WHEREAS having resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of June next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and having accordingly signified Our

Royal pleasure concerning the same, by Our Proclamation, dated the fourth day of April instant, whereby, amongst other things, We thought fit, out of Our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of Our loving subjects whom it might concern, to declare, that, by Our Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain, We had appointed and authorised all the Lords and others who have been sworn of Our most Honourable Privy Council, or any five or more of them, to receive, hear, and determine the petitions and claims which should be to them exhibited by any of Our loving subjects in this behalf; and that We should appoint Our said Commissioners for that purpose to sit in the Council Chamber at Whitehall, upon Saturday the twenty-eighth day of this instant, at eleven o'clock in the morning of the same day, and from time to time to adjourn as to them should seem meet, for the execution of Our said Commission; and whereby We did also signify unto all and every Our loving subjects whom it might concern, that Our will and pleasure was, and We did thereby strictly charge and command all persons, of what rank or quality soever they might be, who, either upon our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices or tenures, or otherwise, were to do any service at the said day or time of our Coronation, that they would duly give their attendance accordingly, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively held and enjoyed, and of that they, or any of them, were not to fail as they would answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Ourselves under Our hand to be allowed, We should dispense with any of their services or attendances :

And whereas by a report made unto Us by a Committee of the Lords of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, to whom We thought fit to refer the arrangement of preparations necessary upon the occasion of the aforesaid Coronation, the said Committee of Our said Privy Council have in obedience to Our commands, whereby they were specially directed to make the said arrangements as much abridged and as economical as might be compatible with a strict regard to the solemnity and importance of the occasion, and a due compliance with the provisions of existing Statutes in that behalf, reported to Us their opinion, that it may be proper for Us to omit that part of the ceremonial which usually takes place in Westminster-Hall, and that part thereof which consists of the procession, and that We should give directions for the celebration of that part only (as it might be hereafter curtailed), which is solemnized in Westminster-Abbey; and the said Committee of Our Privy Council have further submitted to Us, that in dispensing with the ceremonies which have heretofore taken place in Westminster-Hall, it may be proper that We should dispense with the services and attendance of those who by ancient customs and usages, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, do claim and are bound to do and perform divers several services at the time of Our said Coronation, which services would have been performed in Westminster-Hall, or in the procession, and at the same time that We would be graciously pleased to declare, that such dispensation should in no wise interfere with the rights and privileges they may claim as touching the performances of the said services at any future Coronation of the Kings or Queens of this realm: and whereas the said Committee of Our said Privy Council have further represented unto Us, that it may be advisable for Us to issue Our Royal Proclamation to that effect, We, therefore, in compliance with the advice so dutifully tendered to Us by Our Privy Council, and having at heart the ease of Our loving subjects, do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare that it is Our Royal will and pleasure, that such part only of the solemnity and ceremony of Our Royal Coronation, as is usual upon the Coronation of the Kings and Queens of this realm, solemnized in Westminster-Abbey, shall take place; and We do further, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare, that We do dispense upon the occasion of this Our Coronation, with the procession, and with the services and attendance of all persons who, by ancient custom and usage, or in regard of their tenures of any manors, lands, or other hereditaments, do claim, and are bound to do and perform, any services, at the time of the Coronation, which, according to ancient custom or usage, are to be performed in Westminster-Hall, or in the procession; such dispensation, nevertheless to be altogether without prejudice to the rights and prerogatives of our Successors, Kings and Queens of this realm, to demand and require the performance of the said several services at any future Coronation of the Kings or Queens of this realm; and We do hereby further graciously declare, that the same shall not interfere with the rights and privileges of any of Our loving subjects, to claim the performances of such several services, or any of them, at any future Coronation: and We do hereby, in further compliance with the advice of the aforesaid Committee of Our Privy Council, declare, and make known, to all such of Our loving subjects as it may concern, that it seems good to Us, that the Committee of Claims shall, upon the occasion of this Our Coronation, but without prejudice for the future to the rights and claims of any of Our loving subjects, exclude from their consideration such claims as may be submitted to them, in respects of rights or services connected with the parts of the ceremonial heretofore performed in Westminster-Hall, and with the procession.

Colonial-Office, Downing-Street, April 11, 1838.

A DISPATCH has been received from Lieutenant-General Sir John Colborne, G. C. B. Commander of the Forces in Canada, dated 9th March 1838, of which the following is an extract:

Extract of a Dispatch from Lieutenant-General Sir J. Colborne, G. C. B. to Lord Glenelg, dated Government-house, Montreal, March 9, 1838.

"I HAVE the honour to transmit to you the accompanying copy of a letter from Colonel Maitland, dated 4th March 1838, reporting the result of an able and gallant attack which he made on a party of brigands from Sandusky-bay, in the State of Ohio, who had taken possession of Point Pelé Island, in Lake Erie, about forty miles from Amherstburgh.

Our frontier is at present so closely watched and guarded by the volunteer corps of both provinces, that no serious impression can be made by the parties of brigands that are carrying on the piratical mode of warfare along our extended line; but I trust that the late disgraceful acts on the part of the lawless population of the neighbouring States, will compel the American Government to adopt effectual measures to prevent a repetition of the outrages which have been committed by the citizens of the United States."

SIR, Amherstburgh, U. C. March 4, 1838.

WHEN I wrote you on Sunday last, announcing the defeat of the pirates at Fighting Island, I did not think I should have to report to you another instance of a British island being taken possession of in this quarter.

Early in the week, I received information from different quarters, that Point Pelé Island had been taken possession of by the patriots from Sandusky-bay. This island is of considerable magnitude, being from seven to nine miles in length, and from four to five in breadth; it is situated in Lake Erie, about forty miles from Amherstburgh, and twenty miles from the shore.

I sent three or four local Officers to ascertain the fact of their being there; they went close to the shore, and were fired upon; this, together with the circumstance of several people who had gone over to the island, to look after their property, and who were detained by the patriots, confirmed me that the report was true. I, therefore, on Thursday afternoon, dispatched Captain Glasgow, of the royal artillery, to inspect the strength of the ice, and report his opinion to me as to the practicability of moving guns and troops to that place. He returned the following day, at twelve o'clock, and reported that the ice was practicable and strong enough to pass. I therefore determined, without loss of time, to attack them by day break the following morning; accordingly, with two guns (six-pounders), the four companies of the 32d regiment, one company of the 83d regiment, a small detachment of thirty belonging to the Sandwich troop of cavalry and St. Thomas's troop of cavalry, one company of the Essex volunteer militia, and a small party of Indians, moved that evening, under my own immediate command, eighteen miles along the lake shore, where I halted for some time to rest the horses, and, at two o'clock in the morning, commenced my march on the lake ice, arriving at the island just at break of day.

I had previously arranged my plan of attack, which was as follows:—I directed Captain Brown, with the first and second companies of the 32d regiment, to proceed round to the south end of the island, and take up a position on the ice to intercept any attempting at escape by that direction, he was accompanied by a detachment of about twenty-five men of the Sandwich and St. Thomas' cavalry. Having made this arrangement, I landed myself, with the remainder of the force and the two guns, at the north end; the rebels fled on my approach, and escaped into the woods. I was here informed, by some of the loyalists who had been made prisoners by the patriots on the island, that they were in force to the amount of about five hundred; the troops moved on in extended order, and pursued them through the island; but, as the wood was thick, and the snow extremely deep and heavy, the men were much retarded in their progress.

The rebels, finding themselves hemmed in on every side, moved out at the south end of the island, the only place by which they could escape to the American shore, and advanced, in line, upwards of 300 men, well armed and organized, upon Captain Brown's detachment, where they met with the greatest resistance; a brisk fire being kept up on both sides for some time, and several of Captain Brown's detachment having fallen, he determined to charge them, which he did, and forced them back (to the wood where they retreated in great confusion) at the point of the bayonet. I particularly beg to recommend this circumstance to the notice of his Excellency the Lieutenant General Commanding.

On the road, inside of the wood, the rebels had a number of sleighs, by which means they succeeded in carrying away about forty of their wounded men, the others succeeded in escaping at the southernmost point of the island, and got over to the American coast, leaving killed on the spot their commanding officer, a Colonel Bradley, a Major Howdley, and Captains Van Rensselaer and M'Keon, and several others; some prisoners were taken, several of whom were severely wounded.

I regret to say that the taking of this island has not been gained without considerable loss on our part; and I have to request that you will report for His Excellency's information, that thirty soldiers of the 32d regiment fell in this affair, two of whom were killed, the others, some dangerously, some severely, wounded. I sincerely regret the loss of so many brave soldiers, and feel it the more, when I reflect they did not fall before an honourable enemy, but under the fire of a desperate gang of murderers and marauders. A list of the killed and wounded I have the honour herewith to enclose.

Having scoured the woods, and satisfied myself that the island was cleared, I re-formed the troops, and, about five o'clock in the evening, proceeded back, and the soldiers returned to their quarters, at Amherstburgh, that night.

When you take a view of the circumstances of this affair, I need hardly detail to you the arduous duties the soldiers have had to perform, from the time they left this until their return, travelling, as they did, forty miles in an excessively cold night, twenty of which were across the lake; accomplishing the object I had in view, namely, liberating the loyalists detained on the island, gaining possession of the place, restoring it to the proprietors, defeating, with considerable loss, the enemy, and returning again to their barracks, within thirty hours.

My warmest thanks are due to the whole of the Officers who supported me in this undertaking, and it is impossible for me, in words, to do justice to the gallant soldiers of Her Majesty's royal artillery, 32d regiment, 83d regiment, and the loyal volunteers of cavalry, infantry, and the few Indians, who constituted the force under my command.

I have to regret that Mr. Thomas Parish, a private in the Saint Thomas' troop of volunteer cavalry, was killed in rear of the 32d regiment, by a musket shot. Colonel Prince of Sandwich, Mr. Sheriff Lachlan, Captain Girty, and several other gentlemen, asked my permission to accompany me, which they did, and gallantly acted with their rifles, with our soldiers, against the rebels in the wood; I found them very useful from their knowledge of the locality of the place.

I trust this second repulse on this frontier of the American banditti (let it be understood that I have it from satisfactory authority, that the whole of the gang driven from Pelé Island, are American citizens), will be a lesson to them, that they are not with impunity to hold British territory.

A large tri-coloured flag, with two stars, and the word "liberty" worked upon it, and eleven prisoners, were also taken, some of whom state that they were formerly on Navy Island; about forty American muskets, some ammunition, swords, &c. were also taken.

I am informed by the prisoners that it was the decided intention of these people to land on the Canadian shore last night, and march upon Amherstburgh, destroying by fire on their way all the houses, &c. they had to pass, and for which six sleigh loads of American citizens, from Sandusky-bay, had joined them the night previous to my attack, and made their escape back again immediately on my appearance in front of the island.

I have the honour to request that you will lay the substance of this letter before his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, and forward it to Montreal, for the information of his Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JOHN MAITLAND, Lieut.-Col. Comdg.
32d Regt. and Col. Comdg. Western Frontier.
