East India-House, August 1, 1838.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the rate of exchange at which they will receive cash for bills on Bengal will, from the present date, and until further notice, be 1s 11½d. the Company's rupee; and for bills upon Madras and Bombay, 2s. the Company's rupee.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

East India-House, August 1, 1838.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That as the measures contemplated by Parliament, for the protection of the natives of India who may be induced to enter into contract to serve as labourers in the Mauritius and other British colonies, cannot be completed in the present session, the said Court have issued instructions to their Governor General of India, in Council, to promulgate a law, prohibiting, until further orders, all contracts with native labourers to serve in the British or foreign colonies, and preventing the emigration of the natives of India for the purpose of being so employed.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

British Linen Company's Bank, Edinburgh, July 30, 1838.

THE Directors of the British Linen Company hereby give notice, that a Quarterly General Court of Proprietors will be held within their Office here, on Monday the 3d of September next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in terms of their charter.

Alexander Goodsir, Secretary.
