TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1838.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 17, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 5th of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent into the Lord Chamberlain's Office, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 12, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, with reference to the regulations to be observed at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room on the 5th of April next, that no card for a presentation, on that day, can be received at this Office, on any account whatever, after four o'clock on Monday the 2d of April.

AT the Court at St. James's-Palace, the 21st day of March 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition His Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by any such charter, if he shall think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth of William the Fourth, cap. 76, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by His Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered.

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Manchester, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying a charter of incorporation for the said borough :

Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Tuesday the first day of May next, at twelve of the clock at noon.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order and direct, that all petitions and documents, whether in favour of or against the said charter, shall be lodged by the respective parties, at the Council Office, on or before the twenty-fourth of April next.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's-Palace, March 24, 1838.

The following appointment has reference to Her Majesty's Medical Establishment for Scotland, announced in the Gazette of the 16th instant :

Exeter Commercial Gas Light and Coke Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to Parliament in the present session, and leave given, to bring in a Bill to extend the powers of an Act, passed in the sixth and seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to establish a company for more effectually lighting with gas the city and county of the city of Exeter, and certain parishes and places in the county of Devon;" and to enable the said company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said undertaking.—Dated this 26th day of March 1838.

Charles Brutton, Solicitor for the Bill.

Hartlepool Dock and Railway.

IN pursuance of leave of the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that an application has been made to the said House of Commons, and a Bill is now pending therein, to enable the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company to raise the money already authorised to be raised by the two several Acts passed in the second and fourth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, by the sale of shares in their undertaking, and for amending the said two Acts, with reference thereto; which said Bill is intended to be proceeded with and passed into a law, with all convenient speed, if Parliament shall so please.—Dated this 24th day of March 1838.

H. Donkin,
J. Burrell, } Clerks to the Company.

IN pursuance of a resolution of the Standing Orders Committee, agreed to by the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for a Bill for the purpose of reviving, continuing, amending, and making more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending four Acts, passed in the reigns of their late Majesties King George the First and King George the Second and of His present Majesty, for repairing the roads from Luton to Westwood-gate, in the county of Bedford, and from Luton to St. Alban's, in the county of Hertford;" and which said roads pass through the several parishes or places of Saint Peter, Saint Michael, Redbourn, and Sandridge, in the liberty of Saint Alban's, in the said county of Hertford, and Flamstead, Harpenden, and Whet-hampsted otherwise called Wheathamstead, in the same county, and West Hyde, Luton, Stopsley, Limbury-cum-Biscott, Streatley, Barton, Higham-Gobion, Silsoe, Clophill, Maulden, Hayhes, Wils-hamstead, Elstow, Saint John, Saint Mary, Saint Paul, Saint Peter, Clapham, Oakley, Milton-Erness, Bletsoe, Sharnbrook, and Knotting, in the said county of Bedford.

Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and extend some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the basin of the Kensington-canal, at Kensington, to join the London and Birmingham and Great Western Railways, at or near Holsden Green, in the county of Middlesex, to be called 'the Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway;'" and power will also be applied for, in the said amended Act, to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, in extension of the before mentioned railway, commencing at or near the basin of the Kensington-canal, in the parish of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, Earl's-court, Kensington-gore, Saint Margaret's Westminster, Brompton, and Knightsbridge, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, and terminating at or near a certain garden belonging to a messuage now or late in the occupation of Mr. Charles Roberts, fronting to Knightsbridge-green, in the parish of Saint Margaret's Westminster aforesaid; and also to enable the said Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway Company to levy and raise tolls in respect of the said extended line.

And it is further intended to apply for power by the said Act to alter the line of the said Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway, as authorised by the before mentioned Act of the sixth William the Fourth, from a point on the said line, at or near the water-course, called Counter's Creek Sewer, one hundred and fifty yards, or thereabouts, north of Counter's Creek-bridge to a certain other point on the said line, at or near the basin of the Kensington-canal, and to construct a new line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, between the said points of deviation, passing within the aforesaid parish of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, and the parish of Saint Paul Hammersmith, or one of them; and also to abandon such portion of the original line of the said railway, within the said parishes of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington and Saint Paul Hammersmith, or one of them, as by reason of such diversion may be rendered useless or unnecessary.

And it is also further intended to apply for power, by the said amended Act, to deviate in the construction of the said amended and extended lines of railway, for the making of which the said amended Act is intended to be applied for, to the extent of twenty yards on either side of the line laid down, or to be laid down, on the plan thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said amended and extended line of railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 1st day of March in this present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office in Clerkenwell; and with the clerk of the peace for the city and liberties of Westminster, at his office in Carlisle-street, Soho; and also, on or before the 1st day of April next, in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the said parishes of Saint Paul Hammersmith, Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, and Saint Margaret's Westminster, will also be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the said 1st day of April, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated this 22d day of February 1838.

Roy, Blunt, Duncan, and Johnston, 19, Great George-street, Westminster; and 10, Liverpool-street, City; Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway or tramroad, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith; to commence in the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent, by means of a junction with the London and Greenwich Railway, and to terminate at or near a piece of ground, west of Stone-street, in the parish of Gravesend, in the said county of Kent, and for providing warehouses and other conveniences as a depot or station for the use of the said railway, in the parish of Saint Olave, in the county of Surrey; which said railway or tramroad, and the said station warehouses, and other conveniences as aforesaid, is intended to pass from, through, or into, or be situated in, the several parishes, townships, extra parochial, or other places of Saint Paul Deptford, Saint Nicholas Deptford; Saint Alphage, or Saint Alphege, Greenwich, Greenwich, Charlton; Woolwich, Plumstead, Erith, Crayford, Dartford, Stone next Dartford, Greenhithe, Swanscombe, Northfleet, and Gravesend, in the said county of Kent, and within the said parish of Saint Olave, Southwark, in the county of Surrey.

And notice is hereby further given, that power will be applied for in the said Bill, to deviate on either side from the line of the said railway as laid down in the plan to be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned, into the several properties numbered on the said plans, and described in the books of reference, provided no such deviation from the said line exceed one hundred yards; and it is also intended to apply for power to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said railway.

And further notice is hereby given, that, on or before the 1st day of March next, plans, sections, and books of reference of the before mentioned railway, will be deposited at the respective offices of the clerks of the peace for the said county of Kent, at Maidstone, and for the said county of Surrey, at Lambeth; and on or before the 1st day of April next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to the several parishes aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.—

Dated this 15th day of February 1838,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Bolton-le-Moors to Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and also to enable the company incorporated by the said Act to make an extension of the line of railway thereby authorized to be made, commencing in, from, or near a certain field in the parish of Chorley, in the said county, numbered (59) on the original plan of the said Railway deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county, passing through the several parishes, townships, and places of Chorley, Leyland, and Euxton, in the said county, to and to form a junction with the line of the North Union Railway, in the township of Euxton, in the parish of Leyland aforesaid, at or near a certain bridge in the said township of Euxton, by which the said last-mentioned railway is carried over the turnpike road leading from Wigan to Preston, both in the said county. And also to enable the said company to make a certain branch from, or extension of, the said railway authorised to be made as aforesaid, commencing at or near the canal, basin, and wharfs belonging to the company of proprietors of the Lancaster Canal Navigation on the north side of Fishergate-street, in the borough and township of Preston, in the parish of Preston, in the said county, and passing through and terminating within the said borough and township of Preston, in the said parish of Preston, by a junction with the line of the said North Union Railway, at or near a plantation or nursery on the east side of the said North Union Railway, now or late belonging to John Swainson and Thomas German, or the one of them, and now or late in the occupation of Charles Jackson; and also to enable the said railway company thenceforth to abandon so much of the line of the said railway by the said recited Act authorised to be made, as lies within the several parishes, townships, and places of Chorley, Leyland, Brindle, Blackburn, Preston, Whittle Hills, Whittle-in-le-Woods, otherwise Whittle-en-le-Woods, otherwise Whittle-le-Woods, Clayton-in-le-Woods, otherwise Clayton-en-le-Woods, otherwise Clayton-le-Woods, Walton-in-le-Dale, otherwise Walton-en-le-Dale, otherwise Walton-le-Dale, and Bamber Bridge, all in the said county, between the said field upon the original plan, numbered (59), in the parish of Chorley aforesaid, and Fishergate-street aforesaid, in the borough and township of Preston, in the parish of Preston aforesaid. And it is intended to take power, by the said Act so to be applied for, to make certain alterations of and in the levels of the said railway as at present authorised to be made within the several parishes, townships, and places of Chorley, Standish, and

Heath Charnock, all in the said county; and also certain other branches from or extensions of the line of the said railway, within the several parishes, townships, and places of Bolton-le-Moors, Standish, Great Bolton, Blackrod, and Adlington, all in the said county, that is to say; one of such branch railways or extensions commencing at or near a plot of vacant land, in the township of Great Bolton, and parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the said county, numbered (320) in the said original plan so deposited as aforesaid, and lying near Trinity-street, in the said township and parish, and passing through and terminating within the said township and parish, at or near the bottom of the inclined plane of the Bolton and Leigh Railway, near Fletcher-street Bridge. Another of such branch railways or extensions commencing in the said township of Blackrod, at, in, or near a field, numbered (29), on the said original plan so deposited as aforesaid, and passing through and terminating within the same township, at or near the southerly side of the turnpike road leading from Blackrod to Chorley, near Grimeford toll gate. And it is further proposed to apply for power, by the said intended Act, to deviate in the construction of the said proposed branch railways or extensions, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line or lines laid down, or intended to be laid down, on the plans thereof, to be deposited as herein-after mentioned, except in passing through towns, and in such case to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the said line or lines, provided the property lying within the said power of deviation shall be laid down and numbered on the said plans so to be deposited as aforesaid. And it is further intended, under the said Act so to be applied for as aforesaid to take power to levy and raise rates, tolls, and sums, for the use of the said branch railways, or extensions hereinbefore mentioned, and also powers for the said Bolton and Preston Railway Company, and for the Company of Proprietors of the North Union Railway, to enter into mutual arrangements for the use, by the said first named company, of the line of the North Union Railway, lying between the said intended point of junction therewith, in the township of Euxton, in the parish of Leyland, and the borough and township of Preston aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections describing the line or lines, and levels of the several proposed variations, in the line of the Bolton and Preston Railway, and the several branch railways, or extensions hereinbefore referred to, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, at his office in Preston aforesaid, and also, on or before the first day of April next, in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the before mentioned parishes of Bolton-le-Moors, Standish, Chorley, Leyland, Brindle, Blackburn, and Preston, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the said first day of April, with the several parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated this sixteenth day of February 1838.

Woodhouse and Holden, Solicitors, Bolton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for maintaining an existing public railway, from the summit of the Hill above Churchway Engine, in the Forest of Dean, to Cinderford Bridge, and for making public a private railway from thence to the River Severn, at or near Bullo Pill, all in the county of Gloucester, and for amending an Act of His late Majesty, relating to the said railways;" and also to enable the Forest of Dean Railway Company, incorporated by the said Act, to make a branch or diversion from their present railway, to commence at or near a certain place in the Forest of Dean, called Cinderford Bridge, and to terminate at or near the River Severn, at a place called Brimspill, in the parish of Awre, in the said county of Gloucester, with all such wharfs, quays, locks, embankments, and other works as may be thought necessary or proper; which branch or diversion and other works are intended to be made in, and to pass from, through, and into parts of the extra-parochial lands of Her Majesty's Forest of Dean, and the parishes of Newnham and Awre, in the said county of Gloucester; and notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed branch or diversion, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands through which the same is to be made, will be deposited, on or before the 1st day of March next, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in the city of Gloucester; and that, on or before the 1st day of April next, copies of so much of the said plans and sections as relate to the said parishes of Newnham and Awre, in or through which the said branch or diversion is proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Newnham and Awre; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to the extra-parochial lands of Her Majesty, in the said Forest of Dean, through which the said branch or diversion is proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited at the Speech House in the said Forest; and that, on or before the said 1st day of April next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons; and notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to insert in the said Bill power to deviate, in the construction of the proposed new works, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line laid down on the plans to be deposited as aforesaid; and also powers to levy tolls, rates, or duties on, and in respect of, the proposed new works, and to increase, vary, or alter the tolls, rates, or duties authorized by the before-mentioned Act to be collected, and to raise an additional sum of money for the purposes of the said Act, and of the intended Bill.—Dated this 15th day of February 1838.

James & Son, Solicitors, Newnham.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, with all proper approaches and other works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing on the south side of the River Thames, at or near to the foot of Westminster Bridge, in the parish of St. Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, passing from, through, or into the Boroughs of Lambeth and Greenwich, or one of them, and from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial, and other places of Westminster Bridge, St. Mary Lambeth, St. Mary Newington, St. Giles Camberwell, Peckham, Hatcham, and St. Paul's Deptford, or some of them, in the county of Surrey, and St. Paul's Deptford, in the county of Kent, and terminating by a junction with the London and Greenwich Railroad, at or near to High-street, in the parish of St. Paul Deptford, in the said county of Kent, together with a branch railway, or branch railways from the said main line, commencing at or near to White Post Lane, in the Old Kent Road, otherwise called the Great Dover Road, in the hamlet of Hatcham, and parish of St. Paul Deptford, in the county of Surrey aforesaid, passing from, through, or into the boroughs of Lambeth and Greenwich, or one of them, and from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial, and other places of Hatcham, the parish of St. Paul Deptford, in the county of Surrey, and the parish of St. Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent; or some or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the London and Croydon Railway, at or near to New Cross, in the hamlet of Hatcham, in the said county of Surrey, or in the said parish of St. Paul Deptford, in the said county of Kent and Surrey, or one of them; and that it is intended to take power, by the said Act, to deviate to any extent, not exceeding one hundred yards, except where the railway or railways pass through lands covered with buildings, and in such latter case, to any extent not exceeding ten yards, from the line or lines laid down on the plan and section to be deposited, on or before the 1st of March next, according to the standing orders of Parliament, with the clerks of the peace of the counties of Surrey and Kent respectively; and, on or before the 1st of April, in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, and with the parish clerks of the several parishes through which the said railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, is or are intended to pass, save and except also where the property, lying within the said one hundred yards, or ten yards, as the case may be, on either side of the said line or lines, shall be omitted to be numbered on the said plan, or referred to in the book of reference to be deposited therewith, in compliance with the standing orders aforesaid.

And it is further intended to apply for power, by the said Act, to purchase and hold lands immediately adjoining or contiguous to the line of lines of the said railway or railways, and branch railway, or branch railways, respectively, for the purpose of erecting thereon dwelling houses, shops, and other buildings, and also to make and maintain a wharf or pier and jetty, with proper approaches, warehouses, slips, embankments, and other works and defences at the termination of the said railway, at or near Westminster Bridge, aforesaid, and to levy and take tolls, rates, and dues, as well for the use of the said railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, respectively, as of the said wharf or pier, and jetty, and also upon all foot passengers passing upon or under the said railway or railways, and the branches thereof.—Dated this 14th day of February 1833.

James F. Saunders, No. 21, Old Jewry, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for an Act to authorise the making of a railway or tramroad, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from the Macclesfield Canal, at or near a field in the township of Buglawton, in the parish of Astbury, in the county of Chester, belonging to the late Lewis Porter's representatives, and called the Beech Field, to or near to the Lea Cross Toll Bar, on the Bosley and Tunstall Road, in the township and parish of Biddulph, in the county of Stafford; which said railway or tramroad will be formed in the said townships or places, and no others, with a branch from the main line of such railway or tramroad, to commence at a point near the reservoir belonging to the Lee Mills or Biddulph Forge, and to terminate at or near to the Trough Stone Quarries, and a branch from such branch to commence in or near to a field belonging to Maria Shufflebottom, and in the occupation of Wm. Lockett, and to terminate at or near to the woodhouse colliery; and another branch from and out of the said main line, to commence at or near to a place called Marsh Green, and to terminate at or near to certain collieries at Gillow Heath, respectively occupied by Charles Lancaster, James Lancaster, and John Bayley, respectively; and also a branch to commence at a point on the said main line about 150 yards easterly from the weighing machine belonging to Hugh Henshall Williamson, Esq., and to terminate at or near to the Falls Collieries in Biddulph aforesaid, with all proper works and conveniences to such branches respectively; all which said branches, and the commencements and terminations thereof respectively, are intended to be made and are situate in the said township and parish of Biddulph; and in the Act, for the purposes aforesaid, it is intended to obtain a power to make a canal instead of a railway (if it shall be found expedient or more convenient) along a portion of the line of the said main railway or tramroad, for the length of 120 statute chains, or thereabouts, from the proposed junction with the said Macclesfield Canal towards Lee Mills or Biddulph Forge aforesaid, and terminating in a field belonging to Thomas Stonor, Esq., and in the occupation of James Myott, being about 25 statute chains northerly from the said mills or forge; and also powers to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of articles passing or conveyed upon or along the said works or any of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said main line and branches hereinbefore respectively mentioned or referred to, with a book of reference thereto containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands through which the same line and branches are respectively intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 1st day of March next, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester, and with the clerk of the peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford; and that, on or before the 1st day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plan and section as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended line and branches respectively are proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, for the inspection of all persons concerned; and that, on or before the said 1st day of April next, a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended, in the said Act, to take power to deviate in the construction of the proposed new works (save as hereinafter mentioned) to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the line laid down in the plans to be deposited as aforesaid, where the same line is intended to pass through land covered with houses, and (save also as hereinafter mentioned) in all other parts of the line to an extent on either side thereof not exceeding 100 yards, save and except where the property situate within the said distances of 10 yards and 100 yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plan, and save and except where it shall be denoted on the said plan that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.—Dated this 16th day of February 1833.

THE Next of Kin (if any) or any person claiming to be related to Arabella Molineux, late of Tooting, in the county of Surrey, Widow, lately deceased, are requested to apply immediately to Mr. Richard Molineux, of Little Russell-street, Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Coach Wheelwright, and they may hear of something to their advantage. The said Arabella Molineux was the Widow of Richard Molineux, formerly of West-lane, Walworth, Surrey, but late of Garsington, in Oxfordshire, who died in the year 1817. Her maiden name was Downham, and previous to her marriage she resided in Castle-street, in the borough of Southwark. She had a brother, who was a Breeches-Maker by trade, and who is understood to have died in, or shortly previous to, the year 1803. Any person giving information as above, so that the next of kin of the said Arabella Molineux may be discovered, shall be rewarded for their trouble, on applying as above.

THE Subscribers having been appointed trustees of the estate and effects of the late firm of Ferrier, Stanley, and Co., of the island of Nevis, Merchants, have to request that all persons having demands against the said firm will render their accounts without delay, made up to the 12th September 1837, at the office of their Solicitor, Mr. James Davorez, Charlston, Nevis; and that all persons indebted to the same firm will make immediate payment of their respective accounts.

Fisher, before Aldcroft Phillips, of Manchester, Gentleman (by order of the major part of the Commissioners acting under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Robert Barker, of Manchester, Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, a bankrupt), at the Star Hotel, in Deansgate, in Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, on Wednesday the 2d day of May 1838, at six o'clock in the evening, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

The lease and good will of and in all that capital shop, messuage, or dwelling-house and premises, situate and being on the north westerly corner of Saint Mary's-gate, in Manchester, partly fronting into Saint Mary's gate and partly fronting the Market-place, lately occupied by the said Robert Barker, and now by his assignees, as a Druggist's shop.

The property is held for the residue of a term of twenty-eight years, commencing on the 24th day of June 1823, granted by an indenture of demise, bearing date the 5th day of September 1823, subject to the payment of the yearly rent of £200 thereby reserved.

The above property commands the best situation in Manchester, for a retail business of any description, but is peculiarly worthy the attention of persons engaged in, or desirous of commencing, the business of a Chymist and Druggist, for which business the shop has for many years past stood pre-eminently, and now possesses an extended and established reputation, the connexion having been kept up by the assignees having continued the business, for the benefit of the creditors, since the bankruptcy.

The assignees of the said bankrupt will give the purchaser the option of taking the whole of the very excellent, useful, and well arranged fixtures and utensils of the shop, and also such parts of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt as the purchaser may be desirous of taking, at a valuation.

For further particulars and to view the premises apply to Messrs. Atkinson, Birch, and Saunders, Messrs. Claye and Thompson, or to Messrs. Higson and Son, Solicitors, Manchester.
