NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Foreign-Office, June 5, 1838.

EARL GRANVILLE, Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, has transmitted to Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, an official letter (of which the following is a translation), which has been addressed to Earl Granville by the Count Molé, French Minister for Foreign Affairs, notifying the establishment of a blockade of the ports of Mexico, against all vessels, except British packet boats employed in the conveyance of the mails:

(Translation.)

MY LORD,

THE Mexican Government having refused to redress the numerous grievances for which the Minister Plenipotentiary of the King, at Mexico, had been directed to demand reparation, the Commander of the French naval forces before Vera Cruz has found himself under the necessity of adopting, as by his instructions he was authorised to do, the measures which, in such a case, the dignity of France, and the justice of its claims, required.

Accordingly all the ports of Mexico have been declared to be in a state of blockade; and this blockade, which became effective, so far as regards

Vera Cruz, from the 16th of April last, will, without delay, have taken effect in like manner with respect to the other ports of Mexico. In making known to you these measures, I hasten, My Lord, to add, that the orders given by the Government of the King for insuring the execution of them are so conceived as to reconcile the practical exercise of a legitimate right, with the respect due to the independence of neutral flags, and with the sincere desire to cause the least possible inconvenience to the navigation of neutral vessels. Of this the Government of Her Britannick Majesty will find a special proof in the measure which exempts British packet boats employed in the conveyance of correspondence, from the application of the rules of the blockade. This exemption has appeared to us to be an indirect consequence of the liberal principle sanctioned by the 13th article of the Post Office Convention of 14th June 1833, which authorises the continuation of the Post Office arrangements between the two countries, even in case of war.

I request you to be so good as to convey the present notification to the knowledge of the Government of Her Britannick Majesty.

(Signed) MOLE.
