

down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square. In taking up, they are to come down St. James's-street in like manner, pass through the same gates, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, they must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for the carriages of persons having the privilege of the entrée, which are to proceed down the Park, and enter the Palace at Stable-yard-gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the King's-court, those of the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called for; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away into Cleveland-row, and up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and at Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates above mentioned.

Tickets for carriages belonging to persons having the entrée will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.

ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

Whitehall, April 3, 1838.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Hugh M'Iver, Esq. was by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA,
QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.
The Humble Address of Lodge No. 473, of Free and Accepted Masons, of Enniskillen, Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Masonic Lodge No. 473, Enniskillen, in Lodge-room assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of dutiful regard and devoted loyalty.

We beg leave to offer to your Majesty the sincere assurance of our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

At the same time, we beg to offer to your Majesty our condolence on the lamented death of your revered Uncle, our late most Gracious Sovereign, who was at once a brother and patron of our order, and whose anxious solicitude for the interests of our fraternity, we shall always hold in grateful and affectionate remembrance.

May your Majesty long live in the enjoyment of the choicest gifts that Providence can bestow.

May your Majesty's reign be long and prosperous is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects.

Signed, by order and on behalf of the Lodge,

Mugh M'Iver, Secretary.

Westminster, March 30, 1838.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to.

An Act for the further relief of Quakers, Moravians, and Separatists.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, of the thirtieth and fortieth years of King George the Third, as authorises Magistrates to commit to gaols, or houses of correction, persons who are apprehended under circumstances that denote a derangement of mind and a purpose of committing a crime; and to make other provisions for the safe custody of such persons.

An Act for making and maintaining a harbour and other works at Paington, in the county of Devon.

An Act for better paving, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the town of Milton, next Sittingborne, in the county of Kent.

An Act to alter and enlarge some of the provisions of an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for better repairing the roads from Warminster, and from
