By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring Her Majesty's Pleasure touching Her Royal Coronation and the Solemnity thereof.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of June next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and forasmuch as by ancient customs and usages of this realm, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, many of Our loving subjects do claim, and are bound to do and perform divers services on the said day, and at the time of the Coronation, as in times precedent their ancestors, and those from whom they claim, have done and performed at the Coronations, of Our famous Progenitors and Predecessors, Kings and Queens of this realm; We, therefore, out of Our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of Our loving subjects whom it may concern, have thought fit to give notice of and publish Our resolution therein; and do hereby give notice of, and publish the same accordingly; and We do hereby further signify, that by Our Commission under Our Great Seal of Great Britain, We have appointed and authorised all the Lords and others who have been sworn of Our most Honourable Privy Council, or any five or more of them, to receive, hear, and determine the petitions and claims which shall be to them exhibited by any of Our loving subjects in this behalf; and We shall appoint our said Commissioners for that purpose to sit in the Council Chamber at Whitehall, upon Saturday the twenty-eighth day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the morning of the same day, and from time to time to adjourn as to them shall seem meet for the execution of Our said Commission, which We do thus publish to the intent that all such persons whom it may any ways concern, may know when and where to give their attendance for the exhibiting of their petitions and claims concerning their services before mentioned to be done and performed at Our said Coronation; and We do hereby signify unto all and every Our subjects whom it may concern, that Our will and pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all persons, of what rank or quality soever they be, who, either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices or tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the said day or time of Our Coronation, that they do duly give their attendance accordingly, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth, and of this they, or any of them, are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Ourself, under Our hand, to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, the fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.
