A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring Her Majesty's further Pleasure touching Her Royal Coronation and the Solemnity thereof.

VICTORIA, R.

HEREAS having resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the so lemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the twenty sixth day of June next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and having accordingly signified Our

Royal pleasure concerning the same, by Our Proclamation, dated the fourth day of April instant, whereby, amongst other things, We thought fit, out of Our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of Our loving subjects whom it might concern, to declare, that, by Our Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain, We had appointed and authorised all the Lords and others who have been sworn of Our most Honourable Privy Council, or any five or more of them, to receive, hear, and determine the petitions and claims which should be to them exhibited by any of Our laving subjects in this behalf; and that We should appoint Our said Commissioners for that purpose to sit in the Council 'Chamber at Whitehall, upon Saturday the twenty-eighth day of this instant, at eleven o'clock in the morning of the same day, and from time to time to adjourn as to them should seem meet, for the execution of Our said Commission; and whereby We did also signify unto all and every Our loving subjects whom it might concern, that Our will and pleasure was, and We did thereby strictly charge and command all persons, of what rank or quality soever they might be, who, either upon our letters to them directed, or by reason of .their offices or tenures, or otherwise, were to do any service at the said day or time of our Coronation, that they would duly give their attendance accordingly, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively held and enjoyed, and of that they, or any of them, were not to fail as they would answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Onrself under Our hand to be allowed, We should dispense with any of their services or attendances:

And whereas by a report made unto Us by a Committee of the Lords of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, to whom We thought fit to refer the arrangement of preparations necessary upon the occasion of the aforesaid Coronation, the said Committee of Our said Privy Council have in obedience to Our commands, whereby they were specially directed to make the said arrangements as much abridged and as economical as might be compatible with a strict regard to the solemnity and importance of the occasion, and a due compliance with the provisions of existing Statutes in that behalf, reported to Us their opinion, that it may be proper for Us to omit that part of the ceremonial which usually takes place in Westminster-Hall, and that part thereof which consists of the procession, and that We should give directions for the celebration of that part only (as it might be hereafter curtailed), which is solemnized in Westminster-Abbey; and the said Committee of Our Privy Council have further submitted to Us, that in dispensing with the ceremonies which have heretofore taken place in Westminster-Hall, it may be proper that We should dispense with the services and attendance of those who, by ancient customs and usages, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, do claim and are bound to do and perform divers several services at the time of Our said Coronation, which services would have been performed in Westminster-Hall, or in the procession, and at the same time that We would be graciously pleased to declare, that such dispensation should in no wise interfere with the rights and privileges they may claim as touching the performances of the said services at any future Coronation of the Kings or Queens of this realm: and whereas the said Committee of Our said Privy Council have further re presented unto Us, that it may be advisable for Us to issue Our Royal Proclamation to that effect, We, therefore, in compliance with the advice so dutifully tendered to Us by Our Privy Council, and having at heart the ease of Our loving subjects, do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare that it is Our Royal will and pleasure; that such part only of the solemnity and ceremony of Our Royal Coro-

Kings and Queens of this realm, solemnized in Westminster-Abbey, shall take place; and We do further, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare, that We do dispense upon the occasion of this Our Coronation, with the procession, and with the services and attendance of all persons who, by ancient custom and usage, or in regard of their tenures of any manors, lands, or other hereditaments, do claim, and are bound to do and perform, any services, at the time of the Coronation, which, according to ancient custom or usage, are to be performed in Westminster-Hall, or in the procession; such dispensation, nevertheless to be altogether without prejudice to the rights and prerogatives of our Successors, Kings and Queens of this realm, to demand and require the performance of the said several services at any future Coronation of the Kings or Queens of this realm; and We do hereby further graciously declare, that the same shall not interfere with the rights and privileges of any of Our loving subjects, to claim the performances of such several services, or any of them, at any future Coronation: and We do hereby, in further compliance with the advice of the aforesaid Committee of Our Privy Council, declare, and make known, to all such of Our loving subjects as it may concern, that it seems good to Us, that the Committee of Claimsshall, upon the occasion of this Our Coronation, but. without prejudice for the future to the rights and. claims of any of Our loving subjects, exclude from their consideration such claims as may be submitted to them, in respects of rights or services connected with the parts of the ceremonial heretofore performed in Westminster-Hall, and with the procession.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this tenth day of April one thousand eighthundred and thirty-eight, in the first year, of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Earl Marshal's-Office, 30, Great George-Street, Westminster, April 10, 1838.

presented unto Us, that it may be advisable for Us to issue Our Royal Proclamation to that effect, We, therefore, in compliance with the advice so dutifully tendered to Us by Our Privy Council, and having at heart the ease of Our loving subjects, do, by this Qur Royal Proclamation, signify and declare that it is Our Royal will and pleasure; that such part only of the solemnity and ceremony of Our Royal Coronation of the solemnity and ceremony of Our Royal Coronation of the attendance of the Peers and Peeresses of Great Britain at the Solemnity of the Royal Coronation of Her Majesty; and the Queen having been further pleased to command me to prepare such letters also for those Peers of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, who sat and voted in the House of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or whose right to sit and vote therein, or to vote at the election of a representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and who are not now Members of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, I do hereby request that all those Peers, who, in conformity to the above regulations, are entitled to assist at the Solemnity of Her Majesty's Royal Coronation, will be pleased to transmit their respective addresses to Sir William Woods, Deputy Garter King of Arms, at this Office, and that the Dowager-Peeresses and Peeresses who may claim to attend at the said Coronation, will be also pleased to transmit their respective Christian names and addresses to Sir William Woods, in order that their letters of summons may be prepared without delay.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Earl Marshal's-Office, 30, Great George-street, Westminster, April 10, 1838.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peers at the Coronation of Her Most Sacred Majesty Queen Victoria.

THESE are to give notice, to all Peers who attend at the Coronation of Her Majesty, that the robe or mantle of the Peers be of crimson velvet, edged with miniver, the cape furred with miniver pure, and powdered with bars or rows of ermine, according to their degree, viz.

Barons, two rows.
Viscounts, two rows and a half.
Earls, three rows.
Marquesses, three rows and a half.
Dukes, four rows.

The said mantles or robes to be worn over the full Court dress, uniform, or regimentals usually worn at Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms.

Their coronets to be of silver gilt; the caps of crimson velvet turned up with ermine, with a gold tassel on the top; and no jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in the coronets, or counterfeit pearls instead of silver balls.

The coronet of a Baron to have, on the circle or rim, six silver balls at equal distances.

The coronet of a Viscount to have, on the circle, sixteen silver balls.

The coronet of an Earl to have, on the circle, eight silver balls, raised upon points, with gold strawberry leaves between the points.

The coronet of a Marquess to have, on the circle, four gold strawberry leaves and four silver balls alternately, the latter a little raised on points above the rim.

The coronet of a Duke to have, on the circles eight gold strawberry leaves.

By Her Majesty's command, NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Earl Marshal's-Office, 30, Great George-street, Westminster, April 10, 1838.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of Her Most Sacred Queen Victoria.

THESE are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of Her Majesty, that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full Court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness be of crimson velvet, the cape whereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine; the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. a rim or circle with six pearls upon the same, not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the cape powdered with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. a rim or circle with pearls thereon, sixteen in number, and not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half; the coronet to be composed of eight pearls raised upon points or rays, with small strawbery leaves between, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the cape powdered with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three quarters; the coronet to be composed of four strawberry leaves and four pearls raised upon points of the same height as the leaves alternately, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Duchess be as before, only the cape powdered with four rows of ermine, the edging five inches broad, the train two yards; the coronet to be composed of eight strawberry leaves, all of equal height, above the rim.

And that the caps of all the said coronets be of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a tassel of gold on the top.

By Her Majesty's command,

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.
