FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1838.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 30, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, June 21st, at two o'clock.

And Her Majesty will hold Levees, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock:

May 23d.

June 8th.

June 20th.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 18, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, it is the particular desire of the Queen, that all Ladies attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, should appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of May 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at

"county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the county of Derby, in quarter sessions assembled at Chesterfield, the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented two several petitions to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the towns of Buxton and Tideswell may be polling places for the said northern division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petitions into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the towns of Buxton and Tideswell shall be polling places for the said northern division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of April 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues; so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five; and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect the following, amongst other recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds; and that fit residences should be provided for the Bishops of Lincoln, Llandaff, Rochester, Manchester, and Ripon; and that, for the purpose of providing the bishop of any diocese with a more suitable and convenient residence than that which now belongs to his see, sanction should be given for purchases or exchanges of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the respective sees:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London, for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the therein-before recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for further carrying into effect part of the provisions of the said Act relating to the see of Lincoln.

We humbly recommend and propose, that, from and after the next avoidance of the see of Lincoln, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being, to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the bishop then succeeding to the said see of Lincoln, and his successors, bishops of Lincoln, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half yearly payments; the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Lincoln shall happen on any other day than the half yearly day of payment, so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may, for a time, exceed the amount thereof; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sum payable as aforesaid in the same half year to the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being, or to the bishops of other smaller sees, who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes; so as to keep the sums to be paid, during the same half year, within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year, and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us, or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that, until an episcopal house of residence shall be provided for the said see of Lincoln, instead of the house of residence, situate at Buckden, in the county of Huntingdon, which by the alterations in the diocese of Lincoln, made under the provisions of the said Act, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, is not now within the limits of the said diocese, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the said bishop, in order to enable him, from year to year, to procure a fit and convenient temporary residence within such limits, the fixed annual sum of five hundred pounds, by half yearly payments, on the twentyfifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine; and that, in case of a vacancy of the said see before a permanent episcopal house of residence shall have been provided as aforesaid, and previously to the termination of any year of hiring of any such temporary residence, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the said bishop, or his representatives, in addition to the proportionate part of the then current half yearly payment, such further sum not exceeding the rate of five hundred pounds by the year as aforesaid, as may be required to discharge the rent becoming due for such temporary residence for the then remaining portion of such year of hiring.

And we further recommend and propose, that it shall be lawful for the said John Bishop of Lincoln, or his successors, to pull down all such parts of the said house of residence, situate at Buckden aforesaid, as shall be determined upon, according to a plan to be laid before us by the said John Bishop of Lincoln, or his successors, and approved by us, and to sell the materials thereof, without being impeachable for waste or accountable for dilapidations to any person whomsoever; and that the net amount of the moneys produced by such sale shall be paid to our credit into the Bank of England to an account intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and be applied by us towards the expence of providing an episcopal house of residence for the said see of Lincoln as aforesaid.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said see of Lincoln, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is hereby pleased to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of April 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the law now in force in the colony of British Guiana, the employer of every apprenticed labourer within the said colony, is bound to supply for his or her weekly maintenance seventy pounds of plantains, or in lieu of such plantains, certain quantities of corn, meal, or of rice:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the Act for the abolition of slavery in the British colonies," reciting, amongst other things, that in such of the colonies as are subject to the legislative authority of Her Majesty in Council, certain laws were in force, at or immediately before the time when the Act for the abolition of slavery passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, came into operation, determining the amount of food and other allowances to be supplied to the persons then held in slavery in the said colonies; and further reciting, that doubts had arisen whether, consistently with the provisions of the said Act for the abolition of slavery, it is competent to Her Majesty in Council to increase the said allowance, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it is and shall be competent to Her Majesty in Council, by any Order or Orders in Council for that purpose to be made, from time to time, to increase the amount of the said allowances, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem meet; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament of the first year of Her Majesty's reign, and in exercise of the powers thereby declared to be vested in Her Majesty as aforesaid, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, in the colony of British Guiana, every employer of any apprenticed labourer who shall not supply to such labourer the full weekly allowance of seventy pounds of plantains, shall be, and is hereby required to substitute for the same, at the discretion of such employer, either corn meal or rice, in the proportions following, that is to say, in respect of every ten pounds, or other less amount, of plantains, by which the weekly supply of that article to any apprenticed labourer shall fall short of the said prescribed amount of seventy pounds, the employer shall be bound to supply to each labourer either three pints of corn meal or two pints of rice: and it is further ordered, that the plantains, corn meal, or rice, so to be supplied as aforesaid, shall at all times be of good average merchantable quality, and that the pints to be used for the purposes aforesaid shall be the imperial standard measure as by law established: and it is further ordered, that the Governor or Officer administering the government of the said colony shall be, and he is hereby authorised, by a proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued, to determine the weight of one pint of corn meal, and the weight of one pint of rice, of such quality as aforesaid, such weight having been first ascertained by exact experiments to be made by such Governor or Officer as aforesaid, or in his presence: and it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any such apprenticed labourer, or for any Special Justice within the said colony on his or her behalf, at any time to require that such corn meal or rice as aforesaid be measured by weight and not by quantity, such measurement being made according to the proportion between the weight and quantity thereof so to be ascertained and established as aforesaid: and it is further ordered, that if any question shall in any case arise as to the quality of any such plantains, corn meal, or rice as aforesaid delivered or tendered to any such apprenticed labourer, or as to the measurement thereof, either by weight or by quantity, every such question shall be adjudged and determined by some Special Justice having jurisdiction within the district within which such questions shall so arise, and the decision of such Special Justice upon any such question shall be final and conclusive, and without appeal:

And it is further ordered, that all penalties which, under the law now in force within the said colony, may be imposed on any person refusing or neglecting to supply to any apprenticed labourer therein the provisions to which by such law such apprenticed labourer is now entitled, shall be applicable to the case of any employer refusing or neglecting to supply the provisions in this present Order mentioned, and shall be in force against such employer in such and the same manner as is now provided and directed by law within the colony aforesaid:

And it is further ordered, that, in respect of such existing penalties for the purpose and within the meaning of this present Order, any person entitled to the services of any apprenticed labourer, or any person who is attorney, manager, agent, or otherwise may be in the lawful superintendence of any such apprenticed labourer, shall be taken to be the employer of such labourer:

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of April 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the law in force in British Guiana no adequate provision hath been made for revising the classification of the apprenticed labourers attached to the soil, and of partial apprenticed labourers not attached to the soil, and it is necessary that regulations be made for the effectual revision of the classification aforesaid:

It is, therefore, ordered, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the Governor or Officer administering the Government of the said colony shall, by commissions, to be by him for that purpose issued, under the public seal thereof, nominate and appoint a sufficient number of persons, having no interest in any such classification, to make such revision; and that the persons so appointed shall have full power to correct all such errors as shall be proved to them to exist in the said classification, and that their decision in each case shall be final, except in the case of appeal, as hereinafter provided:

And it is further ordered, that either of the parties to the said classification who shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the said revisors, or any of them, or any other person on his or her behalf, may, within one calendar month after such decision shall have been made, appeal against such decision, by petition, to the Governor or the Officer administering the Government of the said Colony; and such Governor or Officer shall, with the advice of the Court of Policy of the said Colony, proceed in a summary way to hear and decide the matter of the petition, and his decision shall be final, subject only to an appeal to Her Majesty in Council :

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of April 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act :

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of Magaguadavie, in New Brunswick :

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said

Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of Magaguadavie, in New Brunswick; and that, from and after the eleventh day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Magaguadavie, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of April 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes, in England and Wales," it was enacted, amongst other things, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, shall be holden :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed accordingly, that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, in and for the county of Montgomery, shall henceforth be holden, in the summer, at Newtown, in the said county, and in the spring, at Welch Pool, in the said county.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of Her Majesty.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the fourth day of April last, We did, amongst other things, publish and declare Our Royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of June next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and whereas We have thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until Thursday the twenty eighth day of June next, We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, give notice thereof; and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons, of what rank or quality soever they be, who, either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Our Coronation, do duly give their attendance at the said solemnity, on Thursday the twenty-eighth day of June next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth, and of this they, or any of them, are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Ourselves, under Our hand, to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances: provided always, and We do further, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to change or alter Our Royal determination as more fully declared in Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the tenth day of April last, whereby We did signify it to be Our Royal will and pleasure, upon the occasion of this Our Coronation, to dispense with that part of the Ceremonial which usually takes place in Westminster Hall, and that part thereof which consists of the procession.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

HER MAJESTY'S CORONATION.

Earl Marshal's-Office, 30, Great George-Street, Westminster, May 18, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given to all Peers, Dowager Peeresses, and Peeresses, that, as it is actually necessary to know the number of persons for whom accommodation is required, no tickets can be issued to any Peer, Dowager Peeress, or Peeress, who shall not have signified to me, on or before Monday the 11th day of June next, their intention of attending the solemnity of the Coronation of Her Majesty.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Earl Marshal's-Office, 30, Great George-Street, Westminster, May 1, 1838.

HER Majesty having been pleased to dispense, at the ensuing Coronation with the usual procession from Westminster-hall to the Abbey, wherein Her Majesty's Privy Councillors, under the degree of the Peerage, the Vice-Chancellor, the Barons of the Exchequer and Justices of both Benches, the Knights Grand Crosses of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Law Officers, and many other persons have been accustomed to walk, and by virtue of which dispensation the whole would be precluded from attending the solemnity, notice is hereby given, that tickets, not transferable, but for the personal admission only of all such individuals who would have been admitted into the Abbey, had there been a procession, will be issued by the Earl Marshal to those who may signify their wish to be present at the approaching solemnity.

All such persons are, therefore, requested to signify their desire to the Earl Marshal, at this Office, on or before the 2d day of June next, after which day no application can be received.

WM. WOODS, Deputy Garter.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

The Right Honourable the Commissioners appointed by Her Majesty to hear and determine all claims of services to be performed at the time of the ensuing Coronation (except those dispensed with by Her Majesty's Royal Proclamation of the 10th day of April last), and of fees to be received for the same, met at the Council-Office, Whitehall, on Saturday the 28th day of April last, and, after several petitions of claims had been presented, the said Commissioners adjourned to Saturday the 26th day of May instant, at twelve o'clock at noon; and all persons having claims, not dispensed with as aforesaid, are required to give their attendance accordingly.

Whitehall, May 18, 1838.

The Queen having taken into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of Richard Ford William Earl of Cavan, the title and dignity of Earl of Cavan, devolved upon Frederick John William now Earl of Cavan, as eldest son of the late George Frederick Augustus Lambart, Esq. commonly called Viscount Kilcoursie, the eldest son and heir of the said Richard Ford William Earl of Cavan; and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sisters of the said Frederick John William Earl of Cavan cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said father George Frederick Augustus Lambart had survived his father, the said Richard Ford William Earl of Cavan, and succeeded to the said dignity; Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to declare and ordain, that Oliver George Lambart, Esq. Henrietta Augusta Lambart, Alicia Lambart, and Julia Lambart, the brother and sisters of the said Frederick John William Earl of Cavan, shall have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their said late father had succeeded to the said dignity of Earl of Cavan:

And Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.
