TUESDAY, JUNE 12, 1838.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 30, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, June 21st, at two o'clock.

And Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at Saint James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 20th of June, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 18, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, it is the particular desire of the Queen, that all Ladies attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, should appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 8th day of June 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, assembled at a general quarter sessions of the peace held at Louth, in and for the said parts, on the tenth of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the said parts is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Alford, in the said parts of Lindsey, may be a polling place for the said parts :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His said late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Alford shall be a polling place for the said parts; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said parts into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

India Steam Ship Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill is about to be brought into Parliament in the present session, for authorising the assignment to a Company, to be called the India Steam Ship Company, of certain letters patent now vested in John Stephens, Gentleman, and Augustus Manning, Gentleman, for certain improvements in apparatus applicable to steam engines, and improvements in steam boilers; and to enable the said Company to use, exercise, and vend the inventions within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, Berwick-upon-Tweed, and Ireland, and Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad; and also for the government and regulation of the said Company.—Dated this 7th day of June 1838.

Thos. Jones Mawe, Solicitor, 4, New Bridge-street.

Guildhall, London, June 2, 1838.

IN pursuance of an order of the Honourable House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, for an Act to enlarge the site for rebuilding the Royal Exchange, in the city of London, and to widen and improve certain streets and avenues in the neighbourhood of the same; and for those purposes to purchase lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the respective parishes of St. Bartholomew Exchange, St. Michael Cornhill, St. Bennet Fink, and St. Christopher-le-Stocks, in the said city of London; and also for raising the money necessary for the aforesaid purposes upon the credit of, and to be charged upon, and repaid out of, a certain fund constituted by two Acts, passed in the tenth and in the eleventh years of the reign of King George the Fourth, for improving the approaches to London-bridge.

And it is intended by the said Act, to renew to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England the power vested in them by an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth and fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, of purchasing certain houses and grounds contiguous to the Bank of England, and to enable them to improve certain avenues adjacent thereto.

Edward Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, in Council, to grant to the Norwich Yarn Company, letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, under and by virtue of an Act, passed in the first year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies.

NOTICE is hereby given, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the first year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies," that an application has been made by the FitzRoy Cemetery Company to grant a charter to the said Company, and confer on the said Company the power of purchasing and holding a sufficient quantity of land, not exceeding seventy acres, the property of Lord Southampton and Richard Morgan, respectively, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, for the purpose of forming a cemetery; and of suing and being sued in the name of the Company; and of having and using a common seal.

NOTICE is hereby given, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies," that an application has been made to Her Majesty in Council, on behalf of the Joint Stock Company, called the Western Bank of Scotland, to grant to the said Company a charter of incorporation, by the name and style of "The Western Bank of Scotland," whereby it is proposed to confer on the said Company a perpetual endurance and succession, power to sue and be sued in the name of the Company, to hold heritable property, to use a common seal, and such other powers and privilege as are usually granted to other bodies corporate and politic of a similar nature; but without limiting the legal responsibility of the individual partners of the said Company.

The unexpired term of those valuable business premises, situate in the most preferable part of that well known respectable, fashionable, leading, and great thoroughfare, Oxford-street.

There is a good ready money trade attached to the premises, and the returns have been very large.

The premises will afford an excellent opportunity to any one wishing to embark in the same trade, they being very commodious, and handsomely fitted up, and replete with every convenience for carrying on a large trade, having private door, and showy elliptic double fronted shop, &c. Rent very moderate.

The premises may be viewed six days previous to the sale, particulars then had on the premises, and of Mr. Robinson, Solicitor to the Fiat, Queen-street-place, city; of Mr. Sharp, Solicitor, No. 2, Devonshire-terrace, New-road; of Mr. Lackington, Official Assignee, Basinghall-street; and at the offices of Mr. Oliver, Auctioneer, No. 7, Lawrence-lane, Cheapside.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the several creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued against John Merrott Stephens, late of the hamlet of St. Michael, near the city, but in the county, of Gloucester, Banker, Dealer and Chapman, and under the Renewed Fiat in Bankruptcy relating to his estate and effects, may receive a Further Dividend of one shilling and sixpence in the pound on their respective debts, by applying to Charles Church, of the city of Gloucester, Ironmaster, the surviving assignee of the estate and effects of the bankrupt, on the 18th day of June instant.—Dated this 1st day of June 1838.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Swain, of Wise street, in the parish of Leamington-priors, in the county of Warwick, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 5th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Messrs. Edwards and Venour, in Leamington-priors, in the said county of Warwick, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings, either at law or in equity, against the Sheriff of Warwickshire, or against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, to recover the value of certain goods and other property assigned, transferred, delivered, or received by such Sheriff, or such other person, to be named as aforesaid, in preference to the other creditors of the said bankrupt prior or subsequent to the date and issuing forth of the said fiat; or to the said assignees taking such other steps with respect thereto as the said creditors may think proper and reasonable; or to the said assignees leaving to arbitration, or compromising, compounding, or otherwise arranging or settling such last mentioned claims upon such terms and conditions as they may think most beneficial to the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of the whole or any part of the said bankrupt's real property, either by public auction or private contract, and partly by public auction or partly by private contract, and in such lots, and at such times and places as the said assignees shall think fit; and, in case of any sale or sales by auction, to authorise and empower the said assignees from time to time to buy in and resell the same, or any part thereof, at any future auction or by private contract, and for such prices, and in such manner as the said assignees shall deem expedient, without being liable to, or answerable or accountable for, any loss which may happen by reason or in consequence of any difference in amount, or diminution in price; and also to sanction all such acts, matters, and things as the said assignees shall or may do, or have done, prior or subsequent to the said meeting, in and about or concerning the said bankrupt's estate, trade, or business; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Salter and William Balston, both of the town and county of Poole, Twine Manufacturers, Dealers and Chapman (surviving partners of Robert Slade, deceased), are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Monday the 9th day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Messrs. Parr, Solicitors, in Poole aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee preferring any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor, or adopting such other proceedings, either in law or equity, as may be advised, at the costs, charges, and expences of the said bankrupts' estate, with the view and for the purpose of expunging the proof of any debt or debts already made or proved, of hereafter to be made or proved, under the said fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing Messrs. Parr, as Solicitors of Messrs. James Atkinson and Co. of Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Hemp-Merchants, out of the said bankrupts' estate, such extra costs, charges, and expences occasioned by them on their petition to impound a former fiat against James Salter, one of the said bankrupts, issued by Thomas Bell, of Poole aforesaid, Surgeon, as are not allowed to them on taxation of their bill of costs against the said Thomas Bell, or against the estate of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the sums of £81 19s. 8d and £8 11s., being the costs, charges, and expences incurred by Robert Slade, a creditor of the said bankrupts' estate, in issuing a former fiat, bearing date the 21st December 1833, against the said James Salter, and for striking a docket against the said James Salter and William Balston, on or about the 15th May 1834, also the sum of £130 19s. 2d. for certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by the said assignee, in conjunction with the said Robert Slade and the said William Balston, in defending certain Chancery proceedings, instituted by the said James Salter, relating to the partnership accounts of the said James Salter and William Balston, and also the sum of £326 4s. 11d. for certain other costs, charges, and expences incurred in prosecuting a certain action by the said Robert Slade against the said James Salter and William Balston, and also the sum of £82 15s. 3d. in opposing the discharge of the said James Salter on the hearing of his petition under the Insolvent Debtors' Act.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 11th day of June 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by DAVID DAVIS, of Merthyr Tydvil, in the county of Glamorgan, Draper and Grocer, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
