By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order, that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called five pound pieces, each of which should be of the value of one hundred shillings, and that each such piece should be of the weight of twenty-five pennyweights, sixteen grains, and  $\frac{3700}{10000}$  troy weight, of standard gold; and that certain other pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called double sovereigns, each of which should be of the value of forty shillings, and that each of such last-mentioned pieces should be of the weight of ten pennyweights, six grains, and  $\frac{5480}{10000}$  troy weight, of standard gold; and that certain other pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called sovereigns, each of which should be of the value of twenty shillings, and that each of such last-mentioned pieces should be of the weight of five pennyweights, three grains, and  $\frac{2740}{10000}$  troy weight, of standard gold; and that certain other pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called half sovereigns, each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each of such last-mentioned pieces should be of the weight of two pennyweights, thirteen grains,  $\frac{6370}{10000}$  troy weight, of standard gold; and We have further thought fit to order, that every such five pound piece should have for the obverse impression, Our effigy, with the inscription "Victoria Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and, for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a plain shield, surmounted by the royal crown, and encircled with a laurel wreath, with the inscription "Britanniarum Regina, Fid. Def." having the united rose, thistle, and shamrock, placed under the shield, and, upon the edge of the piece, the words "Decus et Tutamen," and the words "Anno Regni," and the year of Our reign; and that every such double sovereign should have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription in all respects as the five pound piece, with the same words on the edge; and that every such sovereign should have the same obverse and reverse impression in all respects as the five pound piece, but (instead of the words), should have a graining on the edge; and that every such half sovereign should have for the obverse impression the aforesaid, effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the ensigns armorial contained in a shield decorated with the same inscription as the five pound piece, but without the wreath, and should have the same graining upon the edge as the sovereign; and We have also thought fit to order that certain pieces of silver money should be coined which should be called crowns, and that every such crown should have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription in all respects as the five pound piece, with the same words on the edge; and that certain other pieces of silver money should be coined, which should be called half crowns, and that every such half crown should have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription as the crown, but, instead of the words, a graining upon the edge; and that certain other pieces of silver money should be coined, which should be called shillings, and that every such shilling should have, for the obverse impression, the aforesaid effigy, with the inscription "Victoria Dei Gratia, Britanniar: Reg. F. D." and, for the reverse, the words "One Shilling," placed in the centre of the piece, having an olive branch on one side, and an oak branch on the other, and surmounted by the royal crown, with the date of the year, and a graining on the edge, as used for His late Majesty's coin; and that certain other pieces of silver money should be coined, which should be called sixpences, and that every such sixpence should have the same obverse impression and inscription as the shilling, and, for the reverse, the word "Sixpence," with the olive and oak branch, and date of the year, with a graining upon the edge, the same as the shilling; and that certain other pieces of silver money should be coined, which should be called groats or fourpences, and that every such groat or fourpence should have the same obverse impression and inscription as the shilling, and should have for the reverse a figure of Britannia holding the trident in one hand, and having the other hand placed upon a shield impressed with the union cross, and should have round the figure the words fourpence and the date of the year below, with a graining on the edge as used for His late Majesty's coin; and that certain other pieces of silver money should be coined, which should be called the Queen's Maunday moneys, of fourpence, threepence, twopence, and one penny, each of which should have the same obverse impression and inscription as the shilling, and for the reverse the respective figures 4, 3, 2, 1 (according to the denomination or value of the piece) in the centre, with the date of the year placed across the figure, and encircled by an oak wreath, surmounted by the Royal Crown, with a plain edge as used for His late Majesty's coin: all which said silver coin We have ordered to be of the weight and fineness provided by an Act, passed in fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm;" and

We have also thought fit to order, that certain pieces of copper money should be coined, which should be called pennies, and that every such copper penny should have for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, with the inscription "Victoria Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, a figure of Britannia holding the trident with one hand, and having the other hand placed upon a shield impressed with the union cross, with the inscription "Britanniar: Reg. Fid. Def.," and below the figure, the united rose, shamrock and thistle, with a plain edge as used for His late Majesty's coin; and that certain other copper money should be coined, which should be called halfpennies, and that every such halfpenny should have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription, and the same plain edge as the penny; and that certain other copper money should be coined, which should be called farthings, and that every such farthing should have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription, and the said plain edge as the penny.

And whereas pieces of money of the above descriptions respectively, have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there in pursuance of Orders which We have given for that purpose; We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of money respectively so coined, and to be coined, as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that the said gold coins shall be called respectively five pound pieces, double sovereigns, sovereigns, and half sovereigns; and that the said silver coins shall be called respectively crowns, half crowns, shillings, sixpences, groats or fourpences, and the Queen's Maunday moneys; and that the said copper coins shall be called respectively pennies, halfpences, and farthings, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; every such five pound piece as of the value of one hundred shillings of like lawful money, and every such double sovereign as of the value of forty shillings of like lawful money, and every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings of like lawful money, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings of like lawful money, every such crown as of the value of five shillings of like lawful money, every such half crown as of the value of two shillings and sixpence of like lawful money, every such shilling as of the value of twelve pence of like lawful money, every such sixpence as of the value of six pence of like lawful money, every such groat or four penny piece as of the value of four pence of like lawful money, the said Maundy monies of the value of four pence, three pence, two pence, or one penny respectively, as the case may be, and every such penny of copper as of the like value of one penny of like lawful money; and every such halfpenny as of the value of one half penny of like lawful money; and every such farthing as of the value of a farthing of like lawful money, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was enacted, amongst other things, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in England and Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of April last, to direct, that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Montgomery, should thenceforth be holden, in the summer, at New Town, and, in the spring, at Welch Pool, in the said county:

A 2

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of April last be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was enacted, amongst other things, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twentieth day of June last past, to direct, that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Suffolk, should be holden, in the summer, in the town of Ipswich, and in the spring, in the town of Bury St. Edmunds, in the said county:

Now, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that the said Order of the twentieth of June last shall be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's-Palace, the 20th day of June 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales," Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is empowered, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, shall be holden :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the authority thereby vested in Her Majesty in that behalf, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby order and direct, that, from and after the date hereof, the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Cornwall, shall be holden at Bodmin, in the said county.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, July 10, 1838.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the borough of Tynemouth, in public meeting assembled, with the most profound respect, present to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the auspicious ceremony of this day, when your Majesty is Crowned the rightful Sovereign of these realms.

We hailed with great delight your Majesty's succession to the Throne of your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors, during whose dynasty the British nation has been pre-eminent, not only in arts and commerce, but in civil and religious liberty, and fully trust that your Majesty's reign will be distinguished in the annals of the British empire by national prosperity, liberal feeling, and the increased moral culture of the people.

May your Majesty reign long and prosperously over free and happy subjects.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting,

John Fenwick, J. P. Chairman.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Inhabitants of Stonehaven, Head Burgh of the county of Kincardine, in general meeting assembled, crave permission most humbly to tender to your Majesty, with every sentiment of loyalty and attachment, the assurance of our full participation in the great joy diffused over the British dominions, on this the day of your Majesty's Coronation.

We felicitate ourselves and our fellow subjects, that, in the dispensation of a beneficent Providence, the Crown has been placed on the head of a Sovereign possessing those virtues and endowments which highly distinguish and adorn the character of your Majesty, and afford the surest pledge that you will hold the sceptre for the protection of the rights and liberties, and the advancement of the prosperity, of your people.

And we fervently pray and hope that the august ceremony of this day may be the harbinger of a long continued reign, fraught with true glory to the nation, and replete with all manner of happiness to your Majesty.

Signed, at the Town House, the 28th of June, 1838, in our presence, and by our appointment,

Pet. Christian, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Chief Magistrate.]

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Elgin, in Scotland, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on being Crowned Sovereign of this mighty empire, in right of birth, and with the affectionate consent of a free and generous people, at a period of profound peace, and of unexampled prosperity.

We earnestly pray that the singularly auspicious commencement of your reign may characterize its course, and that you may long sway the sceptre of your extensive dominions with the splendour, honour, and prosperity which have distinguished female reigns in Britain.

Signed, in name, presence, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of Elgin, and common seal appended, by

[Transmitted by the Provost.]

To Her Most Excellent Majesty, VICTORIA,
QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and affectionate subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, and other inhabitants of the Royal burgh of Kirkcaldy, in public meeting assembled, humbly beg to tender our sincere and cordial congratulations to your Majesty, on this the auspicious day of your Majesty's Coronation, and to express to your Majesty, our warm and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that we hail the happy event of your being crowned Queen of these realms, with no ordinary feelings of joy and satisfaction; and we would further beg of your Majesty, to accept of our heartfelt congratulations, on the tranquillity that exists throughout your Majesty's dominions, on the amity that subsists between your Majesty's empire and Foreign states, and above all on the ardent affection which all classes of your Majesty's subjects bear towards your Majesty, the high estimation they entertain of the exalted virtues of their Sovereign, and the confident hope with which they are animated, that your Majesty's highest ambition will be, to maintain the unrivalled character of our glorious Constitution, and the just liberties and privileges of your Majesty's people, in this our beloved country.

That your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy; and that your Majesty's subjects may continue to cherish towards your sacred Person, sentiments of veneration and esteem, is the earnest and fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's faithful subjects and servants.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Magistrates, Town Council, and inhabitants, in public meeting assembled, the seal of the burgh being hereto affixed, at Kirkcaldy, this 28th day of June 1838, by

A. D. Terrier, Provost.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Females of Malden, Essex, your Majesty's faithful subjects, beg leave to present our humble Address of Congratulation on the happy event of your Majesty's Royal Coronation.

Permit us to congratulate you on your Accession to the Throne of these realms, and of expressing our most sincere wishes, that the same Divine influence which has hitherto guided your Majesty's illustrious house, may be extended to your Majesty, on which the preservation of our church, our rights, and liberties do, under that Almighty power, so essentially depend.

We have the firmest reliance on your Majesty's most gracious endeavours to secure a continuance of a peaceful home, so essentially necessary to the well-being of your Majesty's subjects.

We have nothing more sincerely at heart, than that your Majesty, having by your conduct impressed on the minds of your faithful subjects a full conviction of your true affection, may receive from them the most ample returns of duty and attachment, which a loyal and grateful people can make.

Animated with sentiments set forward as a pattern by Her Majesty the Queen Dowager, we will endeavour, by our own conduct, to set an example in our families, of duty and affection to our Sovereign and all the Royal Family, of love, esteem, and veneration for our church, and of love to our country, being fully persuaded that, under a Queen adorned with those virtues which distinguish your Majesty, your real interests, and those of your people, are inseparable.

It is our ardent prayer, that God, in his infinite mercy, will be pleased to preserve your Majesty, and direct your steps; that when He shall be pleased to call you from this world, you may inherit a crown eternal, incorruptible, everlasting.

Signed, on behalf of the Females of Malden,
Eliza Ann Bridge.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing,

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 6, c. 11, as the case may be.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of George Bell, late of Bond-end, in Knaresbrough, in the west riding of Yorkshire, Flax-Dresser, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 43,265, has caused an account of the said estate and effects duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at the Bold Dragon, in Knaresbrough, in the west riding of Yorkshire, on the 13th of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, precisely, when and where the assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of rights to receive Dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of James Heffer, late of Bramford, in the county of Suffolk, Cordwainer, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 20,647, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at the office of Mr. Thomas Grimsey, Attorney at Law, in Ipswich, in the said county of Suffolk, on the 13th day of August next, at six of the clock in the evening precisely, when and where the assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.
