No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Borough of Beverley in Council assembled,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Beverley, in the county of York, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the death of our late Most Gracious and revered Sovereign William the Fourth.

We, in common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, unfeignedly lament the loss of a Monarch distinguished by his paternal regard for the peace, welfare, and happiness of his people, and whose memory will long be cherished with the most hallowed feelings of gratitude.

But, Most Gracious Queen, to our expressions of condolence, we humbly beg leave to add our most cordial and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We feel assured that, in the Person of your Majesty, we have the promise of a continuation of all those blessings, which it has pleased the Almighty so long to bestow upon this favoured empire, under the mild government of the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

With the sincerest feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the constitution under which this country has so long flourished, we implore Almighty God that your Majesty may long reign over a grateful, loyal, and happy people.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, the 13th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign. Wm. Brigham, Mayor.

Whilst we sincerely lament the demise of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, the virtues of whose private life, not less than the many wise and timely reforms which marked his reign, justly endeared him to his subjects, we, at the same time, entertain the most cheering anticipations of increased national happiness under your Majesty's sway. We hail, with feelings of unmixed gratification, the first gracious acts and declarations of your Majesty,
