TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of November 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the west riding of the county of York, at the adjourned Midsummer general quarter sessions, assembled at Wakefield, on Friday the fifteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the said west riding is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Rotherham, Hebden-bridge, Holmfirth, and Otley may be polling places for the said west riding:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Rotherham, Hebden-bridge, Holmfirth, and Otley shall be polling places for the said west riding; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west riding into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Acock and Son, at the Unicorn Inn, Stow on the Wold, on Thursday the 11th day of January 1838, at four o'clock in the afternoon, by direction of the assignees under a Fiat against John Harrey Harris, commonly called John Harrey, a bankrupt, and subject to such conditions as will then be produced;

The estate for the life of the bankrupt (in reversion after the decease of Mrs. Malley Digger), in one undivided moiety, of and in all that convenient and very desirable farm, situate at Bledington, in the county of Gloucester, now and for many years past in the occupation of Mr. William Smith, at £120 per annum, comprising a commodious dwelling-house, with stables, yards, stalls, and all necessary out-buildings, and ninety acres, or thereabouts, of arable, meadow, and pasture land; divided into ten enclosures, the greater part of which are situated near the village, and the whole are in a good state of cultivation.

The entire estate is subject to a land tax of £4 9s. 8d., and to a quit rent of 2s. per annum. Mrs. Digger is upwards of seventy-nine years of age, and Mr. Harris is in his forty-fourth year.

The estate may be viewed on application to the tenant, and for further particulars apply to the Auctioneers, Stow on the Wold; Messrs. Wilkins and Kendall, Solicitors, Bourton on the Water; or Mr. Newman, Solicitor, Yeovil, Somersetshire.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Cooper, of Hanover-street, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, Painter and Glazier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Thursday the 4th day of January next, at one of the clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects selling to a person, whose name will then and there be mentioned, an annuity of £75 per annum, payable by George Cooper, of Leatherhead, in the county of Surrey, Painter and Glazier, his heirs, executors, and administrators, during the term of 15 years and one quarter, to be computed from the 24th day of June 1836, for the sum of £200, which the said person has offered for the same.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Angus Macdonald and Archibald Campbell, late of Regent-street, in the parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Army Agents and Bankers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 3d day of January next, at twelve of the clock noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees agreeing to the terms which have been proposed to them for compromising the debt due to the said Angus Macdonald individually, or as a partner in the late firm of Macdonald, Bruce, and Landon, from the late firm of Devaynes, Dawes, Noble, and Company, and which proposal will be submitted and explained to the creditors at that meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who shall have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth on the 4th day of December 1837, against John George White, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchant (lately carrying on business in copartnership with William Clark, at Liverpool aforesaid, under the firm of John George White and Company, and at Colombo, in the island of Ceylon, under the firm of White, Clark, and Company, and now carrying on business in copartnership with William Ambrose Dawson, and the said William Clark, at Liverpool aforesaid, under the firm of Dawson, White, and Company, and at Colombo aforesaid, under the firm of White, Clark, and Company), are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, to be chosen under the said fiat, on the 4th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. Thomas Davenport, Solicitor, Commerce-court, Lord-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees sending out to Colombo, and other places, in the island of Ceylon, and to any part of India, letters of attorney, executed by the said assignees, either to persons who may be named at the said meeting, or whom the assignees may afterwards fix upon, empowering such attorneys respectively to wind up, settle, and close all accounts, reckonings, claims, and demands whatsoever between the said bankrupt and the said William Clark, and between the said bankrupt and any other person or persons whomsoever relating in anywise to the estate or affairs of the said late copartnership of White, Clark, and Company, and to that end to take and adopt all such proceedings (including the prosecution of any suit or suits against the said William Clark, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, or any of them, to compel the delivery of accounts, the restitution or delivery of goods, and the payment of money respectively), as such attorneys shall, in their discretion, think expedient and proper, with power also to such attorneys, at their discretion, to compound any debts, claims, or demands, to refer disputed matters to arbitration, and to appoint substitutes; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the said bankrupt's household goods and furniture, either by public auction or private contract, at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, for money or on credit, and upon such security, as the said assignees may think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Godfrey, of Leamington-priors, in the county of Warwick, Chymist and Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 2d day of January next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Landowne Hotel, Leamington-priors aforesaid, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from an agreement or memorandum, in writing, that has been entered into by the said assignees with an individual for the sale, by private contract, of the lease of the house in which the said bankrupt lately resided, and also for the sale of the shop, fixtures, and stock in trade, and also the house, fixtures, and household furniture, and effects of the said bankrupt, subject, nevertheless, to the approval of such sale by the creditors as aforesaid, at a fair valuation, upon such terms and conditions as will be laid before the creditors at the meeting; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees paying certain expences incurred in convening meetings of creditors endeavouring to effect an assignment from the said bankrupt to his creditors, previous to proceeding with the said Fiat, with a view of saving the expence to the estate of a bankruptcy; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate or effects of the said bankrupt, or which may appear to belong to the estate of the said bankrupt, with full power to compromise any debt, action, dispute, or take any dividend or dividends upon any debt or debts due to the estate, and to leave any dispute to arbitration; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act in all things, for the benefit and protection of the said estate, in such a way as they shall, from time to time, think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Stokes, of Clevedon Hotel, in the parish of Clevedon, in the county of Somerset, Innholder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 4th day of January next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the offices of Mr. Francis Short, Solicitor, 37, Corn-street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the equity of redemption of the said bankrupt of and in the Clevedon Hotel premises, and also of the stock in trade and good will, household furniture, fixtures, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof respectively, by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, either altogether or in separate lots, and for ready money or on credit, with or without security, or on such other terms, and at such time or times, as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, in the mean time, continuing to carry on the said bankrupt's business of an Hotel-keeper, in such manner as they may deem most advantageous for the estate, under the superintendance of the bankrupt, or such other person or persons as the said assignees may consider proper, and at such salary or salaries as they may agree upon, and to continue to employ the bankrupt's servants, or such of them as the said assignees may approve of, or to substitute others in their place if they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant, or such other person or persons as they may think fit, to investigate and arrange the said bankrupt's estate, and to collect and get in the outstanding debts, and to wind up his affairs, and to make such allowance to the said parties respectively, for their respective trouble and attention thereabout, as the said assignees may consider reasonable; and also assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtors or debtor to the said bankrupt's estate, or giving time and taking security from them or him; and commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions at law, or suits in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the said bankrupt's estate, or any part thereof, or prosecuting or defending any petition in the Court of Review; or to the said assignees submitting to arbitration, compromising, or settling any accounts, debts, differences, or disputes relating to the said bankrupt's estate; and generally to authorise the said assignees to adopt or take such measures or proceedings for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, as they in their discretion shall think advisable and proper; and also to ratify and confirm all such acts, deeds, matters, and things as the said assignees have already transacted and done, or shall hereafter do or perform, previous to the aforesaid meeting, in relation to the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against David Johnson, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Druggist, Grocer, Hop-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 5th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Union Inn, Union-street, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling or disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, good will of the business, fixtures, and all and singular other the property, either real or personal, of him the said bankrupt or in which he had an interest, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, and partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots, at such times and places, and either at a valuation or otherwise, and in such manner, as the said assignees shall think fit, to any person or persons, and for such prices, and upon such terms, as the said assignees may deem most advantageous, and either for ready money or upon credit, and if the latter, with such security for payment as the said assignees may think proper, without their being answerable for any loss or damage which may be sustained thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the business until such sale, and for that purpose to employ the bankrupt and other person or persons; and also to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts already done in having opened and carried on the said bankrupt's shop for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging any matter or thing relating to the said estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as the said assignees shall deem most to the advantage of the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Gloyne, of Wakefield, in the county of York, Grocer and Spirit Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 5th day of January next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Golden Lion Inn, in Wakefield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees chosen and appointed under the said Fiat, ratifying and confirming the acts and proceedings of the trustee under a certain deed of assignment made by the said bankrupt, bearing date the 10th day of October last past, done and taken by him in regard to the said bankrupt's estate and affairs, and for the benefit thereof, and for carrying the said assignment into effect, and to sanction and allow the accounts of the said trustee in regard to the said assignment; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, or allowing the said trustee in account the expenses of and connected with the said assignment; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning or relating to the said bankrupt's estate, effects, and affairs; and to their compounding any debt or debts, or submitting to arbitration any matter, claim, or dispute relating thereto, and to do and execute all necessary acts, deeds, matters, and things for effecting or carrying on such submission or arbitration; also to assent to or dissent from the course and proceedings adopted by the said assignees touching or relating to the said bankrupt's estate, effects, and affairs since their appointment, and up to the day of the meeting hereby convened; and to authorise and empower the said assignees generally to take such other proceedings as they shall see fit, or be advised to take, for the recovery or protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Robert Clark, of Carlton, in the parish of Roystone, in the county of York, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 3d day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Mr. George Keir, Solicitor, in Barnsley, in the county of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the real estate of the said bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, at such time or times, and in such manner as he may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, certain costs and expenses which have been incurred in preparing and endeavouring to carry into effect certain deeds of lease and release of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, for the general benefit of his creditors, and other expenses incurred thereunder before the striking of the docket against the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, a sum of money to the said bankrupt's wife, in lieu of any interest or contingent right of dower she may be entitled to out of the said bankrupt's real estate; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or for the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 11th day of December 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
