with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the King of Greece, than are levied on Greek vessels.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address ; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Aldermen and Burgesses of the city of Gloucester, in the county of the city of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg to offer our most cordial congratulations upon the completion of that solemn ceremonial which has formally confirmed your Majesty on the Throne of these realms, and has ratified the sacred compact entered into between your Majesty and this devoted and loyal nation.

Entertaining a sincere and sanguine hope that,
under the favour of Divine Providence, your Majesty will be blessed with a long, prosperous, and happy reign, and confident that, amidst the cares which are inseparable from a high and mighty destiny, your Majesty will ever derive support from the love and obedience of a free and united people, we beg to assure your Majesty of our most devoted and inalienable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family ; and of our proud and perfect conviction, that the same feeling animates the hearts of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

Given under the common seal of the said Council, this 30th day of June 1838.

No. 2.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Most Gracious Majesty's faithful subjects, the Freeholders, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the city and county of Norwich, beg leave to approach your Majesty on the auspicious occasion of your Coronation, with the earnest and heartfelt expression of our dutiful and loyal attachment to your Royal Person.

Deeply anxious for the honour and dignity of the Crown, the independence of the two Houses of Parliament, and the rights and welfare of the People, we venture to intimate our hope, that your Majesty's Councils may be animated by those principles which seated the Illustrious House of Brunswick on the Throne of these realms.

Believing that we are indebted for our national greatness to the union between the Church and the State, we humbly entreat the attention of your Majesty to the importance of preserving that connexion inviolate ; and we trust that, in the spirit of the solemn compact which your Majesty has recently entered into with your people, your Majesty's zealous protection will ever be extended to the Protestant Established Church of England and Ireland, truly apostolic in doctrine and discipline, and that your Majesty will never be induced by advice, however specious, to countenance farther attempts to invade its property, diminish its influence, and degrade its ministers.

We implore Almighty God, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the only Ruler of Princes, to bless and protect your Majesty from the evil designs of your enemies, and to grant, of his abundant mercy, that your Majesty's reign may be long and glorious.

We tender our sincere and fervent prayers, that the Almighty Disposer of events may shower His blessings upon you, and grant to your Majesty a long and happy reign; and that a free and united people may enjoy, under your sway, the benefit of prosperity and peace, secure in their rights and privileges, and establishing, in the affection and gratitude of their hearts, an imperishable monument to the glory of your Majesty, their august Sovereign and beloved Queen.

On behalf of the Meeting,

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor and Council of the city and borough of Carlisle, participating in the national joy on your Majesty's Coronation humbly tender to your Majesty our heartfelt tribute of congratulation.

We would look upon the august ceremony of coronation, not merely as a pageant, but as a solemn ratification of the Constitutional compact between the Sovereign and the Nation, and whilst we gladly concur with our fellow subjects in expressing our firm attachment to those principles which seated your Royal Ancestors on the Throne, we would indulge in the sanguine hope and expectation, that your Majesty's reign, so auspiciously commenced, may long continue to afford increasing causes of gratitude to the Divine Providence, which has so long protected these kingdoms.

We ardently desire that every blessing may attend on your Majesty, that the just and equal administration of your Constitutional Government may be rewarded by the ever advancing prosperity and happiness of a free, united, and grateful people, that the not less valuable exercise and example of your private virtues may promote the moral and social improvement of your subjects, whilst it ensures your own domestic felicity, and that it may finally please the King of Kings, to bestow on your Majesty a brighter and more lasting Crown of Glory than any that this world can afford.

Given under the common seal of the borough of Carlisle, this 28th day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1838.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the city and county of Lichfield, in Common-hall assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne on the auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation.

In renewing, with profound respect, the homage of our attachment to your Majesty's Royal House, which we had the honour of offering on your Majesty's visit to our ancient and loyal city, we avail ourselves of your Majesty's gracious permission to express our ardent hopes, that your Majesty may long live to reign over this United Kingdom, united in loyalty and admiration for your Majesty's character, and mainly dependent on your Majesty's evenhanded administration of the high trust reposed in your Majesty for the blessings of good government, which alone are real and lasting when designed and calculated for a full, fair, and equal participation by all classes of the people.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Liverpool.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Liverpool, approach your Majesty with the sincere expression of our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our warmest and most heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation.

We pray the Great Disposer of events, that your Majesty's reign may be long, happy, and prosperous, and that the triumphs which its historian shall have to record may be peculiarly those of peace.

We look forward to the United Kingdom, under your Majesty's protection, continuing to set an example to other nations, by the promotion of the spiritualizing principles of Christianity at home, and the diffusion of our Holy Gospel among the millions of our fellow-subjects abroad, by founding a system of national education, by the advancement of the arts and sciences, and by their useful application, by the final extinction of slavery wherever the power of England extends, by the amelioration of the state of the negro population, by softening still further the rigours of the criminal law, and by providing adequate means for the reformation of offenders.

We rely on the vigilant maintenance of the honour of your Majesty's Crown, as the best security for the preservation of peace.

With humble deference we respectfully bring under your Majesty's notice one subject of great importance, on which mainly depends the prosperity of the realm. England is pre-eminently commercial, her merchants and manufacturers have the whole world for competitors. On the part of the Government of this country, therefore, it becomes a sacred obligation, and no more than a simple act of justice, that every individual in the realm should be allowed full scope for the profitable exercise of his industry and talents. Humbly and earnestly we would pray to your Majesty, to direct the attention of your Majesty's advisers to the favourable consideration of the great question of free trade.

Our country is renowned for her domestic virtues, she is proud of her scenes of social happiness and home enjoyments; your Majesty's private and personal character has enabled your subjects to indulge their dearest sympathies; to ennoble their sentiments by exalting their object; to employ their warmest affections and their best duty on a Sovereign who will respond to their feelings, and whose highest ambition is to reign in the hearts of her people.

May it please Him by whose wisdom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice, so to guide and direct your Majesty, that the feeling of most devoted loyalty and attachment, so honourable to your Majesty and to the community, which now pervades all classes, may continue to strengthen and increase, and that your Majesty may ever reign in the hearts of a devoted, happy, and free people.

Given under the seal of the borough, the 27th day of June 1838.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the inhabitants of the borough of South Shields, assembled together in public meeting, duly convened for the purpose of celebrating the happy event of your Majesty's Coronation, hasten to lay before your Throne, on this solemn and important occasion, our sincere and heartfelt congratulations, and the assurances of our constant and devoted loyalty and affection to your Majesty's Crown and Person.

When we reflect that it has pleased the Almighty to place in your Majesty's hands, at a very early period of your life, the sceptre of this mighty empire, we feel that it is our duty to pray that the same Divine Providence which has called you to this great work, may strengthen and sustain you in the performance of it, and that we, and all your Majesty's subjects, may, by a steady and undeviating course of loyalty and affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, by attachment to the ancient and venerable Constitution of our country, by which the true liberties of the people are secured, by strict obedience to the laws, and by the cultivation of kindly and charitable feelings towards each other, render the cares of your Majesty's elevated station more easy to be borne.

We have great reason, in common with all your Majesty's loyal subjects, to be thankful that it has pleased God, at the time of your Accession to the Crown of your Ancestors, to bless our beloved country with peace, both foreign and domestic, and to pray that the blessings may be continued and spread over all the nations of the world, and that the energies of your people may be directed, under the gracious auspices of your Majesty, to the cultivation of the acts of peace, and to the maintenance and extension of true religion and virtue.

In conclusion, we beg to offer to your Majesty our sincere and ardent wishes that your Majesty may be blest with a long, a peaceful, and a happy reign over a loyal, contented, and affectionate people, and enjoy (through a long and bright career) every earthly happiness that an All-Wise and Bounteous Providence may be pleased to bestow.

Descended from a long line of illustrious Ancestors, and born and educated in this country, under the care and superintendence of a wise and affectionate Mother, with that tender watchfulness and solicitude which have planted in the breast of your Majesty a confidence in, and affection for, your Ma-

Majesty's subjects, which form the surest safeguard of royalty, we hail with feelings of the deepest pleasure the interesting ceremony which will unite your Majesty in closer ties with a grateful people.

Having ascended the Throne of those realms at a period of life when the cares and anxieties of royalty must naturally press with some weight upon your Majesty's youthful mind, we beg most respectfully to assure your Majesty, that we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, have the most implicit reliance in your wisdom and justice; and, in thus tendering the homage of our sincere respect and attachment, we beg to express our fervent and anxious wish and hope, that your Majesty may long live to reign over a loyal and happy people, and to obtain and preserve the admiration and esteem of surrounding nations.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty having been ordained, by the will of an all-gracious and unerring Providence, to preside over the destinies of this great and mighty empire, and amidst the acclamations of a loyal and devoted people, to ascend the Throne of a long and brilliant succession of enlightened Monarchs, a Throne which has been elevated to pre-eminent distinction and glory by the wisdom and excellencies of your Majesty's revered and illustrious Ancestors, we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient and united borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis (this day assembled), impressed with the most dutiful and affectionate regards to your Majesty's sacred character and person, humbly beg to offer to your Majesty's gracious acceptance our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the happy event of your Majesty's Coronation.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh, beg to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on the solemn ceremony by which your Majesty was lately invested with the symbols of royalty and dominion over the widely extended territory subject to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

It must have afforded your Majesty the highest gratification to receive, in person, in your capital, the cordial and unanimous expression of the loyalty and attachment of your subjects; and the inhabitants of the ancient metropolis of Scotland were, on this occasion, not less ardent and sincere in their wishes and prayers, that your Majesty may enjoy a long, a peaceful, and a prosperous reign.

The presence of the illustrious Foreign Princes and Ambassadors from so many and so various nations, afforded a pleasing proof of the regard in which your Majesty is held by other Powers; and encourages the hope, that the nations whose representatives combined to do honour to the day, will long continue in friendship and reciprocal benevolence with your Majesty's dominions, and with one another.

We cordially unite with the general voice of the empire in assuring your Majesty of our fervent prayers that your Majesty's reign, which has begun so happily, may continue to dispense the blessings of free and equal government; that, under your enlightened sway, commerce and agriculture may flourish, and that nothing may occur, at home or abroad, to damp the universal joy and satisfaction, which now pervade all ranks of your subjects.

That the Almighty may bless your Majesty with every personal and domestic comfort, and that your Majesty may long reign over a religious and loyal people, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Penzance, the Inhabitants of the borough and its immediate neighbourhood.

WE, your Most Gracious Majesty's attached and faithful subjects in the far West of England, respectfully approach the Throne, with sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious ceremony at this moment occupying the undivided attention of the United Kingdom.

With pleasure did we hail your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of this the most mighty empire on earth; an empire on which the sun never sets; and with delight and duteous satisfaction do we now unite in celebrating the solemn compact entered into between your Majesty and the millions who acknowledge fealty to your Crown.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the royal burgh of Irvine, with renewed assurances of our loyal attachment to your Majesty, and to the happy constitution under which we live, most humbly beg leave to approach the Throne, to offer our sincere and most cordial congratulations on the very interesting and momentous occasion of your Majesty's Coronation.

Looking to the youthful period of life at which your Majesty was called, under Divine Providence, to fill the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and to the numerous consequent difficulties and disadvantages which your Majesty must for a time experience in wielding the Sceptre over a nation the greatest, the most civilized, and most powerful in the world, we might be apt to mingle something of a fearful anxiety, with all our fondest anticipations of the success and prosperity of your Majesty's reign, did we not entertain the very highest opinion of your Majesty's superior wisdom and discernment, the most unbounded confidence in your Majesty's anxious desire to promote the welfare and happiness of your countless subjects, to the very utmost of your Majesty's power.

That your Majesty may long and happily wear the Crown which has now been placed upon your Majesty's head, and that peace and prosperity, in every department of your vast dominions, may conspicuously adorn your Majesty's reign, is our most earnest wish and prayer.

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Devonport, in the county of Devon, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our warm attachment to your Royal Person, and to offer our sincere congratulations on the consummation of that ceremony which has ratified your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

That Accession took place at a period most important in the history of this country—no less so in the domestic annals of this borough. The general progress of reform in the various institutions of the country, which was commenced in the reign of your august Predecessor, has enabled this (amongst other towns, considerable in wealth, population, and commerce), to address the Legislature through representatives of their own election; and has, under your Majesty's sway, been still more practically and beneficially applied for the benefit of this town, by that Royal Charter which has further extended the system of representative government, and now gives us the privilege to approach the Throne to express our devoted loyalty and attachment in a corporate capacity.

We hail, with peculiar satisfaction, the proofs which your Majesty has already given, of a sincere desire not only to improve and ameliorate the political constitution of your country, but to elevate your people in their moral and social relations. We pray that your Majesty may long be spared to us, further to aid the advancement of their mental improvements; that they may learn duly to appreciate the benefits they derive from an enlightened government, and properly and faithfully to discharge their political rights and duties.

We most ardently hope that your Majesty's reign may be happy and prosperous, and that, at its close, your Majesty may reflect, with unalloyed satisfaction, that your perseverance in a just and enlightened policy may have preserved peace and enforced justice—established liberty, and promoted intelligence among the millions over whom your Majesty's sway extends, and that your Majesty's name may descend to posterity as the benefactress, not only of your subjects in particular, but of humanity in general, without distinction of country, race, or colour.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough of Devonport, at the Town-hall of, and within the said borough, this 9th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1838.

Edward St. Aubyn, Mayor.

No. 2.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Clergy, Mayor, Magistrates, Corporation, and others, Inhabitants of the town of Walsall, on the occasion of the Coronation of Her Majesty, VICTORIA the First, QUEEN of Great Britain.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, beg, with all sincerity, to approach your Majesty on the solemn and interesting occasion of your Majesty's Coronation; and we think it essentially our first duty to offer our most fervent prayers that that Almighty Being, by whom Queens reign and Princes decree justice, would shower upon your Majesty the choicest blessings of Heaven, and cause your reign to be long, prosperous, and peaceful.

And whether we look upon the august ceremony of your Majesty's Coronation as a religious or national one, it is alike imposing and interesting to your Majesty's devoted subjects: as a religious ceremony, it binds the Sovereign, by solemn obligations, to rule over the people committed to her charge with all fidelity and love, to guard their liberties, and protect their laws; and, as a national one, we hail it with enthusiastic joy, as every Englishman cannot but be delighted with the pleasing prospect before him, of the Sceptre of this mighty empire being swayed by so fair a Descendant of the House of Brunswick.

We hail, too, with gratitude to the God of Armies, the long continued season of peace at home and abroad; that while surrounding countries have been distracted with civil commotion, and embroiled in bitter and devastating wars, the dove of peace has continued to hover over our happy isle; and while offering to your Majesty, on this momentous occasion, our unfeigned and affectionate congratulations (and feel and would express all that Britons to their Sovereign owe), we trust your Majesty is fully aware of the mighty guard around your Throne, an impenetrable bulwark of British hearts. And we fervently pray, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may continue to flourish in our land; and that your Majesty long, very long, may be spared to rule over a happy and devoted people; and, at last, when compelled to lay aside your earthly crown, may your brow be for ever encircled with the immortal diadem of glory.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA the First.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Protestant Dissenters of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, in public meeting assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, beg to approach your Royal Person on the occasion of your Majesty's Coronation, and to avail ourselves of this interesting opportunity to assure your Majesty, that though in obedience to the dictates of conscience, we secede from the church as established by law, and acknowledge no more human authority in matters purely religious, we yield to none in the ardency of our unwavering attachment to the mixed form of civil government under which, as Britons, we have the happiness to live; and promptly and cordially do we, on the present auspicious occasion, express our unfeigned allegiance to your Majesty as its legitimate head, sincerely hoping that your reign may be one of unprecedented length, prosperity, and happiness.

And we further beg leave respectfully to represent to your Majesty, the high gratification with which we read the gracious declaration contained in your Majesty's Speech to the Privy Council on your Accession to the Throne, to "secure to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and steadily to protect the rights, and promote, to the utmost of your power, the happiness and welfare of all classes of your Majesty's subjects."

Aware that these principles placed your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors on the Throne of these realms, and grateful for the extent to which they have been recognised and adhered to since the glorious revolution of 1688, we cherish the fullest confidence that your Majesty's pledge will be redeemed by their inviolable maintenance throughout your Majesty's reign; and that under your benign auspices they will be more widely diffused throughout every part of your Majesty's dominions; and it is our sincere and heartfelt prayer, that the basis of your Majesty's Throne may be the "fear of God;" and that whenever the period arrives that an account must be rendered of your Majesty's high trust to the Governor of the Universe, you may exchange an earthly for an heavenly kingdom.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting,

Jos. Cowley, Mayor.

The humble Address of the Company of Tanners, in Newcastle-on-Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Members of the ancient and incorporated Company of Tanners, in Newcastle-on-Tyne, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne on the occasion of the august ceremony of your Majesty's Coronation, and to tender our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on that auspicious event.

We desire to present our ardent and sincere wishes for your Majesty's health and welfare; and, bearing in mind the liberties and franchises so long held and enjoyed by us, under your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, it is our fervent prayer to Almighty God, the Father of all Mercies, that your Majesty may wear with glory and happiness the Crown transmitted by your Ancestors; and that you may be spared to reign long and prosperously over a free, loyal, and contented people.

Signed, for and on behalf of the Company, in Hall assembled,

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the British Empire.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Brethren of the Duke of Rutland Lodge, 294, of Loyal and Independent Odd Fellows, meeting at the Sir John Borlase Warren Inn, Ilkeston, Derbyshire, most humbly beg leave, as dutiful and devoted subjects, to present to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation. Although pagentry is not requisite to excite in our breasts the feelings of loyalty to the august daughter of a late much revered and lamented Prince, and of a Princess no less beloved, yet we cannot but rejoice that an opportunity has been afforded to Foreign Princes and Potentates of witnessing so sublime and imposing a spectacle as millions of free and enlightened people, of all ages and ranks in society, paying cheerful and spontaneous homage to a youthful and interesting Queen, the illustrious Monarch of the greatest people, and most powerful empire in the world. That Divine Providence may, in due time, give your Majesty a suitable Partner, to share with your Majesty the cares and honours of the British Crown, for the good of the people, and for the prolonged happiness of your Majesty, and that your Majesty's posterity may, to the latest generations, ever succeed and rival your Majesty in all that is excellent, gracious, and just, is our earnest prayer, as becomes good and faithful subjects.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA,
by the Grace of God of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient royal burgh of Montrose, in Scotland, beg leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to offer the renewed assurances of our devotion to your Person and Government.

We congratulate your Majesty on the happy and auspicious circumstances attending your assumption of the Imperial Crown of these realms, and on the universal expression of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty and your Royal House which that august ceremony has called forth in every part of your extensive dominions.

We have in particular witnessed, with unmingled pleasure, the presence of so many distinguished Representatives from other great nations; and we hail it as an evidence of their wish to preserve with Great Britain those relations of peace and amity which have now subsisted for so many years.

And, as your Majesty's reign commenced in peace with all the world, we fervently pray that it may so continue, to the inestimable advantage of our own native land, to the benefit of the human race, and to the promotion and extension of every art and science that tends to the civilization and improvement of mankind.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, by George Crawford, Esq. our Provost and Chief Magistrate, and the common seal of our burgh is, by our order, hereunto affixed, at Montrose, this 13th day of July 1838.
