PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that two new sees should be erected in the province of York, one at Manchester and the other at Ripon; and that the diocese of Ripon should consist of that part of the county of York which is now in the diocese of Chester, of the deanry of Craven, and of such parts of the deanries of the Ainsty and Pontefract, in the county and diocese of York, as lie to the westward of the following districts, viz. the liberty of the Ainsty, and the wapentakes of Barkston Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes; recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations: and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby; and in any newly created diocese by such person as should be for that purpose named in any Order, which person should, in such last mentioned diocese become registrar there, and so continue as long as he should demean himself well in his office:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for further carrying into effect part of the provisions of the said Act, relating to the dioceses of York and Ripon.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that so much and such parts of the several parishes of Darton, High Hoyland, Silkstone, Pennistone, and Kirk Hammerton, in the county of York, as now form part of the diocese and archdeaconry of York, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be and become permanently annexed, and united to, and included in, and form part of the diocese of Ripon, and shall, as to the said parishes of Darton, High Hoyland, Silkstone, and Pennistone, be part of the archdeaconry of Craven, and within the deanry of Pontefract; and as to the said parish of Kirk Hammerton, part of the archdeaconry of Richmond, and within the deanry of Burowbridge; and that all churches and chapels within the limits of the said several parishes, and the whole clergy, and other your Majesty's subjects within the same limits, shall be exempted and released from all episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said Edward Archbishop of York, and of his successors Archbishops of York, and from the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the present and every future Archdeacon of York, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of his successors bishops of Ripon, for ever, and of the archdeacons of Craven and Richmond, for the time being, respectively:

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent, testified as aforesaid, that so much and such parts of the several parishes of Crofton, Warmfield, Normanton, Featherstone, and Abberford, in the said county of York and diocese of Ripon, as now form part of the said archdeaconry of Craven, shall be detached and dis severed from the said last-mentioned diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be and become permanently annexed, and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese and archdeaconry of York, and shall be within the deanry of the Ainstey; and that all churches and chapels within the limits of the said several last-mentioned parishes, and the whole clergy, and other your Majesty's subjects within the same limits, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of his successors bishops of Ripon, and from the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the present and every future archdeacon of Craven; and shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors archbishops of York, for ever, and to the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the archdeacon of York, for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that so much of the said deanry of Pontefract as remains in the said diocese and archdeaconry of York, shall be included in, and form part of, the deanry of the Ainstey, in the same diocese and archdeaconry; and that so much of the said deanry of the Ainstey as remains in the said diocese of Ripon, and in the said archdeaconry of Craven, shall be included in, and form part of, the said deanry of Pontefract, in the said last-mentioned diocese and archdeaconry.

And we further recommend and propose, that all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits of the respective dioceses of York and Ripon, shall be subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the bishops of such dioceses respectively; and shall be under the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the respective archdeacons of the archdeaconries, and within the respective deanries, in which respectively they are locally situate.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said dioceses of York and Ripon, or either of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this nineteenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the dioceses of York and Ripon respectively.
