By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the fifth instant, We did ordain, declare, and command, amongst other things, that certain pieces of gold money therein described and called respectively "double sovereigns," "sovereigns," and "half sovereigns," should pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, that is to say, every such double sovereign as of the value of forty shillings of like lawful money, every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings of like lawful money, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings of like lawful money; and whereas it may happen that such pieces of money may not always be of the full weight in Our said Proclamation in that behalf respectively mentioned; now, therefore, to prevent inconvenience to Our loving subjects, We have, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that every such piece of gold money called a double sovereign shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom as of the value of forty shillings, provided it be of the weight of ten pennyweights and five grains, at the least; and that every such piece of gold money called a sovereign shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom as of the value of twenty shillings, provided it be of the weight of five pennyweights and two and a half grains, at the least; and that every such piece of gold money called a half sovereign shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom as of the value of ten shillings, provided it be of the weight of two pennyweights and thirteen grains and one eighth of a grain, at the least; and whereas certain pieces of silver money, called groats or fourpenny pieces, having for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Victoria D. G. Britanniar: Regina F. D." and for the reverse the figure of Britannia, holding the trident in one hand, and having the other hand placed upon a shield impressed with the union cross, and having round the figure the words "four pence," and the date of the year below, with a graining on the edge, as used for His late Majesty's coin, have been coined at Our Mint, after the rates allowed for the standard weights and fineness of Our silver moneys by the Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage; and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm;" and whereas such pieces have been delivered, and will continue to be delivered, from Our Mint, for the use of Our loving subjects; We do, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby ordain, declare, and command, that thesaid pieces of silver money shall, after the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, every such groat or fourpenny piece as of the value of four pence.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, cap. seventy-seven, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage;" His Majesty was authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandize which might be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandize when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders should be issued, satisfactory proof should have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances should be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty George the Fourth, cap. one, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels;" His Majesty was authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as were or might be charged or granted upon, or in respect of, British vessels: provided always, that before any such Order or Orders should be issued, satisfactory proof should have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that vessels of the foreign country in whose favours such permission should be granted, are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of such foreign country than are levied on the entry into such ports upon the vessels of such country:

And whereas a convention of commerce and navigation between Her Majesty and the King of Greece was signed at London, on the fourth day of October last, and the ratifications thereof exchanged, in London, on the eighteenth of January last:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before Her Majesty and Her Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the King of Greece are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported into, or exported from, the said dominions of the King of Greece, in Greek vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the King of Greece, than are levied on Greek vessels :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date hereof, Greek vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same (such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported), shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also, that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Greek vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, July 27, 1838.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Carnarvon, in Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Presence, in order to convey to your Majesty the assurance both of our firm attachment to your Royal Person and House, and of our heartfelt congratulations upon the auspicious occasion of your Majesty's Coronation.

We are thankful that, during several successive generations, these kingdoms have been placed, by Divine Providence, under the mild and beneficent sway of Princes of your Majesty's august family, by whom the power and prosperity, the wealth and greatness of the country have been raised to an eminence which is unexampled in the annals of the world.

May the Supreme Benefactor, the King of kings, shield your Majesty from every danger; prolong your life through many, many years, and cause your happiness, as a Queen, to be constantly growing in the spontaneous love, affection, and confidence of all classes of your admiring and devoted people.

Signed and sealed on behalf of the Council.

John Morgan, Mayor.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN these moments of universal enthusiasm, when every eye is turned towards your Majesty, and every heart thrills with delight, we, the inhabitants of the town of Carnarvon and its neighbourhood, humbly approach your Royal presence to lay at your feet the renewed assurances of our unalterable confidence and affection.

A few days ago, it was our privilege to celebrate the voluntary and solemn interchange of vows between your Majesty and your assembled subjects, the capital then gathered all its beauty and all its chivalry; the most generous sons and the noblest daughters of the realm poured forth to the august festival; and whilst every other part of the empire rang with shouts of exultation, our own romantic mountains took up the joyful sound, and we can assure your Majesty that the people, that people who never forget that they have been honoured with your presence and with the presence of your illustrious Mother among them, were not wanting in the expressions of their gratitude and their attachment.

Convinced as we are that, beneath your Majesty's gentle sway, the laws will be administered in a mild and merciful spirit, and the balance of justice be held with a firm and untrembling hand; we know that your Majesty will make it the cherished object of your care to protect all classes of your subjects in the free exercise of their rights, and to shed around you on every side, the light of peace, and the liberty and happiness, so that Britain may still maintain its precedence in teaching the nations of the earth how to flourish.

Again, most gracious Princess, we pledge ourselves to guard your Throne, with our warmest, our most jealous, most devoted love; we ask of Heaven, in fervent prayer, that a life so inestimable may be protracted to a distant period, and words cannot describe the pleasure with which we dwell upon the hope, that your Majesty's fondest wishes may be more than realized, and that your name may be written on the page of history in characters of imperishable glory.

Signed on behalf of a public meeting of the inhabitants.

John Morgan, Mayor.

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the royal burgh of Wick, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, with our cordial and sincere congratulations on the most auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation; and earnestly to pray, that the Great Disposer of Events, "by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice," may be graciously pleased to grant to your Majesty a long, a prosperous, and a happy reign, over a free, a loyal, and an united people.

Signed in our name, and in our presence, by

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Members of the Penzance Cricket Club, agreed on at a public meeting, held the 28th day of June 1838, in honour of your Majesty's Coronation.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Penzance Cricket Club, humbly beg to offer to your Majesty the assurance of our most devoted loyalty to your Royal Office, and affection for your Royal Person, to offer our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms; and to express the hope, that the solemn compact this day entered into between your Majesty and your faithful people, and completed by the auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation, may endure and be cemented during a long reign of happiness to your Majesty, of glory to the nation, and of wealth and prosperity to all classes of people within your Majesty's extensive dominions.

Juvenile, as we mostly are, we cannot but reflect that your Majesty has been called, by Divine Providence, to rule over this United Kingdom, and the vast dominions thereunto belonging, at an early age of life; and we are, therefore, the more earnest in our prayers that the same Almighty Power which hath appointed you to so great an undertaking will grant you health and strength, and its happy influences, duly to perform the duties of your Majesty's exalted station; and that your reign may be cherished as one peculiarly distinguished by the preservation of all your Majesty's people in wealth, peace, and godliness.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for dividing the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the county and diocese of Durham, into four separate and distinct parishes, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 58th of George the Third, cap. 45:

At the Court at Buckingham-palace, the 15th day of May 1838, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also of the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;"

and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council in the words following, viz:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' and further continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' beg leave to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the county and diocese of Durham, contained a population of 20,524 persons:

"That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1,200 persons, there are three chapels in the said parish, two of which, namely, one in the township of West Rainton, and the other in that of Hetton-le-Hole, have been recently erected by your Majesty's said Commissioners, the former of which affords accommodation for 500 persons, including 400 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor, and the latter for 500 persons, including 343 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor, and the other chapel of Penshaw otherwise Pencher, which affords accommodation to 500 persons, including 388 free seats, your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into four distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that the said parishes should be named, respectively, the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, the parish of West Rainton, the parish of Hetton-le-Hole, and the parish of Penshaw:

"That the said chapel built in the parish of West Rainton, should be the parish church of the said parish of West Rainton; that the said chapel built in the township of Hetton le-Hole, should be the parish church of the said parish of Hetton-le-Hole; and the said chapel of Penshaw, otherwise Pencher, should be the parish church of the said parish of Penshaw; and that the boundaries of the three last-mentioned parishes should be as follows:

"The parish of West Rainton is bounded on the north by the township of Lumley, in the parish of Chester-le-Street, and by the township of Morton Grange otherwise Morton-le-Grange, in the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, and partly by the township of Houghton-le-Spring; and on the south by the parish of Pitlington and the parish of Saint Giles otherwise Gilligate; and is bounded on the east by the township of Hetton-le-Hole and by the township of Houghton-le-Spring, in the parish of Houghton-le-Spring; and on the west by the River Wear. The parish containing the several townships of West Rainton, East Rainton, Morsley Moor House, and Cocken, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured red.

The parish of Hetton le-Hole is bounded on the north by the township of Houghton-le-Spring and Wardenlaw, both in the parish of Houghton-le-Spring; and on the south by the parish of Pitlington, and the parish of Easington; and is bounded on the east side by the parishes of Seaham and Dalton-le-Dale; and on the west side by the township of East Rainton, and the township of Moorsley; and contains the several townships of Hetton-le-Hole, Great Eppleton, and Little Eppleton, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured green.

"The parish of Penshaw, otherwise Pencher, comprises the several townships or constabularies of Burn Moors, formerly Biddic Fence, South Biddic otherwise Biddic Waterville; Penshaw otherwise Pencher, and Offerton, together with two detached parts of the townships or constabularies of West and East Herrington, called or known by the names of West Herrington Waterside, containing some cottage houses, called Low Hetherington, and East Herrington Waterside containing some cottage houses, called Low Marley. It is bounded on or towards the north by the River Wear; on or towards the south by the several townships or constabularies of Morton-le-Grange otherwise Morton House, Newbottle, and West and East Herrington, all of them in the parish of Houghton-le-Spring; on or towards the west by the townships or constabularies of Ford and Silksworth, in the parish of Bishopwearmouth; and on or towards the west by the townships or constabularies of Lambton, in the parish of Chester-le-Street, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto, and therein coloured blue.

"That the whole of the glebe land will remain with, and belong to, the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring. That the tithes and moduses arising within, and belonging to, the minister of the said parish of West Rainton, will be to those arising in and belonging to the minister of the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring, as three hundred and five to one thousand seven hundred and fifty. That the tithes and moduses arising within, and belonging to, the minister of the said new parish of Hetton-le-Hole, will be to those arising in and belonging to the minister of the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring, as two hundred and eighty to one thousand seven hundred and fifty; and that the tithes and moduses arising within, and belonging to, the minister of the said new parish of Penshaw, will be to those arising within and belonging to the minister of the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring, as two hundred and ninety-nine to one thousand seven hundred and fifty.

"That it is estimated that the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues, which will accrue to the incumbent of the said new parish of West Rainton, will be to those accruing to the incumbent of the said remaining parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in about the proportion of one to three. That the value of those which will accrue to the incumbent of the said new parish of Hetton-le-Hole, will be to those accruing to the incumbent of the said remaining parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in about the proportion of three to seven; and that the value of those which will accrue to the incumbent of the said new parish of Penshaw, will be to those accruing to the incumbent of the said remaining parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in about the proportion of four to three.

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham, the diocesan and patron of the said living, has been obtained, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of His Majesty King George the Third; and in testimony of such approbation, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave to lay before your Majesty the above stated circumstances, and to pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty's wisdom shall seem meet: And your Majesty's said Commissioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c."

Given under our common seal, this 18th day of April, in the year of our Lord, 1838.

Signed and sealed, E. Dunelin.

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

NAVIGATION OF THE WEST SWIN.

Trinity-House, London, July 25, 1838.

IN conformity with a notice issued from this House on the 11th instant, two light vessels have been moored, the one upon the Flat of the Mouse Sand, and the other off the Maplin Sand, near the Shears Beacon, on board of which lights are now exhibited, and will be kept burning from sun-set to sun-rise throughout the year; that off the Shears being of a red colour. The positions of these vessels are as follow, the depths of water being those of low water spring tides, and the bearings magnetic:

The Mouse light vessel lies in five fathoms, with
The Black Tail Beacon, W. by N.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N.
Canewdon Church Tower, N. W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N.
The Shears light vessel, N. E. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.
The Nore light vessel, W.

The Shears light vessel lies in  $10\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms, with

The Mouse light vessel, S. W. by W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.

Canewdon Church Tower, N. W. by W.

The Shears Beacon, N. N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E.

The Swin middle light vessel, N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E.

N. B. The northern or inshore anchor of this vessel being laid but 70 fathoms from dry sand, Masters of vessels and others are cautioned not to pass to the northward of the light vessel.

The staff and ball hitherto attached to the Mouse Buoy as a beacon have been taken away, but the buoy remains in the same position.

NAVIGATION OF THE QUEEN'S CHANNEL.

Notice is also given, that the South Knowl Buoy has been removed  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile in a N. E. by N. direction from its late situation; it now lies in  $2\frac{3}{4}$  fathoms, with marks and bearings, as under, viz.

The Two Windmills, eastward of Margate, on with Margate New Church Tower, S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S.

Minster West Windmill, on with a windmill standing northward of it, S. S. E. southerly.
