, and through the tything of Blakeney, in the parish of Awre, to or near to the village of Blakeney; and also to make turnpike road, and to widen, maintain, and improve a certain parish road, called the Millend Lane, extending from the said village of Blakeney through the tything of Etloe, in the said parish of Awre, towards and into the present turnpike road, leading from the Viney Hill and the said Forest, to Gatcomb and Purton, at Etloe toll gate; a certain line of road from a place called Bream, in the said Forest and through the same, to a place called Yorkley, in the turnpike road leading from Parkend to Gatcomb, a certain line of road, from a place called the Hawthorns, in the said Forest; and through the same to a place called the Lane End, on the Lea Bailey, in the same Forest; and for making turnpike road, and to widen, maintain, and improve the present highway, at the termination of the present turnpike road, at the bottom of a place called the Roughet, near the dwelling-house of Mr. Joseph Bennett, in the parish of Littledean, and extending from thence to Littledean Cross, in the same parish; and for abandoning such parts of the present turnpike roads, as may be deemed useless or unnecessary, by the making of such new lines of road, which said new lines of road are intended to be made, and to pass from, in, through, or into, the several parishes and townships of Staunton, Newland, Abinghall, Ruardean, Awre, and Littledean, and the extra-parochial lands of Her Majesty's Forest of Dean, in the county of Gloucester. Duplicate plans, and sections whereof, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in the city of Gloucester; and on or before the 31st day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans as relates to each of the said parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish; and on or before the said 31st day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill, to levy tolls upon the said roads, or in respect thereof.—Dated this 1st day of November 1837.

James and Son, Solicitors, Newnham.

Arrington Turnpike Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and alter and amend the provisions of an Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, altering, improving, and keeping in repair the Road leading from the town of Cambridge, into the old North Road near Arrington Bridge, all in the county of Cambridge;" and also of another Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of the same reign, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the Road from Cambridge to the Old North Road near Arrington Bridge, in the county of Cambridge;" in which Bill a continuation, diminution, or alteration of the existing tolls authorised to be taken, by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act, is intended to be proposed.—Dated this 3d day of November 1837.

Christopher Pemberton, Clerk to the Trustees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to provide for the more effectual execution of the office of a justice of the peace within the parishes of Merthyr Tidvil, Gellygare, and Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, and of Vainor, in the county of Brecon, for such term of years as may be deemed expedient; and for granting powers to such justice of the peace to hold a court for the recovery of small debts; and that such powers may be obtained for defraying the expences incident thereto, out of the poors rates of the said parishes, or otherwise as may be determined upon.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, commons, marshes, heaths, wastes, and other commonable lands and grounds within the parish of Mitcham, in the county of Surrey.—Dated the 16th day of October 1837.

Thomas Penfold, Solicitor, Croydon.

Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application to Parliament will be renewed, in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and extend some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the basin of the Kensington-canal, at Kensington, to join the London and Birmingham and Great Western Railways, at or near Holsden Green, in the county of Middlesex, to be called 'The Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway,'" the line of which railway is situate within the several parishes of Saint Paul Hammersmith, Saint Mary Abbots Kensington, Fulham, and Saint Luke's Chelsea, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex.

And it is intended to apply for power by the said Act to alter the line of the said Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway, as authorised by the before mentioned Act of the sixth William the Fourth, from a point on the said line, at or near the water-course, called Counters Creek Sewer, one hundred and fifty yards, or thereabouts, north of Counters Creek-bridge, to a certain other point on the said line, at or near the basin of the Kensington-canal, and to construct a new line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith; between the said points of deviation, passing within the aforesaid parish of Saint Mary Abbots Kensington, and the parish of Saint Paul Hammersmith, or one of them; and also to abandon such portion of the original line of the said railway, within the said parishes of Saint Mary Abbots Kensington and Saint Paul Hammersmith, or one of them, as by reason of such diversion may be rendered useless or unnecessary; and to enable the Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway Company to levy and raise rates and tolls in respect of the said amended line.

And it is also further intended to apply for power, by the said amended Act, to deviate in the construction of the said amended line of railway, for the making of which, the said amended Act is intended to be applied for to the extent of twenty yards on either side of the line laid down, or to be laid down, on the plan thereof, to be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned. And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said amended line of railway, and the lands to be taken, for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November in this present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office in Clerkenwell; and with the clerk of the peace for the city and liberties of Westminster, at his office, in Carlisle-street, Soho; and also on or before the 31st day of December next, in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes of Saint Paul, Hammersmith; and Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, will also be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the said 30th day of November, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated this 26th day of October 1837.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 61, sec. 4, c. 11, as the case may be.

THE creditors of Alexander Davidson, late of No. 11, Bedford-row, Great Gailford-street, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Cooper, an insolvent debtor, who was discharged in the Year 1823, are requested to meet at the office of Mr. Thomas Perry, No. 76, Cornhill, in the city of London, on Wednesday the 6th day of December next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the same day precisely, for the purpose of choosing an assignee or assignees of the said insolvent's estate and effects.

In Re John Corker, an Insolvent.

THE creditors of John Corker, late of Vicar-lane, Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York, Ironmonger and Furniture-Broker, an Insolvent Debtor are hereby requested to meet the assignees of the said insolvent's estate and effects, at the office of Messrs. Bloom and Galtiff, No. 15, Commercial-street, in Leeds aforesaid, on Monday the 11th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing the costs and expences of preparing and executing a certain deed, dated on or about the 15th day of April last, and made between the said insolvent of the first part; two trustees, therein respectively described, of the second part; and the several persons whose names are thereunto subscribed, creditors of the said insolvent, of the third part; being an assignment of the whole of the said insolvent's personal estate for the equal benefit of his creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing the costs and charges incurred by Michael Rhodes, in causing the said insolvent to be arrested and conducted to prison; and also the costs and charges incurred by the said Michael Rhodes and one John Hepper, and each of them, in or about the opposing of the said insolvent's discharge from prison.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of Samuel Suibury, late of Egmonton, near Tux-ord, in the county of Nottingham, Farmer, an Insolvent Debtor, will be held at the office of Messrs. Parsons and Benn, Solicitors, New-road, Mansfield, on the 14th day of December 1837, at the hour of eleven in the forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignee of the said insolvent selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon credit, or upon such other terms, and with or without, and upon such, security as he may think proper, of all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said insolvent; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding with all or any debtor or debtors to the said insolvent's estate, and to his allowing time for payment as the said assignee nee shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from his selling the debts due to the said insolvent's estate, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private sale, or to his employing a person to collect and get in the debts due to the said insolvent's estate, and to his paying such person such compensation for his trouble, as to the said assignee shall seem reasonable and proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, against any mortgage or mortgages, for the purpose of setting aside any mortgage or mortgages, executed by the insolvent, or against any other person or persons; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the protection, recovery, or defence of the said insolvent's estate, and to his receiving a part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment thereof; and submitting to arbitration, compounding, or compromising, or settling any suits, actions, accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes relative to the estate and effects of the said insolvent, or any part thereof; and also to empower the said assignee to act for the general benefit of the creditors as he may think fit; and on other special affairs.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of Andrew Dunlop, of Old Brentford, in the county of Middlesex, Linen-Draper, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 43,694, T., have caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at No. 3, Wood-street, Cheap-side, in the city of London, on the 26th day of December next, at eleven in the forenoon precisely, when and where the assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of Thomas Brasted, formerly of No. 90, Hoxton Old Town, Green-Grocer and Coal-Dealer, then of No. 21 Charles-street, Hatton-garden, Coffee Shop Keeper and Licenced Retailer of Beer, and late of No. 19, Green-street, Stepney, all in the county of Middlesex, Green-Grocer and Coal-Dealer, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 42,586, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at the office of Mr. Hoppe, 3, Sun-court, Corn-hill, London, on the 27th of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, when and where the assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

WHEREAS the assignees of the estate and effects of John Roberts, late of Crediton, in the county of Devon, Maltster, being a person of unsound mind, lately a Prisoner in the Gaol of Saint Thomas the Apostle, in the county of Devon, an insolvent debtor, have caused an account of the estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignees at the office of Mr. George Tauner, situate in Crediton aforesaid, on the 28th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, when and where the assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors of the insolvent, who shall prove their debts to the satisfaction of the said assignees, at the time and place aforesaid, by affidavit, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute. If the said insolvent, or any person on his behalf, the said assignees, or any creditor, object to any debt tendered to be so proved as aforesaid, such objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
