(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, December 8, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Borough of Beverley in Council assembled,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Beverley, in the county of York, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the death of our late Most Gracious and revered Sovereign William the Fourth.

We, in common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, unfeignedly lament the loss of a Monarch distinguished by his paternal regard for the peace, welfare, and happiness of his people, and whose memory will long be cherished with the most hallowed feelings of gratitude.

But, Most Gracious Queen, to our expressions of condolence, we humbly beg leave to add our most cordial and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We feel assured that, in the Person of your Majesty, we have the promise of a continuation of all those blessings, which it has pleased the Almighty so long to bestow upon this favoured empire, under the mild government of the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

With the sincerest feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the constitution under which this country has so long flourished, we implore Almighty God that your Majesty may long reign over a grateful, loyal, and happy people.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, the 13th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign. Wm. Brigham, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor and Council of the City and Borough of Carlisle, desire most respectfully to tender the expression of our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the constitutional Throne of your Ancestors, and our unshaken fidelity and attachment to your Royal House.

Whilst we sincerely lament the demise of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, the virtues of whose private life, not less than the many wise and timely reforms which marked his reign, justly endeared him to his subjects, we, at the same time, entertain the most cheering anticipations of increased national happiness under your Majesty's sway. We hail, with feelings of unmixed gratification, the first gracious acts and declarations of your Majesty, gladly recognizing in them the most satisfactory evidences, that the tender care of your enlightened, patriotic, and illustrious Parent has been, during your earlier years, sedulously and successfully directed to the developement and culture of your mental powers, and gratefully acknowledging the beneficent Providence that has thus secured for these nations the inestimable blessing of a Sovereign imbued with the principles of civil and religious liberty.

May your Majesty's reign, so auspiciously commenced, be distinguished throughout by peace abroad and by tranquillity at home, exemplifying to the world the blessed results of a liberal and enlightened policy, in an increased cultivation of the arts, a wide extension and improvement of all useful institutions, and an enlarged union of all classes of your subjects in the enjoyment of equal rights; and may your Majesty be permitted by the Great Disposer of all human affairs, long to enjoy the cordial affections and loyal confidence which a free, happy, and intelligent people will ever gratefully accord to their wise and beneficent Sovereign.

Given under the common seal of the said borough of Carlisle, the 26th day of July 1837.

Joseph. Ferguson, Mayor.

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Totnes, beg most humbly to offer our sincere and respectful condolence on the decease of your illustrious Uncle, His Most Gracious Majesty King William the Fourth of happy memory.

The deep interest which His late Majesty at all times manifested in promoting the welfare and happiness of his people, and the anxiety he constantly evinced to extend the liberties and ameliorate the condition of all classes of subjects, will, we feel assured, be ever gratefully remembered. But while we cannot but deeply deplore the loss of so patriotic and good a King, yet we derive consolation in looking forward to much national prosperity and happiness under your Majesty's most gracious sway; and most heartily do we unite in giving expression to our warmest congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms, supported by the loyal affections of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

We humbly pray that it may please the Almighty to grant your Majesty many years to reign over this mighty empire, and that, under the Divine guidance and protection, your reign may be glorious to your Majesty, and happy, peaceful, and prosperous to all your subjects.

[Transmitted by J. Parrott, Esq.]

No. 4.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the undersigned Inhabitants of Devizes and its Neighbourhood.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave to approach your Royal presence to express our unfeigned duty and allegiance to your Majesty's Person and authority, and our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

At the same time that we beg to testify our deepest concern for the severe loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the death of your Majesty's Uncle, our late lamented and revered Sovereign, we feel the warmest gratitude to Providence that his Royal life was spared until your Majesty could assume the government.

That virtuous and exemplary conduct which has hitherto ever distinguished your Majesty, gives us the fullest assurance that, under your Majesty's rule, the national honour and glory will be supported, the civil and religious institutions of the country preserved, and the just rights of the Sovereign, and the real liberties of the people, equally maintained.

That the Almighty Disposer of events will bless your Majesty's endeavours, and render your reign long and happy, will be the constant prayer of your Majesty's loyal subjects.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of Bexley, Crayford, Erith, East Wickham, and places adjacent, in the county of Kent, beg leave to address your Majesty on the occasion of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms, to express our loyalty and affection towards your Majesty's Person, and to assure your Majesty, that, deeply as we deplore the loss of our late good and excellent King, we consider the auspicious manner in which your Majesty's reign has commenced, furnishes us with a happy prelude to the future.

We cannot but look upon your Majesty as a happy instrument in the hands of a Divine Providence, for averting manifold evils from our beloved country.

Living in the hearts and affections of your people, united by one common bond, to protect your Majesty's Person and Government, we fervently pray that your Majesty's reign may be felicitous, happy, and of long duration.

We beg your Majesty to accept our best thanks for continuing in office, as your Majesty's advisers, those persons who were councillors to our late King of blessed memory; and we fervently believe that our rights and liberties will be much advanced, our burdens lessened, and the Crown rendered more secure thereby.

We therefore confidently hope that your Majesty, acting with their advice, will find that at this eventful crisis, when so many important measures have been proposed, that this nation can only be rendered truly great, by carrying out those measures which the increased intelligence of your Majesty's faithful subjects render necessary.

[Transmitted by Charles Swaisland, Esq.]

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Committee of the Sailors' Female Orphan Home, participating in the feeling which is as universal as sincere, beg permission to express to your Majesty our unfeigned condolence at the recent painful bereavement which your Majesty, your illustrious Family, and the nation at large, have sustained.

We desire also most humbly to offer to your Majesty our hearty congratulations on an event so important and interesting to us, as Britons, as Christians, and as the advocates of the Seaman's Friendless Orphan, as the Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors.

The tender and affectionate regard formerly expressed by your Majesty and your illustrious Mother for the welfare of this Institution, and the happiness of its inmates, can never be forgotten by them; and we beg most humbly and earnestly to solicit that your Majesty will be pleased to continue to the Institution that patronage, as Queen of these realms, which you have before been so graciously pleased to bestow.

That it may please the Almighty to grant unto your Majesty a long reign in health, peace, and happiness, over a loyal and affectionate people, and shed a genial influence over every effort of mercy, is the most earnest and sincere prayer of our hearts.
