A DISPATCH has been received from Lieutenant-General Sir John Colborne, K. C. B. Commander of the Forces in Canada, dated 7th December 1837, of which the following is an extract:

(Extract.)

*Head-Quarters, Montreal,
December 7, 1837.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, for the information of the General Commanding in Chief, that Colonel Gore having received my instructions to move on St. Denis, and to attack the rebels occupying that village, he marched from Sorel on the 1st instant, with eight companies under his command, and three field pieces. The rebels on the approach of Her Majesty's troops abandoned their position and dispersed, leaving the arms and ammunition which they had collected in the village.

Colonel Gore, being informed that the principal leaders of the rebels had retired to St. Hyacinthe, marched to that town, by St. Charles, on the 4th instant, but on ascertaining that Wolford Nelson, Papineau, and the other leaders of the revolt, had made their escape, he returned to St. Charles.

It appears, from the report of Colonel Gore, which is annexed, that the habitants, in the neighbourhood of St. Hyacinthe, have returned to their homes; and I am persuaded that the march of the troops through that part of the country has already produced a good effect.

I have the honour to be, &c.

SIR, Montreal, December 7, 1837.

I HAVE the honour to report that I arrived at Sorel on Thursday evening, the 30th of November, with the force under my command*. On the morning of the 1st of December I attempted to break through the ice in the Richelieu, with the steam boat John Bull, but on proceeding a mile, found it impracticable, when I landed and proceeded to St. Ours, where I halted for the night, and proceeded on the following morning on the road to St. Denis, which I entered without opposition, that place having been abandoned the night before.

The property of the rebel Wolfred Nelson was, in the course of the day and next morning, destroyed, and also the fortified house and all the defences.

On the morning of the 4th I marched on Saint

* Royal Artillery, 1 howitzer; 24th regiment, 1 company; 32d regiment, 4 companies; 66th regiment, 2 companies; 83d regiment, 1 company.

Charles, where I arrived at noon, with five companies and two guns, having left at St. Denis three companies and one gun, under Major Reid, 32d regiment. Having received information that some of the rebel chiefs were at St. Hyacinthe, I immediately proceeded, according to your Excellency's orders, to that place, which I entered in the evening; and surrounding the house where Papineau usually resided, at that place, it was strictly searched, but without finding him.

I was accompanied by Mon. Crenier, the Parish Priest, who gave me every information in his power; and, I am happy to say, that it is his opinion that the habitants now begin to see their folly, and that they have been grossly misled. They have returned to their homes in the whole of the counties between the Richelieu and the Yamaska, and gave every assistance required for transport.

I halted the troops on the 4th at St. Hyacinthe. The Curé called an assemblé of the principal inhabitants and the habitants; he addressed them with great eloquence, showing the selfish designs of their leaders, the folly of being led by them from their allegiance, exhorted them to continue in their homes and assist in arresting the rebel chiefs, and which they promised to do.

I returned to St. Charles in the evening, directing the force at St. Hyacinthe to return next day; two companies of the 83d to occupy St. Charles with one gun; three companies and one gun St. Denis, with a detachment at St. Ours, and, taking the remainder of the force, four companies of the 32d, and a howitzer, I returned to Sorel, and arrived here this forenoon at eleven o'clock.

This operation has produced the best effect possible,—it has opened the eyes of the habitants in these populous districts, where the influence of the rebel leaders was great, and shewn the habitants Her Majesty's troops, where their presence was least expected.

The howitzer, which was left on the road, was recovered. An iron gun taken, and considerable quantities of arms and ammunition found at Saint Denis, were destroyed.

I have, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES GORE, Colonel.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that if, in determining the mode of regulating the episcopal incomes, either in the first instance or on any future revision of them, it should be deemed expedient to make the alteration required, in any case, by the subtraction or addition of any real estates, such real estates be transferred accordingly; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that fit residences should be provided for the bishops of Lincoln, Llandaff, Rochester, Manchester, and Ripon; and that, for the purpose of providing the bishop of any diocese with a more suitable and convenient residence than that which now belongs to his see, sanction be given for purchases or exchanges of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the respective sees:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes, recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, re-

"venues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, towards carrying into effect the recommendation in the said Act contained, with respect to providing a fit residence for the bishops of Ripon.

Whereas by an agreement, bearing date the fifteenth day of November instant, and made between Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence, of Studley Royal, in the parish of Ripon, in the west riding of the county of York, spinster, of the one part, and the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon of the other part; the said Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence hath agreed to sell, and the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon hath agreed to purchase, at and for the price or sum of one thousand one hundred and eleven pounds five shillings and six pence, all the right, title, and interest now possessed by her, the said Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence, to and in certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to the see of York, situate in the township of North Stainley, in the parish, riding, and county aforesaid, being part and parcel of a certain farm, called Bramley Grange Farm, and now held by the said Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence, under a lease granted to her by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, for three lives, that is to say, for the lives of the said Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence, the Right Honourable Thomas Philip Earl de Grey, and Maria Trelawney Brereton, Spinster, containing together one hundred and nine acres, one rood, and twenty-six perches, more or less, and being of the yearly value of eighty pounds nineteen shillings, or thereabouts; and in the said agreement it was expressed, that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments were intended to be applied for the purpose of building a house of residence for the said bishop and his successors Bishops of Ripon, and allotting an appropriate demesne thereto; and it was provided that the said agreement should be void if we should not lay before your Majesty in Council a scheme for transferring, with the consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments from the said see of York to the said see of Ripon for the purposes aforesaid, or if such scheme should not be ratified by your Majesty in Council, within certain periods in the said agreement respectively mentioned: and whereas we are satisfied that an eligible and convenient site for such house of residence and demesne will be afforded by the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and that the same may be transferred from the said see of York to the said see of Ripon, consistently with the provisions of the said Act and of the recommendations therein contained; now, therefore, we do hereby humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see of York, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors Bishops of Ripon, as a site for an episcopal house of residence, and for a demesne thereto, to be by him and them held and enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that, out of the moneys now standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively for the purposes of the said Act, there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, on his completing the said purchase to him and his successors in the said see of Ripon, the sum of one thousand one hundred and eleven pounds five shillings and sixpence, being the amount of the consideration money so as aforesaid agreed to be paid by him to the said Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence for her right, title, and interest to and in the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said sees of York and Ripon, or either of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-third day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as herein-after directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of York and Ripon.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, cap. seventy-seven, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandize which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandize when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His Majesty George the Fourth, cap. one, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on

And whereas a treaty of commerce and navigation between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands was signed at the Hague, on the twenty seventh October last, and ratified on the twenty-second November last:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before Her Majesty and Her Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the King of the Netherlands are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported into, or exported from, the said dominions of the King of the Netherlands in Dutch vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the King of the Netherlands than are levied on Dutch vessels:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date hereof, Dutch vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same (such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported), shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also, that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Dutch vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Foreign-Office, December 29, 1837.

THE following Address, having been transmitted by Her Majesty's Minister in the United States of America to the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, was by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the undersigned, British born subjects residing in the city and state of New York, in the United States of America, beg to approach your Majesty, and offer our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the recent death of your Majesty's Royal Uncle and Predecessor King William the Fourth, of gracious memory.

Penetrated with grief by the loss of so good a King, profoundly impressed with his many virtues, and deeply sensible how much the people have to deplore, we could not, even at this distance, be silent spectators of such a national bereavement, we, therefore, humbly ask to participate in your Majesty's grief.

But while we mourn for a loss so much deplored by all, we cannot be insensible to the bounty of Providence in placing over us your Majesty, whose birth and education have been so truly British, whose frankness and generosity of character have so early developed themselves, and of whose disposition and ability to govern for the public good the nation already entertains a fixed presentiment; nor can we forget that your Majesty is a Member of the Illustrious House of Brunswick, that dynasty which confirmed and perpetuated civil and religious liberty throughout the British realms, and which, like the advent of Christianity in the moral world, gave liberty and happiness to millions of the human race; your Majesty, we are assured, can never forget those principles, principles which placed your exalted Family on the British Throne.

We humbly offer our sincere and fervent congratulations to your Majesty on the Accession of your Royal and virtuous Person to the Crown of England; may your reign be long and happy, may you emulate the virtues of your Royal Uncles and Grandfather, and may the prosperous and glorious epochs of Elizabeth and Anne be excelled by the lustre of the reign of Victoria.

Dated, at New York, August 1st 1837.

Whitehall, January 5, 1838.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Madras, in the East Indies.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the European and Native Inhabitants of the Presidency of Madras, humbly approach your presence to condole with your Majesty on the unexpected and afflicting loss which your Majesty and the whole empire have sustained, in the death of your Royal Uncle.

Deeply sensible of the favour and protection which this portion of your Majesty's dominions has experienced during the late benignant reign, and impressed with corresponding sentiments of gratitude to our deceased Sovereign, we are anxious to pay this tribute of sincere grief to the memory of the Friend and Father of his people.

But, amidst these feelings of grief which the late calamity has inspired, we have abundant reason to be thankful, that our late deservedly lamented Sovereign has been succeeded by a Princess who has been carefully educated amidst a free and loyal nation, under the care of your Majesty's Royal Predecessor, and the immediate eye of an anxious and illustrious Parent, we, therefore, humbly entreat, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to receive our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of the Empire, and to accept the expression of our fidelity and allegiance, and to permit us to assure your Majesty of our steady attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

Fort St. George, September 9, 1837.

[Transmitted by Lord Elphinstone.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient borough of Bridgwater, whilst we lament the loss of our late excellent King, your Royal Uncle, beg to offer our cordial congratulations upon the Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms.

We cannot but remember, with affection and gratitude, the great and numerous advantages which our beloved country has hitherto enjoyed, for several successive generations, under the mild sway of your august House, and when we call to mind the manner in which your Majesty has been prepared to discharge the high and arduous duties of your exalted station, by the judicious nurture and moral and religious instruction of your Illustrious Mother, the Duchess of Kent, we feel assured that, under the blessing of the Almighty, your Majesty's reign, so auspiciously commenced, will contribute largely to promote the happiness and prosperity of the empire, and that your Majesty's Throne will be based on the affections of all classes of your subjects.

We hailed, with satisfaction and delight, the just and benevolent principles which your Majesty has already been graciously pleased to express, that it will be your care to strengthen our institutions, civil and ecclesiastical, by discreet improvement, where improvement is required, and to do all in your power to compose and allay animosity and discord. These are the principles which, we believe, are adapted to the growing intelligence and necessities of the nation, and by acting upon them your Majesty will have the happiness of knowing that you are thereby increasing the love and confidence of your people.

Your Majesty has ascended the Throne of your Ancestors at a most important and trying crisis, but we earnestly pray that support and guidance may be imparted to you from the Supreme Ruler, that your reign may be peaceful, long, and glorious; and that finally you may exchange your earthly crown for a heavenly diadem which fadeth not away.

Robert Ford, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the QUEEN's Most Gracious Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the President and Council of the Royal Irish Academy, in the name and by the authority thereof, presume to approach your Throne, to lay before your Majesty the expression of our condolence on the death of your august Uncle, King William, our late most gracious Patron; presenting, at the same time, our dutiful and loyal congratulations on your Accession to the Crown of these Realms, and praying for a continuance of that patronage to our Society which your Royal Predecessors have afforded.

Incorporated more than half a century ago by royal charter, for the advancement, in Ireland, of science, polite literature; and antiquities, we trust that the Royal Irish Academy, according to its means and opportunities, has fulfilled its original design; and, as an incidental, but scarcely less precious, result, has promoted peace and good will.

Connected also as we are, by affection, membership, and aim, with that University of Dublin of which Elizabeth, of glorious memory, was foundress, we hail, as an auspicious era for renewed and augmented exertions, the commencement of the reign of another Queen, whom we regard as one designed by Providence to revive whatever was glorious, good, and pure in the Elizabethan age.

Such, Gracious Lady, is our trust and prayer; in witness whereof, we have affixed to this memorial the seal of the Academy.

William Rowan Hamilton, President.
