

His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

Buckingham-Palace, February 1, 1838.

This day had audience of Her Majesty, the Baron de Cetto, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Bavaria, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign:

To which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend Walter Wood to the church and parish of Westruther, in the presbytery of Lauder and county of Berwick, vacant by the transportation of the Reverend Robert Jamieson to the parish of Currie, in the city of Edinburgh.

Whitehall, January 24, 1838.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Hicks-Beach (formerly William Hicks), of Oakley-hall, in the county of Southampton, Esq. second son of Michael Hicks-Beach (formerly Michael Hicks), late of Williamstrip-park, in the county of Gloucester, and of Netheravon, in the county of Wilts, Esq. deceased, by Henrietta-Maria his wife, only daughter and, at length, heir of William Beach, sometime of Netheravon aforesaid, Esq. both also deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority that, in compliance with a proviso and direction contained in the last will and testament of the said William Beach, bearing date the 13th day of August 1783, he, the said William-Hicks Beach, and his issue may henceforth use the surname of Beach only, and also bear the arms of Beach; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that this royal concession and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.
