TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57. sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of William Iveson, formerly of Hedon, in the east riding of the county of York, Attorney at Law and Solicitor, in partnership with James Iveson, of the same place, carrying on business there, and at the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, in the same county, as Attorneys at Law and Solicitors, and late of Hedon aforesaid, Attorney at Law and Solicitor on his own account, and also during all the time carrying on business as a Farmer, at Paull, near Hedon aforesaid, an insolvent debtor, discharged from York Castle, in the county of York, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Tuesday the 22d day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Kingston Hotel, in Scale lane, in the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, to consider and determine whether any and what proceedings shall be taken by or on behalf of the assignees of the estate and effects of the said insolvent, either by commencing a suit or suits in equity, or otherwise, to enforce performance of two several contracts for sale of parts of the real estate of the said insolvent made with certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, or either of them; also to consider whether to defend or resist any suit, action, or other proceeding, which may be instituted or taken against the said assignees, or any other person as their agent, or on their account, to compel performance or to seek to recover damages for breach of a certain other contract alleged to have been made for sale of a certain other part of the real estate of the said insolvent to a certain other person, also to be named at the said meeting, or to adopt, confirm, and carry into execution such alleged contract; also to consider the propriety of authorising the said assignees to sanction and concur in a proposal for terminating certain disputes as to the priority of lien between certain parties and a certain person claiming to be a creditor of the said insolvent's estate, in respect of a debt for which the said insolvent became surety to him, and by which termination of disputes, if made with the sanction of the said assignees, the amount, for which such person so claiming to be a creditor of the said insolvent as aforesaid will be entitled to receive a dividend out of the estate and effects of the said insolvent, will be ascertained and determined; also to consider the proceedings which have been taken by the said assignees, under the resolutions passed at a meeting of the creditors of the said insolvent, held on the 19th day of July 1836 (amongst others), for selling the real and personal estate of the said insolvent; and to determine upon the propriety of again offering for sale, either by public auction or private contract, such portions thereof as may remain unsold, either without reserve or with power to buy in the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the adoption of any steps or proceedings which may be suggested at the said meeting, for the disposition, recovery, or protection of all or any part of the estate and effects of the said insolvent.

All Letters must be post paid.
