

be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the north riding of the county of York, at the Epiphany general quarter sessions of the peace assembled at Northallerton, in the said riding, on the second of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the said riding is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Leyburn may be a polling place for the said riding :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Leyburn shall be a polling place for the said riding; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said riding, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said riding into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's-Palace, February 14, 1838.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levée, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the county of Gloucester, in public meeting assembled, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty with the unreserved expression of our sincere sympathy and condolence on the afflicting dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit your Majesty and the nation, by the death of our beloved Sovereign William the Fourth.

But deeply as we lament the loss of a King, under whose paternal sway the country derived so many benefits, and who at all times evinced such a patriotic desire to protect the rights and maintain the liberties of his subjects, we are still animated by a well grounded confidence that in your Majesty's sacred person the British Throne is now occupied by one who, under the affectionate care of an anxious and exemplary parent, has been pre-eminently qualified to reign over a loyal, free, and enlightened people.

We beg most humbly to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's Accession, and our ardent prayers that, supported by Divine aid, your Majesty may long enjoy every earthly blessing; and that your Majesty's Councils may ever be directed to promote your Majesty's honour and glory, and the welfare and happiness of your people.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,

J. S. Norwood Trye, High Sheriff.

[Presented by Lord Segrave.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Prebendaries, Chancellor, and Clergy of the Diocese of Carlisle, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with the expression of our devoted attachment to your Royal Person, and with our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms.

Trained up, as your Majesty has been, in the faith of our Protestant and Scriptural Church, and accustomed to the practice of its duties, we rely, with entire confidence, on your Majesty's support of that Holy Religion which it is our especial office and privilege to teach, and which we believe to be the only sure basis of individual happiness, and of national prosperity. In this assurance we look forward to your Majesty's reign, as one in which an example of every private and social virtue will be exhibited in the most exalted station, in which the real and permanent welfare of your people will be promoted, the honour and dignity of your Majesty's Crown upheld, and the ancient and valuable institutions of the country be maintained in their fullest usefulness and efficiency.

That for these purposes, and in the discharge of all the duties of your high station, your Majesty may be guided by Divine wisdom, to seek in all things the glory of God, and the good of His people; and that being protected by His power, and blessed with His grace and favour, your Majesty may long continue