AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of April 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect the following, amongst other recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively, should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds; and that fit residences should be provided for the Bishops of Lincoln, Llandaff, Rochester, Manchester, and Ripon; and that, for the purpose of providing the bishop of any diocese with a more suitable and convenient residence than that which now belongs to his see, sanction should be given for purchases or exchanges of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the respective sees:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the therein-before recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for further carrying into effect part of the provisions of the said Act relating to the see of Lincoln.

We humbly recommend and propose, that, from and after the next avoidance of the see of Lincoln, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being, to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the bishop then succeeding to the said see of Lincoln, and his successors, bishops of Lincoln, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half yearly payments; the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Lincoln shall happen on any other day than the half yearly day of payment, so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may, for a time, exceed the amount thereof; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sum payable as aforesaid in the same half year to the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being, or to the bishops of other smaller sees, who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid, during the same half year, within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year, and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us, or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that, until an episcopal house of residence shall be provided for the said see of Lincoln, instead of the house of residence, situate at Buckden, in the county of Huntingdon, which by the alterations in the diocese of Lincoln, made under the provisions of the said Act, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, is not now within the limits of the said diocese, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the said bishop, in order to enable him, from year to year, to procure a fit and convenient temporary residence within such limits, the fixed annual sum of five hundred pounds, by half yearly payments, on the twentyfifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine; and that, in case of a vacancy of the said see before a permanent episcopal house of residence shall have been provided as aforesaid, and previously to the termination of any year of hiring of any such temporary residence, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the said bishop, or his representatives, in addition to the proportionate part of the then current half yearly payment, such further sum not exceeding the rate of five hundred pounds by the year as aforesaid, as may be required to discharge the rent becoming due for such temporary residence for the then remaining portion of such year of hiring.

And we further recommend and propose, that it shall be lawful for the said John Bishop of Lincoln, or his successors, to pull down all such parts of the said house of residence, situate at Buckden aforesaid, as shall be determined upon, according to a plan to be laid before us by the said John Bishop of Lincoln, or his successors, and approved by us, and to sell the materials thereof, without being impeachable for waste or accountable for dilapidations to any person whomsoever; and that the net amount of the moneys produced by such sale shall be paid to our credit into the Bank of England to an account intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and be applied by us towards the expence of providing an episcopal house of residence for the said see of Lincoln as aforesaid.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said see of Lincoln, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is hereby pleased to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for dividing the parish of Loughborough, in the county of Leicester, into two distinct and separate parishes, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 58th of George the Third, cap. 45:

At the Court at Buckingham-palace, the 26th day of February 1838, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes, whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue; and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also of the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in every case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish, or extra-parochial place, into two or more distinct and separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes, under the provisions of the said recited Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such consents as are by the said Act required in such cases, to apportion the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments which it may be expedient to assign and attach to each of such respective divisions, without regard to whether any such respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments are locally situate, or arise and accrue within the division or district to which they may be so assigned, or are locally situate, or arise or accrue within the parish or extra-parochial place so proposed to be divided, or elsewhere; and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Loughborough, in the county of Leicester and diocese of Lincoln, contained a population of 10,969 persons; that there is, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1300 persons; one chapel, recently erected in the said parish, which affords accommodation to 1173 persons, including 865 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel is called Emmanuel Chapel, and is consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to Her Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should be divided into two distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the said Act passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; and that the said parishes should be named respectively, the parish of Loughborough, and Emmanuel parish, Loughborough; and that the said chapel should be the parish church of the said parish called Emmanuel parish, Loughborough, with boundaries as follows, viz.

The boundary, commencing at a point where the northern boundary of Woodthorpe joins the River Soar, runs along the said boundary to the Leicester Canal, on the eastern side of the said canal, to the north side of the Moor-lane-bridge; then crossing the canal passes along the north east side of Moor-lane, to two dotted lines marked on the plan as a footway; then leaving the said Moor-lane it proceeds, by the said footway, a distance of thirty feet, and passes in a direction parallel with the said Moor-lane to another footway, marked on the plan by two dotted lines; from thence continuing, at the same distance of thirty feet, in the same parallel direction with the street, a distance of two hundred and twenty-seven feet, to Pinfold-gate; crossing Pinfold-gate, it commences at the eastern end of the property belonging to Bosworth School, thence along the northern side of Pinfold-gate, at the same parallel distance of thirty feet, the length of three hundred and thirty-five feet, to the High-street, crossing the High-street to Woodgate, and continuing, at the same distance of thirty feet, and parallel with the said Woodgate, a distance of three hundred and one feet, to the western corner of a parcel of freehold property belonging to the Reverend Thomas Thorpe, along the western boundary of the said freehold property to the upper end of the Market-place, a distance of four hundred and fifty-two feet, proceeding across the Market-place, the distance of eighty-seven feet, to the corner of Mill-street, along Mill-street, at the same parallel distance above mentioned, a distance of seven hundred and seven feet, to Ashby-place, crossing Ashby-place and proceeding directly along the centre of the Ashby-road to the point where the said Ashby-road crosses the Forest Brook, being the commencement of the hamlet of Knight Thorpe boundary; from thence the boundary line passes along the hamlet of Knight Thorpe boundary, in the parish of Loughborough, to the extra parochial place of Garrendon, along Garrendon boundary by the Burleigh-wood enclosure, meeting again the hamlet of Knight Thorpe boundary, afterwards proceeding a short distance by the Burleigh-wood enclosure the boundary line crosses the Forest line of the Leicester canal, meeting the liberty of Beaumanor at an ancient Mere-stone, called Nettlebed Bush, on Charnwood Forest, thence to the Woodhouse boundary and on to Packet-gate corner, thence again by the liberty of Beaumanor to the township of Quorndon, the whole distance from Nettlebed Bush to the Quorndon boundary being included in the township of Woodhouse, and in the parish of Barrow upon-Soar; the remaining distance continues along by the township of Quorndon boundary to the River Soar, from whence, by a short turn to the north on the edge of the said river, the boundary line is finished through its whole extent, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured yellow and pink.

That the glebe land which will belong to the said new parish of Emmanuel, Loughborough, will be to that which will remain and belong to the said parish of Loughborough as eighteen to fifty-three; that the tithes arising within the said new parish of Emmanuel, Loughborough, and which will accrue and belong to the minister thereof, will be to those arising in the said remaining parish of Loughborough as seventy-three to three; that it is estimated, that the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues which will accrue to the incumbent of the said new parish, called Emmanuel Parish, Loughborough, will be about three-eighths of the whole.

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Lincoln and of the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Emmanuel College, in the University of Cambridge, the patrons of the said parish church of Loughborough, have been obtained, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of His Majesty King George the Third, and, in testimony of such approbation, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation, and the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars have caused their common seal to be thereunto affixed, and humbly praying, that Her Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into Her royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to Her Majesty should seem meet:

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
