We sympathize with your Majesty, and, bowing with submission to the will of God, are consoled by the hope that the same gracious Being, under whose auspices your Illustrious Predecessors advanced this great nation to the summit of worldly prosperity and power, may render your reign durable and happy, free from any interruption in its smooth career.

Participating in the general confidence, and fervently praying that the beneficent designs of your Majesty for the welfare of your people may be realized, we offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and dutifully assure your Majesty of our warm attachment and inviolable fidelity.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, lamenting with the sincerest grief the death of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, and being deeply impressed with a grateful sense of the many blessings which we enjoyed during the period which it pleased Almighty God to continue His late Majesty in the government of these realms, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal presence, to testify our deep concern and heartfelt condolence on the severe calamity and loss which your Majesty, and all the subjects of these dominions, have sustained; while we beg to congratulate you upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and at the same time to express, with all humility, our most earnest and faithful assurances of firm and unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person, and the just confidence which we entertain, that under your Majesty's Government the blessings of our happy constitution, and the rights and privileges which this country has enjoyed under your Illustrious Predecessors, will be preserved inviolate to us and to our posterity; and that your Majesty may reign for many years over a loyal, happy, and virtuous people, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,

Thomas Alcock, Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff, and a Deputation.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the High Sheriff, Lieutenant, Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, and other Inhabitants of the County of Waterford, in public meeting assembled, crave leave to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of tendering the tribute of our cordial congratulations upon the auspicious event of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that fervent as has ever been our attachment to your Royal Progenitors, your Majesty has personally acquired additional claims upon our affection, by the confidence which you have been pleased to express in the loyalty of your Irish subjects.

To this confidence we trust we shall never fail to respond, by a dutiful adherence to those unerring principles of allegiance, which have procured for us the inestimable honour of your Majesty's most gracious notice and approbation.

In conclusion, we most earnestly commend your Majesty to the guidance and protection of Divine Providence, praying that you may be long spared to impart a lustre to the Throne, and the blessings of good government to a grateful people.

H. Filliers Stuart, Chairman.

[Presented by the Chairman, and a Deputation.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, in public meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with feelings of dutiful regard and devoted loyalty towards your Majesty's Crown and Person.

We beg leave to offer to your Majesty our condolence on the death of your Illustrious Relative, our late lamented Sovereign, whose tender regard for popular rights and liberties, so graciously evinced in his assent to the Reform Bill, we shall always hold in grateful and affectionate remembrance. At the same time we tender to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. Your education, under the care of a virtuous and enlightened Mother, had inspired the nation with the fond hope that you would cherish the rights and liberties of the people, and had already prepared them for your Majesty's gracious declaration to your Council, "that you would steadily protect the rights, and promote, to the utmost of your power, the happiness and welfare of all classes of your subjects." We recognize with gratitude your Majesty's desire to fulfil your Royal pledge, by honouring with your confidence a Ministry who will support and give full effect to your benevolent intentions. We beg to assure your Majesty that these Ministers possess our full and unabated confidence, and that we shall give them our most strenuous support, satisfied that they will never desert the principles upon which they accepted office.

We have, in common with millions of our fellow-countrymen, been cheered by your most gracious assurance of impartial protection to your Irish subjects, and we regard the wishes so nobly expressed by your Majesty towards this country, as indicative of your Royal desire to extend to the people of Ireland the same rights and privileges enjoyed by the people of England and Scotland; and we have the fullest confidence that your Majesty's Ministers will be able to carry your gracious intentions into effect, and that your Majesty will have the gratification of speedily witnessing the fulfilment of your prediction, "that when invidious distinctions are obliterated, your Throne will be more secure and your people more truly united."

Signed on behalf of the meeting, in the Court House at Navan, the 8th day of November 1837.

Samuel Winter, High Sheriff of the County of Meath.

[Presented by Sir William Somerville, and a Deputation.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects of the County of Mayo, duly assembled, humbly approach your Majesty, to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We hail, indeed, as truly as eminently auspicious, the high and glorious fact that Providence, in having called your Majesty to rule over this mighty empire at so early a period of your Majesty's life, has endowed your Majesty with all those good and great qualities which adorn and dignify the human race, and those beneficent sentiments towards all your Majesty's subjects, which are treasured with grateful remembrance in every heart. And it is not for the day of prosperity, for the hour of sunshine and of peace, that we pledge to your Majesty our fealty and our faith, no, it is under every circumstance of future fate, whatever may betide, that we pledge to your Majesty our unaltered fidelity.

William O'Malley, High Sheriff, Mayo.

[Presented by the High Sheriff.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Freeholders and Electors of the County of Clare, in County Court duly assembled, beg respectfully to offer to your Majesty the tender of our perfect allegiance, and of our warmest congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of this realm.

We gladly recognise in your Majesty the representative of a family called to supreme power by the voluntary choice of a free people, and whose claim in your august person to the collective allegiance of the empire is now founded upon the prescriptive principles of hereditary right, and on the co-ordinate, if not paramount, claims of a solemn, deliberate, and unforced national selection.

Such, please your Majesty, are the constitutional feelings with which we hail your advent to the Throne of your Ancestors; but permit us, respectfully to state, that we are also animated on the present occasion by feelings of a personal and more devoted description.

We recognise in the youthful inheritor of an empire, the affectionate guardian of a people's rights, and behold in her well instructed character, formed as it has been by maternal wisdom, to each private virtue and each public duty, the best security for our individual happiness, for our collective prosperity, and for our national liberties.

We hail with feelings of undissembled pleasure, your constitutional association with the hereditary friends of liberty, and regard it as the cheering assurance of the not distant consummation of those measures equally demanded by the well being and national dignity of Ireland.

We, in particular, respectfully express our profound gratitude for the most judicious decision of your royal wisdom in continuing to confide the Government of this country to a nobleman who has, by his patriotic and constitutional conduct, concentrated the esteem and increased the loyalty of the Irish people.

Permit us fervently to hope that your Majesty may long enjoy the exalted honours of your station, may realize the ardent anticipations of a devoted people, and that in after times your name shall descend to a distant posterity, consecrated by an empire's gratitude, and encircled by the laurels of an enduring renown.

John MacMahon, High Sheriff of the County of Clare.

[Presented by William Roche, Esq. M.P.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Borough of Kingston upon Hull, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Borough of Kingston upon Hull, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the lamented death of our late most gracious, beloved, and revered Monarch King William the Fourth.

We unfeignedly regret the loss of a Monarch whose reign has been distinguished by its liberal, conciliatory, and peaceful policy, and by the paternal regard shewn by the Sovereign for the general advancement of the liberties, privileges, happiness, and prosperity of all classes of his people.

But, most gracious Queen, our sorrow is not unmingled with consolation. To our expressions of condolence we humbly beg leave to add our most ardent and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms; and whilst sensible that the reign of His late Majesty will form a period in our history which will fill every English heart with gratitude, still in the person of your Majesty, we feel firmly persuaded we have every prospect of a continuance of those blessings which it has pleased the Almighty to bestow upon these realms, and the further advancement of all such measures as are calculated to promote the prosperity and happiness of your Majesty's subjects, and protect them in the enjoyment of their rights and liberties, religious as well as civil.

With the sincerest professions of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the constitution of this country, we now approach your Majesty, imploring Almighty God, through whom all earthly Monarchs reign, that your Majesty may long live a prosperous, happy, and beloved Queen, over a loyal, affectionate, and contented people.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Kingston upon Hull, the 6th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Sligo, in county meeting assembled, humbly approach your Majesty, with the assurances of our sincere and fervent attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of stedfast loyalty to the Throne.

We beg leave to offer our warm congratulations to your Majesty, on your Accession to the Throne of these realms, and our warmest aspirations for the prosperity and happiness of your Majesty's reign.

We beg to tender to your Majesty our most grateful acknowledgments for your Majesty's declaration on ascending the Throne, to extend to all classes the benefits of the constitution, and to assure your Majesty of our unbounded gratitude for the policy pursued by your present advisers in their government of Ireland.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,
James Crofton, J. P., Deputy Lieutenant of the County of Sligo, Chairman.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Freemasons of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Oxfordshire, hasten, on the first occasion of our meeting since the demise of the Crown, humbly to approach your Majesty with the sincerest expressions of condolence, on the event which has deprived all the subjects of His late most gracious Majesty of a revered Monarch, and the Society of Freemasons of its Illustrious Patron.

We also request permission to offer our most respectful congratulations on the Succession of your Majesty to the sceptre of these realms.

We are bound by the rules of Masonic conduct to inculcate and observe attachment to the Throne, and obedience to the laws of our country.

We feel most confident that the sincerity of this attachment, and the willingness of this obedience are insured by the many and early proofs we have received of the anxious desire already manifested by our Sovereign, to promote at all times the welfare of Her loyal and faithful people.

We anxiously hope that your Majesty may be pleased to regard the principles and privileges of Freemasons with the same favour, which they have so happily enjoyed under the auspices of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors.

That the blessing and protection of the Almighty and Eternal Being, the source of every good, may ever rest upon your Majesty, is our united prayer.
