

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of November 1837:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Salop, assembled in general quarter sessions, at the town of Shrewsbury, in the said county, the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the southern division of the county of Salop is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the market towns of Shiffnall and Clun may be additional polling places for the said southern division of the county of Salop:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of

His said late Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the market towns of Shiffnall and Clun shall be polling places for the said southern division of the county of Salop; and further, that the justices of the peace of the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, November 1, 1837.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas-Duppa Duppa (heretofore Thomas-Duppa Lloyd), of Cheney Longville, in the parish of Wistanstow, in the county of Salop, Gent. eldest son of Thomas Lloyd, of Grove, in the said parish of Wistanstow, by Elizabeth his wife, who was the sister of Thomas Duppa, of Cheney Longville aforesaid, Esq. deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume, take, and continue to use the surname of Duppa only, instead of that of Lloyd, and also bear and use the arms of Duppa, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of his said late maternal uncle, Thomas Duppa, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 14, 1837.
