At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that it should be declared that the Scilly Islands are within the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Exeter, and of the Archdeacon of Cornwall; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the therein-before recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesias"tical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the bishopric of Exeter.

We humbly recommend and propose, that, from and after the next avoidance of the said see of Exeter, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Exeter for the time being, to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, to the bishop then succeeding to the said see, and his successors, bishops of Exeter, for the time being, the fixed annual sum of three thousand four hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments; the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Exeter shall happen on any other day than the half yearly day of payment, so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may, for a time, exceed the amount thereof; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Exeter, for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid, during the same half year, within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid; during such half year, and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and any such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us, or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that it be declared by this scheme, and any Order which your Majesty in Council may be pleased to make for ratifying the same, that the Scilly Islands are within the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Exeter, and the Archdeacon of Cornwall, for the time being, respectively.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures, relating to the said see of Exeter, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order, be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

It is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for further carrying into effect that part of the said Act which directs that, out of the property of the see of Durham, provision should be made for the completion of those augmentations of poor benefices which the late William Bishop of Durham had agreed to grant, but which he left uncompleted at the time of his death:

We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account at the Bank of England, applicable to such purpose, according to the provisions of the said Act, by equal half yearly payments, on the twenty-second day of February and the twenty-second day of August in every year, the several fixed annual sums to the respective persons hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, to the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Satley, in the county and diocese of Durham, and in the patronage of the Bishop of Durham, the annual sum of forty-six pounds; to the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Medomsley, in the same county, diocese, and patronage, the annual sum of ninety pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the district church of the Holy Trinity, in the parish of Stockton-upon-Tees, in the same county, diocese, and patronage, the annual sum of three hundred pounds, the conditions upon which the said late bishop had agreed to grant the last mentioned annual sum having been completed on the twenty-second day of February last; and that the first:

of such payments be made, in each case, on the twenty-second day of August next, and that there be also forthwith paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the present incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Satcley, the sum of ninety-two pounds, being the arrears of the said annual sum of forty-six pounds from the day of the death of the said late Bishop of Durham to the twenty-second day of February last.

And we further recommend and propose, that whenever a vacancy in either of the said perpetual curacies, or in the said district church, shall happen on any other day than one of the days so as aforesaid, respectively, appointed for a half yearly payment, the next half yearly payment shall in any such case be apportioned between the incumbent making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the vacant perpetual curacy, or district church, as the case may be, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

At the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of July 1838, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also of the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is, by the 21st section of the said Act, further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council in the words following, viz:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' and further continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. Sidwell, in the county of the city of Exeter, and diocese of Exeter, contained a population of 6602 persons, which has since considerably increased.

"That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 900 persons, there is one chapel recently erected in the said parish, called St. James's Church, which affords accommodation to 1200 persons, including 600 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into two ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that one of the said districts should be assigned to the said chapel called St. James's Church, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving the said chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the district attached to the said chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named the St. James's District, with boundaries as follows:

"The boundary to commence at the northern extremity of the parish of St. Sidwell, at Mary Pole Head turnpike gate, and then proceed south along the Mary Pole Head road (which road forms the boundary between the parishes of St. Sidwell and St. David) as far as a footpath leading to Cistern Field-place, in the parish of St. Sidwell; then east, along the centre of that path, as far as Bridgebrook; then south, along the centre of that brook, as far as the lands belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter; then east, along the northern boundary of such last mentioned lands, as far as Well-lane; then south, down the centre of Well-lane, including all the east side thereof as far as York-street; then south east, down the centre of that street and Summerland-street, including all the north east side thereof, as far as Lanner's-lane; then north east, up the centre of that lane and Clifton roads, including the north western side thereof, as far as Clifton-place; and then northerly, along the road from Clifton-place to Black Boy turnpike gate; and then by the road from that gate to the Old Culhampton gate, passing St. Sidwell's Pound by New's Barn-lane to Mary Pole Head gate (such last mentioned roads forming the boundary that divides the parish of St. Sidwell from the parish of Heavitree), as is more particularly delineated in the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured green.

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Exeter has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in testimony of such approbation, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the above-stated circumstances, and to pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty's royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation together with the map thereunto annexed, in consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and in that order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

LAND and SALMON FISHINGS at FORT GEORGE, for Sale by private Bargain.

Office of Ordnance, August 20, 1838.

ALL and whole that portion of the Government land attached to Fort George beyond the boundary line, at the distance of 1000 yards from the salient angle of the fort, extending to 549 acres, or thereby; of which 166 acres are arable, and 383 acres pasture, gravel, and sand; with the salmon fishing along the coast of said lands.

The greater part of the arable land consists of a soil of fine vegetable mould of considerable depth, and is capable of growing grain crops of the finest quality, besides being well adapted for the turnip husbandry.

The situation of this property is equally convenient and desirable. It possesses about one mile and three quarters of a mile of sea coast, with the right of erecting salmon stake nets thereon, the shipping beach of Campbellton being a part of the same, and its western boundary (separating it from the garrison ground) is within a very short distance of the fort, where a ready market can always be had for every kind of farm produce.

The land and salmon fishing are at present out of lease.

Part of the land adjoining the village of Campbellton is well adapted for feuing, and may be disposed of to great advantage.

There are no public or parochial burdens affecting the lands.

Sealed tenders will be received till the 15th day of September next, by the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, Pall-mall, London; by Lieutenant-Colonel Blanchard, Commanding Royal Engineer, North Britain; or by William Waddell, W. S. Edinburgh, Solicitor to the Board of Ordnance, who is in possession of the title deeds and conditions of sale upon which tenders require to be made. The conditions of sale may also be seen on application as above.

By order of the Board of Ordnance,
R. Byham, Secretary.
