

in the said county of Lancaster, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Monday the 1st day of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Thorn Inn, in Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said insolvent shall be sold by public auction; also to assent to or dissent from the said insolvent's assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, in order to set aside an alleged conveyance of certain property and effects of the insolvent, made for an inadequate consideration, and under circumstances which render it fraudulent and illegal, and to set aside a devise and bequest of certain real and personal property under the will of the insolvent's mother, on the ground that she had no right or authority to dispose of the same, and to compel a conveyance or assignment of the same to the insolvent's assignees, or on the trusts and for the purposes mentioned and declared by the will of the said insolvent's father; also to enforce a sale of the estate and effects of the said insolvent's father, and a distribution of the moneys arising from such sale and under his will, in accordance with such will, and to recover any moneys or effects to which the said insolvent may be entitled under the wills of his father and mother; or to the said assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging the disputes and differences between the said assignees and the said persons, to be named at the said meeting, relative to the said insolvent's estate and effects, and the matters aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity, for the recovery of any other part of the estate and effects of the said insolvent; or to their compromising or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging any claims, matters, or things relating to the estate and effects of the said insolvent.

All Letters must be post paid.

Printed at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street, by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE, of the same place, and published, at the Office aforesaid, by FRANCIS WATTS, of No. 40, Vincent-Square, Westminster.

Friday, December 15, 1837.

Price Two Shillings and Four Pence.