FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of "Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at Derby, in and for the county of Derby, on the eighteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county are insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Eckington may be a polling place for the said division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Eckington shall be a polling place for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

No. 19569.

C

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Wyatt Moyes, of the borough of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 12th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. John Beer, No. 10, George-street, Devonport, then and there to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining with certain parties, who were lately joint owners with the said bankrupt of a ship or vessel which has been lost, in an action at law for the recovery of the amount insured on the same ship or vessel; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting the said claim; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disposing of the estate or interest of the said bankrupt of and in the said disputed claim, either to the other parties interested in the said insurance money, or to any other person or persons whomsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees putting up for sale by public auction, or selling by private contract, all or any part of the outstanding debts now due and owing to the estate of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise the said assignees to do and act as they shall think best, or be advised, for the benefit of the said estate; and upon other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Matthias Fowler, late of Lymington, in the county of Southampton, Wine-Merchant, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 5th day of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. James Brown, Solicitor, Lymington, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting proceedings in equity, or otherwise, as the said assignees may be advised, for the purpose of recovering certain moneys which have been received by the trustees of a settlement made by the bankrupt, as will be particularly mentioned at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting certain terms proposed by the said trustees, by way of compromise of the claim made by the assignees with reference to the said moneys; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting proceedings in the Court of Review, or otherwise, as they may be advised, for the several purposes which will be fully expressed at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Griffiths, of the parish of Astley, in the county of Worcester, Hallier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 10th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Matthew Elgie, Solicitor, 48, Broad-street, Worcester, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee prosecuting a certain suit in equity wherein the said bankrupt and Mary Ann, his wife, are plaintiffs, the nature and object of which suit will be then and there stated to the said creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee defending certain other suits in equity wherein the said bankrupt is one of the defendants, the nature and object of which suits will be also then and there stated to the said creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compromising, settling, or otherwise arranging the said suits, any or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee taking any proceeding or proceedings, either at law or in equity, that may be thought necessary against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, in respect of or concerning the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating to such estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Riddle, of Lane-end, in the county of Stafford, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 8th day of January next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Charles Gibson, No. 2, Essex-street, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade, furniture, goods, and effects of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either for ready money or on credit, and to their buying in the same, or any part thereof, and reselling the same, either by public auction or private contract, for ready money or on credit, with like powers again to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, as to the said assignees shall seem expedient, and to their taking a bill or bills of exchange, or other security or securities, for the purchase money as they shall deem proper, without being liable to answer for or bear any loss which may happen by reason of the selling on credit, taking such security or securities, or such resale or resales as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining or concurring in the transfer to any person or persons who shall be willing to pay off the same, of certain mortgage debts affecting certain hereditaments and premises, or any of them, the equity of redemption in which said premises has been mortgaged to the said bankrupt, and to the payment by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences attending and incident to the transferring of the said mortgages, or any of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with the said mortgagees, or their assignees, in a sale or sales of the said hereditaments and premises to be conducted in such manner as the said assignees shall think proper, and either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation, or otherwise, and either to such mortgagees, or any of them, or any other person or persons whomsoever, and in one lot or several lots, at one or several times, and either wholly or partly for ready money or payment at a future day or days, with or without taking security for the purchase-money, or any part thereof, with power to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being answerable or liable for any deficiency or diminution in value or price which may occur by such resale or resales; or to the said assignees making and entering into any arrangement or settlement with such mortgagees and any other person or persons claiming any lien, interest, or charge upon the said hereditaments and premises, or any part thereof, as they may be advised or think most beneficial to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees settling and agreeing with a person, to be named at the said meeting, in respect of a lien claimed by such person upon certain deeds held by such person, and relating to the said hereditaments and premises so mortgaged to the said bankrupt as aforesaid, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees shall think proper; and to the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, what shall appear to them to be due to the said person in respect of his said lien; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expences to be stated at the said meeting incurred previous to the issuing of the said fiat, respecting the said bankrupt's estate, and for the protection thereof; and to sanction, allow, and confirm the employment and payment by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of an accountant to investigate the dealings and transactions of the said bankrupt, and to make up and adjust his books and accounts, and to collect in the debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, and of an agent or agents to receive and pay the rents, issues, and profits of certain messuages, lands, and premises, of which the said bankrupt is mortgagee in possession, and to manage and treat for the letting of the said premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking all proper and necessary steps and proceedings to investigating certain alleged debts to a large amount, claimed to be owing from the said bankrupt to certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and opposing the proof of such debts under the said fiat, and in the event of the proof of such debts, or any of them, being admitted, to the said assignees, presenting a petition or petitions to the Court of Review, or taking such other proceedings as the said assignees may be advised, for the purpose of having such debts, or any of them, expunged and disallowed, and to the said assignees paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expences of, and incident to, such investigation and proceedings out of the said bankrupt's estate; and to the said assignees settling, arranging, and agreeing with the party or parties claiming the said alleged debts, by consenting to such party or parties proving a portion of such alleged debts under the said fiat, and receiving a release, or other discharge, for the remainder of such alleged debts, or any of them, or by referring or submitting to arbitration, all disputes and differences, touching or concerning the said alleged debts or any of them, or upon such other terms and conditions as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees filing, bringing, and prosecuting a bill in equity, or actions at law, or such other proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise, as they may be advised against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, in respect of the dealings and transactions between the said persons, or any of them, and the said bankrupt, and to compel the rendering of proper accounts of such dealings and transactions, and for the recovery from such persons, or any of them, what shall appear to be due from them, him, or her, to the said bankrupt's estate, or to the settling and arranging or agreeing with such persons, or any of them, either before or after the commencement of any such action, suit, or proceeding, respecting such dealings and transactions, claims and demands, upon such conditions as the said assignees may think proper, and either by accepting a sum of money, in full satisfaction of all claims and demands, or by referring or submitting to arbitration, all disputes and differences touching and concerning such dealings and transactions, claims and demands; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees filing, commencing, and prosecuting one or more action or actions at law, or bill or bills in equity, or taking such other proceedings as they may be advised, against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, or any of them, for the recovery of certain property in their possession, part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or otherwise to their referring or submitting to arbitration the right of such persons, or any of them, to retain and keep such property; or to the said assignees making such arrangement, compromise, and agreement with such persons, or any of them, in regard to the same, as they may think advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking, commencing, and prosecuting, defending, or opposing, any proceedings at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, in respect of any part of the said bankrupt's estate, as they may think proper or be advised, for the protection, recovery, or getting in of the same, or any part thereof; and to refer to arbitration or compromise any dispute, claim, or demand whatsoever which now or may exist between the said assignees and any person or persons whomsoever in respect of the same, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 13th day of December 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JOHN STEAR, of No. 84, Oxford-street, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, carrying on business as a Hosier, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

On the 14th day of December 1837, by

THOMAS KING EVERETT, of Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford, Brick-Maker and Lime-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 61, sec. 4, c. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of John Sarah, late of Tavistock, in the county of Devon, Linen and Woollen Draper, an insolvent debtor, will be held at the office of Messrs.
