Whitehall, June 26, 1838.

THE following Address, from the Society of Scottish Antiquaries, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by A. Macdonald, Esq. Curator, was by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Society of Scottish Antiquaries, humbly approach your august presence, to offer our dutiful congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

We rejoice that a Princess, whom Heaven has distinguished so early by the precious gifts of wisdom and virtue, should have come of the ancient royal lineage of Scotland, to rule the British empire. It is in these inestimable qualities that we discover the true sources of your Majesty's felicity, and the welfare of your people.

In exploring the wide field of history and antiquities, and in investigating the manners and customs of nations, pursuant to the objects of our institution, we have found the surest stability of kingdoms, and the security of the Crown, to centre in the preservation of salutary usage, the temperate administration of the laws, and in a virtuous Sovereign, possessing the public affections.

It pleased your Majesty's Illustrious Progenitor, King George the Third, spontaneously to take our Society under His royal patronage, and that of His successors to the Throne of Britain, thus affording unequivocal approbation of our pursuits.

We pray the Almighty Dispenser of Human Destinies to spread a protecting canopy over your Majesty's head, to grant a long, a tranquil, and prosperous reign, as the reward of those virtues which promise a permanent blessing to your loyal people.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Society of Scottish Antiquaries, at Edinburgh, the 19th day of February 1838.
