

The Lord High Chancellor, or adopting such other proceedings, either at law or in equity, as he may be advised, at the costs, charges, and expences of the said bankrupts' estate, with the view and for the purpose of expunging the proof of any debt or debts already made or proved, or hereafter to be made or proved, under the said fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing Messrs. Parr, as Solicitors of Messrs. James Atkinson and Co., of Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Heap Merchants, out of the said bankrupts' estate, such extra costs, charges, and expences occasioned by them on their petition to impound a former fiat against James Salter, one of the said bankrupts, issued by Thomas Bell, of Poole aforesaid, Surgeon, as are not allowed to them on taxation of their bill of costs against the said Thomas Bell, or against the estate of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the sums of £81 19s. 8d. and £8 11s., being the costs, charges, and expences incurred by Robert Slade, a creditor of the said bankrupts' estate, in issuing a former fiat, bearing date the 21st December 1833, against the said James Salter, and for striking a docket against the said James Salter and William Balstone, on or about the 15th May 1834, also the sum of £130 19s. 2d. for certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by the said assignee, in conjunction with the said Robert Slade and the said William Balstone, in defending certain Chancery proceedings, instituted by the said James Salter, relating to the partnership accounts of the said James Salter and William Balstone, and also the sum of £326 4s. 11d. for certain other costs, charges, and expences incurred in prosecuting a certain action by the said Robert Slade against the said James Salter and William Balstone, and also the sum of £82 15s. 3d. in opposing the discharge of the said James Salter on the hearing of his petition under the Insolvent Debtors' Act.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Morrison John Lyons, late of Elizabeth-place, Stepney, a bankrupt, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 28th day of June instant, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, jointly with the official assignee, filing a bill in Chancery against one William Theophilus Jones and other persons, to be named at such meeting, or against such of them as counsel may advise, in order to set aside certain deeds of assignment made between the said bankrupt and the said William Theophilus Jones, for the sale of a reversion of £1,000 Three per Cent. Consolidated Annuities; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, compromising, or submitting the same to arbitration, or otherwise settling the same, as he or they may be advised; and generally to give the said assignee full power to act therein.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 4th day of June 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

CHARLES THOMAS, Merchant, of the Jerusalem Coffee-House, in the city of London, late of Lloyd's Coffee-House, in the city of London, Underwriter, afterwards carrying on business at Singapore, in the East Indies, in copartnership with William Renshaw Geage (under the firm of Charles Thomas and Co.), that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order of Her Majesty's Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for John Collins, of the borough of Hereford, Builder, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects for forty-two days, to be computed from the 5th day of June instant; this is to give notice, that the Commissioners in the Fiat issued against the said John Collins, named and authorised, or the major part of them, intend to meet on the 17th day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Royal Oak Inn, in the borough of Leominster, Hereford-shire; when and where the said bankrupt is required to surrender himself, between the hours of eleven and one of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and, with those who have proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 5th day of March 1838, was awarded and issued forth against Sarah Sadd and Thomas Sadd, of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, Grocers, Dealers and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 30th day of May 1838, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Samuel Charlesworth, of No. 124, Shore-ditch, in the county of Middlesex, Grocer and Tea-Dealer, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Edward Holroyd, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 12th of June instant, at twelve at noon precisely, and on the 17th day of July next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. James Foster Groom, No. 12, Abchurch-lane, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Messrs. Foster and Lyon, Solicitors, 14, Fish-street-hill.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against John Humphries, of the Ship Tavern, Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Edward Holroyd, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 12th day of June instant, at one in the afternoon precisely, and on the 17th day of July next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to
