THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by the person whose name is respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Members of the Council of St. Christopher, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, largely partaking in the general feeling of sincere regret, which has been occasioned by the death of our late beloved Sovereign, King William the Fourth, humbly approach your Most Gracious Majesty with the expression of our condolence.

But while we thus sympathize in the loss which your Majesty and your people have sustained, we avail ourselves of the opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, of assuring your Majesty of our loyal devotion to your august Person, and of expressing our full persuasion that your Majesty, who is possessed of such amiable qualifications, who must, from circumstances, have looked forward to your present exalted station, and who has been so carefully educated for this object, will feel most anxious to watch over the rights and liberties, and advance the welfare and prosperity of your people.

St. Christopher, Sept. 7, 1837.

[Presented by Mr. Colquhoun, Agent for Saint Christopher and the other Islands.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Members of the Commons House of Assembly of the Islands of St. Christopher and Anguilla, on behalf of ourselves and all others, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects inhabiting these Islands, most respectfully approach your Royal presence, to offer our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and ourselves, in common with every other British subject, have sustained by the death of His lamented and Most Excellent Majesty King William the Fourth.

The assurance we have received of the great advantage your Majesty has derived from an excellent education, directed and superintended by your Illustrious Mother, alleviates the grief consequent on the loss of a King devoted to the interests of his subjects.

Although residing in this distant part of your Majesty's dominions, we yield to none of your Majesty's subjects in loyalty and fidelity.

We congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne. We declare our devotion to your Majesty, and we implore the Divine Providence so to assist your Councils that you may enjoy a long, prosperous, and happy reign.

A. Hart Rawlins, Speaker.

We beg to present to your Majesty our hearty congratulations upon your Majesty's Accession to the Crown of these realms, and to assure your Majesty of our sincere attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we pray that, under the blessing of Almighty God, in your Majesty's Councils and Government, your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, a prosperous, and a happy people.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Council of Nevis, humbly beg leave to condole with your Majesty on the decease of our late beloved Sovereign, an event most deeply deplored in this portion of your Majesty's dominions.

In paying this humble tribute of respect, we are not insensible to the blessings in store for us by your Majesty's Accession to the Throne; for in your Majesty's most gracious declaration of attachment to the principles of our glorious constitution, and in your Royal disposition to afford support and maintenance to true religion, your Majesty's subjects do acknowledge the germs of future happiness and prosperity to the nation at large.

We offer to your Majesty our most dutiful congratulations, professing our loyalty and devotion to your Majesty's Person and Government; and it is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may, under Divine Providence, long live to reign over a faithful and affectionate people.

[Presented by Mr. Colquhoun.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Assembly of the Island of Nevis, do approach your Most Excellent Majesty, with feelings of deep regret at the loss which not only your Majesty, but the nation at large, has sustained, in the death of your Illustrious Relative, our late Gracious Sovereign, William the Fourth; but while sympathizing with your Majesty in this heavy affliction, we cannot but feel our grief mitigated by the bright prospects of happiness and prosperity presented to us by your Accession to the Throne of your Illustrious Ancestors.

We assure your Majesty, that though situated at so distant a part of your empire, we yield to none in sentiments of loyalty and devotion to yourself, and the members of your Illustrious Family, under whose mild and parental Government we have enjoyed great and unequalled blessings. We earnestly pray that your Majesty's reign may be long, happy, and prosperous.

George Samuel Woodley Hatley, Speaker.

Nevis, Sept. 30, 1837.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Commons of the Island of Dominica, in Sessions assembled, beg to offer our congratulations on the occasion of your Majesty's succession as Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. As a youthful scion of the Illustrious House of Brunswick, and as the Grand-daughter of that revered Monarch to whom this Colony is indebted for the blessings of a free Constitution, its inhabitants hail, with feelings of the highest gratification, your Majesty's elevation to the Throne of these realms.

Unwilling to obtrude on your Majesty's grief for the loss of a beloved Uncle, with vain topics of condolence, we yet venture to hope that your Majesty has been consoled by the consideration that our deeply lamented Monarch had already attained an age which few are permitted to exceed, and still more by the conviction, that throughout his reign, he enjoyed in no common degree, the love and affection of all his subjects.

Your Majesty is called to the government of one of the greatest empires in the world, at that early period of life which gives the best assurance of a long reign; and we confidently trust in the merciful dispensations of a wise and kind Providence, that it will prove equally glorious to your Majesty, and prosperous to the British nation. The most fervent prayers for the long life of our Gracious Queen, for her uninterrupted health and unalloyed happiness, are poured forth from all parts of your Majesty's widely extended dominions; but in none, we venture humbly to assure your Majesty, do they proceed from a deeper or sincerer interest in your Majesty's welfare, from a more ardent love and attachment to the Royal Person, than those offered up by your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects of Dominica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Speaker and Members of the Commons House of Assembly of the Virgin Islands, beg to offer our condolence on the demise of Your Majesty's august Uncle, our late revered and Most Gracious Sovereign.

We entreat permission to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Imperial Throne of the United Kingdom, and to assure your Majesty of our continued loyalty and attachment; and although placed as we are, at a great distance from the Royal presence, we nevertheless feel assured that we shall enjoy your Majesty's protecting care, in common with every subject of the realm; and we hope your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this pledge of our inviolable attachment to your sacred

Person and Government, with our fervent prayers for your long and prosperous reign.
