

with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the King of Greece, than are levied on Greek vessels:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date hereof, Greek vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same (such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported), shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also, that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Greek vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

St. James's-Palace, July 18, 1838.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levée, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the city of Lichfield.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, beg to approach your Majesty with sentiments of our warmest congratulations on the important and interesting occasion of your Majesty's Coronation.

We beg to assure your Majesty that the spirit of loyalty and affection towards your Majesty's Person, so universally manifested throughout your Majesty's empire, has been expressed by the inhabitants of this ancient city, with a fervour, devotion, and unanimity corresponding to their deep rooted attachment to the Throne of these realms, and the interest excited by the youthful dignity and grace with which your Majesty occupies it.

Nor can we omit assuring your Majesty, that our feelings of attachment to your Royal Person are ever alive to the recollection of the honour conferred on this ancient city, by your Majesty's condescension in having on a former occasion favoured us with your Royal presence.

We entreat your Majesty to accept the assurance, that our earnest and heartfelt prayers will be ever offered to Almighty God, for the long, peaceful, and prosperous continuance of your Majesty's reign; for the preservation of that profound amity at present existing with all foreign powers, and for the promotion of the happiness and prosperity of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

[Presented by John Haworth, Esq. Sheriff.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Bury St. Edmunds, beg humbly to approach your Majesty, with the sincerest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

In offering to your Majesty our hearty congratulations at the manner in which the compact between your Majesty and the people has been sealed and ratified, allow us to express our hopes that the conduct of the great masses of the people, on that occasion, may be looked upon by your Majesty as an unerring test that their loyalty and affection will be best secured and preserved by your Majesty's frequent appearance amongst your subjects, and by a liberal extension of the just rights and privileges of the people.

We rejoice that the principles in which your Majesty has been educated, under the care of an affectionate mother, and already evinced in the earlier acts of your Majesty's reign, afford us a strong assurance that we shall continue to enjoy the blessings which a free and loyal people have a right to experience under a liberal and enlightened Government. And we earnestly implore that, with the blessings of Divine Providence, your Majesty may, in health and with length of years, hold the Sceptre of these realms.

No. 3.

To Her Most Sacred Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese of Australia, intreat permission to offer, in all humility, our congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of the United Kingdom. While we thus obey the dictates of our own consciences, which place our allegiance upon the sure basis of compliance with
