

garrison, and set the church on fire: 118 prisoners were made in these assaults.

Lieutenant Ormsby's conduct was very conspicuous; Major Guky was severely wounded, and the Royal Regiment had one man killed, and four wounded; and no other casualty occurred in the brigade.

On the morning of the 15th, Globinsky's corps was left at Saint Eustache, in charge of prisoners, and the remainder of the brigade, with the force under his Excellency's orders, marched to Saint Benoit, where no opposition was offered.

On the 17th the brigade returned to Montreal, bringing with it the prisoners.
