

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1838.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 9th day of August 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division, in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places, for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of "Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of peace acting in and for the county of Gloucester, assembled at the Trinity general quarter sessions of the peace holden at the Shire-hall, in Gloucester, in and for the said county, on the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the county of Gloucester is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Bisley may be a polling place for the said eastern division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Bisley shall be a polling place for the said eastern division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said eastern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS on the twenty-second day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, an Ordinance for the better regulation and enforcement of the relative duties of masters, employers, and articted servants, tradesmen, and labourers, in British Guiana, was enacted by the then Lieutenant-Governor of the said colony, by and with the advice of the Court of Policy thereof; and whereas on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, His late Majesty King William the Fourth, by a certain Order in Council of that date, made various provisions for the amendment of the said recited Ordinance, and did Order, that so much of the said Ordinance as was in any manner repugnant or opposed to the provisions aforesaid, or any of them, should be, and the same was, thereby disallowed; and that, save as aforesaid, the said Ordinance should be, and the same was, thereby confirmed and allowed, and finally enacted; and whereas on the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, Her Majesty did make a certain Order in Council of that date, whereby provision was made for the amendment, in certain respects, of the said Order in Council of the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and whereas on the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, Her Majesty did make a certain other Order in Council of that date, whereby provision was made for the further amendment of the said Order in Council of the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and whereas it is expedient that, subject to the exceptions hereinafter-mentioned, the said recited Ordinance, and the said several Orders in Council, should be repealed and revoked, it is, therefore, hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, save as hereinafter is excepted, the said recited Ordinance of the twenty-second day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and the said recited Orders in Council of the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, of the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and of the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, shall be, and the same are, hereby repealed and revoked; provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to annull or alter any contracts which, before the arrival of this present Order within the said colony, shall have been entered into in pursuance and under the authority of the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council, or any of them, and that, during the continuance of any such antecedent contracts, the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council shall, in reference to such contracts, and to the parties who have entered into the same, remain in full force:

And whereas, under the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council, certain powers were vested in the justices of the peace holding special commissions under the Act of Parliament for the abolition of slavery; and whereas, by the abolition of the term of apprenticeship created by the said Act before the timethereinlimited for that purpose, the said special commissions may cease and determine during the continuance of the contracts before mentioned, or some of them; it is, therefore, hereby ordered, that, in respect of the contracts which, before the arrival of this present Order within the said colony, shall have been entered into, in pursuance and under the authority of the said recited Ordinance and Orders in Council, or any of them, and in respect of the parties to any such contracts, the powers and jurisdiction by the said Ordinance and Orders in Council vested in the magistrates having such special commissions as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby, vested in any stipendiary magistrates appointed, or to be appointed, for the said colony, or for any district or districts thereof, by Her Majesty, or on Her Majesty's behalf, by the governor, or officer for the time being administering the government thereof:

And it is hereby ordered, that, on the arrival of this present Order within the said colony, the governor, or the officer for the time being administering the government thereof, shall, and he is hereby required to issue a Proclamation, reciting at length this present Order, and stating the day of the month and year on which the same was received by him, and, upon and from such Proclamation, this present Order shall have the force and effect of law within the said colony:

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of

Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the laws in force in the colonies of British Guiana, Trinidad, Saint Lucia, the Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius, contracts for service in agriculture, or in the manufacture of colonial produce to be performed within the said colonies respectively, have been, and may be made with persons not being at the time of entering into such contracts within the limits of the colony, within which such service is to be performed, and it is expedient that the law of the said colonies respectively should be amended in that behalf; it is, therefore, ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, from and after the arrival of this present Order within any of the said colonies, all contracts which may at any time thereafter be made for the performance within the same of any service or labour in agriculture, or in or about the manufacture of any colonial produce, shall within such colony be, and be taken, by all courts, judges, justices, magistrates, and others therein, to be null and void and of no effect, unless the person or persons thereby contracting to perform any such service or work shall at the time of entering into any such contract have been within the limits, and upon the land of the colony within which such service or labour is to be performed by him, her, or them:

And whereas it may be necessary hereafter to make and establish regulations for and in respect of contracts to be made within the limits of the respective colonies, for the performance of such service or labour as aforesaid, it is, therefore, hereby ordered and declared, that any such contracts as shall hereafter be made for that purpose within the said respective colonies, shall be subject to all such rules and conditions as shall hereafter be imposed by law upon the parties entering into the same:

And, for the prevention of all doubt as to the time of the arrival within the said colonies respectively of this present Order, the respective governors, or officers for the time being administering the government thereof respectively, shall, and they are hereby respectively required to, issue Proclamations, reciting at length this present Order, and stating the days of the months and years respectively in which the same was received by them respectively, and upon and from the day so stated in such Proclamation respectively, this present Order shall have the force and effect of law within the said respective colonies:

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly:

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections" it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the county of Chester, assembled at the Court of general quarter sessions of the peace, held at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Mottram in Longdendale, in the said county, may be a polling place for the said northern division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Mottram in Longdendale shall be a polling place for the said northern division ; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, cap. seventy-seven, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage;" His Majesty was authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandize which might be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandize when imported or exported in British vessels ; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders should be issued, satisfactory proof should have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances should be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported or exported in vessels of such country :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty George the Fourth, cap. one, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels ; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels;" His Majesty was authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as were or might be charged or granted upon, or in respect of, British vessels : provided always, that before any such Order or Orders should be issued, satisfactory proof should have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that vessels of the foreign country in whose favours such permission should be granted, are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of such foreign country than are levied on the entry into such ports upon the vessels of such country :

And whereas a convention of commerce and navigation: between Her Majesty and the King of Greece was signed at London, on the fourth day of October last, and the ratifications thereof exchanged, in London, on the eighteenth of January last:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before Her Majesty and Her Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the King of Greece are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported into, or exported from, the said dominions of the King of Greece, in Greek vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the King of Greece, than are levied on Greek vessels:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date hereof, Greek vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same (such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported), shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also, that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Greek vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 4, 1838.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 20th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 5000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 10,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1839, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling;" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

SALE OF HER MAJESTY'S SHIPS.

JAMES BORTHWICK, Accountant, in Edinburgh, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Henry Stephens, hereby requests a general meeting of the creditors, to be held within Merchant's Inn, Dundee, on Friday the 31st day of August current, at one o'clock in the afternoon, to take into consideration certain claims, still outstanding, due to said estate, and to instruct the trustee as to the recovery or disposal thereof, with a view to the estate being finally wound up.

THE COURT FOR RELIEF OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS.

N. B.—See the Notice at the end of this Advertisement.

The Matter of the PETITION and SCHEDULE of the PRISONER hereinafter named (the same having been filed in the Court) is appointed to be heard at the Court-House, in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, on Friday the 17th day of August 1838, at Nine o'Clock in the Forenoon.

Adjourned.

George Brown, late of Bromell's-road, Clapham, Surrey, Hair-Dresser, Eating House-Keeper, and Dealer in Milk.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon; three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4. c. 57. sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
