THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, lamenting with the sincerest grief the death of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, and being deeply impressed with a grateful sense of the many blessings which we enjoyed during the period which it pleased Almighty God to continue His late Majesty in the government of these realms, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal presence, to testify our deep concern and heartfelt condolence on the severe calamity and loss which your Majesty, and all the subjects of these dominions, have sustained; while we beg to congratulate you upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and at the same time to express, with all humility, our most earnest and faithful assurances of firm and unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person, and the just confidence which we entertain, that under your Majesty's Government the blessings of our happy constitution, and the rights and privileges which this country has enjoyed under your Illustrious

Predecessors, will be preserved inviolate to us and to our posterity; and that your Majesty may reign for many years over a loyal, happy, and virtuous people, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,

Thomas Alcock, Sheriff.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the High Sheriff, Lieutenant, Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, and other Inhabitants of the County of Waterford, in public meeting assembled, crave leave to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of tendering the tribute of our cordial congratulations upon the auspicious event of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that fervent as has ever been our attachment to your Royal Progenitors, your Majesty has personally acquired additional claims upon our affection, by the confidence which you have been pleased to express in the loyalty of your Irish subjects.

To this confidence we trust we shall never fail to respond, by a dutiful adherence to those unerring principles of allegiance, which have procured for us the inestimable honour of your Majesty's most gracious notice and approbation.

In conclusion, we most earnestly commend your Majesty to the guidance and protection of Divine Providence, praying that you may be long spared to impart a lustre to the Throne, and the blessings of good government to a grateful people.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, in public meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with feelings of dutiful regard and devoted loyalty towards your Majesty's Crown and Person.

We beg leave to offer to your Majesty our condolence on the death of your Illustrious Relative, our late lamented Sovereign, whose tender regard for popular rights and liberties, so graciously evinced in his assent to the Reform Bill, we shall always hold in grateful and affectionate remembrance. At the same time we tender to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. Your education, under the care of a virtuous and enlightened Mother, had inspired the nation with the fond hope that you would cherish the rights and liberties of the people, and had already prepared them for your Majesty's gracious declaration to your Council, "that you would steadily protect the rights, and promote, to the utmost of your power, the happiness and welfare of all classes of your subjects." We recognize with gratitude your Majesty's desire to fulfil your Royal pledge,
