Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 17, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees, at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 14th and on Wednesday the 21st days of March next, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 17, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 5th of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent into the Lord Chamberlain's Office, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

Whitehall, March 9, 1838.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Right Honourable Sir J. C. Hobhouse, was by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Madras, in the East Indies.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Madras, humbly approach your Majesty's presence with our expressions of condolence on the severe loss with which it has seemed good to the Almighty to visit your Majesty and the empire at large, in the death of your Royal Uncle.

Attached as we are to the United Church of England and Ireland, we feel that in His late most gracious Majesty we have lost a friend and protector, who would ever have upheld its constitution, rights, and immunities.

But while we sorrow for the removal of a Prince who, with a tender care for the rights of conscience, was yet fully sensible of the benefits which the Established Church is so well fitted to communicate, and render perpetual, we have reason to be thankful that our late lamented Sovereign is succeeded by a Princess, whose education gives the fairest promise of security to the constitution, both in Church and State. And beseeching your Majesty to accept our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, we beg leave to assure your Majesty that, deeply sensible of the value of that constitution, it will be our endeavour, in these distant and heathen parts of your Majesty's dominions, so to perform the sacred and arduous duties of our office, as to promote the progress of revealed religion among the Christian community, and to render it acceptable to all others.

May God, who hath called your Majesty to the seat of your Royal Ancestors, long continue the blessings of your reign over us. The Lord of Heaven and earth bless your Majesty with many and happy days, enlighten your Royal councils with his heavenly wisdom, and of his goodness establish the Throne in righteousness.

St. James's-Palace, February 14, 1838.

THIS day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by Mr. Wire, Under Sheriff; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Governor, Trustees and Committee of Management of the Incorporated Society of Licensed Victuallers.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Governor, Trustees and Committee of Management of the Society of Licensed Victuallers, Incorporated by His late Majesty King William the Fourth, of blessed memory, humbly pray your Majesty's gracious permission to lay at the foot of your Throne, the heartfelt expression of our sincere joy and satisfaction at your Majesty's Accession to the Crown of these realms, and of our gratitude for your Majesty's condescension, in extending to the Charitable Institution under your guardianship, the Licensed Victuallers' School, in Kennington-lane, Lambeth, the high and distinguished honour of your Majesty's patronage.

During many years this Institution, so dear to its supporters, was patronized by His late most excellent Majesty, who, at the beginning of the last year, was graciously pleased to command the foundation stone of an extensive building, erected for the accommodation of orphans and other destitute children of both sexes, who are maintained, clothed and educated from the funds of this society, to be laid in His Majesty's name, by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Melbourne, your Majesty's Prime Minister, to whom we owe the acknowledgment of our warmest thanks, for the noble and useful manner in which, while labouring under severe illness, he executed the duty committed to his charge.

While we sincerely lament the loss of our late Royal Patron, and condole with your Majesty upon the decease of a Sovereign whose liberal acts will endear his memory to the people of England in all future time, we cheerfully indulge the most joyful expectations of increasing prosperity and happiness, not only to the Institution under our immediate management, which your Majesty has been so graciously pleased to patronize, but to the country at large, from your Majesty's prompt and generous compliance with our humble request that you would condescend to become the Patroness of the school. The triumphs of Queen Elizabeth by sea, and the victories of Queen Anne by land, must ever be fresh in the recollection of the people of this country, while national independence, national institutions, and national glory, are dear to them; but greatly and justly as we prize the lustre which the immortal events of their reigns shed upon our beloved country, we hail, with most delightful anticipations, the splendor of a reign commenced by an act of beneficence, so strikingly illustrative of the amiableness of your Majesty's disposition, and so unequivocally indicative of your Majesty's determination to promote the welfare of your subjects, by diffusing among them the inestimable blessings of education.

That the Almighty dispenser of gifts may grant to your Majesty a long, peaceful and glorious reign, over a free, prosperous and enlightened people, is, and ever will be, the fervent and devout prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most humble, most grateful, and most devoted subjects.

St. James's-Palace, February 21, 1838.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of England.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the High Sheriff, Clergy, Gentry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, in county meeting assembled, at the Town of Carmarthen, in the said county, this 12th day of July 1837, humbly beg permission to offer our unfeigned congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms, sincerely wishing you a long continuance of health and happiness, to reign over an united people.

And we fervently pray, that He by whom "Kings reign and Princes decree Justice," may over-rule the councils, and sanctify the endeavours of your Majesty to secure to yourself the loyalty and affection of a grateful nation.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

W. H. Wilson, High Sheriff.

[Presented by Lieut. Col. the Hon. G. Rice Trevor.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty:

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Sunderland, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal presence, with the expression of our deep grief for the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the death of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, King William the Fourth, and of the gratitude with which we recollect his firm support of the constitutional privileges of the people, by giving his Royal sanction to the introduction and passing of those measures for improving the religious, civil, and municipal institutions of our country, which have been matured during his short but glorious reign, and which attached to him the warmest affections of a grateful and loyal people.

Whilst we submit with resignation to the will of Divine Providence in thus depriving us of a beloved and patriotic Sovereign, we feel a deep sense of thankfulness that the visitation was withheld until your Majesty became qualified to exercise the sovereign power of the state in your own person; and we hail with lively satisfaction, your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and the recent most gracious assurances of your Majesty's anxious desire to extend to all classes of your subjects, the full enjoyment of their religious principles, and their civil rights.

We fervently pray that, educated with feelings of attachment to British institutions, and to British interests, under the superintending care and anxious solicitude of an affectionate Parent, and animated by the example of our late lamented Sovereign, your Majesty may long be spared to administer the laws of this realm, to improve the civil and religious institutions of the country, and to reign in the hearts and affections of a free, happy, and united country.

Given under our common seal in Council, this 13th day of July 1837.

[Presented by the Mayor.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Boroughve and Constables, Electors and others, Inhabitants of the Borough of Salford, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, approach your Majesty, on your Accession to the Throne, for the purpose of expressing those sentiments of loyalty and attachment which we entertain towards your Majesty as the constitutional Sovereign of the British Empire. The Borough of Salford is one of those which was called into political existence by the great act which illustrated the reign of your lamented Uncle; and as the inhabitants of that Borough are duly sensible of the value and importance of the elective franchise, they regard the memory of their late Sovereign with respect and gratitude; and hail the Accession of your Majesty as the commencement of a reign destined to carry on the great work of reform, and to be conspicuous in all succeeding times for enactments of sound political wisdom, adapted to the existing state of society, and concurring to the welfare of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

It is the happiness of your Majesty to have ascended the Throne at a period of profound peace, and in an enlightened age; you have been called by the will of Heaven to reign over a great and flourishing people, unfeignedly attached to their Sovereign, and justly proud of the laws and institutions of their native land; but who are, at the same time, sensible that the most honoured institutions are liable to corruption, or may cease to be of use in a different condition of society; and who are, therefore, desirous that every real and practicable improvement should be timely and constitutionally effected, and by that means the pre-eminence of the British Empire in the enjoyment of civil and religious liberty for ever be preserved.

Believing that the attainment of results so glorious to the Sovereign, and so desirable to the subject, will be much more delightful to the heart of your Majesty than the laurels of conquest stained with the blood, and watered by the tears of your people, it is our earnest wish that the reign of your Majesty may be distinguished by the continuance of an honourable peace, that so there may be no obstacle to the progress of legislative and social improvement; but that the inhabitants of your Majesty's dominions may, during your reign, enjoy the blessings of good government and national prosperity in a continually increasing degree. That such may be the characteristics of your Majesty's reign; and that you may very long be preserved to sway the sceptre of this mighty empire; rewarded for the toils of Sovereignty by the love and fidelity of your people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's faithful subjects, who have on this occasion hastened to express the hopes and wishes which your Majesty's Accession has excited wherever it is known.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Mayo, assembled at Summer Assizes, 1837,

Most humbly approach your Majesty to offer the assurance of those sentiments of faithful obedience, unfeigned devotion, and unchangeable fidelity for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, which we, in common with all your Majesty's loyal subjects of Ireland, feel to be at once our highest pride and our greatest pleasure to express, and to beg that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this assurance of unchangeable loyalty and devotion to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, which, on behalf of ourselves and of our fellow subjects of the County of Mayo, we thus humbly and faithfully lay at the foot of your Majesty's Throne.

William O'Malley, High Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir William O'Malley.]

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the honourable and loyal society of Ancient Britons, beg leave to approach your Majesty and to express our sincere congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of these realms, praying that your reign may be prosperous, and that you may long be spared to be a blessing to a loyal and grateful people. We beg to assure your Majesty that we, the natives of the Principality of Wales, yield to none of your subjects in attachment to the constitution or loyalty to the Throne.

Encouraged by the repeated expressions of kindness of your Majesty and your august Mother towards our native land, and cherishing the remembrance of the honour conferred upon us by your sojourning among our mountains, we venture to solicit from your Majesty a continuation of that Royal patronage, which has been so long vouchsafed by your predecessors, to the charitable institution under the guardianship of our society.

This charity was established so long ago as the 1st of March 1715, in honour of Her Royal Highness Wilhelmina Carolina, then Princess of Wales, who was born on St. David's day. It has since received the sanction, from time to time, of various members of the Royal Family. It was under the immediate patronage of the late King George the Third, subsequently of King George the Fourth, and after his demise it enjoyed the especial protection of His late Majesty King William the Fourth. In the year 18 , your Royal Father, the Duke of Kent, honoured its anniversary by his presence and expressed his warmest approbation of its objects and its discipline, and in the year 1828, His late Majesty, then Duke of Clarence, condescended himself to fill the chair on St. David's day, enumerated the various members of his family who had countenanced the institution, and stated, in the strongest terms, his eager and fixed determination to continue to it whilst he lived his cordial support.

From the small beginning or instructing only 12 children, this institution has so prosperously increased, under the blessings of Providence, that it now receives no less than 160 children of the indigent natives of the Principality, clothes them, educates them, wholly maintains them, at the expiration of their term places them in creditable situations, with adequate premiums, and watches over them for some time after they have left the school.

We beg humbly to present to your Majesty the printed account of the rise and progress of this charity to which we pray that you will graciously deign to afford your Royal patronage.

Signed at the request and on Behalf of the Society of Ancient Britons,

W. Wms. Wynn, President.
