

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1837.

[In consequence of the numerous Notices of Applications to Parliament for Railway Bills, and other Bills, which Notices must be inserted in the Gazette before the expiration of the present Month, a Gazette will be published on Thursday next.]

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of November 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the west riding of the county of York, at the adjourned Midsummer general quarter sessions, assembled at Wakefield, on Friday the fifteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the said west riding is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Rotherham, Hebden-bridge, Holmfirth, and Otley may be polling places for the said west riding:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Rotherham, Hebden-bridge, Holmfirth, and Otley shall be polling places for the said west riding; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west riding into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of November 1837.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Salop, assembled in general quarter sessions, at the town of Shrewsbury, in the said county, the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the southern division of the county of Salop is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the market towns of Shiftnall and Clun may be additional polling places for the said southern division of the county of Salop:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the market towns of Shiftnall and Clun shall be polling places for the said southern division of the county of Salop; and further, that the justices of the peace of the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, November 28, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the death of our late revered Sovereign, and at the same time to lay before you.

our humble congratulations on your Accession to the Throne.

We have lost, in your late august Uncle, a King whose paternal reign was marked by an endeavour, continued to its close, to improve and support our institutions at home, to maintain peace abroad, to promote justice and charity in their most comprehensive forms, and especially to uphold the interests of our national faith.

His memory lies in the gratitude of his subjects, but they turn with equal confidence from the recollection of the past to the hope of the future.

Your Majesty has been educated in the bosom of your own people, under the care of a wise and affectionate Mother, and with an express view to your high destiny; the Protestant Church, emphatically under the protection of the Sovereigns of this empire, has already been announced a chief object of your care; your Majesty has also been pleased to declare, that the "thrice blessed" quality of mercy shall be a distinguishing attribute of your reign.

We feel assured that your Royal caré will be to watch over all the great interests of this empire, to foster the arts, promote commerce, extend the blessings of education, and carry equal justice and equal laws to all the limits of the kingdom.

In return, we fervently trust that your people may respond to your gracious intentions by united efforts to cement the stability of our institutions, and to render them objects of affection to all classes of your Majesty's subjects: that so both your own reign may flourish in peace and quietness, and the resources of an undivided empire may be developed in their full strength.

It will be our constant prayer that the Supreme Disposer of events may shed His influence over you, and be the guide and support of your reign.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Durham.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Winchester, now first in visitation assembled under your Majesty's rule, humbly ask permission to present the mingled tribute of our condolence on the demise of our late Gracious Sovereign, and of congratulation on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of this realm.

We joyfully avail ourselves of this opportunity, to renew the assurance of our reverence for that kingly authority which your Majesty has been called to exercise, and to express that respectful and affectionate attachment, which, as stewards of the mysteries of God, and ministers of the Church, we humbly tender to your Majesty as our Royal Mistress, and supreme Governor under Christ.

We entertain a thankful recollection of the indulgence and favour with which our Monarchs in times past, have deigned to regard our humble endeavours to instruct the people committed to our charge, in the principles of our holy religion, and mindful of the obligations which our church has received from a former Female Sovereign, one of your Majesty's most Illustrious Predecessors, we venture to solicit a continuance of your Royal protection for our sacred office and functions.

And we beg permission to assure your Majesty in all humility, that our fervent prayers will ever be addressed to Him who has placed your Majesty over this church and nation; that He may be pleased to establish your Throne in righteousness; that He may give you a faithful senate, wise, and upright counsellors and magistrates, a loyal nobility, and a dutiful gentry; a pious, learned, and useful clergy; an honest, industrious, and obedient commonalty; that he may enrich your Royal heart with his heavenly grace, and crown you with all princely virtues, and after a long course of ruling this temporal kingdom wisely, justly, and religiously, you may at last, through the merits of Christ, be made partaker of an eternal kingdom.

Signed, at the request and on the behalf of the clergy,
C. Winton.

No. 3.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA,
QUEEN of Great Britain, &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Roman Catholic Archbishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Tuam.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned Roman Catholic Archbishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Tuam, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with the sincere assurance of our congratulation on your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne of these realms, as well as of our dutiful devotion to your Majesty's august Person. Among the millions who own the sway of your Majesty's sceptre, allow us to assure you, there are none who hailed with sincerer joy than we have, your peaceful possession of your hereditary Throne, or who shall be ever more ready than we, in the manifestation of that conscientious allegiance, which is due to your supreme authority.

Fidelity to the reigning powers, is an obligation to which our minds have been formed by the religious instructions which were conveyed to us in our younger years, and which, in after life, it has been our study more fully to develop in the discharge of our pastoral duties towards the faithful, admonishing them in the language of the Apostle, "to be subject to princes and powers, to be ready to every good, showing all mildness to all men."

The exhibition of this homage, always a duty, must now be doubly grateful, from the consciousness of its being directed towards a Queen, who appears to have gathered in youth the lessons of years and wisdom; who feels that justice is praised in the inspired records as the most precious gem in the diadem of Royalty, and who has given a cheering anticipation of the impartial justice of her future reign, by the declaration of her desire to see her Irish subjects, in common with the rest of the subjects of the empire, in the full enjoyment of that civil and political equality to which they are fully entitled.

We are informed by Divine Wisdom, that as the judge of the people, so are also the ministers. Whatever then may be the line of demarcation drawn by the constitution, between the responsibilities of the Throne and its counsellors, we cannot but be convinced, and we rejoice in the conviction, that the influence of the virtue, and the wisdom with which it has pleased the Almighty to bless our Gracious Sovereign, will be felt in all the resolves and measures of your Majesty's Government.

We trust that your Majesty's dominions will ever form a happy contrast with those kingdoms which have been translated, because of injustices and wrongs, and injuries; that the sceptre of your kingdom will be a sceptre of uprightness, and that the blessings promised to the rulers who judge the poor in truth, shall be illustrated in the permanent stability of the Throne of your kingdom.

Amidst the prayers and intercessions which we are instructed to make for Kings, and for all who are in high stations, that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life, your Majesty's happiness shall form one of the chief objects of our supplications. That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and your power, and your glory like Him who sought the good of his nation, may be the theme of admiration among your contemporaries, and a subject of honourable ambition to Sovereigns of after times, is the prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects.

John MacHale, R. C. Archbishop.

Address of the Associations established in the Metropolis, for the Suppression of Vice and Immorality.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty having been pleased to issue a Royal Proclamation, bearing the date of the 21st day of June 1837, to the intent that the honour and service of Almighty God be preserved and advanced, and that all vice, profaneness, debauchery, and immorality be discouraged and suppressed.

Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the friends of morality, purity, piety, and virtue, who have organized themselves into associated bodies, for the express purpose of eradicating vice and licentiousness, do herewith, by signature of their respective secretaries, or other officers, make bold to attempt an expression of their most humble and hearty thanks to your Majesty, for so nobly and worthily asserting your visible displeasure, by Royal Proclamation, against the vices and practices therein enumerated and named; and do hereby signify their most hearty concurrence with your Majesty's authority in the punishment and reformation of evil-doers; and do also fervently offer their most zealous and strenuous services to prevent every exhibition of shameful, intemperate, and disorderly habits, within the limits of these realms. And your Majesty's servants further express their deep sense of the benefits likely to result from the due reading of the said Proclamation (as therein commanded) four times in every year, by the minister of every church or chapel; and especially from such ministers' inciting and stirring up their respective auditories to the practice of piety and virtue, and the avoiding of immorality and profaneness.

And your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects present their earnest wish and prayer to Almighty God (by whom Kings and Queens reign), that He would so direct, guide, and govern the heart and mind of your Majesty, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations.

That God, in his infinite goodness and mercy, may so give your Majesty favour, through the merits of His Son our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, as to bless the reign of your Majesty to the temporal and eternal happiness of yourself and of your people, eventually exchanging your temporal for a more glorious and eternal crown, is the humble, but heartfelt prayer of your Majesty's most devoted servants and subjects.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the President and Fellows of the Royal Society of Edinburgh, established under the Patronage of your Majesty's Royal Grandsire, for the promotion of Letters and Useful Science, most humbly approach your Majesty with the loyal tender of our duty and homage.

Whilst we join in the general condolence of our fellow subjects on the lamented demise of a Sovereign, endeared by many great and good qualities to the nation over which he had ruled with a truly paternal benignity and care, we hail with auspicious hopes, and most ardent prayers, the opening prospects of a reign which, even in the first acts of your Majesty's Sovereignty, has commanded the admiration, and secured the affection of all your Majesty's loyal subjects.

Among the great public virtues which have distinguished your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and by which their reigns have been pre-eminently illustrated and adorned, it is more peculiarly our duty, in this society, to commemorate their truly noble and patriotic efforts for the promotion of literature, of science, and of the useful and the elegant arts; and, in the firm and loyal confidence that these peaceful glories of the past age will suffer no diminution under your Majesty's gracious influence, it shall be our province and duty to contribute our humble endeavours for the further advancement of the proper objects of our social institution, and to merit the continuance of that Royal Patronage and support by which our labours have been hitherto encouraged and upheld.

That your Majesty may long continue to sway the sceptre of your Ancestors over a loyal and happy people, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects and servants, the President and Fellows of the Royal Society of Edinburgh.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the society,

Thomas Makdougall Brisbane, P., John Robison, Sec.
Edinburgh, 14th July 1837.

N. B.—The mortgagor is ready to treat for the sale of the equity of redemption.

Lot 2. All that policy of assurance granted by the Crown Life Assurance Office, dated the 19th November 1830, whereby the sum of £100 is assured to be paid on the decease of Moses Churchill, now aged about sixty-five years.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Phippard, Solicitor, Wareham.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Fowler, now or late of Market Deeping, in the county of Lincoln, Butcher, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 19th of December next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, at Standwell's Hotel, in Stamford, in the said county of Lincoln, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying or allowing, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, all or any part of the costs, charges, and expences incurred by Mr Thomas Horwood, one of the creditors of the said bankrupt, in prosecuting certain proceedings against the said bankrupt, or otherwise incidental thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Burwell and Henry Crookes, both of Huddersfield, in the county of York, Cloth Merchants, Dealers and Chapman, carrying on business at Huddersfield aforesaid, in copartnership with William Stockwell, under the firm of Burwell, Crookes, and Company, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Tuesday the 19th day of December next, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Messrs. Battye and Clay, in New-street, in Huddersfield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting from the said William Stockwell a certain sum of money in discharge of his liability to the creditors of the said Joseph Burwell, Henry Crookes, and William Stockwell, and that the said William Stockwell be discharged by the said creditors from all further claims or demands to be made upon him, the said William Stockwell, in respect of such liabilities, and that the said creditors signify such their assent by executing a certain release, then and there to be produced to them, and made between the said creditors of the one part, and the said William Stockwell of the other part; and also to assent to or dissent from the major part of the Commissioners under the said Fiat dividing the balance of moneys, the produce of the joint estate of the bankrupts, or of them and of the said William Stockwell, remaining in the hands of the said assignees, and received by them under or by virtue of the said Fiat (including the money so to be received from the said William Stockwell) unto and amongst all and every the creditors of the said Joseph Burwell and Henry Crookes, or of the said Joseph Burwell, Henry Crookes, and William Stockwell, rateably and in proportion to the amount of their several debts proved under the said Fiat, without reference or distinction whether the said debts were contracted by the said bankrupts solely, or jointly with the said William Stockwell; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Pizzie, of the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, Upholsterer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 21st day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the offices of Mr. Hinton East Drake, Solicitor, No. 2, John-street, Queen square, in the city of Bath, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees finishing and making up all or any part of the stock in trade and goods of the said bankrupt which are now in an unfinished and unmanufactured state; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain costs and expences incurred, subsequently to the opening of the said Fiat, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement of the said bankrupt's affairs, or otherwise in relation thereto; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees offering for sale and selling, by public auction or by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and either for cash or upon credit, or in such other manner as they may deem advisable, the whole or any part of the stock in trade, book debts, household furniture, and other property of the said bankrupt, in one or more lot or lots, with liberty for the said assignees to buy in all or any part of the lot or lots so offered for sale, and again to offer the same for sale, by public auction or private contract, without being answerable for or liable to make good any deficiency which may accrue on such second sale; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the said bankrupt, or some fit and proper person or persons, to finish and make up any of the stock in trade or goods of the said bankrupt now in an unfinished and unmanufactured state, and also to make up, adjust, and settle the accounts of the said bankrupt, and to receive, collect, and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make such remuneration to the said bankrupt, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, as they the said assignees shall deem reasonable; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees delivering up certain articles of household furniture, to be named at such meeting, and now in the possession of the said assignees, to persons claiming the same; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying in full, or otherwise, the wages of servants or workmen, also all rents and taxes due by the said bankrupt up to the time of his bankruptcy, or which may have become due since, as to the said assignees shall seem proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law, or suit in equity, or in the Court of Bankruptcy, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act, in relation to the aforesaid several matters, and other the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as they shall think advisable and most expedient for the benefit and interest of the creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Farmer, of the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 20th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. Hinton East Drake, Solicitor, No. 2, John-street, Queen-square, in the city of Bath, in order to confirm and adopt the sales of the stock in trade, and other effects of the said bankrupt, which have been made and effected by the said assignee, since his appointment; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling by valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, and either for cash or upon credit, or in such other manner as he may deem advisable, all or any part of the household goods and furniture of the said bankrupt, and so much and such part or parts of his real estate as is or are yet undisposed of; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying certain costs incurred, prior to the issuing of the said fiat, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement of the said bankrupt's affairs, or otherwise in relation thereto; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, either by public auction or by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, in one or more lot or lots, and at such times and places, and in such other manner as the said assignee shall think fit, the whole or any part of the freehold and leasehold property in or to which the said bankrupt, at the time he became bankrupt, or at any time since, had or hath any estate, right, title, or interest, either in possession, reversion, or otherwise howsoever, subject to certain mortgages, liens, and equities upon, or affecting the same freehold and leasehold property, with power for the said assignee to buy in all or any part of the said freehold and leasehold property which may be offered for sale, and afterwards to resell the same by public auction or private contract, without being answerable for, or liable to make good, any deficiency which may accrue on such second sale; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee joining any mortgagee or mortgagees, trustee or trustees, in the sale of the said freehold and leasehold property, subject as aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing the said bankrupt, or such other fit and proper person or persons, as he shall think fit to make up, adjust, and settle the accounts of the said bankrupt; and to receive, collect, and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and to make such remuneration to the said bankrupt, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, as he, the said assignee, shall deem just and reasonable; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying in full, or otherwise, the wages of shopmen, servants, and workmen, and all rents and taxes due by the said bankrupt, up to the time of his bankruptcy, or which may have become due since, as to the said assignee shall seem proper; and to sanction and confirm the allowances and payments made to the said bankrupt, from the opening of the said fiat; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee allowing time to any debtors to the estate, for payment of their debts, either by instalments or otherwise, and either with or without requiring or taking any security for the payment of the instalments; also to assent to or dissent from allowing the said assignee all such sum and sums of money as he shall have paid or laid out, or may pay or lay out, in or about taking any journey or journeys, or otherwise in relation to the said bankrupt's affairs, from the time of his having been chosen such assignee, to the time of making the final dividend under the said bankruptcy; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee giving up, and releasing upon such terms as he may think proper, the equity of redemption of such parts of the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold property, as are in mortgage, and to his giving up and cancelling any lease or leases of premises let and demised to the said bankrupt for certain terms of years, which are not yet expired, as he likewise in his discretion shall think advisable; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying in full, out of the proceeds of the sale of the freehold and leasehold property of the said bankrupt, the claim for principal money, interest, or otherwise, of certain parties to be named at such meeting, who are equitable mortgagees of such freehold and leasehold property of the said bankrupt, or some part thereof; or to the said assignee making such arrangements with the said parties, with reference to their said claim, as he, the said assignee, shall think fit; also, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee taking counsel's opinion, at the expense of the said bankrupt's estate, as to the legal, equitable, or other interest of the said bankrupt, in the freehold and leasehold premises given and devised to him by the will of his late father; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law, or suit in equity, or in the Court of Bankruptcy, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignee to act in relation to the aforesaid several matters and other the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as he shall think fit and advisable, and most expedient for the benefit and interest of the creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Mole, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Brass Founder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 22d day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at Dee's Royal Hotel, in Temple row, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain costs incurred, prior to the issuing of the said Fiat, as well in calling various meetings of the creditors of the said bankrupt, to endeavour to effect an arrangement with them for carrying on the business of the said bankrupt under the control of inspectors, and in the preparation of the necessary deeds for such purpose, in pursuance of the resolutions of the creditors present at the first of such meetings, as in taking other steps for the protection of the said bankrupt's estate, or otherwise in relation thereto respectively; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving up a certain part of the household furniture of the said bankrupt, which will be named at such meeting, and which has been claimed by certain members of the family of the said bankrupt; and in case such creditors shall determine upon refusing to give up such goods, then to authorise and empower the said assignees to defend any action of trover which may be brought for the recovery of such household furniture; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving up such other parts of the said household furniture as will be named at such meeting, for the use of the wife of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying in full certain debts claimed by certain creditors of the said bankrupt, who will be named at such meeting under such circumstances as will be detailed at the said meeting; and in case of the disallowance of any or either of such claims, to authorise and empower the said assignees to defend any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, which may be commenced by the person or persons claiming payment of such debts, for the recovery thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the premiums now due, or which shall hereafter become due, in respect of certain policies of assurance effected upon the life of the said bankrupt, and to ratify and confirm the payment of any of such premiums which may have been made by the said assignees previously to such meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of any or either of such policies, either by public auction or private contract; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying the purchase money, to be received from any such sale or sales, or a sufficient portion thereof, to certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and who claim liens upon the said several policies respectively; and in case of the disallowance of any or either of such liens, to authorise and empower the said assignees to commence such action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, as they shall be advised, for the recovery of the possession of such policies of assurance without paying such liens; and to authorise and empower the said assignees to defend any action or suit, which may be commenced, by the person or persons claiming such liens, for enforcing payment of their respective claims; and likewise to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, fixtures, and all other the property, whether real or personal, of the said bankrupt, or in which he has any interest, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots, at such times and places, and either at a valuation or otherwise; and either to the said bankrupt, or to any other person or persons as the said assignees shall deem most advantageous, and for such prices as the said assignees shall think proper; and either for ready money or upon credit, and if upon credit, to take such security for payment of the purchase money thereof, as the said assignees may think proper, without their being answerable for any loss or damage which may be sustained thereby; and also to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts already done by the said assignees, in carrying on the trade of the said bankrupt, or otherwise for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper, to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate; and to make up and adjust the accounts of the said bankrupt; and to the said assignees making to such person or persons such compensation, for his or their trouble, as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging any matter or thing relating to the said estate and effects; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures, and make all such arrangements, as they shall deem most to the advantage of the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special matters.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 25th day of November 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by WILLIAM BEAVER WALKER, of the Marguess of Granby Public House, Drury-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
