(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, December 5, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, in General Meeting specially assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Haddington, beg permission to approach your Majesty's presence with the expression of our condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the nation have alike sustained, in the death of our revered Sovereign King William; offering, at the same time, our respectful congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Deeply as we deplore, in common with the whole British people, our recent melancholy loss, we yet are cheered by the belief, that we shall find continued in your Majesty all those eminent qualities by which the character of our late beloved Monarch was so highly adorned; for we are confident that, born and educated in England, your Majesty will ever be animated by the same truly English spirit, and moved by the same anxiety for the honour and welfare of the empire, which ever distinguished him; and we rejoice to recognise in the many virtues and excellencies which Providence has implanted in your Majesty's heart,—nurtured as they have been, and trained under the tender care of your illustrious Mother,—an ample security for the liberties and happiness of the people committed to your charge.

We venture to offer to your Majesty the assurance of our hearty loyalty; and we add our earnest prayer, that it may please Almighty God to grant you a long and glorious reign, and enable you to find an unfailing source of pleasure in witnessing the happiness of a peaceful and contented people, prospering beneath your sway.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Meeting,
Ramsay, Preses.

[Presented by the Preses.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Radnor, the Inhabitants of the Town of Presteign, and other Inhabitants of the said County,

Humbly sheweth,

THAT they beg to lay at the foot of your Throne a sincere expression of their acknowledgement of the manifest goodness of Divine Providence towards these Kingdoms, that in the moment of afflicting the nation by the demise of their late Most Gracious Sovereign, of blessed memory, it was pleased to pour forth the most ample consolation to their hearts by placing your Most Gracious Majesty on the then vacant Throne of your Ancestors.

Deeply cherishing this inestimable blessing, they beseech to be allowed, with the most profound respect, to approach the Throne, and to lay at the foot of it their humble but warmest prayers that the same Providence which, to the great contentment of these Realms, has placed your Majesty on the Throne, will continue to your Majesty a long, peaceful, and happy, and glorious reign; and to these prayers they beseech to be permitted to add the most sincere professions of duty, loyalty, and attachment.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. Sir H. J. Brydges.]

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Coleraine, in the County of Londonderry, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town of Coleraine, humbly beg to lay before your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and to tender the sincere assurance of our firm and unalterable allegiance to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and dignity.

Members of a body chartered in the reign of King James the First, for the furtherance of British interests, the corporation of Coleraine have ever proved faithful in times of most severe trial, and as our predecessors were among the first to hail the auspicious arrival of the House of Hanover in these kingdoms, so we bear testimony that the liberties, civil and religious, of the people of these kingdoms have, under their sway, been fostered and maintained; and in the Person of your Majesty we look forward with confidence for a continuance of those blessings, and hail with satisfaction the declaration of your Majesty, to uphold the established institutions of the country, the maintenance of the reformed faith, with the preservation of the liberties of all your Majesty's subjects.

We beg leave here to offer our heartfelt condolence on the death of your illustrious Uncle, our late revered Monarch, a loss your Majesty, in common with the nation you are now destined to rule over, has true reason to deplore.

Long may your Majesty preside over the destinies of this free and powerful nation; and that the sceptre may be wielded with mercy and justice, as it was of old, under the glorious reigns of your predecessors, the good and great Queens Elizabeth and Anne; and when the All-wise Disposer of human events, He under whom Princes rule and govern, may, in his Providence, free your Majesty from the cares of a temporal crown, you may exchange it for an eternal one, through his Divine Mercy.

John Boyd, Chamberlain.
