

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the royal burgh of Wick, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, with our cordial and sincere congratulations on the most auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation; and earnestly to pray, that the Great Disposer of Events, "by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice," may be graciously pleased to grant to your Majesty a long, a prosperous, and a happy reign, over a free, a loyal, and an united people.

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Members of the Penzance Cricket Club, agreed on at a public meeting, held the 28th day of June 1838, in honour of your Majesty's Coronation.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Penzance Cricket Club, humbly beg to offer to your Majesty the assurance of our most devoted loyalty to your Regal Office, and affection for your Royal Person, to offer our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms; and to express the hope, that the solemn compact this day entered into between your Majesty and your faithful people, and completed by the auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation, may endure and be cemented during a long reign of happiness to your Majesty, of glory to the nation, and of wealth and prosperity to all classes of people within your Majesty's extensive dominions.

Juvenile, as we mostly are, we cannot but reflect that your Majesty has been called, by Divine Providence, to rule over this United Kingdom, and the vast dominions thereunto belonging, at an early age of life; and we are, therefore, the more earnest in our prayers that the same Almighty Power which hath appointed you to so great an undertaking will grant you health and strength, and its happy influences, duly to perform the duties of your Majesty's exalted station; and that your reign may be cherished as one peculiarly distinguished by the preservation of all your Majesty's people in wealth, peace, and godliness.

Richard Pearce, President.
