

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1838.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS on the twenty-second day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, an Ordinance for the better regulation and enforcement of the relative duties of masters, employers, and articted servants, tradesmen, and labourers, in British Guiana, was enacted by the then Lieutenant-Governor of the said colony, by and with the advice of the Court of Policy thereof; and whereas on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, His late Majesty King William the Fourth, by a certain Order in Council of that date, made various provisions for the amendment of the said recited Ordinance, and did Order, that so much of the said Ordinance as was in any manner repugnant or opposed to the provisions aforesaid, or any of them, should be, and the same was, thereby disallowed; and that, save as aforesaid, the said Ordinance should be, and the same was, thereby confirmed and allowed, and finally enacted; and whereas on the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, Her Majesty did make a certain Order in Council of that date, whereby provision was made for the amendment, in certain respects, of the said Order in Council of the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and whereas on the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, Her Majesty did make a certain other Order in Council of that date, whereby provision was made for the further amendment of the said Order in Council of the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and whereas it is expedient that, subject to the exceptions hereinafter-mentioned, the said recited Ordinance, and the said several Orders in Council, should be repealed and revoked, it is, therefore, hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, save as hereinafter is excepted, the said recited Ordinance of the twenty-second day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and the said recited Orders in Council of the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, of the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and of the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, shall be, and the same are, hereby repealed and revoked; provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to annul or alter any contracts which, before the arrival of this present Order within the said colony, shall have been entered into in pursuance and under the authority of the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council, or any of them, and that, during the continuance of any such antecedent contracts, the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council shall, in reference to such contracts, and to the parties who have entered into the same, remain in full force :

And whereas, under the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council, certain powers were vested in the justices of the peace holding special commissions under the Act of Parliament for the abolition of slavery ; and whereas, by the abolition of the term of apprenticeship created by the said Act before the timethereinlimited for that purpose, the said special commissions may cease and determine during the continuance of the contracts before mentioned, or some of them ; it is, therefore, hereby ordered, that, in respect of the contracts which, before the arrival of this present Order within the said colony, shall have been entered into, in pursuance and under the authority of the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council, or any of them, and in respect of the parties to any such contracts, the powers and jurisdiction by the said Ordinance and Orders in Council vested in the magistrates having such special commissions as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby, vested in any stipendiary magistrates appointed, or to be appointed, for the said colony, or for any district or districts thereof, by Her Majesty, or on Her Majesty's behalf, by the governor, or officer for the time being administering the government thereof :

And it is hereby ordered, that, on the arrival of this present Order within the said colony, the governor, or the officer for the time being administering the government thereof, shall, and he is hereby required to issue a Proclamation, reciting at length this present Order, and stating the day of the month and year on which the same was received by him, and, upon and from such Proclamation, this present Order shall have the force and effect of law within the said colony :

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the laws in force in the colonies of British Guiana, Trinidad, Saint Lucia, the Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius, contracts for service in agriculture, or in the manufacture of colonial produce to be performed within the said colonies respectively, have been, and may be made with persons not being at the time of entering into such contracts within the limits of the colony, within which such service is to be performed, and, it is expedient that the law of the said colonies respectively should be amended in that behalf ; it is, therefore, ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, from and after the arrival of this present Order within any of the said colonies, all contracts which may at any time thereafter be made for the performance within the same of any service or labour in agriculture, or in or about the manufacture of any colonial produce, shall within such colony be, and be taken, by all courts, judges, justices, magistrates, and others therein, to be null and void and of no effect, unless the person or persons thereby contracting to perform any such service or work shall at the time of entering into any such contract have been within the limits, and upon the land of the colony within which such service or labour is to be performed by him, her, or them :

And whereas it may be necessary hereafter to make and establish regulations for and in respect of contracts to be made within the limits of the respective colonies, for the performance of such service or labour as aforesaid, it is, therefore, hereby ordered and declared, that any such contracts as shall hereafter be made for that purpose within the said respective colonies, shall be subject to all such rules and conditions as shall hereafter be imposed by law upon the parties entering into the same :

And, for the prevention of all doubt as to the time of the arrival within the said colonies respectively of this present Order, the respective governors, or officers for the time being administering the government thereof respectively, shall, and they are hereby respectively required to, issue Proclamations, reciting at length this present Order, and stating the days of the months and years respectively in which the same was received by them respectively, and upon and from the day so stated in such Proclamation respectively, this present Order shall have the force and effect of law within the said respective colonies :

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections" it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the county of Chester, assembled at the Court of general quarter sessions of the peace, held at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Mottram in Longdendale, in the said county, may be a polling place for the said northern division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Mottram in Longdendale shall be a polling place for the said northern division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

Westminster, July 31, 1838.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to Admiralty, August 2, 1838.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter 65, intituled "An Act to enable the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, to acquire certain lands at Woolwich, in the county of Kent, for better securing His Majesty's docks there, and for the improvement of the same," the said Commissioners do hereby give notice, that they have determined that it is not necessary to purchase, take, or use, for the purposes of the said Act, any more of the wharfs, lands, and hereditaments, described in the second section of the said Act, and thereby vested in the said Commissioners, for the purposes aforesaid; but that it is their intention to cause the necessary works to be executed for deepening the water along the southern shore of the River Thames, in front of the Wharf wall, between Her Majesty's Dock-yard and the west end of the wharf called Long's Wharf; and likewise to cause the line of the river wall or embankment along the said shore, to the westward of the same wharf, to be altered, and the obstructions there existing to be removed, in the manner, and to the extent or distance described in, and authorised by, the 27th section of the said Act. C. Wood.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Wesleyan Chapel, situated at Coppice-lane, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of Wilts, in the district of the Bradford Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of July 1838, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 30th day of July 1838,

William Timbrell, Superintendent Registrar.

Office of Ordnance, July 20, 1838.

THE Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they are ready to dispose of, to such persons as may be willing to tender for the same, a quantity of Brookhill Estate in Upper Hallam, and Valuable Leasehold Estates in Sheffield.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Bardwell and Son, at their Auction room, Haymarket, Sheffield, on Tuesday the 4th day of September next, at six o'clock in the evening, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a fiat in bankruptcy awarded and issued against John Sykes Bramhall, of the city of Bristol, Cutler and Hardwareman, Dealer and Chapman, a bankrupt, and subject to such conditions as will then and there be produced;

Lot 1. All that valuable freehold and tythe-free estate, called Brookhill, situate in the township of Upper Hallam, in the parish of Sheffield, in the centre of the grouse preserves of the Duke of Norfolk, consisting of a large and commodious messuage and public-house, and extensive farm buildings, with upwards of sixty-nine acres of rich valuable land, divided into fourteen closes, in the occupation of Mr. Samuel Landley.

This estate is well adapted and has considerable advantages for a dairy farm, and affords a favourable opportunity to an active individual of combining with the management of a farm the lucrative business of a licenced victualler. The large reservoir belonging to the Sheffield Water-works Company extends along the whole of the south front of the estate, and adds considerably to the beauty of the delightful scenery which surrounds this lot.

Lot 2. All that very valuable and substantially built warehouse and counting-house, and extensive cellaring and chambers, gig-house, workshops, with chambers over the same; and also a good dwelling-house and large entire yard, with folding gates, situate in, and having an extensive frontage to, Solly-street and Weldon-street, in Sheffield, late in the occupation of the said John Sykes Bramhall.

The premises in this lot are well built, in excellent condition, and fitted up with all necessary fixtures.

The site contains 415 superficial square yards of land, and is held by lease, under the Church Burgesses, for a term of 99 years, commencing from the 29th September 1810, at the annual ground rent of £1 14s. 6d.

Lot 3. All those four leasehold dwelling houses, two whereof front to Solly-street, in Sheffield aforesaid, and two adjoins at the back of the same, with spacious yards and conveniences attached, in the several occupations of Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Wainburton, Joseph Shaw, and Charles Rogers. The ground plot containing 290 yards of land, and is held by lease, under the Church Burgesses, for a term of 99 years, commencing from the 29th September 1805, at the annual ground rent of £1 5s. 0d.

Lot 4. Two dwelling houses, fronting to Solly-street aforesaid, and numbered respectively 55 and 56, having a chamber and garret over the carriage-road, and leading from Solly-street to Edward-street, together with three excellent workshops, spacious yard, and other conveniences, in the occupation of George Stag and John Taylor.

The site of this lot contains 325 yards of land, including one half of the adjoining land, and is held by lease, under the Church Burgesses, for a term of 99 years, commencing from the 29th September 1794, at the annual rent of £1 7s. 0d.

Lot 5. Several leasehold workshops and ground, held under the Church Burgesses, at an annual rent of £2 6s. 0d. and fronting to Edward-street aforesaid, in the occupation of Joseph Shaw and Charles Rogers.

A considerable part of this ground is yet unbuilt upon.

The tenants will shew the premises; and for further particulars application may be made to the Auctioneers; to Messrs. Bevan and Brittan, Solicitors, Bristol; or to Messrs. Rogers and Son, Solicitors, Sheffield.
