FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition His Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by any such charter, if he shall think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth of William the Fourth, cap. 76, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by His Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Birmingham have presented a petition to

Her Majesty in Council, praying a charter of incorporation for the said borough:

Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said petition be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Wednesday the thirty-first day of January next, at twelve of the clock at noon.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at Derby, in and for the county of Derby, on the eighteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county are insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Eckington may be a polling place for the said division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Eckington shall be a polling place for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at Chelmsford, in and for the county of Essex, on the eighteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented two several petitions to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county, is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the several parishes of Castle Hedingham and Great Dunmow, in the said county, may be polling places for the said division:

Now, therefore; Her Majesty, having taken the said petitions into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said parishes of Castle Hedingham and Great Dunmow, shall be polling places for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT AND OATS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 20, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the under-mentioned articles, viz.

Wheat, Red, 2100 Quarters; Wheat, White, 400 Quarters; half of each to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Oats, Scotch Potatoe, 300 quarters; to be delivered within ten days.

Samples (not less than two quarts of each) must be produced by the persons tendering.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

South Sea-House, December 14, 1837.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at this House, on Friday the 5th of January next, at eleven in the forenoon, for the purpose of declaring a dividend on the capital stock for the half year ending on that day.

And in order to agree to a humble address to Her Majesty, that she will be graciously pleased to continue Governor of the Company.

N. Simpson, Secretary

Jamaica, S.S. in Chancery.—Spalding versus Shand.

PURSUANT to a Decree of Her Majesty's Court of Chancery in this island, bearing date the 1st day of June 1837, I do hereby require all the creditors, not named in the specific securities set forth in a cause, intituled Miles versus Shand, of William Shand, Esq. in the pleadings in this cause named, forthwith to come in before me, at my chambers, in the town of Saint Jago de la Vega, on or before Monday the 19th day of February next, 1838, to prove their demand.

Given under my hand this 18th day of September 1837.

WILLIAM RAMSAY, Master in Chancery.

Messrs. HILL, DAVIES, and M'NEIL, Solicitors,
Harbour-street, Kingston, Jamaica.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decretal Order of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Shawcross versus Goodier, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said court, at the house of Mr. Henry Eccersley, the Andrew Arms, in Harpurhey, in Collyhurst, near Manchester, in the said county, on Monday the 22d day of January 1838, at six o'clock in the evening, either together or in such lots as shall be then agreed upon, and subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

All that plot or parcel of land, situate at Collyhurst, near Manchester, and on the westerly side of the High-road leading from Manchester to Middleton, containing in the whole (including the site of the buildings hereinafter mentioned) 4,123 superficial square yards of land or ground, be the same more or less (being the residue unsold of an original plot of 4,868 square yards of land).

And also the above mentioned public house, called the Andrew Arms, with the brew-house, stabling, bowling green, green-room, and out-buildings thereto belonging.

And also all those eleven messuages, cottages, or dwelling-houses erected and built upon a part of the said plot of land, and now or late in the several occupations of Hannah Bradbury, James Lord, William Gregory, Isaac Hilton, David Kay, Patrick Rook, George Thorp, Alexander Slone, William Holmes, James Scholes, and George Cottrell.

And also two several ground rents or yearly sums of £5 2s. 8d. and £5 9s. 11d., reserved and made payable in and by two several indentures, dated respectively the 9th and 23d days of June 1825, out of lands and buildings contiguous or near to the above mentioned premises.

The land and buildings are held under a lease for the residue of a term of 10,000 years, at and under the yearly rent of £40 11s. 4d.; and the two ground rents of £5 2s. 8d. and £5 9s. 11d., are held for the residue of two several terms of 9,999 years.

The premises are situate in a populous and flourishing neighbourhood, and the buildings are new and substantial.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's office, in Preston; and for further information application may be made at the offices of Messrs. Denison, Humphrys, and Cunliffe, Messrs. Slater and Heelis, or Mr. Foulkes, Solicitors, in Manchester.

Notice to creditors of Mr. George Haslewood and Mr. George Dowler Haslewood.

THOSE creditors of George Haslewood, late of Middleton, in the county of Salop, Gentleman, and George Dowler Haslewood, heretofore of the same place, and late of Ellesmere, in the said county, Surgeon, who are interested in a certain trust deed, dated the 29th day of October 1822, for debts incurred by the said George Haslewood and George Dowler Haslewood, previous to that day, are desired to send in the particulars of their demands (up to that day only), to Mr. William Cooper, Shrewsbury, Solicitor, on or before the 20th day of January next, as the surviving trustee named in the said deed will declare and pay a first dividend on such debts in a month from the said 20th day of January; and those creditors who neglect sending such particulars and signing the said deed, at the office of the said Mr. William Cooper, in Shrewsbury aforesaid, if they have not already done so, will lose the benefit thereof.—December 19, 1837.

THIS is to give notice, that by indentures of lease and release and appointment, bearing date the 4th and 5th days of December 1837, and by indenture of assignment, also bearing date the same 5th day of December 1837, George Faulkner, Thomas-Robinson, and John Robinson, of Lane-end, in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, Manufacturers of China, have conveyed and assigned all their separate freehold estates whatsoever, and also all their partnership estate and effects whatsoever, to Charles Harvey, of Lane-end aforesaid. Banker, and Thomas Stirrup, of Dilhorn, in the said county of Stafford, Coal Proprietor, as trustees, upon trust, for the benefit of all the joint creditors of them the said George Faulkner, Thomas Robinson, and John Robinson; and that the said indentures of lease and release, and appointment and assignment, were duly executed by the said George Faulkner, Thomas Robinson, and John Robinson, on the said 5th day of December 1837, in the presence of, and attested by, George Young and William Clarke, Attorneys at Law, of Lane-end aforesaid; and the said indentures of release and appointment and assignment were duly executed by the said Charles Harvey and Thomas Stirrup, on the said 5th day of December 1837, in the presence of, and attested by, the said William Clarke, Attorney at Law, of Lane-end aforesaid.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Okill, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Share-Broker, Share-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 15th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. Brabner and Atkinson, Solicitors, Fenwick-buildings, Fenwick-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action, suit, or proceeding, at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, for the recovery, protection, or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or in anywise relating thereto; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting an action or actions at law against certain person or persons, to be named at such meeting, or one or more of them, for the recovery of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or the value thereof, or for the money arising from the sale thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding or otherwise settling any debt or claim belonging to the said estate, or to their selling or disposing of the same, by public auction or private treaty, for such price or prices, and on such terms, as they shall think advisable; and also to their submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or settling, any matter, claim, action, or dispute relating to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to their taking such security and granting such time for the payment or liquidation of any such debt, claim, or composition, as they shall think advisable; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as they shall think advisable and most expedient for the interest of the creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Field, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Share-Broker and General-Agent, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 15th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, precisely, at the office of Mr. Henry Vickers, Solicitor, in Sheffield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting one or more action or actions against a certain person or persons, to be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of certain furniture and effects of the said bankrupt, or the value or the proceeds of the sale thereof, or to their entering into any compromise or arbitration respecting the same, as to the said assignees may seem expedient; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, against certain other person or persons, to be named at such meeting, for the partition, accounting for, and recovering of certain dwelling-houses, tenements, and premises, the joint property of such person or persons and the said bankrupt, and for the accounting for and recovering of divers moneys paid to him or them by the said bankrupt; or to their entering into any compromise, arrangement, sale, or treaty of or relating to the said premises, for such sum of money, and on such credit or security for the same, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, as to the said assignees may seem expedient, or to their referring the same to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other action or actions, suit or suits, for the recovery or protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and to their taking or receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole; and submitting to arbitration, compounding, compromising, or settling any accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes relating to the affairs and effects of the said bankrupt, as the said assignees may think necessary and beneficial for the estate and creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Yates, of Flixton, and of Irlam, also of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster; Dyewood Grinder, Chipper, and Rasper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 18th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the office of Mr. John Hampson, No. 10, in Norfolk-street, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, either alone or jointly, and in concurrence with the mortgagee or mortgagees, selling and disposing, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise in one or more lot or lots, and at one time or place or several times or places, and either subject to any legal or equitable mortgage or mortgages, liens, or charges to which the same may be subject or liable, or otherwise, the leasehold works, dwelling-houses, lands, hereditaments, fixtures, implements of trade, goods, chattels, personal estate and effects whatsoever and wheresoever, of the said bankrupt, or of the equity and right of redemption of the said assignee of and in the whole, or any part or parts thereof, to any person or persons whomsoever, either for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, with or without in either case taking any security for the purchase money, or any part thereof, and without the said assignee being answerable or liable for any loss of purchase money, if sold on credit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, buying in at any sale or sales by auction all or any part of the premises aforesaid, or any other portion of the said bankrupt's estate, or any or either of them, and again offering the same for sale by public auction or private contract, with the like powers and authorities as aforesaid, and without the said assignee being liable to make good any loss, depreciation, or difference in price which may occur or take place, by, or in consequence of, any such buying in and reselling; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate, paying off and discharging, either wholly or in part, certain equitable liens, claims, and charges alleged to exist upon the mill works, property, and premises of the said bankrupt, situate at Flixton aforesaid, called the Calamanco Works, and upon the indenture of lease thereof, or in case he shall think fit so to do, settling, arranging, and agreeing with the person or persons, or any of them, having such equitable liens, claims, and charges thereupon in respect of the same, in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions as the said assignee may be advised to be most advantageous to the estate of the said bankrupt; and to the said assignee accepting and adopting the said lease or demise to the said bankrupt of the said mill, works, and premises, situate in Flixton aforesaid, also of a certain lease, or agreement for a lease, of a house, land, and premises, situate at or near Irlam, within the parish of Eccles, in the said county of Lancaster; or either of them, or giving up the same, or either of them, to the lessor or intended lessor thereof, or to any other person or persons, upon such terms and conditions in all respects as to the said assignee shall seem advantageous, and without being answerable or accountable for any loss or expence to be occasioned thereby; and to the said assignee entering into, signing, and executing all agreements and deeds which may be necessary or requisite to carry in a full and complete effect any agreement or arrangement which may be entered into by him with such mortgagees, lessors, intended lessors, or claimants, or any of them; and to his referring or submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences which may arise between him and any person or persons whomsoever, or, in respect of, any such indenture of lease, or agreement for a lease, or with the lessor or lessors, or intended lessor or lessors, of the said premises, or claimants, or any of them, or their or his assigns, or for, or in respect of, or relating to, any other of the matters aforesaid, or to the said bankrupt's estate or effects, in any manner howsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee giving his consent to any creditors of the said bankrupt who may hold, bills of exchange or notes, upon which other persons are liable, and executing any deeds of assignment, composition, release, or letters of licence, between them and their creditors, or giving them time for payment of any such bills, by instalments or otherwise, and with or without security, or to any such creditors of the said bankrupt entering into any other arrangement with such other persons so liable as aforesaid, respecting the payment of the bills they are liable upon as they, the said creditors shall think fit, without prejudice to the rights or proof under the said fiat in any manner howsoever; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Clarke, of Leamington-priors, in the county of Warwick, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 12th day of January next, at four o'clock in the afternoon, at the Lansdowne Hotel, in Leamington-priors aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting an action of trover, or such other proceedings at law or in equity as they may be advised, against Mr. William Edwards, of the firm of Messrs. Edwards and Venour, Solicitors, Leamington-priors aforesaid, and Mr. William Ewington, of the same place, Solicitor, or one of them, to recover divers articles of household furniture, building materials, and other stock in trade, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, which they, or one of them, claim to be entitled to, under or by virtue of a bill of sale from the Sheriff of Warwickshire, or otherwise, and which bill of sale is founded on a judgment or judgments in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench and Exchequer of Pleas at Westminster; and in case the said creditors shall determine not to bring and prosecute any such proceedings as aforesaid, against the said William Edwards and William Ewington, or either of them, touching the matters aforesaid, then to determine whether the said assignees shall or shall not proceed to a sale of the said household furniture, building materials, and other stock in trade, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or such portion of them as they shall think proper, leaving the said William Edwards and William Ewington to their remedy, if any, against the said assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from payment by the said assignees of the costs which have been incurred since their appointment, or shall hereafter be incurred, in prosecuting Thomas Lee and John Smith for obstructing the messenger, under the said Fiat, in the execution of the Commissioners' warrant of seizure, and also the costs of any ulterior proceedings arising out of or consequent upon such prosecution or obstruction as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying into execution any contract or contracts entered into by the said bankrupt with the guardians of any union, for the erection of any union workhouse or workhouses, or other buildings, and of employing the said bankrupt, or any other person or persons under the direction of the said bankrupt, or such other person or persons as the said assignees shall think proper, to complete such workhouse or other buildings, or to enter into any sub-contract or contracts for the completion thereof, or any part thereof; and also to determine whether the several claims made and set up, or to be made and set up, in respect of or upon the moneys due and owing, or to become due and owing, upon such contracts, or any of them, shall respectively be allowed or not; and if not, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action, suit, or other proceeding touching the same contracts or moneys respectively; and to authorise and empower the said assignees to give to the guardians of any workhouse or workhouses, on payment to the said assignees of any sum or sums of money due from the said guardian or guardians on such contract or contracts, a full indemnity or indemnities against the claims of any other person or persons in respect of the moneys so paid, as the said assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees confirming, enforcing, or abandoning, so far as they lawfully can or may, any contract or contracts now subsisting between the bankrupt and any other person or persons, and which have not been determined by his bankruptcy, for the sale, purchase, occupation, lease or underlease, either written or verbal, touching any lands, messuages, tenements or hereditaments, in Leamington-priors aforesaid, or elsewhere; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, releasing, assigning, or otherwise disposing of the whole or any part of the real or personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or the equity of redemption of his real or leasehold estates, or any part thereof, either to the mortgagee or mortgagees thereof, or to any other person or persons, either by public auction or by private contract, or partly by public auction or partly by private contract, and in such lots, at such times and places, and either at a valuation or otherwise, and either to the said bankrupt or any other person or persons, and for such price or prices, and generally in such manner, and upon such conditions, as the said assignees shall deem most proper and advantageous, and either for ready money or upon credit, and if upon credit, to take such security for the payment thereof as the said assignees may think proper, without their being answerable for any loss or damage which may be sustained thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees postponing the sale and disposition of the bankrupt's real and personal estate, or any part thereof, to such period or periods as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing and paying some fit and proper person or persons to overlook the uninhabited houses and other property of the said bankrupt, and to keep such houses and other property from injury during the winter; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper, to get in and collect the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the accounts of the said bankrupt, and to the said assignees making such person or persons such compensation for his or their trouble as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, whether real or personal; and compounding, submitting to arbitration, or agreeing or determining upon any question of doubt or difficulty, or otherwise arranging any matter or thing relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and taking the opinion of counsel upon any point or points of difficulty that may arise touching the bankrupt's estate and effects; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures or make such arrangements touching the said bankrupt's estate and effects as they shall deem most advantageous and beneficial for his general creditors; and on other special matters.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 20th day of December 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

WILLIAM SPINK, of Witham, in the county of Essex, Veterinary-Surgeon and Horse-Dealer, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 22d day of December 1837, by

WILLIAM RICHARD DYER, of Hungerford, in the county of Berks, Corn-Factor, Baker, and Retail Brewer, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WILLIAM CHARLETON and JOSEPH HADLEY REDDELL, of Berners-street, Commercial-road East, in the county of Middlesex, White Lead and Colour Manufacturers, that they are in insolvent circumstances, and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for Joseph Simpson, of Bawdeswell, in the county of Norfolk, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects and finish his examination under the said Fiat, from the 9th day of January next, until the 16th day of the same month, and whereby it is ordered that such surrender should be made before three o'clock in the afternoon of the same day; this is to give notice, that the Commissioners in the said Fiat named and authorised, or the major part of them, intend to meet on the 16th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the Angel Inn, in the parish of Saint Peter of Mancroft, Norwich, in the county of Norfolk aforesaid; when and where the said bankrupt is required to surrender himself, at the hours of one and three o'clock of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, and, with those who have already proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.
