A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring Her Majesty's Pleasure touching Her Royal Coronation and the Solemnity thereof.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of June next, at Our Palace at

Westminster; and forasmuch as by ancient customs and usages of this realm, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, many of Our loving subjects do claim, and are bound to do and perform divers services on the said day, and at the time of the Coronation, as in times precedent their ancestors, and those from whom they claim, have done and performed at the Coronations of Our famous Progenitors and Predecessors, Kings and Queens of this realm; We, therefore, out of Our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of Our loving subjects whom it may concern, have thought fit to give notice of and publish Our resolution therein; and do hereby give notice of, and publish the same accordingly; and We do hereby further signify, that by Our Commission under Our Great Seal of Great Britain, We have appointed and authorised all the Lords and others who have been sworn of Our most Honourable Privy Council, or any five or more of them, to receive, hear, and determine the petitions and claims which shall be to them exhibited by any of Our loving subjects in this behalf; and We shall appoint our said Commissioners for that purpose to sit in the Council Chamber at Whitehall, upon Saturday the twenty-eighth day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the morning of the same day, and from time to time to adjourn as to them shall seem meet for the execution of Our said Commission, which We do thus publish to the intent that all such persons whom
