TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1838.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 30, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 14th, and on Wednesday the 21st, days of February next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 12th, for those who will attend the Levee on the 14th of February, and before twelve o'clock on Monday the 19th, for those who will attend the Levee on the 21st of February, and before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 30, 1838.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and that, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of February 1838, PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the county of Derby, in quarter sessions assembled on the second day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the county of Derby is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Castleton, within the said northern division, may be a polling place for the said division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Castleton shall be a polling place for the said northern division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Dickinson, of Dover, in the county of Kent, Paper-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, carrying on trade at certain mills called Spring-gardens, Buckland, and Bushy Ruff Paper-Mills, and situate in the several parishes of Charlton, Buckland, and Alkham, all near Dover aforesaid, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 8th day of February instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at Brook House, in Charlton aforesaid, the late residence of the said bankrupt, in order to take into consideration and determine as to the best course to be pursued by the said assignees in regard to the sale and disposition of the said bankrupt's property and effects, for the benefit of his estate; and more especially to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, in such parcel, at such time, and upon such terms and conditions, as to the said assignees shall seem most beneficial; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing to the mortgagees of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, in satisfaction of their respective mortgage debts, the right and equity of redemption of the said bankrupt, in such parts of the same estates as shall be found to be insufficient to discharge the principal money and interest due upon the respective mortgages thereof; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the said bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture, and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, to such person or persons, and altogether, and in one lot or in several lots, as to them shall seem most advisable, and to their taking such security and giving such time and indulgence for the payment of the same as they may think proper; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on, at the said mills called Spring-gardens Paper-Mills, in Charlton aforesaid, the business of a Paper-Manufacturer, in order to work up the raw materials now in hand to the best advantage, and employing a clerk or book-keeper, and such servants, agents, workmen, and others as may be useful and necessary to superintend, aid, and assist in the said business, with such salaries, wages, or other allowances or compensation as the said assignees shall think proper; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons to collect the outstanding debts of the said bankrupt, and to allow such compensation to the person or persons so employed as the said assignees shall deem just and reasonable; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking the opinion of counsel on any points arising out of the said bankrupt's affairs as to the said assignees may appear expedient and proper; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expenses incurred in preparing certain indentures of lease and appointment, release and assignment, bearing date, respectively, the 9th and 11th days of December now last past, whereby the said George Dickinson conveyed and assigned all his estates and effects to trustees, for the general benefit of his creditors, and the payments, disbursements, incidental charges and expenses incurred under or in consequence of the said indentures, or in any manner touching, concerning, or relating thereto; and to authorise the said assignees to settle all accounts, matters and things with the trustees who have acted under the said indentures; and also for the said assignees to receive and give discharges for such moneys, property, and effects as may be in the hands of the said trustees by virtue of such indentures; and belonging to the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act and take such steps, and pursue such measures, in and about the said bankrupt's affairs as by them in their discretion may be deemed expedient and proper.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued, and now in prosecution, against Aaron Lees, of Gorton and of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Manufacturer, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the firm of John Lees and Sons, and also of the Crumpsal Mill Company), are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 28th day of February instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Kershaw, Solicitor, No. 88, King-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, satisfying, and discharging all or any debt or debts now due or owing by the said bankrupt or his estate, and which shall or may have been contracted or incurred by him since the 5th day of April last, in the carrying on, under the inspection of certain of his creditors, of the trade and business of the said bankrupt since that time; also to the said assignees selling and disposing of, and joining and concurring with any mortgagee or mortgagees, or any joint owner or owners, or person or persons jointly interested and entitled with the said bankrupt, in selling and disposing of, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or at and for the amount of a valuation or appraisement to be made by any actuary, surveyor, or other proper person, and either together or in parcels, and at one time and place, or several times and places, in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions, as the assignees shall think proper, all and every the freehold and leasehold estates, cotton mills, cottages, land and premises of the said bankrupt, and his machinery, utensils, stock in trade, and other his personal estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof; and to assent to or dissent from all or any of such sales being made either for sums of money in gross, or subject, as to the land, to and upon chief or other yearly reserved rents, or partly for sums in gross, and partly for chief or other yearly reserved rents; and also, in case of sales of land upon chief rents, to the said assignees afterwards selling and disposing of such chief or other yearly reserved rents, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and in one or more lot or lots, to any person or persons whomsoever as to them shall seem most beneficial and advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate, and at one or at several times, and either wholly or in part, as to all the said bankrupt's estate and effects, for ready money, or upon such credit as the assignees may think proper, or partly for ready money, and partly upon credit; and, in case of a sale or sales, either wholly or partly upon credit, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing such credit without taking security for the whole, or any part or parts of the purchase money, and to such credit being given at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and without the assignees being answerable for, or liable to make good, any loss which may be sustained by reason or in consequence of such credit being given without security having been taken for the payment of the money; and, in case of a sale or sales by auction, to assent to or dissent from the assignees buying in at such price or prices as they may think proper, the whole or any part or parts of the property, goods, or effects, which may be so offered for sale, and again offering the same for sale at discretion, with the like powers and authorities to sell by public auction or private contract, and upon credit, and to buy in and resell without the assignees being answerable or liable in any case to pay or make good any loss, depreciation, or diminution in price or value, which may arise or occur; also to assent to, and allow and confirm, or dissent from, and disallow, all and every the acts, payments, and proceedings of the provisional assignee appointed under the said fiat, from the time of his appointment up to the choice of assignees, and the acts and proceedings of the assignees from the time of their appointment up to the time of such meeting, in carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt for the benefit of the creditors, and the general management and superintendence of his estate; and all sales, purchases, receipts, and payments made by the said provisional assignee and assignees, in and about the carrying on of such business and management, and superintendence of the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing and paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant to manage, arrange, settle, and dispose of the property, estate and effects, books, accounts, and affairs of the bankrupt, and collect and get in the rents and outstanding debts and effects; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the estate, certain bills of costs, which will be produced at such meeting, incurred in defending certain actions commenced against the said bankrupt, and for and attendant upon the preparation of a deed of release and assignment of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, for the benefit of his creditors, before the issuing of the fiat, and otherwise relating thereto; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying off, out of the estate, any mortgages or liens upon any part of the bankrupt's property and effects, and taking conveyances of the property mortgaged; and, to authorise the assignees to convey to any legal or equitable mortgagees, at or for the amount of a valuation or otherwise, any property legally or equitably mortgaged, either in full or part satisfaction of the debts owing to such mortgagees; and, if in part only, to consent to such mortgagees proving for any balances under the fiat; and to the assignees joining and concurring with any such mortgagees in sales of the property mortgaged, upon such terms and conditions as the assignees may think proper; and to the assignees making and entering into such other arrangement with any such mortgagees as they may think proper, for the benefit of the estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees abandoning, giving up, and re-conveying to the vendor, if they shall think fit, several plots or parcels of land (the particulars of which will be stated at the meeting), purchased by the said bankrupt, subject to several yearly ground or chief rents, upon such terms and conditions as they, the said assignees, shall think just and reasonable; also to assent to or dissent from the assignees allowing time to any debtors to the estate for payment of their debts by instalments or otherwise, and either with or without taking any security for the payment of the instalments, and to their executing, in respect of debts owing to the estate, any deed of composition, inspection, arrangement, letter of licence, or release and assignment for the benefit of creditors, which may be proposed by any debtor or debtors to the estate, to his or their creditors, and releasing such debtor or debtors from the payment of debts owing to the estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on and continuing, if they shall think fit so to do, the whole or part of the business lately carried on by the said bankrupt, at the entire risk and expence of the estate, either for a limited period, or at discretion; and, in case of assenting thereto, to authorise and empower the assignees to purchase and pay for, out of the estate, all cotton and other materials necessary for carrying on such trade, and for such purpose to the said assignees employing the said bankrupt to manage, superintend, and carry on such business, and paying him for his services, out of his estate and effects, a yearly or other salary, or such allowance and remuneration as to them, the said assignees, shall seem just, and permitting him, whilst he shall be so employed, to have the use of his household goods and furniture free of any charge whatsoever; and in case of the said assignees being authorised to carry on such trade, then to authorise the said assignees to employ all such clerks, assistants, servants, workpeople, and others, as may be necessary or requisite for the purpose, and pay them respectively, out of the estate, such salaries and wages for their services as the assignees shall think proper, and to give them all such other powers and authorities as may be requisite and necessary for carrying on the same business; and to assent to their being indemnified, out of the estate, for all that they may do in the premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees filing, presenting and bringing, and defending and opposing, at the risk and expence of the estate, all such suits in equity, petitions in bankruptcy, and actions at law, as may be necessary for the recovery, getting in, or compelling payment of, or for the protection of, the said bankrupt's estate, or any part thereof, or any debts owing thereto, or for expunging the proofs of any debts which may be made against the said estate, or which may be filed, presented, or brought against the said assignees, in respect of any part of the said bankrupt's estate, or for the proof of any debts against the same, or otherwise howsoever; and to the said assignees settling, arranging, agreeing, and compromising all or any of such suits, actions, petitions, or proceedings, and also any dispute or difference which may arise respecting any part of the said bankrupt's estate, or in anywise relating thereto, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees may think most beneficial to the said bankrupt's estate, either by referring the same disputes and differences to arbitration, or in any other manner whatsoever; and upon other special affairs.
