TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1838.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections" it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the county of Chester, assembled at the Court of general quarter sessions of the peace, held at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Mottram in Longendale, in the said county, may be a polling place for the said northern division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Mottram in Longendale shall be a polling place for the said northern division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, cap. seventy-seven, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage;" His Majesty was authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandize which might be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandize when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders should be issued, satisfactory proof should have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances should be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty George the Fourth, cap. one, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council

"for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels;" His Majesty was authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as were or might be charged or granted upon, or in respect of, British vessels: provided always, that before any such Order or Orders should be issued, satisfactory proof should have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that vessels of the foreign country in whose favours such permission should be granted, are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of such foreign country than are levied on the entry into such ports upon the vessels of such country:

And whereas a convention of commerce and navigation between Her Majesty and the King of Greece was signed at London, on the fourth day of October last, and the ratifications thereof exchanged, in London, on the eighteenth of January last:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before Her Majesty and Her Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the King of Greece are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported into, or exported from, the said dominions of the King of Greece, in Greek vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the King of Greece, than are levied on Greek vessels:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date hereof, Greek vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same (such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported), shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also, that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Greek vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the fifth instant, We did ordain, declare, and command, amongst other things, that certain pieces of gold money therein described and called respectively "double sovereigns," "sovereigns," and "half sovereigns," should pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, that is to say, every such double sovereign as of the value of forty shillings of like lawful money, every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings of like lawful money, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings of like lawful money; and whereas it may happen that such pieces of money may not always be of the full weight in Our said Proclamation in that behalf respectively mentioned; now, therefore, to prevent inconvenience to Our loving subjects, We have, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that every such piece of gold money called a double sovereign shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom as of the value of forty shillings, provided it be of the weight of ten pennyweights and five grains, at the least; and that every such piece of gold money called a sovereign shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom as of the value of twenty shillings, provided it be of the weight of five pennyweights and two and a half grains, at the least; and that every such piece of gold money called a half sovereign shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom as of the value of ten shillings, provided it be of the weight of two pennyweights and thirteen grains and one eighth of a grain, at the least; and whereas certain pieces of silver money, called groats or fourpenny pieces, having for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Victoria D. G. Britanniar: Regina F. D." and for the reverse the figure of Britannia, holding the trident in one hand, and having the other hand placed upon a shield impressed with the union cross, and having round the figure the words "four pence," and the date of the year below, with a graining on the edge, as used for His late Majesty's coin, have been coined at Our Mint, after the rates allowed for the standard weights and fineness of Our silver moneys by the Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm;" and whereas such pieces have been delivered, and will continue to be delivered, from Our Mint, for the use of Our loving subjects; We do, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, after the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, every such groat or fourpenny piece as of the value of four pence.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Cole versus Dawson, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in the month of August 1838:

A valuable freehold estate, situate at Dodinghurst, three miles from Brentwood, in the county of Essex, comprising 25 A. of arable and meadow or pasture land, in an excellent state of cultivation, in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Day.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Messrs. Swain, Stevens, and Co., Solicitors, 6, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry, London; Mr. Bennett, Solicitor, Featherstone-buildings, Holborn; Mr. Pitman, Solicitor, Paddington-green, London; Messrs. Pearce and Son, Solicitors, Bedford; Mr. Thornton, Auctioneer, Brentwood; and at the White Hart Inn, Brentwood.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the Blue Coat Girls' School Charity, at Greenwich, in the county of Kent, and in the matter of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled: "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, for giving additional facilities in applications to Courts of Equity regarding the management of estates or funds belonging to charities, and for making certain provisions respecting estates or funds belonging to charities," it was ordered, that it should be referred to the Master of the said Court in rotation, to cause advertisements to be published, in manner therein mentioned, giving notice, that the representative or representatives of the person of the last survivor of the persons who were the trustees or managers of the Blue Coat Girls' School Charity, in Greenwich, in the county of Kent, at the time of the death of Elizabeth Dry, the testatrix in the said Order named, or others, or other persons or person to whom the land and hereditaments therein mentioned might have been last vested in trust for the said charity, should appear, or give notice of his or their title to the said Master; and whereas Elizabeth Dry, formerly of the parish of Greenwich aforesaid, the testatrix in the said Order named, by her will, dated the 12th day of February 1732, devised a piece of freehold land, called Harp's Mead, situate at a place in the said will called Blow Style, in the said parish of Greenwich, with the improvements and buildings upon the same, to such person or persons as should, from time to time, be the trustees or managers of the Blue Coat Girls' School, in the said parish of Greenwich, and to their successors and assigns for ever, in trust, for the benefit of the poor children of the said school as therein mentioned; and whereas it appears by a certain deed poll, dated the 7th day of May 1723, under the hands and seals of George Fuller and Gabriel Garrett, therein respectively described, in the possession of the several persons who now are the trustees or managers of the said charity, called the Blue Coat Girls' School Charity, that John Shish, Esq. Rebecca Shish, Spinster, Margaret Flamstead, Widow, Ann Baxter, Spinster, and Ann Maria Hall, Spinster, all of Greenwich aforesaid, were, at the date of the said deed poll, the trustees or managers of the said charity; and it also appears by a certain other deed poll, dated the 30th day of January 1747, under the hand and seal of the said Ann Baxter, also in the possession of the present trustees or managers of the said charity, that the said Ann Baxter had then survived all her said co-trustees; and whereas the said testatrix, Elizabeth Dry, died in the month of September 1736:—Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that the representative or representatives of the person of the last survivor of such of the said John Shish, Rebecca Shish, Margaret Flamstead, Ann Baxter, and Ann Maria Hall, as were living at the death of the said Elizabeth Dry, or of such other persons as were then the trustees or managers of the said charity, or other or others the person or persons in whom the said land and hereditaments may have been last vested, in trust, for the said charity, is or are, within twenty-eight days from the 16th day of July 1838, to appear before, or give notice of his or their title to, William Wingham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and prove his or their pedigree and title as such trustee or trustees, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Ewart against Norman, the creditors of John Manship Ewart, late of Broome, in the county of Surrey, and of the Beeches, in the county of Sussex, and formerly of Cannon-street, in the city of London, Esq. deceased (who died in April 1834), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Ewart against Norman, the creditors of Catherine Ewart, late of Bloomsbury-square, in the county of Middlesex, Widow, deceased (who died on or about the 6th day of May 1835), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Heiler, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Buswell versus Wilmot, the children of the marriage between James Rose and Sarah his wife, who formerly lived at Isleworth, in the county of Middlesex, or the representatives of such of them as may be dead; also John Rose, a son of the said James Rose by a former marriage, or if dead, his children, or the representatives of such of the children of the said John Rose as may be dead, are forthwith to come in before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out their respective kindred, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Lichfield versus Baker, the creditors of John Baker, late of the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent, Clerk (who died on the 17th day of April 1824), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 30th day of August 1838, to come in and prove their debts before Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Jones versus Watkins, the creditors of Lesley Morgan, late of Lower Stanton, in the parish of Llano-wangel Curcornay, in the county of Monmouth, Yeoman, deceased (who died on the 20th of December 1833), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

MALLESON'S ASSIGNMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Charles Malleison, of Yoxford, in the county of Suffolk, Surgeon, hath by indenture, dated the 25th day of July instant, assigned all his household furniture, goods, debts, and all other personal-estate unto Edward Revans, of Yoxford aforesaid, and James Allen Ransome, of the same place, Ironfounder, upon certain trusts therein mentioned, for the equal benefit of themselves and all the other creditors of the said Charles Malleison, who shall execute the deed of assignment within one calendar month from the date thereof.—And notice is hereby also given, that the said deed of assignment is lying at the Counting-house of the said Edward Revans, for the inspection and signature of the creditors.—Yoxford, July 27, 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Edward Buckwell, of Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Watch-Maker, has by indenture, bearing date the 8th day of June 1838, assigned all his estate and effects to James Hodgson Bidlake, of No. 8, Cliswell-street, in the county of Middlesex, Watch-Maker, for the equal benefit of such of his creditors as shall execute, or otherwise legally accede to, the said indenture; and which deed was executed by the said Edward Buckwell on the day of the date thereof, and by the said James Hodgson Bidlake on the 16th day of the said month of June, in the presence of Charles Cooper, of Brighton aforesaid, Solicitor; and lies at the offices of Messrs. Frederick and Charles Cooper, Solicitors, 49, Ship-street, Brighton aforesaid, for the execution of the said Edward Buckwell; and such creditors as do not forthwith sign, or otherwise legally accede to, such deed will be excluded the benefit thereof.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Joseph Umphelby, of No. 3, Snow-hill, in the city of London, Woollen-Draper, hath by indenture, bearing date the 21st day of July instant, assigned all his stock in trade, household furniture, debts, and all other his personal estate and effects unto Roger Dawson, of Newgate-street, in the said city, Woollen-Draper, William Lucas Scarratt, of Milk-street, in the said city, Woollen-Draper, and Robert John Philip Jaquet, of Clare-court, Drury-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Tavern-Keeper, upon trust, for the equal benefit of themselves and all the other creditors of the said Joseph Umphelby who shall execute the said assignment, within six months from the date thereof; and the said indenture was duly executed by the said Joseph Umphelby on the said 21st day of July instant, and by the said Roger Dawson, William Lucas Scarratt, and Robert John Philip Jaquet on the 25th day of July instant; and the execution of the same indenture by each of those persons respectively was attested by Edward Bousfield, of Guildhall-buildings, in the city of London, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture or deed of assignment is lodged at the offices of the said Edward Bousfield, in Guildhall-buildings aforesaid, for the execution of the creditors of the said Joseph Umphelby, within six months from the date thereof; and that such of the creditors who neglect to execute the said deed within that period, will be excluded all benefit therefrom.—Dated the 27th day of July 1838.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Hugo, of the borough of Truro, in the county of Cornwall, Malster, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet on Friday the 17th of August next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at Pearce's Hotel, in the borough of Truro, in order to decide upon accepting or refusing such offer of composition as was made to the creditors assembled at a meeting, held at Pearce's Hotel aforesaid, on the 29th day of May, last, by the said Samuel Hugo, and his friends.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Cooke, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 22d day of August next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing, out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, the costs and expences incurred in preparing, and in and about, or by or under the authority of, a certain indenture of assignment, bearing date the 27th day of April last, whereby the said bankrupt assigned all his estate and effects to certain trustees therein named; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees settling and agreeing with the said trustees all matters and account incident to or under the said deed of assignment, in such manner as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging all rates, taxes, rents, or servants' wages, and other outgoings now due and payable from the said bankrupt's estate; and also to the said assignees commencing and prosecuting an action or actions at law against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of certain moneys received by such persons in preference to the other creditors of the said bankrupt, under a certain composition deed, bearing date the 1st day of July 1837; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the said bankrupt, or any person or persons as they may think proper, to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to the said assignees making to such person or persons allowance and compensation for his or their services, as the said assignees shall think fit and reasonable; and also to sanction all such acts, matters, and things as the said assignees shall and may do, or have done, prior or subsequent to the said meeting, in and about or concerning the said bankrupt's estate or trade and business; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of or concerning any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws

"relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 30th day of July 1838, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

JAMES MHLER, of No. 140, Drury-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Stationer, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 31st day of July 1838, by JOHN FARRANT, of the parish of Mereworth, in the county of Kent, Grocer and Draper, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 28th day of March 1838, was awarded and issued forth against David Ward, late of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Iron-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, annulled.
